THE REVIVAL MEETING.

Interest Increases With Each Service.

Last night was a repetition of the preceding nights at the Martin meeting at the Christian church. Large crowds, deep interest and a rising tide of enthusiasm mark the progress of the campaign.

Dr. Martin was in excellent form and gave utterance to a most powerful and soul-stirring sermon on "The Great Salvation."

At the close of the service four made the good confession. One also came in at the afternoon service.

J. Boyd Jones, of Wilson, surprised his many friends in Greenville by dropping in last night. At the close of the services he gave a brief but forcible talk to the congregation in his own breezy and happy style.

Meetings today 3:30 and 8 p. m. All are cordially invited to all services.

R. O. Jeffers returned Thursday evening from New York

H. McClellan returned Thursday evening from Suffolk.

C. M. Bernard, of Raleigh, is in town.

Time Tried and Merit Proven.

One minute Cough Cure is right on time when it comes to curing Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite Cough Syrup. For sale by Jao I. Wooten.

Marcellus Fleming has purchased the grocery business of J. A. Brady and will carry it on at the same stand.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Interesting Session and Much Business Thursday Night.

The board of aldermen were in regular monthly session Thursday night, all the members being present.

The several standing committees made report of work in their respective departments during the past month.

The lights and wells committee recommended that the well near the old market house be filled up and it was ordered done. The committee was also instructed to advertise and sell the old street lamps and posts.

The white cemetery committee reported that the fence around the enclosure had been completed.

The ordinance committee recommended an amendment to section 1 of chapter 3 of the town laws which was adopted. The amendment is that any person who "shall engage in illegal or improper diversion, or shall be guilty of any indecent or immoral language, or shall be guilty of any indecent, insulting or immoral conduct or behavior in any public street or elsewhere in the town, shall be deemed a disorderly person."

An ordinance was also adopted prohibiting the obstruction of any drains or ditches on the streets of the town, under a penalty of $10.

The fire department committee reported that the new hose reels had been received. The following places were suggested as locations for the hose reel stations: At Harrington's stables on Evans street, at Ficklen's stables in West Greenville, on Moses King's lot on Fifth street, at Parham's warehouse, on T. R. Moore's lot in South Greenville.

The treasurer, tax collector, dispensary commissioners, chief and assistant police and chief of fire department, filed their monthly reports.

The police were ordered to procure nets and catch and impound all dogs found running at large on the streets on which tax has not been paid.

The board of internal improvements sent up a communication stating that they had accepted the water and light plants from the contractors.

The assistant police was instructed to inspect the premises around the distillery and order the owners to cleanse same if found needed and report to the mayor.

A watchman's clock was ordered purchased to be used by the night police.

R. J. Cobb, chairman of the water and light commission, made a statement relative to the plants and asked a loan of $2,500 from the general fund to enable the commission to meet bills until sufficient collections could be made. The loan was granted. The commission was also authorized to insure the plant.

Committees were appointed to confer with the commission relative to rate to be charged against the town for lights and water, and also in regard to placing additional street lights.

Permission was granted N. Constantine to run a merry-go-round in town upon payment of a tax of $2 per day.

Red Hawks Fire Co., petitioned for 24 caps and belts, two rubber coats and one pair of rubber boots. They were ordered purchased.

An agreement was made with D. C. James to number the houses of the town and furnish the board a detailed map of same, the cost to be 10 cents for each house numbered.

The election for aldermen in the several wards was called for the first Monday in June, the registrars, judges and polling places as follows: First ward—Edgar Beck registrar, H. Harding and Leonidas Fleming judges. Polling place residence on corner of Second and Greene streets.

Second ward—R. Hyman registrar, W. C. Hines and D. S. Spain judges. Polling place Mrs. V. H. Whichard's school house on Pitt street.

Third ward—L. W. Lawrence registrar, S. J. Parham and W. H. Smith judges. Polling place court house.

Fourth ward—J. G. Bowling registrar, Ollen Warren, Jr., and T. M. Hooker judges. Polling place J. J. Turnage's store at Five Points.

Fifth ward—G. J. Woodward registrar, J. S. Tunstall and G. E. Coerry judges. Polling place centre brick warehouse on Dickinson avenue.

D. J. Whichard was appointed to list the taxes of the town.

It was agreed to pay J. C. Lanier $5 for certain of his property used in widening Dickinson avenue. Accounts were allowed amounting to $769.58.

The Confirmation Class.

Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., Bishop of the diocese, will begin his series of services here on Sunday, May 14th, which is but little over a week off. This coming Sunday is, therefore, the last time the Confirmation class will have an opportunity to meet before the Bishop comes, and I earnestly hope that every member of that class will be present Sunday. There will be two meetings of the class: One on Sunday morning during the Sunday school hour for a study of the Holy Communion; the other at 4 o'clock p. m., for instruction as to the meaning of Baptism and Confirmation, with a brief sketch of the history of the church and its position today. Both meetings will be in the church.

I beg to say that this information is not for Episcopalians only, nor is it solely for those who expect to be confirmed when the Bishop comes, though it is primarily addressed to them. The meeting of the class is public and open to all who may wish to attend, and a hearty welcome will be given all who do attend. W. E. COX.

Hose Reels.

Four new hose reels for the use of the fire department have arrived and the new fire hose has been placed on them. There will be reel stations in various sections of the town so as to have the hose convenient in case of fire.

Handsome Monument

A beautiful monument was recently erected at the grave of Miss Sarah Hooker in Cherry Hill cemetery. It was constructed by Lanier & Hilliard, the marble dealers here, and reflects credit upon their workmanship.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., May 5, 1905

The Oxford Orphan singing class will be here Saturday, June 10th. Let everyone give them a cordial welcome and let the financial response to the needs of these little ones, deprived of parents and home, be liberal. Don't let us stop at the $50 limit of heretofore, but make it $1.00 or more if possible. Our people are prosperous and generous and kindhearted and we verily believe when these poor children shall have come here and left they will feel they have been among friends who have shown their appreciation not alone by words but by noble works as well. Yes, let Ayden and all the surrounding community respond and respond magnanimously too, and the credit for having done so will be to us a pleasant consolation of a duty well performed.

At a meeting of the directors of the graded school at this place Prof. T. H. King was re-elected principal, Misses Annie Lee Perry, Mary Hodges, Ida W. Edwards and Georgia Joyner teachers and Mrs. Stancill Hodges in charge of the music department for the next term of the school.

We do verily believe if every family in Ayden should get fly paper and use two sheets every day for two weeks Mr. Fly would be a rare commodity here during the remainder of the warm season. What a blessing that would be. Even the babies could rest.

Miss Reba Stokes is visiting Misses Lizzie and Lorena Dixon.

The Disciples are holding their convention here this week. P. B. Hall, of Kinston, is president and L. H. Cox, of Grifton, clerk. There are a large number of visitors and everything is working harmoniously.

Hon. W. R. Williams, of Falkland and Hon. E. A. Moye, of Greenville, are here in attendance upon the Disciple convention.

John Hart and family, of Kinston, have been here during the week to attend the Alexander-McLawnhorn marriage.

Miss Ella Dawson, of Washington, D. C., has been visiting friends in Ayden during the past few days.

M. B. Tripp & Bro. are now prepared to make wooden legs for cripple horses or mules. Their latest was a decided success.

Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride on Main street in this place, Mr. W. B. Alexander and Miss Mattie McLawnhorn were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. J. A. Hornaday, of Greenville, performed the ceremony. The couple left on the morning train to be away until the 8th, inst., after which they will be at home.

Ayden will and does expect big things of the newly elected town officials during the next twelve months. There is every opportunity for these officers to make a record. They will have many serious problems to confront them but we believe them to be equal to the emergency and have no doubt the result of their every undertaking will prove successful and of great benefit to the town and people. Ayden is on a boom and everything propitious for a record favorable to these highly honored gentlemen.

Black molasses and beef hoof is the fashionable dish now adopted by one of our sine qua non's. Wonder if it will prove catching? Irael Moore, of Timothy, was here Wednesday.

We return thanks to Miss Annie Edwards for an invitation to attend the closing exercises of the graded school here tonight.

The price of a pretty face is $1.00—three packages of Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings red lips, bright eyes and lovely color. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

CLOTHES OF QUALITY.

Copyright 1905 by Frank Wilson

Clothes don't make the man, to be sure, but its the only thing that nine-tenths of the people we meet have to go by.

The man, who does not make a good appearance in this Twentieth Century, is badly handicapped.

Clothes are the all important part of a man's make up and its right here that we come in.

Our Spring Suits are splendid specimens of modern tailoring.

Handsome, Stylish and Correct in Every Detail.

The fabrics are the latest and we believe that we can please any man with a Spring Suit, regardless of how particular or "fussy" he may be about his clothes.

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

Prospecting for Stock Farm.

B. K. Nutter, of Kentucky, a man experienced in stock raising, has been here prospecting with a view of establishing a truck farm out at the plantation of O. L. Joyner. We believe this is an enterprise that the county needs. A good stock farm would be of great benefit to this section and we hope the gentlemen interested will succeed in their plans.

Farmers Meeting.

There will be a meeting of farmers here tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the court house. An address will be delivered by Rev. D. W. Davis.

All women should strive to be beautiful. Beauty rules mankind. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea brings red lips, bright eyes and cream like complexion. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Wooten's Drug Store.

FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1905.

The price of cotton is as uncertain as the weather. It bobs up and down to catch the dabblers in futures going and coming.

The number of towns in the state that recently voted for improvements and better schools are a good indication of the march of progress that is on in North Carolina.

They are bloody reports coming out from Chicago. The labor troubles in that city are giving Mayor Dunne as much as he wants to look after. Guess he would be glad for such riots to be Dunne with.

They are having a high old time over municipal affairs in Wilmington. The newly elected aldermen are about equally divided in two factions and so far each side seems determined not to let the other side do anything.

Up to date the president's hunting party in the Colorado mountains have captured ten bears, with a good sprinkling of small game and snakes thrown in. His strenuousness gives it out that he is having a great time and is delighted with the sport.

Nothing succeeds like success, you say. Ever try failure?—Raleigh Post.

Some have. Did you never hear the saying that there are instances where men "fail to succeed?" Sometime they get their biggest chunk of "success" that way.

The editors are being flooded with invitations to good things in this year of grace. The state meeting for this year is to be held in Asheville in July, and the editors of Virginia and South Carolina have both been invited to come over and unite with their North Carolina brethren in a few days pleasure in the mountain city. And Greensboro and Salisbury are also putting forward to have the editors make a stop in those cities as they pass through.

Greshams Lease Atlantic Hotel.

The Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City, owned by the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, has been leased for the coming season to C. Gresham & Son, Charlotte, N. C., and will be under the management of Mr. Willis P. Collins, who has successfully managed resort hotels in Western North Carolina and some of the Western States.

The Greshams are well known all over North Carolina and the South as managers of famous eating houses at important points on the Southern, Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line railways.

In preparation for the summer business a large amount of money has been expended in partially refurnishing many of the rooms of the hotel and refitting the dining room and kitchen.

It is, therefore, a safe prediction that the hotel will this summer be kept in splendid style and its table will be unsurpassed.

The hotel will be opened in part on May 15th, receiving such guests as may care to come here at that time, and will be formally opened on June 1st, as usual. Already a large number of guests have been booked for the summer, there being a greater number of applications than has ever before been known so early.

In order to accommodate the large number of visitors to this popular seaside resort the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad has announced that, in addition to its usual train service, it will run special trains every Sunday. These special trains will not only afford cheap rates to this point, but will make it possible for excursion visitors to spend a longer time at the seashore than heretofore.

Perhaps the greatest improvement, however, and one that has been long wished for by the people along the line and the traveling public generally is the announcement that through sleeping cars will be regularly operated during the summer in connection with the Southern Railway to and from Morehead.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Major William M. Robbins.

The state loses a valuable citizen in the death yesterday of Major William M. Robbins, who passed away at the residence of his son at Salisbury, at the age of 74 years. He was a native Tar Heel, born in Randolph county. He graduated with distinction at Randolph-Macon College, and afterward studied law, going to Alabama to locate. When the civil war broke out he joined the Fourth Alabama Infantry and was gradually promoted to the position of major and served throughout the war. He was once desperately wounded at the Wilderness. Owing to the altered conditions at his Alabama home, he returned to North Carolina, locating at Salisbury, and was elected to the State Senate of 1868—the reconstruction Legislature. He denounced the numerous wild measures put through that body and worked with all his might and main to defeat them. He was re-elected in 1870. In 1872 he was sent to Congress from the seventh district and served six years. He was a faithful and industrious member, being seldom absent from his seat. He returned to the practice of law in 1879 and built up an extensive business. During the last Cleveland administration he was named a member of the Gettysburg battlefield commission and was active in aiding to mark the positions of the various commands in that bloody encounter.—Charlotte Observer.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison, Kan., Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Pacific between Wichita and Klowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in the office today, we asked him about it. He says terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by Jno L Wooten.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Advertising Is Bidding.

Public advertising is conscious bidding for trade by the merchant through the channels of the newspapers, etc. In public advertising one should study the methods of his competitors, and improve them to his own advantage. Each production ought to have something new, some attractive feature that the competitor has not. If you advertise in a daily paper change your advertisement every day, if in a weekly, change every week. "Special sales" are helpful when properly organized. The inducements offered will bring customers from afar, and besides, you will find it a good way to dispose of shelf worn goods. Keep your stock always as new and as fresh as possible.—Merchants Journal.

Bilious Bill was getting bloated, And his tongue was muchly coated. Patent "tonics" wouldn't cure him, Companies would not insure him. All his friends were badly frightened, But their spirits soon were lightened, For Bill said—and they believed him, EARLY RISER pill relieved him. The famous little pills "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Bilioousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno L Wooten.

A Montgomery Giant.

There lives near Cedar Springs, Montgomery county, one of the largest men in the State. John Dankins is his name. A subscriber living at Candor says Mr. Dankins is 5 feet, 8 inches high and weighs 500 pounds. It takes 17 yards of cloth to make him a suit of clothes. He is a giant in strength and is a carpenter by trade.—Lexington Dispatch.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. For sale by Jno L Wooten.

Express Agent Missing With $12,000

Laredo, Tex., May 3.—Martino Gonzales, agent of the National Express Company at Sattilo, Mexico, is missing, as is also a package said to contain $12,000 in currency. It is not known whether he is a fugitive or whether he met with foul play. He has always enjoyed the fullest confidence of the company.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Healthy, happy babies. Mothers say that Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is the greatest baby medicine in the world. Makes them strong, well and active. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Wooten's Drug Store.

Let Common Sense Decide

Do you honestly believe, that coffee sold loose (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not over-clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you would not dream of are taken to secure perfect cleanliness, flavor, strength and uniformity.

From the time the coffee leaves the factory no hand touches it till it is opened in your kitchen.

This has made LION COFFEE the LEADER of ALL PACKAGE COFFEES.

Millions of American Homes welcome LION COFFEE daily. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity. "Quality survives all opposition."

(Sold only in 1 lb. packages. Lion-head on every package.)

THE AZTECS OF OLD.

Not Only Great Soldiers, but Great Cultivators as Well.

The Aztecs of old were not only great soldiers, but also diligent cultivators of the soil, and had acquired considerable proficiency in agriculture, although they had no horses, oxen or other animals of draft. To this day the men earn their living chiefly as day laborers in the fields now owned by the Mexicans. The staple product now, as of yore, is the maize and next to it the maguay or agave, the sweet sap of which is the principal material for the famous Mexican pulque.

Some species are cultivated as vegetables, others for the sake of their leaves, which yield a strong fiber that can be woven into fabrics; hence the saying that the agave supplies the people with drink, food and clothing. The men have little ambition to excel in handicraft. Farriery and carpentry are about the only trades they care to take up. In the cities they work as porters, carriers or peddlers in a small way.

Like all southern Indians, their complexion is of a ruddy chocolate brown, and they are not particularly good looking. Most of the women now have large hands and feet, probably the inheritance of generations of hard workers. And they are strong. In the warehouse of a wine merchant an Aztec porter was seen to take a cask of claret on his back and carry it quite a distance.

The load certainly weighed not less than 400 pounds, and no white man would have thought of lifting it. The law requires the people, in the cities to forsake the Indian breechcloth and poncho and assume the regulation garb of the poor working class of Mexico—the wide, loose trousers of cotton cloth or manta, with jacket to match—but the breechcloth is worn outside of the trousers and thereby replaces the civilized suspenders.—Southern Workman.

A Boy's Shrewd Guess.

A boy was discovered by the owner of an orchard in the act of stealing apples. The boy happened to see the owner in time to make a get away. "Here, boy," called the owner to the boy, who was hitting the gravel down the pike, "come back, and you can have all the apples you can eat and all you can carry away." Instead of going back, however, the boy kept right on going. Meeting another man in the road, who had heard the owner of the orchard call, the man asked him why he did not go back. "Well," said the boy, "I did think for a minute I would go back, and then I looked again and saw that the fellow had one hand behind his back, and it sort of flashed through my mind that maybe he wuz a darned liar!"—Kansas City Journal.

What Some Men Fail to See.

That they have left their newspapers scattered over the floor.
That cigar ashes have to be cleaned up.
That the soiled linen has to be put in the laundry bag.
That yesterday's clothing has to be hung up.
That wives grow uninteresting because they have no time for reading or society.
That there are hundreds of little things which husbands could do to lighten the work of the home.
That by so doing both husband and wife would be happier.
That to find out what these little things are needs but two open eyes and one generous, thoughtful heart.—Chicago Journal.

A Convenient Loan.

It is said that a man whose musical talent was as widely known as his impetuous condition once accosted a friend on the street, drew him into a doorway and requested a loan of $25.

"When do you think you'll be able to repay it?" asked the friend, to whom it was by no means a new experience.

"This time," said the ready borrower, with an engaging smile, "I hoped you'd be willing to make it a 'Kathleen Mavourneen' loan."

"A what?" demanded the practical man.
"A 'Kathleen Mavourneen' loan," said his expensive friend. "It may be for years, and it may be forever."

A Gratuitous Protest.

A Philadelphia commercial traveler who was stranded in a Georgia village sat on the porch of the small inn patiently awaiting the announcement of dinner. At noon, says the Philadelphia Press, a dandy appeared at the door and rang a big hand bell.

Immediately the "coon" dog, which had been asleep in the sunshine, awoke, raised his nose toward the sky and howled loud and dolorously.

The dandy stopped ringing the bell and scowled at the dog. "Yo' don't haf ta eat dis dinnah! 'Sides, whar's yo' maunah, dawg?"

Frost Fishing.
Catching fish without hook, bait or net may seem to inlanders almost an impossibility. Such fishing may be seen on the Atlantic coast nightly in winter near New York, and a species of the finny family most succulent and toothsome is secured by the thousands during the winter season in this way.

The little frost fish come in near shore to feed at the half tide, but the powerful rollers, catching them, toss them upon the sand, where they lie gasping and struggling until a succeeding roller carries them safely back into the icy green seas unless some skillful hand lifts the little frost fish into a clam basket. Meanwhile barrels and baskets, bags and wagons innumerable are being filled to overflowing as wave after wave flings the fish upon the sand.—New York Herald.

The Kilkenny Cats.

To fight like the cats of Kilkenny relates to the Irish fable of two Kilkenny cats which fought so fiercely that only their tails were left! As a matter of fact, the fable is said to have originated in an actual episode. During the Irish rebellion of 1803 it was a custom of the Hessian soldiers stationed at Kilkenny to tie two cats together by their tails, hang them over a clothesline and then leave them to fight. Surprised one night at this brutal sport, a soldier drew his sword and with a cut across their tails set the cats free. The presence of the tails was explained by saying that two cats had fought till only their tails were left.

Soothing to Mother.

A mother sent her small boy into the country and after a week of anxiety received this letter:

"I got here all right, but forgot to write before. A fellow and I went out in a boat, and the boat tipped over, and a man got me out. I was so full of water that I didn't know anything for a long time. The other boy has to be buried after they find him. His mother came and cried all the time. A horse kicked me over, and I've got to have some money for fixin' my head. We are going to set a barn on fire tonight, and I should laugh if we don't have some fun. I shall bring home a tame ferret if I can get him in my trunk."

vs. Notice of Summons and Warrant of Attachment.

The defendant above named will take notice that a summons in the above entitled action was issued against said defendant on the 28th day of April, 1905, by H. Harding a Justice of the Peace of Pitt county, N. C., for the sum of twenty-two dollars due said plaintiff by account which summons is returnable before said Justice at his office in Greenville in said county and in Greenville township on the 27th day of May, 1905. The defendant will also take notice that warrant of attachment was issued by said Justice on the 28th day of April, 1905 against the property of said defendant company which warrant is returnable before said Justice at the time and place above named for the return of the summons. When and where the defendant company or its gen'l agent is requested to appear and answer or demur to the complaint or the relief demanded will be granted. H. Harding, J. P. This May 4th, 1905.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe. You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
