ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in

President Roosevelt Invites the People of the World to Participate in the Celebration to be Held in the Vicinity of Jamestown

Washington, March 29.—The President today issued a proclamation inviting the nations of the earth to be represented by their military organizations and naval vessels at the celebration to be held in the vicinity of Jamestown, Va., from May 13, until November, 1907. The proclamation is as follows:

By the President of the United States of America:

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Congress of the United States has passed an act approved March 3, 1905, and entitled "An act to provide for celebrating the birth of the American nation, the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people on the Western hemisphere by the holding of an international naval, marine and military celebration in the vicinity of Jamestown on the waters of Hampton Roads in the State of Virginia to provide for the suitable and permanent commemoration of said event and to authorize an appropriation in aid thereof and for other purposes."

And whereas section 3 of the said act reads as follows:

"Section 3. The president of the United States is hereby authorized to make proclamation of said celebration, setting forth the event to be commemorated, inviting foreign nations to participate by the sending of their naval vessels and such representation of their military organization as may be proper."

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in me by said act do hereby declare and proclaim that there shall be inaugurated in the year 1907 at and near the waters of Hampton Roads, in the State of Virginia, an international naval, marine and military celebration, beginning May 13, and ending not later than November 1, 1907, for the purpose of commemorating in a fitting and appropriate manner the birth of the American nation; the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people on the American continent made at Jamestown, Virginia, on the 13th of May, 1607, and in order that the great events of the American history which have resulted therefrom may be accentuated to the present and future generations of American citizens.

And, in the name of the governments and people of the United States I do therefore invite all the nations of the earth to take part in commemoration of the event which has had a far reaching effect on the course of human history, by sending their naval vessels to the said celebration and by making such representations of their military organizations as may be proper.

In testimony whereof, I have now set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the city of Washington, this twenty ninth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and five, and in the independence of the United States, the one hundred and twenty ninth.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

By the President: Alvey A. Adee, Acting Secretary of State.

Fire in Louisville

Fire starting at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning destroyed most of the tobacco section of the town of Louisville. Three tobacco warehouses, two prize houses, three residences and a number of smaller buildings were destroyed, the total loss amounting to $70,000. The tobacco losses were covered by insurance.

Centennial Notes.

The Lewis and Clark Expedition will cost $7,000,000. It will be held in Portland, to celebrate the adding of Oregon to domain of U. S. by right of discovery.

A model dairy operated on the grounds will prove of interest to farmers who visit the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

Four snow capped mountain peaks—Mount Hood, Mount Adams, Mount St. Helens and Mount Ranier—are visible from the Lewis and Clark Exposition grounds.

A $150,000 exhibit of the products of the Philippine Islands will be an interesting feature of the United States governments participation in the Lewis and Clark exposition.

Twenty thousand roses will bloom on the grounds of the Lewis and Clark exposition this summer. Portland, where the exposition will be held, is known as the "Rose City," and roses blossom there the year around.

The Lewis and Clark Exposition has received a shipment of 10,000 souvenir gold dollars bearing the 1905 date. The coins bear on one side a likeness of Merriweather Lewis, and on the other side that of William Clark. They sell at $2 each, or at $10 for six.

Pierce County, Washington, famed as a fertile fruit raising county, will distribute strawberries and apples free at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The fruit raisers feel confident that eastern people who have once tasted a Pierce County strawberry or apple, will be convinced that the county is an unspiced locality for raising these products.

Russia Names Conditions.

St. Petersburg, March 29.—The Associated Press is in a position to announce that a step in the direction of peace actually has been taken. Russia has indirectly made known to Japan the negative conditions upon which peace may be concluded, namely: no cession of territory and no indemnity, leaving Japan to determine whether negotiations can be begun upon that basis. No reply from Japan has yet reached the Russian government.

The above represents practically all the facts obtainable. Through what channels Russia indirectly communicated with Japan the Associated Press is not in a position to state definitely, although there is reason to believe that it is through the United States.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight, cooler except in extreme western portion; Friday fair.

PERSONALS AND SOCIAL.

"SANS SOUCI" CLUB.

Reported for the Reflector.

The regular meeting of the Sans Souci club was held on Tuesday the 28th with Miss Mary Higgs as hostess.

In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. Woodward presided, the business of which she performed most gracefully.

The literary features of the afternoon were a sketch of Oliver Goldsmith by Miss Nell Skinner, and a very interesting selection on "the recent success of women fiction writers" by Miss Bertha Patrick.

Among the visitors present were Mrs. Bieks and Misses Blow and Moye.

Each member extends sincere thanks to our charming hostess for a delightful afternoon.

The club will meet next with Miss Glenn Forbes April 11th.

Watch Found After Several Months.

In grape time last fall R. S. Evans lost a gold watch out at his farm, a few miles from town. A few days ago the watch was found. While lost it had been plowed over, mowed over and trampled on, and when found one case was mashed in and the crystal broken into tiny fragments. E. T. Forbes, who found the watch, wound it soon after picking it up and it went right to work just like nothing had happened to it. Mr. Evans was glad to get his lost watch back. A watch that will go through what this one did is worth having.

Japan's Terms Rigorous.

Paris, March 29.—Although information is lacking, it is asserted in well informed quarters that Japan has permitted Russia to learn that the peace conditions will be severely rigorous and will not be responsive to the recent sentimental plea to Japan's magnanimity. In particular it is said that Japan's indemnity figure is $800,000,000 and that this stupendous sum has proved so staggering to Russian diplomacy that it is the chief cause why the peace preliminaries do not advance to a decisive stage.

Died.

Mrs. Martha Tucker, wife of Mr. Malone Tucker, died Wednesday at their home about two miles from Greenville. She leaves a husband and three children.

Rev. A. T. King baptised four persons in the Baptist church Wednesday night.

THURSDAY, MAR. 30, 1905.

Possibly there will be peace in the East after awhile.

The boll weevil will be forgotten in potato bug season.

If the farmers were holding, the receipts would not be running up around 40,000 bales a day.

As Vice-President Fairbanks is the ice trust king, perhaps it was his presence that frosted the banquet.

The fellow who says his bomb destroyed the Maine is talking through the bars. He is already in jail.

Greenville is getting along without it, but would get along much better with a building and loan association.

Durham is opening the excursion season early. The city officials will have one to Asheville Saturday. No April fool about it, either.

They are having a great time in Asheville over the dispensary campaign. There may be some hair pulling before it closes.

The Durham Herald thinks the town might even up a little by prohibiting the Southern from blowing whistles as the trains passed through.

The Gastonia Gazette says "Next Monday, April 1st." Marshall must be trying to work off an April fool joke. Our calendar says it comes on Saturday.

The Raleigh Times says the ice trust will make it hot for those who refuse to join the combination. We thought it wated to make it cold for them by freezing them out.

Whether they get in jail or not, the Durham officials will get a trip to Asheville at the expense of the city to answer to the charge of contempt in the Southern railway matter.

The acceptance of that $100,000 which Rockefeller contributed to the Congregational church for foreign missions is continuing to cause trouble. Leaders in the denomination are on both sides of the question some arguing for acceptance and some against.

The Greensboro Record is making it warm for certain of the promoters of the recent Tar Heel Club Fairbanks Yerkes banquet in that city. The Record says the affair was such a failure in its purpose to make Republican votes that the said promoters are very sore over it. Speeches of the kind delivered on that occasion make the Democratic party stronger than ever.

A prominent negro leader in the State, who keeps posted on all the doings of his race, says the restlessness which has been so apparent on account of the change of administration in North Carolina is fast disappearing, his people finding out that Governor Glenn is a just man. Governor Glenn's conduct since taking the oath of office has inspired confidence in the negro. For this reason there will be a very little movement of the race from North Carolina this year. There is no better place in the world for the negro than the South, and no better place in the South for him than North Carolina.—Charlotte News.

"OUR WOMEN IN THE WAR"

The Mothers of the Confederacy and the Veterans, their Sons and Daughters, heirs of their glory, are earnestly and cordially invited to contribute accounts of such instances as are known to them where the women of North Carolina showed, during the war, their patriotic heroism and patient fortitude. Such contributions are intended for the "Special Editions" which the Press of North Carolina proposes at an early date to publish, devoted entirely to true history of the "Women in the War," "who bound their warriors' sash when they went forth to fight; who suffered worse than death a thousand times; who were stung and wounded by privations that the hardest soldier never knew."

These editions will be published with the endorsement of all the camps of Veterans and Sons of the various cities and under the direction of committees from all these camps.

Perhaps many of those who suffered the most and crowned their sufferings with the grandest heroism, or those who knew of such, are not accustomed to write for publication and would shrink naturally from such an undertaking—to such we can only say, write down in your own way the incidents as you remember them and send them, and what you write will be edited—clothed to company dress. Just such contributions are most valuable.

Give names of participants so as to make true history.

Contributions are asked, and especially asked for by April 10th, from those of the most brilliant literary attainments; from those of modest culture; from those who cannot even spell correctly, and from those who cannot write at all and must get some friend to write for them. We only ask a true history of what our women did, how they suffered and all that they endured with such heroism, that justice may be done to those deserving of all honor, all praise and all glory.

Send these contributions to the Editorial Committee in Charlotte, Raleigh and Wilmington, or to Miss Mamie Bays, Charlotte, N. C., Editor of the Special Editions of North Carolina.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Rising, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The exploitation of The Washington Post, of the peculiar form of government employed for the city of Washington, published yesterday, is interesting, but the reason why the city has this peculiar form of government is also interesting. The government of Washington by commissioners under Congress is said to be for the same reason that the Southern States have incorporated grandfathers and other similar peculiar clauses in their constitutions, viz: to put limitations on the political powers and importance of the colored brother.

Just as the people of the United States don't generally understand how Washington is governed and why, so also do the people of the United States not understand that the disfranchisement of the negro began in Washington, was inaugurated by Congress and that the genuineness of the congressional plan exceeds the subsequently invented by any Southern State.—Charlotte Observer.

Pleasant and Harmless

Don't drug the stomach to cure a cough. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the mucus, draws the inflammation out of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes, heals, soothes and cures. A quick cure for Croup and Whooping Cough, One Minute Cough Cure relieves a cough in one minute because it acts first on the mucous membrane right where the cough troubles—in the throat or deep-seated on the lungs. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The Dog Looks in Vain for His Dead Master.

The recent death of Mr. Alvin King was the occasion for a pathetic exhibition of that touching faithfulness of the dumb brute which ceases only with death. The animal is a very ordinary little white dog which was inseparable from his master; wherever one was the other was sure to be; and since Mr. King's death more than a week ago, the desolate creature has done nothing except to persist in a fruitless search for the lost friend. Hour after hour, and day after day, he continues his weary way on the streets, stopping and sniffing at each door where Mr. King was accustomed to go. At other times he sits for hours in front of his own home or at a street corner searching earnestly every passing countenance as though begging for help, and as he runs along drooping and listless and apparently forsaken of all encouragement and sympathy—an outcast from the world of hope—there is plainly visible in the piteous dumb life a longing for "the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still."—Clinton Democrat.

A Destructive Fire

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmonizer, Centre Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for Piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

One of the eloquent speakers at the Tar Heel banquet in Greensboro last week called attention to the rivalry between North Carolina and Michigan in the manufacture of furniture. Only Michigan is ahead of North Carolina in this industry, while in furniture woods and timber our own State was said to be ahead of its rival on the great lakes. Both of these statements will carry a measure of surprise to the uninitiated. If the latter is true, it is not too much to hope that one day North Carolina will not be long in taking first place in the manufacture of furniture.—Gastonia Gazette.

By the Tonic Route

The pills that acts as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

A Simple Remedy For Acquiring Hard Muscles and a Sound Body.

A number 12 bore gun when loaded with three drams of powder will send a load of shot further and shoot harder than if double this amount of powder is used.

If too much powder is used, all of it will not explode until it leaves the muzzle of the gun.

That portion which does not explode at the proper time, interferes with the direction, and checks the velocity of force of the shot.

Hard muscles and a strong body do not depend on the quantity of food, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation.

If the nutrient properties of all of the food that may be eaten are appropriated by the blood and tissues, the muscles of the body will grow harder and stronger, whether you eat much or little.

You may be well, but not strong. What you want is strength,—physical force.

You do not have to be sick to need Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Thousands of men and millions of women have need for just what Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will do for them.

A little Kodol after meals, will enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate every atom of all of the wholesome food that may be eaten.

It will do more.

It will enable the stomach to extract from the food all its nutrient properties, and contribute the same to the blood.

It will enable the blood to circulate freely and deposit a full quota of this tissue building and strength giving material into every nook, corner, muscle and fibre of your whole being.

The result is perfect strength.

And perfect health.

Disease cannot lay hold on the man or woman whose physical condition is thus fortified. Recommended by J. L. Wooten, druggist.

PAPOOSE POPCORN

A New Seed Discovery for FORAGE, POULTRY, POPPING
A subscriber to the Southern Agriculturist secured the original seed from an old Indian in Northwest Texas. After experimenting with it several years he wrote that paper: "With good ground and care it will make from 50 to 100 bushels to the acre, and planted thick and cut stalk and all it will make more feed and better feed than anything I ever saw." The old Indian said poultry fed on it would never have the cholera. I have not lost a fowl with cholera since I have been raising it. It also pops beautifully." This article brought hundreds of requests for seed, and now only a few bushels are left. Send 10c for a 3 months' trial subscription to Southern Agriculturist, 29 C. P. Bldg., Nashville, Tenn., and you will get 100 seed by return mail, also details of $50 prize seed-growing contest.

THE WORST MOSQUITOES.

Maubin, Burma, Has the Biggest and Most Virulent Known.

Unsurpassed in all the world in number, size and virulent activity are the mosquitoes of Maubin, a town of Burma, according to V. O. Scott O'Connor. He says: "One's first visit to Maubin in the mosquito season is an experience, and to see them under the flare of an electric searchlight come over the ship's side in hordes and occupy like an irresistible army every fraction of its surface, to see them hanging in festoons from the white canvas awnings, the mosquito nets, the table linen and the punka flaps and from every object on which they can secure a footing, is to have lived indeed. How to continue to live after the novelty of the spectacle has worn off is the definite problem that occupies every one's mind in Maubin. It is achieved in the main by intrenching oneself within an iron fortress of fine mesh. In some houses there is a special room, a kind of inner citadel and last refuge, which is wholly of iron gauze, and within it the master of the house sits like a vanquished lion in a cage.

"To enter this fortress in advance of the enemy calls for the exercise of agility of a high order. The doors have swing backs and are made to close the instant that they are released. Outside them the light cavalry of the enemy hover in clouds. The man within, this Englishman in his strange castle, observes your approach with furtive and anxious eyes, and if you be a newcomer he begs of you to be careful in entering. Immediately you enter he falls with an astonishing onslaught upon such of the enemy as have come in on your back, in your hair, in the creases of your clothes and in an aura of cloud about your brows.

"At one end of the chief magistrate's house there used to be, when I was last at Maubin, a long room thus defended, in which he sat daily to dispense justice, and great activity in entering was expected of the prisoner under trial, the assembled witnesses and the counsel employed in each case. Many a sentence, it is whispered, has fallen with enhanced severity from judicial lips, many a prisoner has come away with a lighter punishment as the consequence of his manner of entering the court."
—Chicago News.

A Rare Plant.

A year or two ago there were among the boarders at a mountain summer hotel a celebrated botanist and a certain pretentious rich woman, who liked to make it appear to the guests that she was very well informed on all subjects. The rich woman affected to take an interest in the researches of the botanist among the flora of the mountains.

"I suppose, Mr. Caylin," said the lady, "you find almost all the mountain flowers around here?"
"I have found a great many, ma'am," said the botanist.
"Well, there's one kind of flower that I've read a great deal of as being always on the hills, and I've always wanted to see it. Perhaps you could pick me some?"
"What is it?"
"The 'purple gloaming,' you know!"

A Success.

The head of a matrimonial combine glanced at a bill from his wife's dressmaker.

"When I proposed to you, less than two years ago," he said, "I was rather wild, and you said you considered it your duty to marry me for the purpose of making something of me, did you not?"

"Yes, John," answered the wife.

"Well," he continued, "your efforts have not been in vain. You have succeeded."

"I'm so glad," she said. "What have I made of you, dear?"

Once more he glanced at the bill. "A pauper," he replied, with a deep sigh.

How He Used the Whisky.

An Irish butler, newly engaged, requested his master to allow him some whisky. "There's nothing like it to clean the windows," said he. However, a few minutes later his master chanced to pass through the room and, to his surprise, found the glass empty. "Why, Barney," he asked, "where's the whisky?" "Well, you see, sir," said Barney, not in the least put out, "it's this way, I drink the whisky, and then I breathe on the glass."

Startling Result.

"I think you told me Miss Thuttyfore was taking elocution lessons from Professor Rantwell?"

"So she was, but they came to a sudden stop, and the professor has left town."

"What was the trouble?"

"Why, it seems he was showing her how to read the balcony scene in 'Romeo and Juliet,' and he did it so naturally that she accepted him before he could stop her."
—Chicago Tribune.

Playing Barnyard.

"I made my first visit to a New York broker's office the other day," said a man from up the state. "It was that of a well known firm, and I must say my idea of the oppressive dignity supposed to pervade such an atmosphere had a drop. When I passed through the door I began to believe the stories about bears, bulls and lambs were literally true. Besides growls, bellows and bleats I could distinguish the lusty crowing of a rooster and the braying of a donkey. I entered the room rather timidly, but found only seven or eight men, laughing like lunatics. 'It's a dull day, and the boys are playing barnyard to kill time,' remarked the man I went to see. 'The crowd has a pool of good cigars up for the man who can give the best imitation of any animal.'"
—New York Tribune.

The "Gentle Reader."

Charles Dickens once received an invitation to a Walter Scott party, each guest being expected to appear in the character of one or the other of Scott's heroes. On the eventful night, however, Dickens appeared in simple evening dress among a host of Rob Rovers and Ivanhoes. The host asked him which of Scott's characters he represented. "Why, sir," replied Dickens, "I am a character you will find in every one of Scott's novels. I am the 'gentle reader.'"

To Tell Their Age.

To ascertain the age of pheasants, partridges, grouse and black game in the early part of the season hold the lower part of the bird's beak firmly at its extremity between the forefinger and thumb. If the bird be an old one, the beak will sustain its weight without in the slightest degree yielding, but if, on the contrary, the bird be a young one the beak will yield and perhaps break.

Unsafe.

Attorney For Defense—One more question, Mr. Plunkett. Have you any prejudice in this case one way or the other?

Talesman—No, sir.
Attorney—If you should be accepted as a juror do you think you could render a verdict in accordance with the law and the evidence?

Talesman—I think I could.
Attorney (after whispered conference with his client)—Your honor, we'll excuse Mr. Plunkett.—Chicago Tribune.
