New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

HAY RIDE TO GLENDALE.

For the Reflector

At five o'clock sharp according to agreement our wagon well loaded with "live freight" and buggies in the rear we started for Glendale commencement, about four and half miles from town. With heart-filled to overflowing (or if such an ideal spring evening could not have engendered ecstasy life would have lost its responsive cords) by continued persuasion perfect quietude prevailed until we were beyond police authority, after which we said "Let's serve lunch." From then on you can imagine the rest, as the crowd comprised six grown up girls, five boys and one old man away from his wife. Eating, singing, all talking at once, what real joyous experience! Our train going a little too fast (2 miles an hour) we arrived too early and were compelled to go to the home of Mr. Tyson. We stormed them in accordance with the age of the crowd.

We found them quite busy getting ready for the entertainment, so we repaired to the front porch and yard where sweet violets were served to each, after which loving couples could be seen here and there enjoying a sweet chat in the twilight hour. Ere long we arrived at the Frog Level school house and found a large crowd of Pitt county's best people assembled. Miss Hornaday had an intellectual feast in store for us. A program rich in interest and entertainment from beginning to end. The pupils did splendidly, showed skilled training. We wish to note specially the rendition of "Nearer My God To Thee" in pantomime which was exceedingly well rendered.

Mr. F. C. Harding, speaker for the evening, also added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion. A more compact, fruitful, appropriate, entertaining and historical address we have not heard. His reference to North Carolina, the possibilities of the bare-foot boy in our grand state was truly ennobling and we wish it were possible for the youth of our county to have heard it. Just before the last words were spoken by Mr. Harding thunder, lightning and rain were in abundance, about twelve pairs of bright pretty eyes, not quite as large as saucers, were all looking in one direction and said from the expression, what shall we do?

By the kind assistance of a friend with a lantern we started on our homeward journey. Before going far we noticed in front a stir and light, by the strong voice of the driver from the extreme darkness we learned Fordie, boy and buggy were all in ditch. Such a scene almost made the driver lose his fright with exclamation: "Oh; what shall we do," "I am getting wet," "your umbrella is dripping on me," "move further," "don't run off the bridge," together with sobbing.

We at last arrived at the home of Mr. Tyson again. We soon informed him we would remain with him until the moon "is" or he would have to furnish us a lantern. In a few minutes a nice old fashioned light wood fire was built, then drying and singing "Let the blessed sunshine in" and other equally appropriate songs. Mr. Tyson had not forgotten our threat, so rainily we started on our way home. Happy, though wet, the sweet voices of the girls rang out in gospel songs against the intense darkness. About twelve o'clock we lauded each piece of freight to her respective home. Thanks to Miss Hornaday for creating the desire to attend Glendale, which will long be remembered by each one. We congratulate the people of that section in securing so valuable a teacher as Miss Dora Hornaday. R. PORTER.

A GOOD PATRIARCH GONE TO HIS REWARD.

There is a sweet melancholy pathos in the thought of an old, honorable, upright, well beloved citizen passing away in peaceful sleep; One who has born the heat and burden of the day living among the friends of the same community all his life, more than eighty years; living upon the same homestead from his birth, sharing the love and good will of all who came within his acquaintance, living the simple, plain, honest, virtuous life of a hard working farmer, making a good living by work and economy, wronging no man of one penny, a living evidence of God's most loving approval.

At 3 o'clock Saturday morning the spirit of Japhet Tyson took its flight to the unknown beyond. Peaceful and content he was ready to go when the Master called him home. Japhet Tyson was born in the year 1824, on the same plantation where he died on Saturday, 25th of March, 1905, being about 81 years old. He was twice married. His first wife was Mary Everett, by whom there were born two daughters, both of whom are dead. The second wife Celia Flake who survives him, no children have been born by that marriage.

By hard, sober and steady perseverance he accumulated some estate. Scrupulously honest, he believed in rendering to Caesar the things that are his, and to God the things that are God's. He was for many years a leading member of the Free Will Baptist church at Piney Grove near his home. Besides the estate he leaves behind obtained by his energy and economy he leaves a heritage of uprightness and honest integrity that is attested by all who knew him. Truly a good man has gone to his reward. ISAAC A. SUGG.

WAS NOT NEGLECTED.

EDITOR REFLECTOR.

A card from the King's Daughters appeared in your paper a few days ago that is misleading and reflects unjustly upon the people of Greenville. It was in reference to the death of the colored woman in the railroad ravine, the inference being that she was neglected during her sickness and allowed to suffer for want of attention. This old woman was sick about three months and I know she had all needed attention and was not in any way neglected. The church to which she belonged was very attentive to her, had her well cared for day and night, and when she died she was given a decent burial. I write this in justice to those who cared for her.

The King's Daughters do a noble work that all duly appreciate, but the intimation that the poor in our midst are neglected reflects upon the town, as it is well known that Greenville extends a generous hand to every case of suffering or need known to exist in the community. J. WHITE.

Fell From a Tree.

D. S. Spain was out at his farm, Monday, doing some work in the orchard, when he was painfully hurt by falling from a tree. In the fall he came in contact with a board that injured his ribs.

Season Nearing End.

The season of the tobacco market is pretty near at the close. Most of the buyers will be off the market after this week, but the warehouses will still be in shape to sell what tobacco comes in later.

Mrs. Alice Harper returned to day from a visit to LaGrange.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight warmer in western portion, Wednesday partly cloudy.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., March 28, 1905

Mrs. Mason, of House, is on a visit to the family of her father, J. T. Smith, Sr.

Mrs. T. H. King returned from a visit last Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. Edwards left Monday morning for a trip to Farmville, Kinston and other points.

Miss Mary Hodges spent from Friday evening to Monday with her parents in Kinston.

Mrs. Geo. M. Tucker, of Rocky Mount, has been spending several days with Mrs. Robert W. Smith.

Mrs. C. M. Holton and little daughter, Olga, are visiting in Washington.

Elder C. C. Bland filled his regular appointment at Great Swamp last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. W. J. Kittrell, of Grifton, has been visiting Mrs. W. E. Hooks.

Miss Ida Hutchinson, of Bostick, S. C., after visiting here for several days, left for her home last Saturday.

Julius Lyon had an important call here Sunday from Greene.

We are glad to learn the condition of Josephus Gaskins and Claude Quinerly are both very much improved.

Oh how delightfully exhilarating the odoriferous perfumes animating from the box cars strewn along the railroad as the planter moves away on his homeward journey with a load of that most healthful scented and permeating of fertilizers so congenial and necessary to the life and well being of an admiring and appreciative public. Some one ought at once to be voted a golden medal.

Mrs. J. A. Davis has returned from the northern markets where she purchased a handsome and select line of millinery which she will be very much pleased to have her friends and the public call and examine.

A. D. Johnston and wife, of Winterville, were visiting Mrs. C. A. Fair, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. T. Smith, Sr., has been visiting friends near House.

John Forbes and W. J. White, of Greenville, have accepted positions with Barnes Sumrell.

Miss Lena Hines left Saturday for Baltimore and Washington City. She will be away about two weeks.

Bold heading "Make Ready for the Teachers" Check galore and brass that shines. Cheeky to say the least, wonder if REFLECTOR will print [Sure. But don't let your jealousy get the better of your judgment. Thinking people see neither a display of cheek or brass in inviting the teachers to come to Greenville. —M.]

Killed His Girl Wife.

Atlanta, Ga., March 27.—A special from Jasper, Ga., says: A young man named Glaser killed his bride wife Saturday evening and a posse is in pursuit to avenge the deed. Glaser, who is about 20 years old, had been married but a short time to his wife, four years his junior. They had separated for some unknown cause, and she had gone to live with her mother. Glaser came to the home Saturday evening, asking the girl to return and live with him. Her mother aided his entreaties and she finally consented. They had gone but a short distance when she was heard and the young woman was found dead in the road, shot through the heart. Glaser has disappeared and the sheriff of the county with an organized band of men is searching for him. Both families are well connected.

If the railroads are hampered now with lack of cars to handle freight, what are they going to do when potato time comes?

Mrs. Chadwich is writing the history of her life. That's the stuff. But wonder if she will divulge the secret how she managed to fool those banks.

The St. Louis millionaire who says getting rich is a bad habit, might check this bad habit in himself by distributing his wealth. But we doubt if he takes this view of it.

Those prominent Republicans who came down from Washington to the Tar Heel club banquet intimate on their return that the affair was a frost so far as the wining converts to Republicanism goes.

After much investigating and spending thousands of dollars the government experts have decided that the boll weevil cannot be exterminated. Then if let along perhaps the boll weevil can help the country harvest another big cotton crop.

The Number of Presidents.

"It is curious to note the number of mistakes made in well-informed quarters," said a thoughtful man. "Here is a Boston paper which calmly remarks that Theodore Roosevelt is our twenty-ninth President." He is not. Nor is his the twenty-ninth presidential term. The facts are thus stated: The first presidential term began March 4, 1789, though the President was not actually inaugurated till April 30. On March 4, 1905, twenty-nine terms of four years each were completed and the thirtieth term began. As to the separate individuals who have held the office of President of the United States, they are, in their order, Washington, John Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, John Quincy Adams, Jackson, Van Buren, William Henry Harrison, Tyler, Polk, Taylor, Fillmore, Pierce, Buchanan, Lincoln, Johnson, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Cleveland, Benjamin Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt—twenty-five, and no more. Of these nine have been elected for a second term; but two, Lincoln and McKinley, were killed soon after the second term began. Tyler, Fillmore, Johnson and Arthur became President without having been elected to that office, and each served but a fraction of a term. Mr. Roosevelt became President in the same way, but has made a new record by subsequent election to the office which he first held by succession under the constitution."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Daily Thought.

If you would increase your happiness and prolong your life, forget your neighbors' faults. Forget the slanders you have ever heard. Forget the temptations. Forget the faultfinding, and give a little thought to the cause which provoked it. Forget the peculiarities of your friends, and only remember the good points which make you fond of them. Forget all personal quarrels or histories you may have heard by accident and which, if repeated would seem a thousand times worse than they are. Blot out as far as possible all the disagreeables of life; they will come, but they will grow larger when you remember them, and the constant thoughts of acts of meanness, or, worse still, malice, will only tend to make you more familiar with them.

GENERAL NEWS.

The plant of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company at Rome, Ga., was destroyed by fire Saturday night. The loss is $250,000, about half covered by insurance.

Fire at Corinth, Miss., Saturday night, destroyed the buildings of the Taylor Compress Company and 1,500 bales of cotton. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

While a pleasure party of five people were crossing Banana river near Rockledge, Fla., in a small boat, the boat was capsized by a squall and four of them were drowned. Three of those who lost their lives were people from the North who were wintering in Florida.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

The railroads are peculiarly blessed in having more business than they know what to do with. If they were conducted on the same principles that other businesses are, they would apply the same remedies that these do when they become "over-cropped," but they are not. When a merchant hasn't enough goods, he orders more; when a factory, foundry or machine shop finds the demands upon it in excess of its facilities, it enlarges these; when a newspaper finds its circulation outrunning its old press, it puts in a faster one. Railroads do things differently.—Charlotte Observer.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Rising, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The death of the late Senator Bate, of Tennessee, and that of the Mexican ambassador at Washington, are traced directly to exposure on inauguration day. The causes of death in the cases of men of such prominence are naturally known, but it would be interesting to know how many people of less prominence, who were among the thousands in Washington on the 4th, have died since of exposure there that day.—Charlotte Observer.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

A spring tonic that makes sick people well. Drives out all impurities that collect in your system. A family tonic for the sick and afflicted. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets, Wooten's Drug Store.

The preachers who are objecting to the acceptance by the church of John D. Rockefeller's $100,000 gift to missions should remember that an old negro preacher once said, "I'd take money fum de debbil ef I could git it, fer I could spend it better dan de debbil could."—Atlanta Journal.

Pleasant and Harmless

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, cures the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals, soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough, One Minute Cough Cure relieves a cough in one minute because it acts first on the mucous membrane right where the cough troubles—in the throat or deep-seated on the lungs. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A New Jersey judge has decided that a woman's tongue is a "concealed weapon." We appeal from a part of decision, for while we admit that her tongue is a weapon, yet we contend that it is impossible for a woman to keep her mouth shut long enough to conceal it.—Wilmington Dispatch.

A Destructive Fire

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmonizer, Centre Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for Piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Cured of Lamé After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lamé back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

By the Tonic Route

The pills that acts as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Billiousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

You will need to prepare your system for the coming hot weather, get your organs to work like clock work. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea taken this month will do the business. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Wooten's Drug Store.

If you have lost anything advertise for it through the columns of THE REFLECTOR.

A Simple Remedy For Acquiring Hard Muscles and a Sound Body.

A number 12 bore gun when loaded with three drams of powder will send a load of shot further and shoot harder than if double this amount of powder is used.

If too much powder is used, all of it will not explode until it leaves the muzzle of the gun.

That portion which does not explode at the proper time, interferes with the direction, and checks the velocity of force of the shot.

Hard muscles and a strong body do not depend on the quantity of food, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation.

If the nutrient properties of all of the food that may be eaten are appropriated by the blood and tissues, the muscles of the body will grow harder and stronger, whether you eat much or little.

You may be well, but not strong. What you want is strength,—physical force.

You do not have to be sick to need Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Thousands of men and millions of women have need for just what Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will do for them.

A little Kodol after meals, will enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate every atom of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten.

It will do more. It will enable the stomach to extract from the food all its nutrient properties, and contribute the same to the blood.

It will enable the blood to circulate freely and deposit a full quota of this tissue-building and strength giving material into every nook, corner, muscle and fibre of your whole being.

The result is perfect strength. And perfect health.

Disease cannot lay hold on the man or woman whose physical condition is thus fortified. Recommended by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

Greenville, N. C.,

Dear Mr. Munford:—

Your communication of the 4th is before us at present. Low prices and holding back the cotton crop from market has place hundreds of Solid Southern Merchants in just your position. The only course we can advise, is to throw your entire stock on the market at prices so low you can dispose of the stock quickly and take the sacrifice best you can. Holding together thousands of dollars of idle merchandise means final ruin to any merchant. Advertise diligently give your costumers the best of values. Thereby protecting both you and your costumers' interest. With best wishes for your success. We remain,

Respectfully yours,

THE APPLE.

Famous in All Ages From the Most Remote Periods.

From the most remote periods the apple has been the subject of praise among writers and poets. The allegorical tree of knowledge bore apples, and the fruit of the orchards of Hesperus, guarded by the sleepless dragon, which it was one of the triumphs of Hercules to slay, were also apples.

Among the heathen gods of the north there were apples fabled to possess the power of conferring immortality, which were carefully watched over by the goddess Iduna and kept for the especial dessert of the gods who felt themselves growing old.

As the mistletoe grew chiefly on the apple and the oak, the former tree was looked upon with reverence by the Druids, and even to this day in some parts of England the custom of saluting the apple tree in the hope of good crops lingers among farmers.

The apple is most perfectly naturalized in America, and in the northern and middle portions of the United States succeeds as well as or, as we believe, better than in any other part of the world.

No fruit is more universally liked than the apple. It is exceedingly wholesome and medicinal, is considered cooling and laxative and useful in all inflammatory diseases. As the earliest sorts ripen about the last of June and the latest can be preserved until that season, it may be considered as a fruit in perfection the whole year.

Besides its merits for the dessert, the value of the apple is still greater for the kitchen, and in sauces, pies, tarts, preserves and jellies and roasted and boiled this fruit is a constant and invaluable resource of the kitchen.—New England Grocer.

Objected to the Hash.

A New Yorker at the Palace hotel was talking about the Drayton family of his state.

"Old Captain Percival Drayton, who was Farragut's chief of staff during the civil war," said he, "used to tell his experience with the rough and ready man-of-war-men of that period—the old shellbacks, who regarded soup and bully, 'scouse and plumduff as the pieces de resistance of a meal. Drayton was a wealthy man and one day celebrated a happy family event by blowing off his crew to a first class dinner. Toward its close a committee of old sea lawyers asked to see the captain at 'the mast.'"

"We want to thank ye, sir," said the spokesman when all had saluted, "for the elegant feed ye've given us, but we think it's only right to call yer attention to that ship's cook, sir. Just taste this hash he's worked off on us, sir, on your bounty, sir." "They offered Drayton a plate of terrapin stew to sample." — San Francisco Chronicle.

Had Sold Both Ends of the Bolt.

A Columbus shopper tells this somewhat amusing story, giving the incident as an actual happening. "I was making some purchases," she said, "in a downtown store and was directed by the floorwalker to the muslin counter. A young man was in charge, and I noticed at first that he was slightly affected by liquor. After sorting over a number of bolts on the shelf he finally threw down what I wanted. He looked at the cloth for a minute, meanwhile fumbling for the end. Finally he said disgustedly: 'Dick must have sold both ends of this. Yes, I'm sure he did.' And with that he pushed his shears across the piece, and from the end thus made he sold me the quantity I wished." — Columbus Dispatch.

His Reward.

A cyclist touring in southern France was pushing his machine up a steep hill when he overtook a peasant with a donkey cart. The poor beast was doing his best, but with all its efforts made little progress. The humane cyclist, putting his left hand on the back of the cart, guiding his wheel with the right, pushed so hard that the donkey took fresh courage and pulled up his load bravely to the top. When the summit was reached the peasant gratefully thanked his benefactor. "It was good of you, monsieur," he said. "I should never have managed that climb with only one donkey." — Birmingham Post.

Filling the Breach.

Miss Smythe (organizing a subscription dance) — I'm in despair about our dance, Mr. Brown. So many people have failed me! You'll come, won't you?
Mr. Brown—Really, Miss Smythe, I'm not a dancing man. I don't dance at all.
Miss Smythe — Oh, that won't matter in the least. You'd help to fill up, you know.
Mr. Brown—Ah, yes; with pleasure. I will look in about supper time.—London Punch.

PAFOOSE POPCORN

A New and Improved FORAGE, POULTRY, POPPING

A subscriber to the Southern Agriculturist secured the original seed from an old Indian in Northwest Texas. The experiment meeting with success, he wrote that he had secured ground and care to make from 50 to 100 bushels of the new, and planned to plant out stalk and all it with his corn feed and better for his own use. I ever saw anything in this kind of poultry feed that would never have the chicks. I have not lost a chick since I have been using it. It also keeps the chickens from getting the bronchitis and other diseases for which they are so liable. For a few barrels see for $2.00 for a 1 month trial. Write to me in State Street, Greenville, S. C. R. E. Davenport, and you will get the full turn out, also directions for the proper seedling.
