New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in

A Southern Industrial Parliament to Meet in Washington

The Southern Industrial Parliament will assemble in Washington D. C. on May 23rd, 26th. Great preparations are being made for this meeting, and a large delegation is expected to attend.

It will be composed of delegates appointed by the governors of the Southern States, and will include members of cities, representatives of boards of trade, boards of health and banks, railroad presidents, planters and manufacturers.

The object of the meeting is to formulate plans for the development of the material resources of the Southern States.

Free Delivery for Washington.

The Washington postoffice receipts for the year ending March 31st 1905, were $10,117.40. According to the law of the United States postoffice department an office is required to show only ten thousand dollars to entitle it to a free delivery, and the free delivery will probably be established for Washington by the first of next year.

Big Fire at Rocky Mount.

Rocky Mount, N. C., April 4.—A fire which burst out at three o'clock this afternoon in the dry kiln of the Tar River Lumber Company, laid the mammoth plant of this fine industry in ruins and consumed other property nearby, entailing a total loss of upwards of $80,000. This loss is partially covered by insurance of $32,000.

Much as Ever.

Since farm work has got well under way it begins to look like fertilizer sales this season will be as large as ever. Quantities of it are being hauled out.

DEATH OF MRS. NORMAN.

Dies of Stroke of paralysis.

Mrs. Mary Norman, wife of Capt. J. S. Norman, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Cobb, in Beaver Dam township, Tuesday, at 1:30 o'clock p. m.

Two or three days ago Mrs. Norman was stricken with paralysis, since that time her death has been expected, and a number of relatives from a distance were present at the bedside.

Mrs. Norman was 63 years, six months and eight days old. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church, and a devout Christian. She leaves a husband two grown daughters and three grown sons.

The remains will be taken by rail to Hamilton, N. C., today where the funeral will take place in the afternoon.

END OF CENTURY BOOK CLUB.

Reported for Reflector.

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the year was held Tuesday, April 4th, at the home of Mrs. John Wooten, which was made more than usually attractive by the addition of growing plants, and rose shaded candelabra.

The President, Mrs. Cotten, presided again, after an absence of some weeks. During the business session there was some discussion of the public library, and of the further extension of the club in other directions.

Twelve new books were purchased, and will be placed in the library this week.

The subject for the next year's literary program was also discussed and decided upon.

There being no literary program for the afternoon, the guests and members were entertained by "An International Affair," being the prettiest prize contest ever given by the club. Thirty beautiful colored silk flags of different nations were distributed for identification. While all were patriotic enough to readily locate the floating stars and stripes, several battles were fought, over our unknown foreign flags.

The prize, won by Mrs. Harry Skinner, was a beautiful edition of James Whitcomb Riley's poem "An Old Sweetheart Of Mine" illustrated by Christy.

After partaking of the delightful hospitality of the hostess the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Quinerly April the 25th.

In addition to the members, many guests were present including Mrs. Coward, Mrs. Ed Flanagan, Mrs. Travis Hooker, Mrs. Thomas Jarvis, Mrs. Joseph Laughhouse, Mrs. H. H. Moore, Mrs. Lawrence Carr, Mrs. Herbert White, Mrs. James White, Mrs. R. J. Cobb, Mrs. Ola Forbes, Mrs. McClellan, Mrs. Moseley, Mrs. Vines, Mrs. Dail, Mrs. Woodward, Misses Neal, Suttle, Coulling, Taylor, Conner, Wooten, Blow and Skinner.

He Kept in the Race

James S. Barron, president Manchester cotton mills, Rock Hill, S. C. writes:

"In 1883 I painted my residence with L. & M. It looks better than a great many houses painted three years ago."

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready-for-use paint.

Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents per gallon, and mix it with Longman & Martinez L. & M. paint.

It makes paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. Wears and covers like gold.

Every church given a liberal quantity when bought from H. L. Carr.

WHY NOT ACCEPT IT?

Indeed this is a day of religious awakening. On all sides advancement is being made in the moral world, and the business man is beginning to realize that his business is not a success when it brings him only financial gain.

We are glad that the standard of morals of the human race is moving higher, and we hope and believe that the day is not far distant when a religious impulse will dominate the commerce of the world. But with all our causes for glorying in the moral progress and intellectual development in our own country, which has been so greatly favored by nature and blessed by God, we should remember that thousands of the human race are dying each day, to whom it is our duty to carry our religion and our intellectual advantages.

With the knowledge of our great progress ever in our mind, there is a possibility that we may allow ourselves to be deceived, and mistake an impulsive desire for a religious motive.

We believe that a mistake has been made by honest men in protesting against the acceptance by the American Board of Missions of the gift of $100,000 tendered by John D. Rockefeller. Mr. Rockefeller exacts no promises, and we understand, imposes no conditions. We look at it that the Board, should it accept the money, would be accepting the $100,000, and not John D. Rockefeller, or the policy he pursues in accumulating the money.

The Washington Post, in commenting on this subject, gives what we believe to be a correct view. We reproduce it:

"We are convinced that it requires too much straining of a point to distinguish between pure and impure money when the purpose to which it is to be devoted is commendable.

The fever patient in India who receives soothing medical treatment from an American missionary is not going to ask whether it is purchased with tainted money. The workers in educational and religious causes in heathen lands, where need always far exceed means of granting them, will only be grateful for the help received, whether it comes from oil or railroads or bank robbery. The contribution of the courtesan or the gambler relieves the need in the hospital or the pest-stricken tenement as readily as the money of the bishop or the church deacon. With the large and ever increasing field for the employment of money in the relief of suffering and the spread of education, religion, and general enlightenment, we suggest that churches and charitable organizations would do well to measure the good that may come from the proper use of money against the purely ethical question of source of the money to be thus employed."

THE VAGRANT LAW.

The last legislature of North Carolina enacted what is known as the Vagrant law. This act defines, in part, any person wandering or strolling about in idleness, who is able to work and has no property to support them, as a vagrant; all persons leading an idle, immoral or profligate life, who have no property to support them; persons who have no honest means of making a livelihood and make their living by gambling or by trading or bartering in stolen property; professional gamblers; or anyone who shall live upon the wages or earnings of his mother, wife, child or children; anyone who is without visible means or support is also defined as a vagrant.

We take it that buck negroes, who are supported by what their wives and daughters can swipe from the tables of the white people who employ them, are not supported by a visible means.

This law includes the gang of lazy negroes who daily loaf around our street corners, and puff cheroot smoke or spit tobacco juice.

The punishment prescribed by the act is that the mayor or magistrate shall upon the first conviction fine the defendant $50 dollars or send to the county roads 30 days. For the second and subsequent offenses the defendant shall be bound over to superior court and the judge shall upon the conviction of the defendant send him to the county roads or workhouse for a term not less than six months nor more than a year.

It's up to you, Mayor Wooten.

Since the inscription has created so much contention, why not call off the unveiling of the monument, tear the monument down and let the matter end. North Carolina knows that her troops were the last to lay down arms at Appomattox, and it is not necessary to erect a monument on Virginia soil setting forth that fact for it to be remembered.

Greensboro officials are also taking a turn at the local sports, otherwise professional gamblers, under the new vagrancy law. There is hardly a town in the state without some of this class who are living without visible means of support.

With all the criticism that has been heaped upon Mr. Bryan he can create a mighty big stir when it comes his time to talk.

If you give the reporter a short answer when he asks you necessary questions, don't get "huffy" if he doesn't get you.

It will soon be our time to have a town election.

A law unenforced is worse than no law at all.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwadsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Forget About Your Stomach.

If your digestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion and all stomach troubles. You forget you have a stomach from the very day you begin taking it. This is because it gets a rest—recuperates and gradually grows so strong and healthy that it troubles you no more. E. L. Babcock, Amherst, Minn., says: "I have taken a great many remedies for indigestion but have found nothing equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." Kodol digests what you eat, cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, sour stomach, belching, heartburn and all stomach troubles. Its preparation is the result of many years of research. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Distributing Immigration.

In so much as the subject of immigration is a live one in North Carolina now, the following part of an editorial in The New York Commercial is interesting.

"Apparently, most of the thousands who come to us from foreign lands have no fixed or definite purpose. Their notion of the United States is that it is 'the land of promise,' of liberty and good times. The majority of them, too, are of limited resources. These reasons prevent great speculation as to what they would best do or where it would be best to go. Therefore, we find that of all the 800,000 immigrants who arrived in 1904, fully 32 per cent, remained in New York city. The South, which is appealing for settlers, got a little over 3 percent of them; and the West, also beckoning to new blood, received only 6 per cent. That this city is called upon to absorb its immense proportion of these heterogeneous elements is unfair to the outside States. We do not particularly need these immigrants; other sections do. The problem of caring for them continually confronts us, with the West and South the problem is solved—the land awaits them, and their well come and their future prosperity if industrious, are assured."

The above is written in connection with the fact that F. P. Sargent, commissioner general of immigration, has a plan to assist those States desirous of increasing their population and to aid immigrants in finding homes. His idea, in brief, is the establishment of an industrial fair—a permanent exhibit—on Ellis Island or at some other convenient point in New York, where newly-landed immigrants may learn something of the advantages of various States and sections with a view to assisting them in determining upon a permanent home. Congress will be asked for an appropriation to establish this bureau. The plan of Mr. Sargent seems to be a good one. The South needs immigrants of the sort who wish to acquire property and establish homes. That it needs common laborers, field hands, is denied by a cotton crop which is pushing on toward 14,000,000 bales. But of foreigners who will be willing to obey the laws and conform to the customs of the country, and who will take up property and become settlers in fact, it can hardly have too many.—Charlotte Observer.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

A Tried and True Friend.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug, and it has been curing Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. Mrs. Gertrude E. Penner, Marion, Ind., says: "Coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. After trying a number of remedies to no avail, One Minute Cough Cure entirely cured me." Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve soothes and heals cuts, byrns boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zickefoose, Adolph W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by J. L. Wooten's drug store.

Won a Name of Fame.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless and gentle action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, gripe, or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

This is only the inevitable result of the original Good Luck plan—to furnish the best baking powder in the world at the lowest price—10 cents a pound. Good Luck is the best because it is purest, because it produces the lightest, whitest, sweetest of baking. Presence of Mind.
Wearily the tramp wandered up the garden path one summer's day and took off his hat to the woman of the house. She eyed him keenly. "Look here! Are you the man I gave a big meal one February morning?" she demanded sternly. "I'm the man, mum," was the reply. "Well, do you remember you promised to shovel the snow out of the back yard and then sneaked off without doing it?" asked the woman. "Yes, mum. An' me conscience smote me," answered the tramp. "That's the reason I tramped all the way here through the blazing sun to finish the job."
