THE MARTIN MEETINGS.

Large Attendance at Sunday Services.

Sunday was a busy day with the evangelistic family, morning at the Christian church, afternoon at the opera house, and at the church again at night.

Nearly all of Greenville was on hand at the services, so it would be indeed superfluous to attempt to write it up.

The address at the opera house on "America, its dangers, delights and delusions" was a brilliant effort, and the full house attested its interest by listening most attentively for one hour and a quarter as the able orator unfolded his theme.

Miss Genevieve and Mr. Elbert Martin favored the large audience with one of their beautiful violin duets.

At the church at night Dr. Martin made a strong appeal to the young men and young women on the text "Come up higher." At the close four young men made the good confession and several promised to do so later.

The musical features were of the usual high order and aided much in the success of the service.

The "Martin Family" will continue through the week twice daily at the Christian church, 3:30 and 8, p. m. Indications point to a great outcome of the meetings.

"Beaufort Plow Boys."

Governor Glenn has received notice from the governor of New Jersey to the effect that it had been decided in connection with the ceremonies for unveiling a monument to the Ninth New Jersey volunteers, at New Bern, May 18th, to present to governor of North Carolina the "Beaufort Plow Boys" battle flag that was captured by the Ninth New Jersey regiment at the battle of New Bern when a gallant charge was made by the Jersey volunteers. It is to be restored by Governor Glenn to the survivors of "Beaufort Plow Boys" or to "Ladies of Beaufort," by whom it is inscribed as having been made.

Ayden Graded School.

The closing exercises of the Ayden graded school were had Friday night. We learn from a number who were present that they were very fine. A splendidly selected and well arranged program was so executed as to delight a very large audience which was present. The work in this school for the past year has been exceptionally fine and Friday evening's exercises was a fitting climax to end the year's work. Our correspondent there will evidently give an account of the entertainment and this we cheerfully leave to him. He knows how to do such work.

Burial of Child

The remains of the 10-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brooks, of Kinston, were brought to Greenville on Sunday morning's train, the interment taking place at 9 o'clock in Cherry Hill cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. J. A. Hornaday and the pall bearers were Messrs. D. I. James, R. C. Flanagan, L. I. Moore, T. M. Hooker, W. B. Wilson, J. L. Carper, J. E. Nobles and J. B. Higgs.

Notice Altar Workers.

The Altar Workers of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, will meet Tuesday afternoon, at 5:30 o'clock, with Miss Glenn Forbes, on Evans street. Large attendance is desired as there will be business of importance.

Since the advent of electric light, moonlight nights are not so badly missed.

TWO MUSIC GRADUATES.

Miss Irma Cobb and Miss Annie R. Long at Peace Give Recital.

A graduating recital was given at Peace Institute last night which was charming, and which showed the value of the instruction given and the capability of the two young pianists, Miss Irma Lee Cobb and Miss Annie Reade Long. In the charming recital they were assisted by Miss Corinne Henkel, Mezzo-soprano.

There was present a most interested audience and the program began with Feu Rolant, Op 56, (Duverney) by Misses Cobb and Long. During the recital Miss Long rendered selections from Sciaratti, Bach, Mendelssohn and Sapeinoff, while Miss Cobb's were from Schumann, Moszkowski, Lischetisky, Ole Olsen and Weber both young ladies doing clever work. Miss Henkel sang delightful full, her selections being "Every Morn I Send Three Violets" (Meyer-Helmund). "Like a Rose Should Be" (H. Clough-Leigher) and "Summer" (C. Chaminade).—Raleigh News & Observer, 6th.

Bynum School.

The school near Dr. Bynum's, in Farmville township, taught by Miss Helen Goode Jeffress, closed Friday with a delightful picnic and a speech by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale who reports a delightful day with the exception of the speech.

To Establish Tobacco Factories.

The North Carolina Farmers' Protective Association had a well attended meeting at the Guilford-Benbow this afternoon and discussed the establishment of tobacco factories at various points.

It was decided to open subscription books for a $50,000 factory at Madison and one may also be started at Rocky Mount. President John S. Cunningham, of Person county, presided and Mr. J. M. Sharpe, of Rockingham county, acted as secretary.—Greensboro Record.

Truck Hands Scarce.

Our truck farmers are having a little trouble about getting hands to pick peas. The scarcity of labor is the principal cause so many colored people going into the strawberry patches between here and Burgaw. Suffice it to say that nearly all the households are without servants. This is a most opportune time for the Woman's Club now in session in this city, to take some action in this matter.—Goldboro Headlight.

CLOTHES OF QUALITY.

Clothes don't make the man, to be sure, but its the only thing that nine-tenths of the people we meet have to go by.

The man, who does not make a good appearance in this Twentieth Century, is badly handicapped.

Clothes are the all important part of a man's, make up and its right here that we come in.

Our Spring Suits are splendid specimens of modern tailoring.

Handsome, Stylish and Correct in Every Detail.

The fabrics are the latest and we believe that we can please any man with a Spring Suit, regardless of how particular or "fussy" he may be about his clothes.

We are as ready to show as to sell.

The movement on foot to corner all the pencil pushers and scissors brigade of North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia in a bunch in the mountains around Asheville this summer will be productive of much good, for what the bunch will have to tell afterwards will be worth reading. Asheville ought to offer every inducement, and then she could use that $50,000 that she intends to boom and advertise Asheville for something else.

A striking example of inadequate transportation facilities is shown in the condition prevailing along the Atlantic Coast Line between Goldsboro and Wilmington. The ship mounds of strawberries were so enormous that facilities for handling them could not be furnished, and the result was that thousands of dollars worth of berries rotted at the depots. Claims for $200,000 have already been filed against the express company, and the planters should be able to recover every cent of the loss they sustain through insufficient facilities.

NEW ENGLAND'S GOOD WORK.

Story of Her Wonderful Growth and Development Lucidly Told.

What does New England's marvelous development along industrial lines mean to the South in the way of incentive and example? How may her beginnings and present pre-eminence in many lines of manufacture spur on the South to greater efforts in an industrial way than have yet been witnessed there? What is there in the history of industrial New England that may be carefully noted by the South and applied to her own present day activities with immense advantage?

It was to provide, in some measure at least, an answer to these most interesting queries that Mr. Albert Phenix, a special correspondent of the Manufacturers' Record, was commissioned last fall to visit New England and record, in a series of letters to that journal, his impressions of the genesis and present status of manufacturing in that section, with the idea that a story of New England's achievements, adverse physical conditions, would certainly contain lessons of value to those engaged in developing the South, so bountifully supplied with everything New England lacks.

Mr. Phenix covered his subject so broadly and so interestingly that, to meet suggestions that his letters be gathered in form for handy and permanent reference, they have been published in a little volume under the title "Yankee Thrift: The Story of New England's Marvelous Industrial Development," which is attracting very favorable attention. In separate chapters are discussed the rise and development of cotton, woolen, shoe, paper and machinery manufacturing, the significance of savings banks, labor conditions and the material results of the application of grit, ingenuity and unflinching activity to the transformation of a semi-barren corner of the country into one of the most prosperous regions of the world.

It is the story of what New England, without natural resources, has done, and is published as an incentive to the South, with her limitless possibilities and resources. The chapters are written in a lucid, straightforward style, with just enough statistical information to illustrate the points the writer makes, and the story throughout is one that should possess deep interest for one interested in the South's growth and supremacy. ("Yankee Thrift: The Story of New England's Marvelous Industrial Development." By Albert Phenix. Price 15 cents. Manufacturers' Record Publishing Co., Baltimore, Md)—The Baltimore News.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison, Kan., Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Pacific between Wichita and Klowa, lately appeared in a big one with a picture, and when he was in the office today, we asked him about it. He says terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

LETTER TO C. S. FORBES.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: You all about shoes. How many customers have you who know anything about 'em?

You have bought and sold shoes for years, and have learned what you know by your customers, liking one sort, and not liking another. They find out by wearing 'em.

So with paint; but we go deeper. We are 150 years old in the business; and we make, not buy—we make a good deal of paint.

We paint a good share of the railroad and steamer property in the United States, and may as well paint the private property. Yours as well as anybody else's.

Devco lead-and-zinc is your paint. Costs half as much as mixed paint or lead and oil because it takes fewer gallons and wears twice as long.

Mr. Ezra Rathbun, Williamsport, Pa., used 14 gallons of a well-known mixed paint for his house; he repainted it with Devco, bought 11 gallons and had 5 left.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVCO & Co.
P. S. H. L. Carr sells our Paint.

Bilious Bill was getting bloated, and his tongue was much coated. Patent "tonics" wouldn't cure him. Companies would not insure him. All his friends were badly frightened, but their spirits soon were lightened, for Bill said—and they believed him,

EARLY RISER pill relieved him. The famous little pills "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. For sale by Jno L. Wooten.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Time Tried and Merit Proven.

One minute Cough Cure is right on time when it comes to curing Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite Cough Syrup. For sale by Jno L. Wooten.

A TALE OF THE ARMADA.

The Blowing Up of the Florentine Gal-
leon, the Florencia.

Over three centuries ago a vessel
of the Spanish armada was blown up in Tobermory bay, off the coast of the island of Mull. Recently numerous relics have been recovered from it by divers. They include old cannon, swords, pistols, plate and coins. The vessel was the Florencia, a Florentine galleon which came from the Levant, one of the Italian possessions of the king of Spain, and was commanded by one Pereira. After the defeat of the armada the Florencia was forced by bad weather and lack of provisions to put into Tobermory bay. There Sir Lauchlane MacLean, who, because of his feuds with his neighbors, had been made a "denounced rebel" by King James of Scotland, formed an alliance with the Spaniards. With the aid of a hundred soldiers from the ship and of his own followers the wild chieftain made war on neighboring clans for some time.

At last he received a message from Captain Pereira requesting that the Spanish soldiers be sent back at once, as he was preparing for sea. At the same time he heard that the provisions supplied to the Spaniards had not been paid for.
Sir Lauchlane remonstrated with the don for his injustice, and satisfaction was promised. On the strength of this the men were sent back, but MacLean, not relying entirely on the captain's promise, retained three of the soldiers as hostages till the debt should be paid. At the same time he sent one of his own men, Donald Glas Mac-Lean, on board the Florencia to receive an adjustment of the demands of his people.

Donald Glas when he went on board the ship was disarmed and made prisoner, and no communication was allowed between himself and his friends. But Donald Glas conceived a plan which, though it meant certain death to himself,
promised a speedy and terrible retribution to his captors. Finding that the cabin in which he was confined was close to the magazine, he forced his way into it, and, laying a train
from it to the outside, he fired it.
The ship was blown to pieces, killing the 300 or 400 persons who were on board.

Breaking It Gently.

"Speaking of breaking bad news
gently," said an observer of men and events, "there was a certain Irishman who had great faith in his diplomacy and delicacy, and one day when a boy was killed at the quarry he told the men to leave everything in his hands, and he would break the news to the boy's mother as it should be done.

"So he went home, put on a black suit and a black tie, and he knocked at the door of the boy's mother's house.

"Good mornin', ma'am," he said.

"Is a sad accident yer bye Tom's gold watch has had."

"Why," said the mother, "Tom never had a gold watch."

"Sure, an' that's lucky," said the news breaker, "for there's twenty ton of rock fallen on him."

Mistaken Identity.

The woman thought that she recognized the cherubic little boy sitting next to her in the street car, and when the conveyance made a long stop at an open bridge she undertook to make the waiting pleasant for her small fellow passenger.

She was heard to ask sweetly,
"How is your little sister today, Tommy?"

"Huh!" snorted the offended
small boy, lifting an indignant countenance that was not Tommy's.

"Where'd I get any sister, I'd like to know? I haven't ever been married!"

What Can Be Done With Eggs.

Here are some of the emergency uses of eggs: They can be used as a substitute for paste or mucilage to seal a letter or a jar of jelly. The white will allay the smart of a burn
if bound upon it, excluding the air.
Half a dozen eggs given immediately after an emetic will render corrosive sublimate harmless. The white beaten and swallowed will dislodge a fish bone from the throat.
And if a mustard plaster be mixed with the white of egg instead of water no blister will follow the application of the plaster.

Kisses and a Hat.

"I was talking to my little granddaughter over the phone the other day," said Judge Parker recently to a few of his friends at a hotel in Albany, N. Y., "and when I ended
I said:
"Here, Dorothy, is a kiss for you."
"She replied, 'Oh, pshaw, grandpa, don't you know that a kiss over the telephone is like a straw hat?'"
"I said: 'Why, no, sweetheart.
How's that?'"
"It's not felt, grandpa."—New York Tribune.

THE MOUNTAIN FIDDLER.

His Music and His Instrument and the Way He Plays It.

There is hidden among the mountains of Kentucky, Tennessee and the Carolinas a people of whose inner nature and its musical expression almost nothing has been said.
The music of the southern mountaineer is not only peculiar, but,
like himself, peculiarly American.

Nearly all mountaineers are singers. Their untrained voices are of good timbre, the women's being sweet and high and tremulous and their sense of pitch and tone and harmony remarkably true. The fiddler or the banjo player is well treated and beloved among them,
like the minstrel of feudal days.

The mountain fiddler rarely cuddles his instrument under his chin.
He sets it against the middle of his chest and, grasping his bow near the middle, wields it with a jigging movement quite unlike the long sweep of the accomplished violinist's bow arm. It is sometimes complained that their playing is too rapid and jerky, but the tunes are composed for this tempo, and no other would be found suitable.

Prominent among the elements of this music is that leading American characteristic, humor; not the sparkling wit of the French nor the broad, clumsy jollification of the Teuton nor sarcasm nor irony, but the keen, wholesome, freakish
American love of a laugh, and it permeates, directly or indirectly, almost every line. The music, too, while usually minor, is not of a plaintive tendency. There are few laments, no sobbing and wailing.
In this it differs radically from that of savage peoples. Neither has it any martial throb or clang. It is reflective, meditative, with a vein of genial and sunny philosophy. The tunes chuckle, not merrily, but in amused contemplation.—Harper's Magazine.

Unnecessary Precaution.

The woman member of the village board of health had led gradually up to her errand at old Mr.
Pettiman's, which was to ask him to whitewash his pigsties inside and out.

"They will look so much better,"
she urged artfully, "and, besides, it is hygienic, healthy, you know."

Mr. Pettiman, smiling, raised a horny forefinger, then crooked it.
"You come 'long o' me," he said,
and led the way to the sties.

"There!" he went on, with a gracious gesture toward some enormous porkers sunk in the mud. "There they are. They speak for themselves. Don't you worry about my pigs. Mrs. Bolton. They're as healthy as they make 'em."

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe.

You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
