MEN'S FOOT WEAR.

"A chain is no stronger than its weakest link." Many people fail to realize the importance of this fact in the selection of their shoes.

Wear All-America Shoes and your shoe troubles will end.

We want you to concentrate on All American Shoes—the chain with no weak links.

Every shoe is made with the determination that it must be a seller, a wearer, and a trade builder.

You can wear All-America Shoes or slipper without fear as to results for their reputation is established. In view of this fact we ask you to try one pair.

All America Shoes.

The All America $3.50 Shoes contains the greatest chain of values which has been offered for the money, each link having been newly welded into the snappiest, wearing shoe that brains, money and intelligent appreciation could develop. The strength you can only appreciate by seeing them.

We have your size today.

UNVEILING OF MONUMENT.

Mr. Andrew Joyner Goes to New Bern Today—Flag Will Be Received by Mrs. Edmond N. Joyner.

Mr. Andrew Joyner left at one o'clock last night for New Bern to be present at the unveiling of the monument of the state of New Jersey to the soldiers of that state who were killed in the battle of Newbern in 1862. At this battle a New Jersey regiment captured the flag of the Beaufort County Plow boys, and it will be formally returned to the surviving members of the company today. After forty-four years, the flag will be received by Mrs. Mary Winfield Joyner, wife of Rev. Edmond N. Joyner, as sixteen year old Mary Winfield not only aided in making the flag, but was selected by her sister patriots to present it to the Plow boys, which she did in a neat little address. The flag was accepted by the captain of the company, now Major Henry Harding, of Greenville, N. C., and it is remarkable that both he and the young lady who presented it, are living and will be present to receive it back again after the lapse of nearly half a century. Mr. and Mrs. Joyner passed through last night from Columbia, and Mr. Andrew Joyner is brother, joined them here going to Raleigh. Mr. and Mrs. Joyner will be guests of the state of North Carolina by invitation of Governor Glenn.—Greensboro Telegram.

END OF CENTURY BOOK CLUB.

Reported for Reflector. The End of the Century club was charmingly entertained by Mrs. Richard Williams on Tuesday, the sixteenth of May.

There was no literary program on this occasion, and the afternoon was spent in electing officers and discussing plans for the ensuing year.

Mrs. R. R. Cotten, Mrs. D. E. House and Mrs. Mark Quinerly were re-elected to the positions of president, treasurer and librarian, respectively.

The new officers are the following: Mrs. J. L. Little, first vice president; Mrs. W. A. Bowen, second vice president; Mrs. R. O. Jefferson, secretary.

There were a number of visitors present at the meeting: Mesdames W. E. Wilson, C. T. Munford, Sam White, Miss Pattie Skinner and Miss Dickerson, of Richmond. After the business was transacted delicious refreshments were served and the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Harry Skinner on the thirtieth of May.

Died.

Glenwood Kinion, aged nearly 4 years, died Wednesday night at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Susan Kinion, in South Greenville. The boy's mother died a few months ago and since then he has been cared for by his grandmother. The internment took place this afternoon at Cherry Hill cemetery.

The Altar Workers to Run Merry-go-round Thursday.

The Altar Workers society of the Methodist Episcopal church have rented the merry-go-round for Thursday from 5:00 to 11:00 p. m. and will run it for the benefit of the new church building. In connection with that the Ladies Aid society will have a lawn party.

The showing made by the Security Life and Annuity Company is a fine one—one that its officers should, and no doubt do, feel proud of. The increase in all branches is simply phenomenal.—Greensboro Record.

This is a home company and well deserves the hearty support of all our people. F. M. Hornaday is representative for Greenville and vicinity.

LOCAL ITEMS

Knights of Pythias meet tonight. The Masons are preparing for an excursion to Kinston in June.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Friday.

BASE BALL.

Hen Pecks vs. Greenville.

A game interesting in every detail, a true exemplification of exhaustive exasperating and exterminating ball, showing what does not compose the real thing. "A Comedy of Errors" in its true sense.

The following "has been," composing the "Hen Pecks," have been resurrected and will be an exhibition at the park. These curiosities have been secured at enormous expense and will be on exhibition for one day only:

"Ice Wagon" Moye, "Pills" Moye, "Cabbage" Warren, "Ossified" Overton, "Standard Oil" White, "Shorty" Quinerly, "Uncle Sam" Flanagan, "New Recruit" Johnson, "Codeine" Dail, "Lumber" Timberlake and "Cicero" Woodward.

RENTON ITEMS

RENTON, N. C., May 17, 1905.

A plenty of grass is reported in this and adjoining neighborhoods.

Mrs. Louise Langston, of Grangers, came Friday to spend some time with her son, C. H. Langston.

M. F. G. Cameron and Mrs. J. E. Cameron have been spending a few days with friends here, and returned to Kinston yesterday.

Miss Tessie Speight and Mrs. Martha Tucker spent Saturday afternoon in Winterville.

Several of our friends attended the farewell sermon of Dr. Martin Sunday evening.

E. D. Braxton went to Ayden Saturday.

Misses Annie McLawhorn and Annie Hardee and Bancroft McLawhorn attended church at Piney Grove Sunday.

Miss Bessie Smith, of Woodland, was in the neighborhood Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lizzie Dail spent Saturday night near Ayden.

Elias Crawford and Joe Harris were in this vicinity Sunday.

Ola Kittrell, of Winterville, spent Saturday night with Lewis Speight.

Match Game.

Friday afternoon is the day for you to see the greatest game of base ball ever played on the Arthur grounds. The marrieds will play the singles and the game will be a warm one. Woodard, the magic twirler for the marrieds, has something in store for Christy Matthewson this season and it will be worth time to see his new body swing. Admission will only be 10cts. Ladies will be admitted free.

Old Dick Dead

The editor's little folks are lamenting the loss of their horse, "Dick," that was given to them last year by Mrs. J. B. Cherry. "Dick" was the best horse for children we ever saw, as gentle and harmless as a lamb and a perfect pet. He had long ago passed the voting age and had as much sense—horse sense—as is generally found in an animal. The little folks will miss him.

Will Not Be Tolerated.

Wednesday afternoon two dissolute white women who had imbibed more liquor than was needful, took a buggy and disported themselves brazenly through the streets. This morning they were before Mayor Wooten to answer for their conduct and each had to pay a fine of $2 and costs, with the admonition that it will be more if their conduct is repeated.

F. C. Harding and little daughter, left Wednesday evening for New Bern to be present at the unveiling of the monument, commemorating the battle of New Bern during the civil war, which took place there today.

Smart Dressers.

Young men are, as a general thing, the smartest dressers.

The up-to-the-moment Young Man is a sort of a lexicon of clothes style and correctness.

He knows what's what and gets it. But good fit, the newest colors, patterns, etc., aren't enough; for unless that snappy, jaunty appearance—characteristic of our Tailor Made Clothing—is there, it is not what the young man wants.

Our success in pleasing Young Men is not just "luck." It's due to our knowledge of what the young man wants and our ability to provide for him.

Then again our prices are always reasonable. Did you ever notice how many young men come here for clothes? There's a reason for it.

New Spring Goods ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

Pulley & Bowen,

19 PAYMENTS POLICY.

You can secure a "Nineteen Payment" Policy in the PENN MUTUAL for about the same premium charged by a number of other companies for Twenty Payments. Why not save this one years premium?

If you become interested in Life Insurance don't buy until you investigate policies issued by "The Penn"—a strictly Mutual Company.

AS TO NUISANCES.

Either the authorities of Greenville do not know when they are allowed to issue orders and hear about nuisances...

We are somewhat at a loss in reading the above to know whether the Southerner is after the merry go-round or the aldermen of its town...

"It would be a bad misfit to put Mr. Cleveland at the head of the Equitable, or any other life insurance company."

Yes, he is a big old lobster, and when he got through with the Equitable business it would look like a ten cents piece, judging by two terms as president.

The back lots in every section of the town should be inspected weekly. This warm weather is causing some vile odors in some of the back lots.

An exchange says Roosevelt may write a book on "What I did to the bears." If he decides to do so it would be no bad idea for Mr. Gates to follow it with a sequel, "What the bears did to me."

The end of the Chicago strike and the contemplated sea fight between the Russian and Japanese fleets are alike in one particular—daily expected but not in evidence.

If we had not promised ourselves not to say any more about it we would tell that Nan has signed a contract for the stage, even after declaring she wouldn't.

"Women's hose are much higher," says a fashion writer. We don't know whether she meant in price or not, as in some places women wear dainty half hose.

Greensboro with the doctors, Charlotte and Asheville with the preachers and Winston with the bankers gives those cities a living chance.

It's a mighty risky business to play games with other people's money.

Those North Carolina gentlemen who wanted the Gettysburg Battlefield commission are ready to acknowledge that Virginia is first.

The Philadelphia Inquirer asks "What makes the plain girl pretty?" This is dead easy, providing her dad has a nice bank account. See!

What's the matter with Raleigh that she cannot decide on the city attorneyship? They could almost have grown one in this time.

This weather suggests hanging the sign "gone to seashore" on front of your house and living on the back porch for a few weeks.

Secretary Taft held down the lid for six weeks and is now going to take a six months' vacation. Must have been a hard job.

The Durham Herald is bidding for some of Mr. Fife's advertising. It is doing enough free to be given some of the pay kind.

If you do not think an ice factory would be a good thing in this kind of weather, get one started in Greenville and see.

We heard a man say more whiskey is sold outside the dispensary than in it. Is there no way to put a stop to this?

If there is much more of the rainy weather the farmers who held on to their cotton will find it worth while.

Tornados and strikes are all the go now out west. This is a fad we hope wont reach this country soon.

Charlotte has greased her streets and is now having a carnival. The thing ought to slip along.

"Killed by lightning" is no unusual head line to read in the papers now.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison, Kan., Globe: "Joe Tac's, a well known engineer, running on the Pacific between Wichita and Klowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in the office today, we asked him about it. He says terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured."

A woman will generally acknowledge the corn or else give herself away by blurring into crying, but man—man true to his instincts emphasized in the Garden of Eden when he turned state's evidence about the apple incident and put Eve in a hole, even unto this day always has an excuse, puts the blame on somebody else or tells a lie out of the whole cloth when anybody gets him in a corner.—Wilmington Star.

Bilious Bill was getting bloated, and his tongue was muchly coated. Patent "tonics" wouldn't cure him. Companies would not insure him. All his friends were badly frightened. But their spirits soon were lightened. For Bill said—and they believed him, EARLY RISER pill relieved him. The famous little pills "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno L Wooten.

Children eat, sleep and grow after taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Brings rosy cheeks, laughing eyes, good health and strength. A tonic for sickly children. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

Crime Against Crime.

It took the jury at Wilson only eighteen minutes to declare not guilty J. B. Piver S. J. Walls, on trial for the murder of Percy Jones. This was the case, it will be remembered, in which a number of men went to Jones' room for the purpose of whipping him or making him leave town because these men did not approve of his moral conduct, and a fight occurred in which Jones was killed and one of his assailants wounded.

The men who undertook to administer the law in this case have been taught a lesson which they will remember as long as they live. The next time any one of them thinks a citizen of his town is leading such an immoral life that he should be punished he will hardly gather a crowd of his pals and, under cover of darkness, seek to administer what they consider proper punishment.

Men who take into their own hands enforcement of the law and the punishment of law breakers are apt to suffer for it. If it does not come at the hands of the law by way of vindication it is felt in some other way. No good can ever come of the breaking of one law for the purpose of punishing the violation of another. It is true there is one class of this kind of law breakers who escape punishment at the hands of the law, but that is because public sentiment is overwhelmingly with them—lynchers of men who criminally assault women. So long as this crime is committed lynching for it will continue, for public sentiment will not condemn the lynchers in such cases. This does not prove that it is right, but these are the facts and they will so remain until human nature changes.—Wilmington Messenger.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. For sale by Jno L Wooten.

When you're broke the girls are shy They turn and fly as you come nigh Brace up old man, show some pluck Take Rocky Mountain Tea; t'will change your luck. Wooten's Drug Store.

No sickly women or weak men will ever regret taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It's brought happiness to thousands. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets.—Wooten's Drug Store.

WILD ELEPHANTS.

Stalking Them is a Sport That Gives Plenty of Excitement.

An old African hunter writes: "Stalking with elephants is a sport that must always provide plenty of excitement to the stalker, and in a thick forest, with its dense undergrowth, this excitement is intensified, increasing as the signs show that the quarry is close at hand. Elephants when at rest and not alarmed in any way frequently keep up a curious sort of rumbling noise, difficult to describe, but once heard never forgotten. This sound can be heard for a considerable distance. In spite of their size it is marvelous how invisible elephants in thick cover can be. It is only after the most careful search that their forms can be distinguished, and it is generally the flapping of an enormous ear or the swishing of a tail that reveals their whereabouts."
"As a rule, they stand perfectly motionless. But gradually, if he keeps quite still and allows his eyes to get used to the gloom of the forest, the hunter will be able to make out the presence of several gigantic forms, very possibly in surprisingly close proximity to the place where he is standing. If the wind remains favorable he can watch them at his leisure, and such a sight is well worth seeing. Some of them may be asleep, leaning against the tree trunks, and others may be lying down flat on their sides, though this last sight is only occasionally seen."
"Should no breath of air from his vicinity reach them he may go as close as he likes to them with impunity—almost touch them, in fact. He would, however, before doing so do well to reconnoiter, especially in thick cover, and assure himself that he has not passed any member of the herd unobserved and thus given him his wind. Should such a contingency arise the alarm is communicated like magic. Probably a warning squeal will be heard, and up will go every trunk."
"Then the whole party will either vanish away like a vision or one or more of them will charge straight for the spot whence the disquieting odor issues. Should the herd contain many cows, more especially if accompanied by calves, this last result is almost certain to happen. Bull elephants, on the other hand, if unwounded, will most probably make off without any hostile demonstration."

Apes Bite Off Each Other's Fingers.

Orangs have a very curious method of fighting. In their conflicts among themselves, which are frequent, their effort is always to seize the fingers of their adversaries and bite them. A very beautiful group of these animals at the National museum, Washington, admirably illustrates a typical encounter of the sort. It is owing to this method of battle that it is almost impossible to procure a skin which does not lack some of the fingers. If defending itself against a man the beast will always attempt to grab the arms of his human opponent, so as to chew off his fingers. For this purpose its jaw is excellently adapted, being enormously powerful and equipped with huge incisors.

A Parrot's Pets.

A parrot which has several sparrow proteges is quite unusual, but parrots are, as every one knows, great mimics, and this parrot is owned by a man who is fond of birds, and when eating his meals out of doors, as he often does in summer, he is in the habit of feeding crumbs to all the birds around, which have become so tame that they often hop right down on the table.
The parrot used to watch his master throwing crumbs to the birds, and now the clever little creature amuses himself by throwing seeds from his cage, much to the joy of his less fortunate feathered playmates.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Little Shiners.

"Mary," Mrs. Baily said as she passed through the hallway, where the morning work was in progress, "I don't see why it is my stair rail always seems dusty. I was in at Mrs. Johns' a few minutes ago, and I couldn't but notice that hers was as clean and smooth as glass."
"Yes'm," replied the maid significantly, "she's three little boys—there's nothin' like slidin' for polishin' handrails. But there ain't anybody here as I knows on as 'd care to take the job o' that from mornin' to night!"

LETTER TO B. FRANCIS.

Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: A painter in Erie, Pa., Mr. John Brand, first painted Devoe in 1900

No more lead and oil for him! He can do a better job at less cost with Devoe.

Attributes his increase of business to that.

That's all there is to this yarn, unless he goes into particulars.

This, for instance; Devoe covers more, and so costs less. The reason is; lead and zinc is better than lead; and machinery grinding is better than hand.

And this: Devoe lasts longer. The reason is, lead and zinc is better than lead; and machinery-grinding is better than hand.

Yours truly,

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe.

You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
