ONE DAY FOR THE TOWN.

Suggestion to Combine for One Large Library.

N. Constantine, the proprietor of the merry-go-round, has tendered his machine for one day to the town, the proceeds to apply to whatever object may be selected. Mayor F. M. Wooten suggests that the ladies take charge of the matter and let the proceeds apply to the library interests of the town, in which case all the people would be benefited. Mayor Wooten also suggests that if the ladies of the End of the Century Book Club would combine their public library with the graded school library and let both be used together as a public library under the supervision of the Book club, it would give the town one large library in place of two small ones and from a greater benefit than at present. Let this matter be discussed at once, and accept Mr. Constantine's offer and use the proceeds of the merry-go-round for the combined library.

The Inland Way.

Norfolk, Va., May 16.—An announcement was made today of the Board of Army Engineers which is to make a survey for a ten or twelve foot inland waterway between Norfolk and Beaufort, N. C., as provided for by an act of Congress. The board is to be composed of Lieutenant Colonel Smith S. Leach, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., Captain Clement A. Flagler, of Wilmington, Del.; and Captain George P. Howell, of Charleston, S. C.; and the board is to meet at the call of Colonel Leach. It is also to ascertain the character and possible cost of such private waterways as might be needed in establishing the complete waterway from Norfolk to Beaufort.

Is it Right?

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes more on fourteen gallons of ready for use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property owner loses just $4.20.

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten thousand churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M. paint.

The Altar Workers to Run Merry go round Thursday.

The Altar Workers society of the Methodist Episcopal church have rented the merry-go-round for Thursday from 5:00 to 11:00 p. m. and will run it for the benefit of the new church building. In connection with that the Ladies Aid society will have a lawn party.

All 'Round the Ring.

The merry-go-round will run until 11 o'clock tonight to aid the base ball club in getting equipped. Give the boys a large crowd and help them out.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday.

RAIN EXCESSIVE

Unusually Warm Week But Dry Weather is Needed.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture, North Carolina section, of the Climate and Crop Service, Weather Bureau, issued a weekly crop bulletin, for the week ending Monday, May 15, 1905.

"The past week was characterized by very warm, sultry weather frequent and in places excessive rains, and some very severe local thunderstorms with destructive winds. The mean temperature for the State averaged nearly 76 degrees or 8 degrees daily above normal, with the highest temperature exceeding 90 degrees for two or three days. Between the showers there was abundant sunshine, and warmth and moisture favored rapid growth of vegetation. Showers were frequent; in the central-southern portion of the state there was generally altogether too much rain, soaking the soil, keeping water courses full, and entirely preventing the most necessary work of the farmer at this time, the cultivation of rapidly growing crops. The most severe local storms occurred on the evenings of the 10th and 12th over Wayne county, Harnett, Johnston, Wake, Alamance and Guilford, and in the west in Rutherford, Davie, Alexander, Surry and Iredell. In these much damage was done to the land and crops by washing rains, and high winds blew down many forest and fruit trees, fence and barns. Damaging hail occurred in Wayne county. Over most of the extreme eastern and northern counties the rainfall was moderate and all conditions very favorable.

Brodie Duke in Washington.

Mr. Brodie Duke, of North Carolina, is a guest of the Raleigh. Mr. Duke's recent matrimonial experience in New York does not seem to have exerted any baneful influence on his personality, and he chatted with friends last evening in his customary cheerful way. He is a son of the late Washington Duke, the founder of the house and brother of James B. Duke, president of the American Tobacco Company, commonly known as the trust, and who is reputed to be worth something like $30,000,000. Mr. Brodie Duke is accompanied by his lawyer, and is not loquacious as to his recent happenings of a personal nature.—Washington Post

Glee Club Coming.

Smart Dressers.

Young men are, as a general thing, the smartest dressers.

The up-to-the-moment Young Man is a sort of a lexicon of clothes style and correctness.

He knows what's what and gets it.

But good fit, the newest colors, patterns, etc., aren't enough; for unless that snappy, jaunty appearance—characteristic of our Tailor Made Clothing—is there, it is not what the young man wants.

Our success in pleasing Young Men is not just "luck." It's due to our knowledge of what the young man wants and our ability to provide for him.

Then again our prices are always reasonable.

Did you ever notice how many young men come here for clothes? There's a reason for it.

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

WHAT WILL CHILDREN COME TO WHO ARE BROUGHT UP IN THE STREETS.

Bringing up children in a town is no easy task. It is a problem hard to solve. This we admit. The streets generally are the common play grounds for a majority of children, especially little boys. And these same youngsters who are coming along now, will a decade hence, constitute the young men and women of our State. Take the congested criminal courts, they are the direct results of children who are permitted to run wild in the streets. In the streets children pick up all kinds of vulgarity.

This is of great interest to every father and mother. It is of vital importance to society and the State as a whole.

A boy with his childhood days spent on the side-walks and in the streets eight times out of ten is a curse to any community. The only way to correct these evils is to take the children in hand and properly train them. There are plenty of ways in which their time and minds can be occupied when not in school.

No man nor woman is fit to be a father or mother whose whole being is dominated by evils which grow up in them and poison their future, which it surely will do if the proper course is not pursued in the early training of children.

Whether the president comes or not next fall, he has given Raleigh and Charlotte an opportunity of saying some nice things in advance. It indicates a hearty welcome if he does show his face in those two cities.

At the Eastern Public Education Society in Richmond, a member in discussing race suicide said that eight children was the limit, why not set the limit at a base ball nine.

Mr. Bryan says the only real peace is in religion. He just ought to have went up to Washington while Teddy was out in the wilds of Colorado.

After trying to corner all the wheat of America, Mr. Gates probably discovered that it was a larger place than he expected to "round in."

Charlotte is trying the experiment of sprinkling the streets with oil. Other places large enough to afford it will watch the result with interest.

There is no evidence that Cleveland is hankering after a job, but some fellows keep worrying about trying to find one for him.

The space fillers are yet making wages writing about Nan Patterson. It is time they were being blue penciled.

Chicago strikers are appealing for aid. They ought to help themselves by going to work.

When you're broke the girls are shy. They turn and fly as you come nigh.

Brace up old man, show some pluck. Take Rocky Mountain Tea; it will change your luck. Wooten's Drug Store.

BETHEL, N. C., May 16, 1905.

Miss Mary Hazell spent last Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Lizzie Mayo near here.

Messrs Randolph, Fleming and Jordan, of House, spent Sunday with B. A. Beverly.

Herbert Howard and Jonas Dozier, of Conetoe, spent Sunday evening in town.

Mrs. Cooper, of Hassell, is spending this week with Mrs. Geo. Howard.

J. M. Whichard spent today in town.

W. A. Cherry returned from Mt. Olive Saturday night. Guess some girl was the cause of it all.

McG. Ford and daughter spent last Thursday in Wilson.

The excursion between Washington and Wilson was poorly patronized. Guess they will stop running them if all turn out like this one.

The farmers are having lots to contend with now for the grass is growing at full speed and it still continues to rain. It would be a bright idea for the clerks to go out and help.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Goldsboro, are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith. Their baby has been right ill so their visit has been an unpleasant one.

The Baptists held their regular services last Sunday. Mr. Enbanks preached an excellent sermon.

Baker Wommack, of Rocky Mt., spent Sunday night and Monday with his best girl.

Miss Lizzie Grimes spent Sunday in town.

J. J. Barker, an insurance man of Goldsboro, is spending a few days with us.

Theo. T. Thomas, spent last Sunday afternoon out at J. Rufus Carson's. He can tell you who was there.

Lawyer F. G. James, of Greenville, spent Monday in town on business.

W. C. Ward and Judson Blount spent Sunday in the country.

The congregation at the Baptist church at the beginning of the services last Sunday morning as disturbed by a very sad accident. Miss Lucy Manning and her brother Louis, drove from their home a few miles in the country to attend church. After Louis had taken the bridle off the horse, in order to put the halter on, the horse became frightened and began to jump and run. Louis held on to the horse's head to the last, knowing what great danger his sister was in, as he had left her in the buggy. But the horse soon freed himself from the grip of the young man and went dashing ahead in frightful manner. All who were witnesses of the scene stared in awe expecting the young lady to be killed, especially when the frightened animal wheeled and crossed the railroad. But as God's all seeing eye watches over his loved ones, He reached out His mighty hand when she was hurled from the buggy on the rugged railroad and shielded her from fatal injury but not from painful results. She was immediately taken to the home of Dr. R. J. Grimes, one of our most prominent physicians, where she has received the best of attention in every respect. Miss Lucy is one of our most beloved young ladies, and everybody wishes her a speedy recovery.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soups and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

THE REFLECTOR office prints nice wedding invitations. If you prefer them engraved we can fill your order.

Here are two interesting facts about policemen: (1) The policemen of London do not carry revolvers. London is the largest city in the world and there is not a more orderly city in the world. (2) A deserter from the navy was arrested in St. Louis one day last week and given over to a certain policeman to deliver as a prisoner at Newport News, Va. The officer had never ridden on a train before and was as gleeful as a child. He was born in the city 35 years ago and had never been out of it on train or boat. So here is one policeman whose lot was a happy one for awhile at least. He had never known anything but the madding crowd's ignoble strife, and the peacefulness of the country through which he passed must have seemed very odd to Mr. Copper. —Charlotte Observer.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison, Kan., Globe: "Joe Tac's, a well known engineer, running on the Pacific between Wichita and Klowa, lately appeared in a Big one, with a picture, and when he was in the office today, we asked him about it. He says terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by Jno L Wooten.

The New Orleans Times-Democrat says in closing an editorial on Nan: "She tells the questioning reporters that she does not know what she will do in the future, but will certainly never go back on the stage. From another source we learn that there is grave danger of her writing a book." "Grave danger." If she should write a book and The Times-Democrat writer couldn't get it for less, he would pay ten dollars for a copy. —Charlotte Observer.

Bilious Bill was getting bloated, and his tongue was much coated. Patent "tonics" wouldn't cure him. Companies would not insure him. All his friends were badly frightened, but their spirits soon were lightened. For Bill said—and they believed him, EARLY RISER pill relieved him. The famous little pills "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno L Wooten.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. For sale by Jno L Wooten.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Sampling the Goods.
He carried a long, slim leather case and was evidently from out of town. Looking about him somewhat uncertainly in one of the large city music stores, he asked for a certain book of airs. It was placed before him. He opened it at the first page, produced an antiquated flute and began to play softly, turning leaf after leaf with careful fingers as each piece was finished.

The shop assistants, much amused at first, grew weary of the monotonous droning, and one of them stepped up to him and said: "Do you think the book will suit you, sir?" The old man lowered the flute and, looking over it in evident surprise, replied in a tone of gentle reproach, "How can I tell, young man, when I haven't played near half the tunes?" Then he placidly turned another page.

An Obliging Hearer.
Unsectarian education has its humorous side, as the modern father found after bringing up his small son to value the Bible from its literary as well as its inspired side. Given on one occasion the choice of the story book to be read to him in the drawing room hour before bedtime, the small son promptly answered, "Leviticus, please." Feeling that there were limits to his own literary appreciation of the Old Testament, the father looked a little downcast. But the small son had a kind heart. "If I can't have Leviticus, 'Burr Rabbit' 'll do," he added obligingly. —London Chronicle.

Meant to Keep Faith.
A sharp practitioner was negotiating for a horse. The price was $25. "I'll pay you $15 on account and owe you the rest," he proposed. His offer was accepted, and he got the horse. Some time after the seller asked him to pay the balance. "No, no," he replied. "That would be a breach of contract. I was to pay you $15 and owe you the rest. If I paid you, I should no longer owe it." —London Answers.

Coming to the Point.
"It's so long since you last called upon me I was beginning to think you were forgetting me," said Miss Pechis as she came down to the young man in the parlor. "I'm for getting you," replied the ardent youth, "and it's for getting you that I've called tonight. Can I have you?" —Philadelphia Press.

But Some Are Better.
"All men," said the orator who refuses to give up stump speaking, "are born equal." "Hold on!" exclaimed the listener. "That may do to say in the street, but I can't take it home with me. If I were to say to my wife that I thought our boy, whom we've christened Egbert, wasn't any better than the red haired twins next door there wouldn't be anything left for me to do except to say, 'farewell forever' and live at an hotel." —London Tit-Bits.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this: The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe.

You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
