New Spring Goods

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

Pu ley & Bowen,

THE HOME OF WOMEN'S FASHIONS.

BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE.

Delightful Reception Given to Friends.

Mr. William E. Nichols and Miss Minnie Iola Hardy were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's father, I. C. Hardy, in West Greenville, Rev. J. A. Hornaday officiating.

The marriage was a beautiful one, and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives of the popular couple. The wedding march was played by Miss Fannie Farrow in her usual charming and graceful manner. The decorations were green, and the wedding bell suspended from the arch presented a very beautiful appearance, the soft light of the candles adding solemnity to the occasion.

The attendants were C. A. Gurganus with Miss Nellie Barnhill; W. C. Moye with Miss Lucy Johnson; F. A. Patrick with Miss Ellen Proctor; Frank Johnston with Miss Emma Hardy.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the residence of the groom, where an excellent supper was served and a delightful reception given to many friends and relatives of the happy couple.

STATE NEWS.

The report comes from Elizabeth City that the little son of State Senator Beasley, who disappeared from home in February, had been found in Norfolk, but Norfolk officials say they know nothing of the boy being found there.

A tornado Wednesday afternoon at Livingston college, near Salisbury, damaged the college property to the extent of $7,500, and destroyed two churches.

Lightning struck the Catholic church in Greensboro, Wednesday evening, doing considerable damage to the building.

Tobacco Sales.

Secretary C. W. Harvey, of the tobacco board of trade, reports the sales of leaf tobacco on the Greenville market for the month of March at 446,372 pounds, the average price being $6.75. The total sale for the season up to April 1st were 8,587,410 pounds. There is a goods bit of tobacco yet unsold.

His Sister Dies.

J. D. Garden returned Wednesday evening from Henderson where he had been to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Johns, whose death occurred at her home in Virginia and the remains were taken to Henderson for interment. Mr. Garden's friends sympathize with him in his sorrow.

For Sale—A 10-syrup, 3 draft soda fountain and outfit, including marble counter. Apply this office.

THE WEATHER

Fair and continued cool tonight. Friday fair warmer in the interior.

GREAT INTEREST MANIFEST IN SUMMER SCHOOL.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

It is gladdening to all the people of the county of Pitt, who are interested in the educational feeling that is manifest, to note the rivalry of interest shown by the different towns who are earnestly seeking to have the summer school. It is delightful to note that the teachers are becoming more of interest to all classes of citizens. Long have they been neglected and unappreciated, and the demonstration that is being made by Greenville, Winterville and Ayden to offer their best to the teachers for one month, where they can rest and gather afresh for the coming year.

Indeed it is noteworthy that these good women are being sought after collectively, and many of them individually, to make their homes for one month at least in these rival towns. For the good of the county, and its best prosperity, high class citizenship, culture and refinement, the teacher is the most important and potent factor, and as I have so often urged, they are entitled to the very best the country can afford, and all the kindness, courtesy and encouragement should be bestowed upon them. God bless them.

Greenville is putting on her good clothes to welcome and entertain these magnificently splendid women, and when the roll is called on Saturday we do trust and believe there will be a common sentiment that the greatest good to the greatest number can best result in having the summer school in Greenville, in this year of grace, 1905.

So note it be,
ISAAC A. SUGG.

Coming Again This Season.

I wish to say to my patrons and friends in Pitt county that I expect to be around to see them again this season representing the old reliable Oakdale Nurseries, of Oakdale, N. C.

If you are in need of any kind of nursery stock, hold your order for me and in the end you'll not regret it. Let me say for your good, be careful in buying from strangers and new nurseries, and not be "duped" like I have known many to be by dishonest agents.

Thanking you for your past favors and kindness to me, I beg to remain, yours truly,
R. R. BURGESS.

Cherry & Co's. Opening.

This season's opening display of new goods at the store of J. B. Cherry & Co., is in keeping with the reputation of this popular firm. They are showing the very best styles and fabrics the fashion centers can produce. They have newest things in dress goods, trimmings, novelties, belts, fans, shoes, slippers, and all such for spring and summer wear. The arrangement of these goods in this display is very attractive.

Millinery Display

Mrs. L. Griffin today had an attractive opening display of new spring millinery, that delighted the many ladies who visited her store. Her styles are strictly up to the season and reflect credit upon her establishment. An attractive feature of this display was the flower boat containing a little girl that occupied the front window. This was splendidly designed.

Church Meeting Tonight.

Owing to the severe storm last night the quarterly business meeting of the Baptist church was postponed to meet tonight at 7:30. All the members of the church should be present tonight and the secretaries of the different departments of the church work are expected to make their quarterly reports.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, April 5, 1905. Today's rain seems to please the farmers.

Large congregations attended services at Little Creek Sunday night and Sunday.

R. I. Corbett went to Parmele Tuesday morning and returned to Ayden on the evening.

Prof. G. W. Prescott and C. M. Holton, of Ayden, attended services at Little Creek Sunday.

There was a Sabbath school organized at St. Delight last Sunday afternoon. There was a large attendance and prospects are fair for a model school.

Rev. Mr. Pate filled his regular appointment in the M. E. church last Sunday.

Mrs. R. I. Corbett, who has been visiting her mother in Elizabeth City for about three weeks, returned yesterday. This puts an end to the bachelor business for Mr. Corbett. But he thinks it is time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moore, of Snow Hill, visited friends here last Sunday.

We understand that Ormondsville is soon to have an Odd Fellows lodge. We hope this is true for such a lodge would be helpful to this community, and we feel sure no community can better afford a lodge than this. Let it come.

Bishop Strange Coming.

Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., Bishop coadjutor of the diocese of East Carolina, will visit Greenville in May (D. V.) and hold a series of services in the Episcopal church here. These services will begin on Sunday, May 14th, and continue each morning and night during the week following. Sunday, May 21st, will be the last day of the series when the Apostolic rite of Confirmation will be administered.

The Episcopal church requires that her candidates for confirmation shall be instructed carefully in the elementary principles of the Christian faith and the Christian life. In accordance with this requirement a confirmation class has been organized and will meet regularly in the church on first and third Sundays during the Sunday school hour in the morning and also at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. This class is primarily for those who are ready and desire to be confirmed, but it is open to all who may wish to attend it whether they expect to be confirmed or not, or even if they are already confirmed but wish to take advantage of the instruction. Any person who may attend these lectures will be given a welcome. W. B. Cox, Rector.

LETTER TO B. F. PATRICK

Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: County Commissioner E. W. Fassett had his house, 322 W. 8th street, Erie, Pa., painted Devco in August 1901.

In March 1902, he had three others to paint and thought our price too high. Bought a "just as good" for one house; the others he painted Devco. Said he'd find out by experience. Guess he did, for he's used Devco several times since; he's got the habit.

The queer part is that people should grudge the cost of good paint, when it's worth about 50 times the difference.

Good is cheap, whatever the price; and bad is dear, at no price at all, it costs too much to put on.

Devco is a good paint; good paint is Devco. There is no other Devco; there is no other good paint.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & Co.

THURSDAY, APR. 6, 1905.

This month will tell to what extent the cotton acreage is reduced.

If the president kills a bear on his hunt some big stories may be looked for.

If the thing boils enough to lift the lid what will become of Taft while the president is away?

Everywhere the president stops in his journey the wires get busy to tell the rest of the world about it.

Dewey, the New Bern bank wrecker, will soon have the public ear again, as his trial comes off in a few days.

The "oldest inhabitants" would not be here to tell us of how it used to be, if Osler could get his theory put into practice.

The Democrats carrying Chicago in the election Tuesday, and electing their candidate for mayor, shows that you cannot always tell how the thing is coming out.

One of the results of Pitt county being exempted from the operations of anti jug law by the last legislature is that the county is being flooded with circulars from whiskey dealers and distillers.

Norfolk ought to get a hump on herself and get all the surrounding suburbs united in one town, as was done at New York. Such a step would make Norfolk by far the largest city in Virginia.

If the amount the monument cost and the money to be spent in going to see it unveiled had been put in the right kind of history for school children, it would learn a hundred fold more people than North Carolina was last at Appomattox than to have it inscribed on a rock in an out-of-the-way place on Virginia soil.

Working in The Present.

The man who can do the best day's work is he who can forget about the occurrences of yesterday and the possibilities of tomorrow and put his whole soul into what he is doing today. In that way he saves a mighty waste of divided energy and all his strength is put into the thing before him that engages his attention. Mommsen said of Caesar that his "power of living energetically in the present, undisturbed either by recollection or speculation," accounted for the immense amount of lasting work he was able to accomplish in his varied occupations. If he had been troubled about what some semi-civilized tribe might be scheming against the Roman arms while trying to write the commentaries, what would the result have been? And when it came to crossing the Rubicon he thought of nothing else.

Application undivided with tomorrow or yesterday counts fully as much today in the business world as it ever did in any sphere. Indeed, it is probable that in this age of competition the man who learns to put his whole heart and all his energies into the work of today has a big advantage over his brother who scatters his mental forces over a wide and useless range of territory. —Merchants Journal.

The Mule The Farmer's Enemy.

Mr. Lee Wolfe, who lately moved to Monticello from Mecklenburg county, has some original ideas about the mule and his relation to farm work. "When we were all talking about free silver and the need of more money, I laughed at it," said Mr. Wolfe. "And," he continued, "when the farmers meet to devise high prices, I say it's no good, gentlemen, in the long run; it may give temporary relief, but you haven't got at the permanent root of the evil. Gentlemen, the mule is the thing that is troubling us. He is at the bottom of all our woes; he's our big enemy. Such talk surprises people, for they think the mule is the farmer's best friend, but he is not. I can prove that he is not. He takes up one-third of the productions of the farm. Count it up, gentlemen; the high price you pay for him, the comparative short time of his best service, and the great expense of his feed (to say nothing of accidents and drunks in which we trade him off for nothing) and year in and year out, you'll find he comes in for a third. Now, no business that spends a third of its receipts for motive power alone, can be profitable. The drain is too great. Gentlemen, the farmer needs a cheap motive power, and must have it before he can ever be prosperous like the men of other occupations. I have known this thing for fifteen years, having learned it by running a field thresher, and I have often thought of writing to Mr. Edison and asking him to give his attention to this matter. If he or some other inventor will give us a cheap motor from one to five horsepower that we can plow with, we'll get rich, but never before."—Monroe Journal.

Forget About Your Stomach.

If your digestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion and all stomach troubles. You forget you have a stomach from the very day you begin taking it. This is because it gets a rest—recuperates and gradually grows so strong and healthy that it troubles you no more. E. L. Babcock, Amherst, Minn., says: "I have taken a great many remedies for indigestion but have found nothing equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." Kodol digests what you eat, cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, sour stomach, belching, heartburn and all stomach troubles. Its preparation is the result of many years of research. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

It is the fashion now to keep up with the sayings of Mr. Bryan. So it is timely to note that he says the Democrats must get busy now for 1908. By this he does not mean, he intimates, that the leaders alone must get busy but the rank and file as well must get busy. His idea is that the democratic voters of the nation ought to find out what they want and arrange to have in 1908 a candidate and a platform agreeable to their ideas of what they want. It is rather a big undertaking that he has cut out for the democratic voters of the nation, but we shouldn't think it altogether impracticable. There is really no good reason why a democratic club shouldn't be formed three years before an election as well as three months before. The nation all problems now up now for settlement would seem to be sufficiently engrossing to keep interest in such clubs alive.—Greensboro Telegram.

A Tried and True Friend.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug, and it has been curing Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., says: "Coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 118 to 92 pounds. After trying a number of remedies to no avail, One Minute Cough Cure entirely cured me." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Won a Name of Fame.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless and gentle action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, gripe, or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by J. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

MRS. MALONE TUCKER

Contributed to Reflector.
On the morning of the 29th of March, 1905, at 8 o'clock, the messenger of death came and bore away to her eternal home "mid the numberless stars of the beautiful sky" the spirit of my beloved wife, Mrs. Malone Tucker. She was 20 years of age and had been a patient sufferer for several months.

She leaves a husband, three children, a father and mother, sisters and brother, besides a host of friends to mourn their loss. At 17 years of age she confessed her faith in Christ at Mountrees church. In her latter days of such intense suffering her faith grew stronger and stronger, and for many weeks before she left us, knew she must go and was willing to submit to His will. She was kind hearted and impulsive, always thoughtful of others even till the last.

It was sad to say good bye but the Lord giveth and He taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord.

Her remains were taken to the family burying ground and there laid to rest by the side of her sister, who preceded her to the grave only 10 months ago. Burial services were conducted by her uncle, Eld. Fred McLawhon.

Dearest wife, you have left me Here in this wide world alone, But I pray to my Redeemer We may meet around His throne.

Sigh not, sweet wife, 'twas not by chance You came on earth to bloom; 'Twas God's own will that placed you here To breath your sweet perfume.

There I beheld with delight The blessed three in one; And strong affections fix my sight On God's incarnate Son.

His promise stands forever firm, His grace shall ne'er depart; He binds my name upon His arm And seals it on His heart.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zickfoose, Adolph W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by J. L. Wooten's drug store.

Asking and Answering Questions.

Mrs. Henpeck (to Mr. H., who is reading)—Your little son just asked you a question, and you didn't even notice him. You ought to be ashamed of yourself, and I shall—

Mr. Henpeck—I didn't hear him.

Mrs. H.—Oh, no, you never hear when a member of your family speaks to you. You are deaf to the very ones you should love and cherish; deaf to—

Mr. H.—What does he want to know?

Mrs. H.—He asked you what a hermit was.

Mr. H.—A hermit, my son, is a man who loves peace and quiet.—London Tit-Bits.

By Elimination.

Jokes about twins are more numerous than twins themselves. For all that, there need be no hesitation in repeating a joke which passes current in at least one section of the country.

"There used to live over on Painter's farm," said the humorist who told the story, "a couple of twins named Dan and Abe. They moved away since. At the time I remember 'em they were grown men, but they were as near like as them two gallon jugs. The only difference was that Dan had good, sound teeth, and Abe he'd lost most of his out of the front part of his face.

"The only way to know which was which was to stick your finger in Abe's mouth. If he bit ye it was Dan."—Youth's Companion.

Her Pertinent Query.

"Of course," she said, "I realize that you have every confidence in me, as you say, but I must admit that it would be a great satisfaction to me if you would tell me why"—

"Yes?" he said anxiously, as she paused.

"If you would tell me," she repeated, "why it is that you deem it necessary to put your love letters through a copying press?"

Then he instantly recalled that she had once been a stenographer in a business house and was "on to" his little precautionary measure, so to speak.—New York Press.

A Whistler Story.

Whistler was in Paris at the time of the coronation of the king of England, and one evening at a reception at the Hotel Ritz a duchess said to him:

"Do you know King Edward, Mr. Whistler?"

"No, madame," said the painter. She looked surprised.

"Why, that is odd," she murmured. "I met the king at a dinner party last year, and he said that he knew you."

"Oh," said Whistler, "that was only his brag."
