COUNTY MATTERS.

Some of the Work of the Commissioners.

It has not been the proceedings of the last meeting of the board of county commissioners could be had for publication earlier than now, and as it is late only the most important matters are given.

A special election was ordered held on May 6th in a district of Farmville township on the question of local taxation for school. R. B. Bynum was appointed registrar and Richard Tugwell and J. N. Bynum judges to hold the election.

A special election was also ordered on May 9th in the Barny's X Roads section of Swift Creek township on the question of extending the stock law boundaries. W. S. Roach was appointed registrar and J. W. Cannon and J. W. Kirkman judges to hold this election.

Joseph Ross, A. W. Ange and J. D. Cox were appointed commissioners for Winterville stock law territory.

W. L. Brown was appointed cotton weigher for Greenville and J. A. Harrington for Ayden.

The following were appointed to list takers for the different townships:

Beaver Dam—C. D. Smith. Belvoir—D. C. Barrow. Bethel—S. M. Jones. Carolina—H. G. Nobles. Chicod—H. C. Venters. Contentnea—H. C. Cannon. Falkland—J. H. Smith. Farmville—W. E. Barrett. Greenville—J. J. Harrington. Pactolus—M. T. Spear. Swift Creek—L. B. Mewborn.

All Have Them.

Nearly every town contains persons who it seems, would rather pull down than build up. And they do not stop at always arraying themselves "against" measures that are helpful to the town, but they go farther and endeavor to do what they can against something or somebody.

They are never found trying to help their fellow man along, but their only thought is to "beat" somebody. Such folks are worth very little to themselves or the community in which they live. They are never happy themselves and it seems to be their great desire to make other folks miserable. —Louisburg Times.

He Kept up in the Race.

Jarvis S. Barrow, President Manchester Cotton Mills, Rock Hill, S. C., writes:

"In 1883 I painted my residence with L. & M. It looks better than a great many houses painted three years ago.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready-for-use paint.

Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents per gallon, and mix it with Longman & Martinez L. & M. Paint.

It makes paint cost about $1.20 per gallon.

Wears and covers like gold. Every church given a liberal quantity when bought from H. L. Carr.

A Correction.

Ayden, N. C., April 15.—We naturally presume it was a mistake, not intended, on the part of the Winterville correspondent to the News and Observer that the remains of Mrs. Ida Edwards would be carried to Winterville for interment. Mrs. Edwards' home was Ayden and her husband, Mr. J. J. Edwards, is one of our preceptors and most influential merchants. He has a magnificent home here and has been a resident for quite a while. We were both pained and surprised when we read the article.

THE SANS SOUCI CLUB.

Reported for Reflector.

The Sans Souci club was most pleasantly entertained by Miss Gleno Forbes, Tuesday, April 11th. The guests were received in the hall by Miss Helen Forbes who served delicious frappe. In the absence of the president, the vice-president, Mrs. Woodward, filled the chair. The literary program of the afternoon was an instructive paper on Lew Wallace, the author of Ben Hur, read by Miss Lizzie Jones. An interesting feature of the club proceedings was the reading of items of interest by each member.

Miss Jessie Tyson added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon by favoring us with a vocal solo.

The visitors present were Mrs. Burt Moye and Mrs. Pritchard, Misses Neal, Suttle, Connor, Coulter, Taylor, Tyson and Blow.

Refreshments were served after which the club adjourned to meet April 25th.

FITTED FEET.

A man can make himself a big lot of misery by wearing wrong Shoes—and it often proves the "wrong Shoe" when one Man insists on having a style just like some friend wears.

There are several radical families of feet. Let us fit yours—for the fitted foot looks better than one cramped or twisted into a wrong shaped Shoe. Straight lasts, swing or Common Sense lasts. Any normal foot can be fitted and fitted well from one of these three shapes.

HAVE YOU SEEN This Seasons styles?

They are splendid specimens of structural faultless Footwear. Such Men's Shoes are not sold anywhere else for less than a half to a dollar more in price. All leathers in a galaxy of stylish toes.

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought, neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

SATURDAY, APR. 15, 1905.

Dr. E. A. Alderman was on Thursday formally inaugurated as president of the University of Virginia amid elaborate ceremonies.

It was just twenty years ago—April 15th, 1885—that the writer became sole owner of THE REFLECTOR. He owned a half interest in the paper prior to that date.

While the head of a Durham family was away from home his wife allowed a company to put an organ in the house. When the husband returned home the presence of the organ enraged him and he threw it out in the street. Then the company sounded a note and had him arrested on the charge of injury to personal property.

Charlotte physicians are doing such a lucrative business writing whiskey prescriptions, that a traveling optician sojourning in the city, and also a colored physician, put in their hands and went to writing prescriptions contrary to law. The optician landed in jail and the colored doctor was bound over to Superior court.

Appeal to Farmers.

"To the cotton farmers of North Carolina: So much has been said and done—and wisely—to convince the cotton farmers of the South of the advantage to themselves of growing less cotton in 1905 than was grown in 1904, there seems little necessity of saying more. And yet the subject is of such vast importance, so fraught with weal or woe of their material interests, I beg permission of the North Carolina farmers to make one last appeal to them to stand solidly together in support of the resolutions of the New Orleans convention.

"It has been stated time and again—and this statement is true—that the small crop of cotton brings more money, not only per pound, but in gross amount, than a large crop.

"Last year's record breaking crop may prove an exception to this rule, if prices advance, or even remain at present figures. But if the government report in June shall show no material reduction of acreage, present prices cannot be maintained.

"There are many estimates, differing widely of amount of American cotton needed for the world's supply. I give what seems to be a conservative one:

"Europe will need at least 7,300,000 bales; United States and Canada, 4,200,000 bales; Japan and Mexico, 300,000 bales. Total consumption, 11,800,000 bales of American cotton.

"Suppose 12,000,000 bales can be handled by spinners, a surplus of one and one-half millions still remains to depress the market, unless it can be protected by the executive committee of the Cotton Growers' Association. Still this one and a half million bales, carried over into next year's crop, if that crop is a large one, will utterly demoralize prices. If the government report shall show another 30,000,000 acre crop, we may expect this panic in prices, and no power on earth can prevent it. The greatest factors now—the only ones, as I see it—maintaining present prices, are the New Orleans resolutions to reduce acreage and the hold of the executive committee on the present surplus.

"The farmers have never been in such an independent position for reducing cotton acreage. Plant corn, peanuts, chufas, cow peas, make forage crops for sale, let the land be idle and save fertilizer bills—anything, to prevent such unwieldy cotton surplus. It will be better for the individual farmer, it will be better for the farmers at large.

"I make this appeal with all the earnestness of deep conviction, and to all the cotton farmers of the State, whether or not they belong to the Association.

"The greatest obstacle in the way of united action is the apprehension among the farmers themselves that they will not all hold together. If each individual farmer will hold together, the whole body will take care of itself. The man who will deliberately seek to take advantage of his fellows in this crisis, and, while they are striving for the common good, to advance his selfish interests, is untrue to the cause and unworthy the fellowship of good men.

"It is not worth while to prolong this letter, but in all seriousness and sincerity I appeal to the farmers to cut down their cotton acreage at least 25 per cent., and hereafter to continue to diversify their crops. Such a policy will bring a degree of prosperity to the State such as has not been known since the war.

"Commissioner of Agriculture"
