AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., May 19, 1905.

An old colored woman with specs while at work in the back yard of a certain family here the other day espied as she thought a monster snake lying close by. Badly frightened, she at once called the lady of the house, who also bespiced, promptly responded, and too beheld his snakeship, calling in two neighbor friends they after much altering of specs and arranging of glasses declared it a whopper and woman like began to look and call for a man. Mr. John Alexander hearing the alarm secured his gun and bravely went to the rescue, drawing a bead he let her go and then proceeded to the wreck of carnage, only to find a rag doll snake of child-like imagination the cause of all the woe. It was a spectacle for a spectacle crowd indeed to behold.

The stork visited the home of John Alexander this week and left a charming young lady to make sunshine among the household.

Miss Lena Dawson, of Grifton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. G. Buhmann.

W. H. Rouse of Winterville, was here Tuesday.

Miss Cora Braxton is visiting friends in Winterville.

Miss Ella Rasberry left on the train Wednesday morning for her home in Dover.

At certain handsome widower, of Lenoir county, seems to have found unusual attraction in the neighborhood of Ayden. In fact it has been asserted there may be good cause for special proceedings in his case at a very early date.

Work in cutting up the dormitory into three sections and converting them into handsome residences began yesterday. They will be situated on lots in the beautiful ten acre oak grove and will add very much to the appearance of that part of the town.

E. V. Cox is arranging a nice tennis ground at the rear of the postoffice for the pleasure of himself and friends.

Commencement at Winterville is now the attraction. Nearly all of Ayden is there.

Don't forget Saturday, June 10th, the Oxford Orphan singing class will be here. Let us give them a royal welcome.

Misses Lula and Nora Smith came up from a visit down the road yesterday.

Miss May Brooks, of Grifton, is visiting Mrs. J. F. Barwick.

Miss Delia Smith returned from a recent visit Tuesday.

Mrs. Follette, of Durham, has been here in the interest of the missionary cause. She addressed the ladies of the Baptist church on the subject last Wednesday afternoon.

George Worthington is erecting a large double story eight room residence on main street.

The postoffice building is receiving a new coat of paint.

The Masons held their regular semi monthly meeting here yesterday.

When completed Dr. M. M. Sauls will have one of the nicest drug stores in Eastern Carolina.

If Winterville wasn't crowded today surely it will be no fault on the part of Ayden. Really we feel as if we were left alone with the bag to hold. Never mind it will be all right when she gets back.

Rev. Thomas Chapman, Universalist, will preach in the court house tonight at 8 o'clock.

Hon. E. W. Pau, of Smithfield, will speak in the graded school chapel tonight. Give him a large audience.

MERRY-GO ROUND AND LAWN PARTY.

Large Amounts Taken in by the Altar Workers and Aid Society.

The Altar Workers of the Methodist church had the merry-go-round in charge Thursday night, while the Ladies Aid Society served refreshments on the court house lawn. Both of these societies of the church received the large patronage which they so justly merit, and the receipts far surpass those of any previous occasion of this kind.

For several days it had been the intention of the Altar Workers to charter the merry-go-round for an evening, but on account of former contracts Manager Constantine could not at once name a date. However, a more lovely evening and night could not have been chosen. Indeed it was an "evening of beauty and a night of stars, with no cloud in the heavens," and the Altar Workers made good use of every opportunity to make the occasion a successful one.

As a result of their efforts $80 were taken in at the merry-go-round, which so delighted Manager Constantine that he gave a ten minutes ride free to the public.

While the Altar Workers were engaged as above named, the ladies of the Aid society were busy serving refreshments. The court house lawn had been handsomely lighted, and attractive seats were tastefully arranged about the green. Early in the evening the lawn was crowded with young and old, and the ladies were kept busy serving their delicacies. As a result of their efforts the receipts at the lawn party amounted to $35.08, making a total of $115.08 taken in by the Altar Workers and Aid society jointly.

Take 'em All Greedy!

And now North Carolina claims John Paul Jones! Is there anything else that Virginia thinks she has that North Carolina wants? If so, come right along and take it. Don't be bashfully. The Old North State has wonderfully developed taking propensities. She took Andrew Jackson from South Carolina, in spite of the fact that old Hickory himself in a notable public document said he was born in the Palmetto State, and some of these fine mornings we shall probably wake up to a realization that she has carried off Washington, Jefferson, Lee and Stonewall Jackson! It is to be hoped that our good neighbor will leave us a few red hot stoves, anyhow.—Dispatch.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Saturday, except showers and thunderstorms in extreme western portion.

Smart Dressers.

Young men are, as a general thing, the smartest dressers.

The up-to-the-moment Young Man is a sort of a lexicon of clothes style and correctness.

He knows what's what and gets it.

But good fit, the newest colors, patterns, etc., aren't enough; for unless that snappy, jaunty appearance—characteristic of our Tailor Made Clothing—is there, it is not what the young man wants.

Our success in pleasing Young Men is not just "luck." It's due to our knowledge of what the young man wants and our ability to provide for him.

Then again our prices are always reasonable.

Did you ever notice how many young men come here for clothes? There's a reason for it.

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in and kindred materials so desirable with the women folk of Greenville and Pitt county, and we do hope that you will at least favor us with a visit to see these many new things.

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

Not everything is a Panama that looks like it.

Wonder what the president will do with all his bear skins.

Lawyer Davis says he has got enough of Nan since she has decided to return to the stage.

Wonder if that $5,000 walking stick of Mr. Gates looks anything like Teddy's "big stick?"

Perhaps the reason of it is that Nan can make more money on the stage than at anything else.

They say North Carolina lost the appointment because our senators moved too slow. Too late to grieve over it now.

ORGANIZED LABOR.

We don't hesitate to say that the present policies of organized labor is ruinous to the country. Unionism as it is, is wrong in the extreme. That it works immeasurably more harm to labor than good is a fact. Unionism declares disrespect for the law, denies youths the privilege of early industrial training, and threatens those who will not bow to its drastic rules. We believe in encouraging the self reliance and self responsibility in every workman, letting him work wherever and for what he pleases. Unions breeds strikes, and are dangerous to every working mans freedom.

DOUBLE DAILY SERVICE.

The question of double daily passenger train service between Weldon and Kinston, is claiming the attention of the people along the road between those points.

Mr. Norman H. Johnson, attorney general of the State Retail Merchants' Association, and editor of the Merchants' Journal from Raleigh, addressed the business men in Kinston Friday night. He said that the State's Retail Merchants' Association has caused five "shoofly" trains to be put into service in the State during the past two years. He said further that the Association will now give its attention to securing a double daily service between Weldon and Kinston if the business men along the route will co-operate.

The question for the people of Kinston, Greenville, Scotland Neck, Weldon and other towns along the line to consider, is whether or not such service is desired and needed. If it is, we have no doubt that the proper and wise cooperation will secure it.

Do the people want it? Is it needed?

These questions answered in the affirmative and double daily service between Weldon and Kinston can doubtless be secured.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The double daily service on this road is needed and ought to be put on. Greenville started a movement for it more than two years ago and tried then to get all the other towns along the line to cooperate with us. We hope there will be such concert of action now as will secure the service.

President Roosevelt spent only ten minutes in Pittsburg upon his return from the west, but Philadelphia can't see why he wanted to stay there that long.—Atlanta Journal.

That Square Deal.

There is a growing disposition to take a more cheerful view of the Administration's proposal that the Government shall have the power to fix freight rates. It is voiced by some Wall Street organs and spokesmen.

Gross revenues of the railroads amount to two thousand million dollars a year, or nearly three times the revenues of the Federal Government. These revenues are derived from the transportation of seven hundred million passengers and one thousand three hundred and four million tons of freight, the latter at an average rate of about three-quarters of a cent a ton per mile. These figures suggest some rather close adjustments, and in this merely statistical view it appears that the matter of providing a square deal for everybody is somewhat complicated. But there is another view.

It is a fact that up to date the square deal for the railroads has sometimes been dealt them with a club. Let us say they deserved it. At any rate, they survived, and were able last year to earn $9258 gross per mile and $3133 net per mile against $6125 and $2016, respectively, in 1897. But in this period of prosperity they have been largely free from Government control, and able, in the main, to work out their problems in their own way.

As everybody knows, one of the greatest of their problems, and the one that causes practically the whole body of public complaint, arises from the insistent pressure of the big shipper for cheaper service than the little shipper gets. And in this vital matter the Government has hindered rather than helped. Railroad consolidations have been fought while the way has been left open for the shipper to consolidate as much as he pleased. Last year the roads handled ten million tons of packing house products. The original shipments of ores amounted to forty-six million tons, and in the corresponding calendar year the Steel Corporation alone mined fifteen million tons. What these figures and others that might be adduced mean in the way of concentrated shipping power is perfectly obvious. The railroad can withstand the big shipper only when it is as big as the shipper himself.

The Sherman law and Interstate Commerce Commission did almost nothing to abolish rebates. The great abatement of that evil was brought about by the roads themselves, through combination. Sometimes—as in the Northern Securities case—the Government stood in their way. If the Government is really to extend an effective power over the roads it ought to exercise the power protectively quite as much as repressively. There is no virtue in tying the railroad's hands and ignoring those who prey upon it. The control must include protection.

Perhaps the roads are hopeful that it will, and so are taking the more cheerful view. Perhaps they are not hopeful, but are cheerful simply because they think the plan will fail.—Saturday Evening Post.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Time Tried and Merit Proven.

One minute Cough Cure is right on time when it comes to curing Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite Cough Syrup. For sale by Jno L. Wooten.

For the Soul of the Child.

Now begins the season, the long season, that belongs to the country—the seven or eight months when the city dweller moves about his bare streets with a heart full of envy for those who live in the country or the small town.

It is had enough for the grown people to have to live in the city when the buds and the leaves and the flowers are calling; it is intolerable that children should be so condemned. No man lives that is not stunted by living much in cities; no child can possibly grow a soul that is vivid and sensitive and broadly sympathetic if it is born and wholly bred in the cold and narrow and barren city.

Those who have children should live in or near the country all the year round. No material sacrifice is too great to be made for this end.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Aitchison, Kan., Globe: "Joe Tac't, a well known engineer, running on the Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in the office today, we asked him about it. He says terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

The Eastern Carolina truckers who are to receive $150,000 for $600,000 worth of spoiled berries, could give some interesting evidence as to the interest the railroads are taking in developing the territory they traverse.—Raleigh Evening Times.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. For sale by Jno L. Wooten.

Bilious Bill was getting bloated, And his tongue was much coated. Patent "tonic" wouldn't cure him, Companies would not insure him. The famous little pills "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering. "I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Hoover's Discovery of the Nature and Cause of Electricity.

The principal of the village academy in Painesville, O., during the fifties of the past century was a Mr. Baldwin Bishop. He was a man whose heart and soul were in his work. He was sure in some unexpected and original way to show his disapproval of any individual in the institution with which he was connected who could justly be called a slacker. There was in one of the classes of which Professor Bishop had charge a lad by the name of Hoover, who had evaded the recitation of his lessons when called upon to take his part, pleading a poor memory. His delinquencies were, however, almost, if not entirely, due to a lack of application, and this the professor more than suspected.

During the week before the school session ended for vacation, examinations, embracing the subjects studied by the pupils during the whole term, took place in the class rooms. During this time it was the custom of the relatives and friends of the students to visit the academy. On the occasion referred to the presence of a number of young lady acquaintances spurred on the boys to do their best.

The subject on which they were expected to show their proficiency was that of natural philosophy. After several members of the class had distinguished themselves more or less creditably in their attempts to explain familiar phenomena Hoover, who had evidently been dreading the ordeal, was suddenly called upon and, in deference to "rule and custom, time and place," stood up to be questioned.

"Mr. Hoover," said Professor Bishop, "will you kindly explain to us the cause and nature of electricity?"

"The question surprised every one present but Hoover. All questions bearing upon any subject, the class was engaged in studying were the same to him.

He colored up and paused, stammered and took refuge in his usual formula.

"Professor," he said, "I knew the answer to that question before I came to the class, but I have forgotten it."

"Are you sure you cannot remember it?" asked his teacher. "Take time and think, sir."

Mr. Hoover shook his head. "No, sir," he said. "I knew it a little while ago, but it has slipped my mind entirely."

"What a pity!" said the professor, approaching him and laying his hands upon Hoover's shoulders as he turned him about, facing the visitors. "Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "look at this young man. Of all who have lived upon the face of the earth one person—but one—this Mr. Hoover, if he has told us the truth, has learned the cause and nature of electricity, and," continued Professor Bishop, dropping his voice, "the pity of it is that he has forgotten it!"—Success.

Cured Him
The candidate, in the course of a speech just previous to election had occasion to refer to the flogging of children.
"Some folks," he said, "object to beating youngsters, but I agree with the truth conveyed in that saying of the wise man, 'Spare the rod and spoil the child.'
"I suppose I was no worse than other boys, he went on to say, 'but I know I had come flogging myself, and I believe it did me good. On one occasion I was flogged for telling the truth.'
"It cured you, sir!" cried a voice from the back. London Answers.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe. You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
