ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought, neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

and kindred materials so desirable with the womer folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

Reinforcements for the Russians.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—Decided anxiety is felt here regarding the fate of the army in Manchuria under its new commander, no news of military developments the last two days having been received here. General Linevitch, however, will have a considerable accession of fresh troops in a day or two, the Fourth European corps being now at Harbin and departing southward. Military officials here declare that there are now 268,000 men at General Linevitch's disposal in Manchuria and it is believed that this force will be sufficient to cause the Japanese to exercise greater caution in their pursuit.

Prince Hilkooff, who will leave St. Petersburg soon to prepare the Siberian railway for forwarding the new levies which have been determined upon, said yesterday that there had been no break down as yet and that he hoped as soon as navigation opened it would be possible to transport one fourth of the outgoing soldiers by the rivers and relieve the railroad to that extent.

Fire at Freemont.

Freemont, N. C., March 17.—Fire early this morning did considerable damage to the store and stock of A. H. Jarman and the printing plant of the Wayne county Courier, which occupied the upper story of the building. The fire originated in a closet under the staircase, and is supposed to have burned all night, but did not make much headway until a hole was burned through the floor and gave it air.
The damage to the building is about $700, stock $3,000. The Courier's loss consisted mostly of type, which was melted. This loss will reach $400. Mr. Craven informs your correspondent, however, that an issue of the paper will not be missed.—Raleigh News and Observer.

At the Christian Church.

At the Christian church tomorrow the order of services will be as follows:

Sunday school, 10 a. m. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30 p. m. which will close at 7 in order that all may have an opportunity to attend the revival meeting at the Baptist church.
There will be no preaching service at night. H. H. Moore, pastor.

Pleasure Park.

L. C. Arthur and D. C. James will locate a pleasure park just south of town. There will be a base ball ground and grand stand and a dancing pavilion. The ground will be lighted by electricity.

Young Man.

You are cordially invited to attend the Baraca services tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock at Memorial Baptist church.
Z. P. Vandyke, Pres.

Let every member of the Baraca class be at his post tomorrow.
Z. P. Vandyke, Pres.

THE MEETING.

Three Services Will Be Held Sunday.

"He that is not for Me, is against Me." Friday night Mr. Jenkins preached another heart-searching sermon in the Baptist church. The subject discussed was "Choice," using as a text, "Choose ye this day whom you will serve." He emphasized the fact of personal responsibility. Every individual must choose one of two masters, one of two kingdoms, one of two kinds of service. He that is not for God is against God.

This morning the service was exceedingly helpful. For one hour the interested congregation listened with undivided attention to the earnest words of Wilson's gifted pastor. After the sermon several expressed a desire to give up sin and to be used of God for His Glory.

Tonight at 7:30 Mr. Jenkins will speak to the unconverted. May God help every unconverted soul in Greenville to make an earnest effort to hear the Gospel preached and accept God's mercy before it is everlastingly too late.

There will be three services in the Baptist church Sunday. In addition to the usual morning and evening service, Mr. Jenkins will address the young people of the town at 3:30, p. m. Adults are also invited but the service is primarily for the young.

Come expecting and praying for a great blessing tonight. Service begins promptly at 7:30.

CHURCH SERVICE.

Where You Can Worship Sunday.

Baptist church—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. J. T. Jenkins. The Baraca and Philathia classes will meet at 9:30. Rev. Mr. Jenkins will also address the young people of the town under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U. at 3:30, p. m.

Episcopal church—Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. W. E. Cox.

Presbyterian church—Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. F. G. Hattman with special communion service.

Christian church—Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. H. H. Moore.

Free Will Baptist church—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. S. B. Stephens.

No Lights Yet.

Everything about the water and electric light plants was thought to be in readiness for work and it was intended that the current would be turned on tonight and test the dynamos and lights. It was found, however, that the firm who furnished the belts to drive the dynamos had made a mistake in having them about three feet too short. This will cause a delay on the lights until the error can be remedied. The water plant is in shape and the pumps were put to work today.

Gone to Florida

H. M. Jones, who has for some time held a position at Wooten's drug store, left this morning for Tampa, Fla., to take a position in a drug store there. He has been troubled with asthma and wants to try the climate further South. Harvey Jones is one of our best boys, and his many friends wish him every success.

THE WEATHER

Fair warmer tonight. Sunday rain.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Mar. 18.

J. C. Cooper left Thursday for Roanoke Rapids to attend the funeral of his sister.

J. R. Johnson and family went to Grifton to attend the funeral of his brother, Frank Johnson, who died in Rocky Mount.

Mrs. J. W. Sparks and children, who have been visiting relatives in New Bern, returned Thursday. Felix Pitmar, of Kinston, was here one day this week.

Mrs. Seymour, who has been visiting relatives near here, left for home Thursday.

We counted 110 bales of cotton on the railroad platform Friday. Eight cents brought it in sight. At the same time the depot was full of cotton planters, guano sowers and back bands made by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., and wash boards made by the Winterville Mfg. Co. But these two concerns make big shipments of their goods every day.

Charlie and Frank James, former W. H. S. students, were here to the debate last night.

Elder Fred McGlohon left for the quarterly meeting at Hickory Grove this morning.

Misses Lucy Manning, of Bethel and Caddie Warren, of Robersonville, returned to their homes this morning.

When President Jeter Jackson dropped his gavel, and Secretary J. H. Fry had called the roll, on Friday night the chapel of the W. H. S. was filled with those eager to hear the debate between Fountain Cox and Major Manning on the affirmative, and G. C. Buck and T. F. Taylor on the negative. The subject was "Resolved that the negro should be colonized." The speeches all showed much study and were well delivered. The rejoinders were full of wit and humor and to the point. After hearing the whole debate the committee consisting of Messrs. W. C. Vincent, L. L. Kittrell and D. S. Chapman decided in favor of the negative.

L. L. McGlohon and L. L. Kittrell went to Greenville Thursday.

Geo. Dixon, of Washington, spent a while here one day this week.

Dr. Whitfield, of Grifton, was here Friday.

D. T. House, of Greenville, was here the 16th.

J. T. Grisham, of Wilmington, was in Winterville Friday.

A. M. Mosley, of Ayden, was in town buying cotton Friday.

Miss Lena Dawson, of Grifton, was visiting friends here yesterday.

Comprehensive Glance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were passengers on an elevated train.

It whizzed by a house that was brilliantly lighted.

"I wonder what was going on there?" ejaculated Mr. Ferguson.

"It was a wedding," replied his wife. "Didn't you see them standing before the preacher? He was in a white gown. The groom was in full evening suit. The bride wore a robe of chiffon cloth, with hertha and yoke of duchesse lace on the bodice and lace flounce on the skirt. She had a full length tulle veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Where were your eyes?"

Mr. Ferguson, realizing his utter worthlessness, resumed the reading of his paper and said nothing.—Concord Times.

Hon. E. W. Pou to Speak

Congressman E. W. Pou, of Smithfield, has accepted an invitation to deliver the address at the close of Greenville graded school on May 19th. Mr. Pou is an eloquent speaker and a rich treat is in store for our people.

The Russians express confidence that they will yet win, but we fail to see what they base their hope of victory upon.

Wonder what our northern friends have got to say this time. A Charlotte business man closed his store and hung a badge of mourning on the door with a notice announcing the reason therefor, while the funeral services of a faithful colored employe were being held.

A BEAUTIFUL MEDAL OF THE WORLDS FAIR.

The question is often asked what medals compose the gold coin of the U. S. The double eagle or $20 gold coin contains 516 grains in weight, all other U. S. coins are 900 parts fine gold, 100 parts copper, in 1000 parts. Copper is always used as the alloy for coinage of gold, it makes the metal more malleable and gives the product a more desirable color lustral. The silver coins of the U. S. government are 900 fine. In the treasury department of the government exhibit of the U. S. mint at the Worlds Fair at St. Louis, the manner of coining gold and silver coins were demonstrated in the government building. A section of the mint was temporarily removed to the fair grounds, and medals souvereign of copper, gold and silver were coined in the presence of visitors.

The medal was a thing of beauty the size of a $20 gold piece having on one side the medallion heads of Napoleon and Jefferson, the purchaser and seller, of the Louisiana purchase. On the other side is a perfect map of the new territory from the Gulf of Mexico to Pacific ocean, in raised letters, around the circle of the medal are these words, Louisiana Purchase 1803, one million square miles, fifteen million dollars St. Louis, Mo., 1904. These medals were coined and sold on the Fair ground as souvenirs to visitors. In workmanship, and artistic taste, they were not excelled by anything of the kind at the Fair. The work was under the direction of Mr. A. W. Downing from the Philadelphia Mint, who has been employed in the U. S. Mint, for more than forty years. His long and faithful services to the government, has been well established by the confidence imposed in him by treasury officials in giving him important assignments to exhibit and explain the coinage system of the U. S. government by object lessons at such places as International expositions.

Mr. Downing is a gentleman of abundant and well cultured intellect. He takes pleasure in explaining every part of the operation of coinage, so that the small boy and girl leaves the exhibit with their youthful minds stored with useful knowledge. Mr. Downing will have charge of the government mint exhibit at the Lewis and Clark centennial.

The name of Sidney Lanier, the American poet, who died almost as sadly as did the English Keats, was unknown until it first appeared in Lippincott's Magazine. It is therefore fitting that some charming and informing letters, which have never yet seen the light, should be published first in the same periodical for March. They are edited with "Recollections" by Milton Harlow Northrup.—Ex.

W. H. S. DEBATE.

Judges Decide for the Negative.

Winterville, N. C., March 18, 1905

Last night the Vance Literary Society gave its public debate on the colonization of the negroes, and a large crowd was present to hear it.

The first speaker on the affirmative was F. F. Cox. He gave three ways of settling the race problem—slavery, amalgamation and colonization. Then he stated clearly the dangers and by a series of facts led up to the conclusion that colonization is the only true solution. He used solid facts and sound reason and his argument was almost unanswerable.

Next came G. C. Buck for the negative, and well did he use his time in showing clearly the prosperity of this country, the part the negro played in it, and the result if he were sent away. He showed clearly our need for some servile race so that the white race might not have to fill such positions, declaring that even for gold they could not afford to do this work, that machines could not do all the work, that the first four fingers of a negro woman's hand made the best cotton picking machine, and that our swamps and marshes with their malaria, typhoid fever, and mosquitoes suited the negro, and that no other race could take their place. His speech was marked by clearness, force and original expression.

Next came Major Manning for the affirmative. He showed the history of the race, telling of the struggles to uplift them and the many failures, the new plan of industrial education and that if moral and intellectual training had failed that there was no hope for the industrial education must fail. He showed how the door of hope was closed on him here and could be opened only by colonization. That not alone the hope of the negro lay in this but the hope of the whites as now they were paralyzed by this great danger at their door and that in every progressive movement they were handicapped by having this race to care for and support. He speaks with force and drives home every statement with the zeal of one who fully believes what he says.

T. F. Taylor closed for the negative. He stated the existence of race hatred and showed why the negro was not responsible for this but the whites. He showed the great danger of the foreigners who must come if the negro is colonized. Then would come strikes and riots. All the great strikes are due to foreigners. Then we might expect the free use of dynamite and no one might rest secure from such dangers.

Like on electric current Pope Leo could then send his influence in our midst which would be one of the greatest dangers of modern times. As it is, if the negro dominates the whites are to blame. He speaks with fire of life and sends conviction with his statements.

Then came a beautiful piece of instrumental music by Miss Vivian Roberson to be followed by rejoinders by the debaters. These were sharp and spicy, showing the power of each in reply.

The judges decided in favor of the negative but all argued that it was one of the closest contests, as well as best, ever heard here.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for indigestion, dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Rising, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Leebur, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by J. L. Wootan's Drug Store.

By the Tonic Route

The pills that acts as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Bilioussness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by Jno. L. Wootan.

A Meditation.

After all, what a weak creature man is. He boasts his mighty inventions and says in his heart that he is growing to be independent of "Nature"—and he means nature's God. He says he has "harnessed" the powers of nature and made them his servants to do his bidding. And he says: See how great I am. Verily I have waxed mighty. And lo! the east wind blows softly, "bloweth where it listeth," and he can not tell whence it cometh, nor change its direction. The cold creeps down from the frozen North, and he cannot stay its coming. The gentle rain begins to fall, coming with the east wind, and the cold air touches it with its icy fingers, and it covers streets and houses and fields and trees and all things with an icy mantle, and he can not throw it off. His boasted inventions fail him. His lights go out and he gropes his way in darkness, wishing for the moon he had come to despise. His "harnessed" electricity becomes master, and a dangerous one, and he is glad to shut it off from home and street, lest his boasted "servant" become a minister of death. His great god—business—is dethroned, falling on its face as Dagon did in the presence of the ark of God, and he sits by his fallen god and wonders how much the breath of the ice is going to cost him. And he moans and groans at just a little touch of nature's mighty power. David and the other psalmists of Israel had more good sense than many of our twentieth century wise men. They recognized nature as the handiwork of God, and rejoiced that He was their God. They accepted nature's smiles as bright gifts from Him, and when her frowns terrified they crept close to Him, hiding themselves under the shadow of His wings and were glad that His hand held and guided all things. In their weakness they were strong, because they covered their weakness in His almightiness and were glad.—Christian Index.

Pleasant and Harmless

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals, soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough, One Minute Cough Cure relieves a cough in one minute because it acts first on the mucous membrane right where the cough troubles—in the throat or deep—seated on the lungs. Sold by J. L. Wootan's Drug Store.

The Columbia State says the dog is expected to contribute a capitation tax aggregating $35,000 to the cause of education in South Carolina this year. That is a good deal of money, and suggests that the dogs of North Carolina ought really to do about to the extent of a poll tax of a dollar a head. We are not anxious to see any general slaughter among man's best friend, but every dog ought to pay a dollar a year for the privilege of walking the streets and the country roads and for the liberties he takes with swill tubs in strange back yards. Any gentleman who is able to sport a dog should be able to pay his poll tax of a dollar, or if not, deserves no better than to be deprived of his society and good offices. Other animals have to work their way through life and line up on the tax books besides—why not the dog, which toils not, neither does he spin?—Charlotte Observer.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

A Simple Remedy For Acquiring Hard Muscles and a Sound Body.

A number 12 bore gun when loaded with three drams of powder will send a load of shot further and shoot harder than if double this amount of powder is used.

If too much powder is used, all of it will not explode until it leaves the muzzle of the gun.

That portion which does not explode at the proper time, interferes with the direction, and checks the velocity of force of the shot.

Hard muscles and a strong body do not depend on the quantity of food, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation.

If the nutrient properties of all of the food that may be eaten are appropriated by the blood and tissues, the muscles of the body will grow harder and stronger, whether you eat much or little.

You may be well, but not strong. What you want is strength,—physical force.

You do not have to be sick to need Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Thousands of men and millions of women have need for just what Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will do for them.

A little Kodol after meals, will enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate every atom of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten.

It will do more. It will enable the stomach to extract from the food all its nutrient properties, and contribute the same to the blood.

It will enable the blood to circulate freely and deposit a full quota of this tissue-building and strength giving material into every nook, corner, muscle and fibre of your whole being.

The result is perfect strength. And perfect health.

Disease cannot lay hold on the man or woman whose physical condition is thus fortified. Recommended by J. L. Wooten, druggist.
