CLASS PICNIC.

A Day Spent Among the Flowers

Although many predicted rain for Tuesday, the day was an ideal one for a picnic and a large number of the members and invited friends of class No. 13 of the Methodist Sunday school, spent the day very pleasantly, picnicking just beyond House Station. The occasion was a very enjoyable one, and every one present had a day of pleasure and feasting.

When the North bound Coast Line train pulled out of Greenville at 8:30, a. m., happy picnickers were on board with many games, lunch baskets and high expectations. The trip to the desired grove was soon made, and as was previously arranged, the train was stopped in the desired spot and the happy pleasure seekers found themselves surrounded by woods and flowers. Several then arrived having driven through the country and without delay arrangements were made for a most pleasant day. Games were soon being played, and the morning sped by only too rapidly.

After strolling, playing, driving, and having a good time generally, we all assembled under one large tree where a dinner was served that would tempt a king. Indeed, the lady members of class No. 13 can not be surpassed in preparing dinner for a picnic.

When dinner was over the party coupled off for a short time, and after an hour or two the games were resumed, strolls were taken, and driving was in order. After spending some time in this delightful sport, the picnickers repaired to the elegant home of Miss Annie Fleming, where we were received in a most charming manner. Here we had both vocal and instrumental music, which added very much to the enjoyment of the day, but long before we were in a humor to take our departure, train time was announced and we had to say good bye and soon found ourselves boarding the train on the return trip. On the arrival of the picnickers at Greenville three cheers were given for the picnic, and we all repaired to our different homes, each feeling that the day had been one of the happiest of our lives.

Those present were Messrs Keel; Duke; Wilson W.; Wilson D.; Prichard; Patrick W.; White H.; Whitehurst; Spelght; Monk; Hornaday and Misses Lollie White; Bessie Haskett; Mamye Haskett; Glenn Forbes; Helen Forbes; Alice Smith; Annie Fleming. Chaperones—Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Prichard and Mrs. H. C. Hogker.

WATER AND LIGHTS.

The Plants Developing Rapidly.

Superintendent J. L. Livers, of the water and light plants, tells us that he is now supplying 30 customers with water. There are also 800 house lights in operation, with contracts ahead for 200 more. For a plant that has been in operation less than 60 days this is remarkable development. At this rate it will not take long for the plant to be on a paying basis. The plant is giving good service and the people are well pleased.

Ride Friday Evening.

The Willing Workers society of the Baptist church will have charge of the merry-go-round Friday evening from 5 to 11 o'clock. The young ladies want a liberal patronage and ask you all to take a ride with them. They will also serve ice cream. Remember the time, Friday evening.

Preaching at Ballards.

There will be service conducted by Rev. P. W. Davis, of Washington, N. C., the 4th Sunday after noon, at Utopia school building, Ballards X Roads at 3:30 o'clock. Let all go and hear a good sermon.

A. H. Wooten came in this morning from Kinston.

Col. Harry Skinner came in Tuesday evening from Raleigh.

Rev. J. A. Hornaday and daughter, Miss Dora, returned from Asheville Tuesday evening.

Miss Fannie Hardee, of Greene county, is visiting her brother, D. S. Smith, in South Greenville this week.

Maj. H. Harding is spending a few days in Washington. He has the flag of the Beaufort Plow Boys with him to show it to his old comrades.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., May 24.

Jerry Nichols came home Saturday from South Carolina.

Miss Ida Ipock, who has been visiting Addie Cox, left Monday for Grifton.

Miss Mamie Galloway, of Grimesland, is visiting the Misses Chapman.

Misses Mollie Manning and Mary Whitehurst left Saturday for their home near Grindool.

Mrs. Lesh and mother, Mrs. Bettie Taft, spent Monday in Greenville.

Miss Cora Braxton is visiting friends here.

Misses Louise Fleming and Lillian Stokes left for their homes Sunday.

Winterville looks a bit lonesome since the school boys and girls have gone home, but in three months they'll be here again.

Ben Forrest spent Sunday in the country.

Some of our people attended church at Bethany Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kurst spent Sunday in Greenville.

Miss Huldah Cox left Saturday to spend some time at Seven Springs.

Little Miss Grace Cox is quite sick.

Miss Magdlene Cox is visiting friends in Ayden.

Miss Aleth Uzzell, of Seven Springs, who is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Evelyn Cox, is sick with measles.

How Is It?

It is strange that men who have never made anything for themselves, and never have shown any special fitness for business should feel competent to administer the most complicated and extensive interests of other people, with their own estate under mortgage; they can tell other people just how to be successful and prosperous in business. If the much talked of rate making for railroads should be vested in a commission at Washington City, which seems to be the idea, the men appointed would in all probability be a lot of bankrupts and broken down politicians.—Salisbury Sun.

More Progress for North Carolina.

Norfolk, Va., May 22.—The Norfolk and Carolina Coast railroad company, with a capital of $15,000,000 is being formed by a syndicate, headed by Rudolph Kleyboldt & Company, of New York. The company will take over a half million acres of timberland in eastern Carolina and run a rail line from Norfolk through Elizabeth City, Edenton, Belhaven and through the counties of Beaufort, Pamlico, Craven and Carteret with spurs into Hyde and Tyrell. The southern terminus will be at Beaufort.

BETHEL ITEMS.

BETHEL, N. C., May 23 1905.

J. H. Andrews happened to a very painful accident last Saturday night. He became engaged in a friendly tussle with a couple of other young men and in some way during the scuffle his right leg was broken just above the ankle. His many friends wish him the best of luck and that he may soon be back in his place of business again. A very important feature in this case is that Mr. Andrews is our market man, and what shall we do for beef to eat.

Mrs. W. K. Davenport, of Conetoe, spent last Thursday in town shopping.

Mrs. Willie Hammond spent last Thursday in town shopping.

J. A. Stator and W. J. Roberson spent last Sunday in Conetoe.

Miss Annie Tweeddale, of Canada, the popular stenographer, of Carter & Corey, has accepted a position with Blount & Bro. during the potato season. We welcome her back with pleasure.

J. S. Mooring, of Greenville, spent last Sunday with his best girl, near here.

V. E. Stator, of Rocky Mount, spent Sunday with his parents.

E. L. Mayo, of Tarboro, spent Sunday with his best girl. We don't blame him for she is one of Bethel's most charming young ladies.

Miss Minnie Whichard spent Sunday in town.

Misses Ora Faison and Eva Cherry spent Sunday in town.

Misses Verna Edmorsou and Lizzie Beverly spent today in town shopping.

Our little town was over shadowed with sadness early Monday morning, when we heard that the death angel had crept into our midst and severed the life thread from the little 19-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Goldboro who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith. We learn that Mr. and Mrs. Hall are devout Christians and while God has seen fit in His all wise power to take their dear little one to live with Him, they will be perfectly submissive to His will, remembering that in some happy future they shall meet it in a Heavenly home where all shall be happiness again.

Fighting Near.

St. Petersburg, May 23.—The news from the front continues to point to the imminence of a renewal of fighting on a large scale. General Linevitch is pressing the Japanese centre, both on the line of the railway and on the Manchurian road, but whether he is simple feeling out Field Marshal Oyama's strength or has assumed a genuine offensive is not yet clear. There is no doubt, however, that Linevitch has made complete preparations for a big battle. All the Russian sick and wounded who were at Harbin and places south of there have been transported westward to Irkutsk and orders have been given to clear the intervening hospitals. The sanitary trains have also been ordered to the front.

STATE NEWS.

Another insurance company has been organized at Greensboro.

While E. L. Hughes, E. S. Faucette and Miss Eloise Brown were rowing on a mill pond near Hillsboro, Sunday afternoon, the bottom came out of the boat and all were thrown in the water. Both the young men were drowned, and the young lady was saved after a hard struggle by another young man who was on the shore and went to her assistance.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 24, 1905.

There will be plenty of people with wealth untold when tax listing time comes.

They gave our side the "big stick" to whack the tariff in the net campaign.

We are unable to see the reason for so much secrecy about the gentlemen wealthy enough to pay income tax.

As Hobson is about to make success out of his matrimonial tilt, he has about decided to make another trial run for congress.

The naval battle guessers, like the weather pronosticators and train reporters, may hit it right after awhile, if they keep on guessing.

If you ever believed protection helped anybody but the trusts, look at the governments position on the Panama supplies and perish the thought.

The Raleigh Post raises the question, who wants the north pole, even if it could be found? Nobody down this way would think of taking a mortgage on it.

Those "infant industries" that have been growing fat off of protection, got the jolt of their lives when the government said buy the Panama supplies in the open market.

Example is sometimes a bad thing. A little girl near Washington City heard her father talking about Taft sitting on the lid, and tried it on her baby brother. She set the little fellow on top of a hot stove and he was fatally burned. Thus a joke started by the president cost a life.

Funeral Reforms.

It took a man of no little nerve to make the suggestions which Rev. Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell made before the Virginia State Funeral Directors' association yesterday at the session of that body in this city—suggestions of certain funeral reforms, which the speaker thought the undertakers could assist in putting into practice in the state. For many years the pomp and extravagance at funerals have been growing, till it has come to be a matter of no little impoverishment to families of moderate means—an expense which they have been forced to incur by the tyranny of custom. For our own part we are glad that Dr. Blackwell had the nerve to attack the custom, and thus do a service to a long suffering people, and we are hoping that the matter will receive wide attention in Virginia, to the end that the people may be brought to a realization of the unwisdom, to say the least of it, of the expensive and showy funerals that are now in vogue. Several of the reforms which Dr. Blackwell suggests, such as only carriages sufficient for those immediately concerned in the funeral, the reduction of the flower display to a very simple one, and dispensing with eulogies over the dead, are eminently wise. Perhaps the best of all the suggestions he makes is when he says: "It would be better doubtless, if the whole custom of mourning attire were banished, except some simple badge or sign of bereavement, like crepe on the hat or on the arm, or a mourning collar for ladies, to save embarrassment by contact with persons who do not know of the affliction." Surely it needs no argument to sustain Dr. Blackwell's position on this point, and we believe the women would hail with great gratification, a relief from mourning attire. Why should a woman have to wear, for months, such sombre garments as those known as "deep mourning," while men are not expected to do so? Why should the feminine heart be kept heavy by the constant presence of such emphatic reminders of its loss, when the hearts of men are not thus kept burdened? It seems to us that is a great wrong against the womanhood of our land that their minds should be kept depressed, as they must be by mourning weeds, when such attire can serve no good purpose. We heartily second Dr. Blackwell's motion.—Norfolk Ledger.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Farmers Learning to Pull Together.

It is now an assured fact that the farmers have decreased their cotton acreage in North Carolina. It is said that the per cent will be at least twenty and may reach twenty five. If this does not demonstrate anything else it demonstrates that the farmers have learned to "pull together" and that is a big accomplishment. It is really gigantic and argues well for the future power of the farmer. The future will, no doubt, develop many questions for the farmer to wrestle with, among the number being trust problems, and the farmers by sticking together will be able to master them. At any rate they will profit more. Let the cotton farmer, the tobacco farmer and the every kind of farmer work in unison and for the best interest of each other.—Wilmington Dispatch.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison, Kan., Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Pacific between Wichita and Klowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in the office today, we asked him about it. He says terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

The annual salary of our ambassador at London is seventeen thousand, five hundred dollars. Mr. Whitelaw Reid, who has been appointed to succeed Mr. Choate, has rented a house for his residence in that city for forty five thousand dollars a year. The Charlotte Observer says it is estimated that in the four years he will serve his government at the court of St. James he will pay out not less than three hundred thousand dollars more for maintenance than his salary will amount to.—Wilmington Messenger.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomachs is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

The Charlotte Observer of Sunday says: It will interest the people of Charlotte to learn that, this year they cannot read in the newspapers a list of those citizens who return incomes for taxation, but such is the case. If any information of this nature is desired the tax books must be resorted to, since the last Legislature saw fit to enact a law prohibiting the publication of such information in the papers. It is understood that the bill, which provides a penalty of $50, or 30 days' imprisonment, was introduced by Senator Duls.

Bilious Bill was getting bloated, And his tongue was muchly coated. Patent "tonics" wouldn't cure him, Companies would not insure him. All his friends were badly frightened, But their spirits soon were lightened, For Bill said—and they believed him, EARLY RISER pill relieved him. The famous little pills "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

A Thought For The Week.

The brave workman who might betray his feeling of it in his manners, if he do not succumb in his practice, must replace the grace or elegance forfeited by the merit of the work done. No matter whether he makes shoes or statues or laws. It is the privilege of any human work which is well done to invest the doer with a certain haughtiness.—From Emerson's Essay on "Wealth."

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. For sale by Jno L. Wooten.

If, as is stated in current newspaper articles, 12,299 people were killed and 137,916 injured in railroad and trolley accidents during 1904, it would seem to be about time that the government or some other authority, should get in control at least of the accident departments of these carrying corporations.—Chattanooga Times.

Time Tried and Merit Proven.

One minute Cough Cure is right on time when it comes to curing Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite Cough Syrup. For sale by Jno L. Wooten.

A Muncie, Indiana, man got a decree in a divorce suit because his wife talked in her sleep. It may have been a humane verdict, but every man should realize that it is impossible to guarantee even for a second that a woman won't talk.—Wilmington Dispatch.

He Beat the Conductor, but Cheerfully Reimbursed Him.

"Talk about predicaments on a street car," said a man who can remember when there were only horse cars in the city. "I was to take my best girl to the theater, and I decided to throw on some lugs. I was deathly afraid of leaving the tickets behind, so I hurried into my dress suit, I think, without ever letting go of them. I was mentally shaking hands with myself that I had not overlooked anything.

"After the show we found that rain had set in and boarded a car. It was crowded, so I sent her inside and stood on the back platform with a few dozen others. Along came the conductor, and when I heard him say 'fares,' I dug. Horror overtook me! I had been so intent upon the tickets that I had forgotten to put a cent in my pockets when I changed my clothes. I was stone broke. There she was inside, out of explaining distance, with a crowd between us, or I might have borrowed from her or jumped off the car. I edged away from the conductor as long as possible, when suddenly there came an inspiration. Tapping the conductor on the shoulder, I said briskly, 'How about my change?' 'Did you give me something to change?' he inquired.

"Certainly, I gave you a quarter to pay the fare of myself and lady inside.' He hesitated just a moment and handed me 15 cents.

"I was saved, and you can bet I remembered that conductor and hunted him up the next day. I told him the whole story and reimbursed him fully. He enjoyed it more than I did when he learned the whole truth."—Detroit News.

Each to His Trade.

Kullack, the famous pianist, was once invited to dinner by a wealthy Berliner, who was the owner of a large boot manufactory and had been a shoemaker in his time. After the repast Kullack was requested to play something, and he consented. Not long afterward the virtuoso invited the boot manufacturer and after dinner handed him a pair of old boots.

"What am I to do with these?" inquired the rich man.
"With a genial smile Kullack replied: 'Why, the other day you asked me after dinner to make a little music for you, and now I ask you to mend these boots for me. Each to his trade.'

A Famous Map.

Interesting discoveries are made now and then by students in the big old libraries. While Baron Nordenskiold was gathering material for his "Atlas of Ancient Cartography" he discovered in the British museum the only known copy of the earliest general map of Germany. This was the famous map of Cardinal Nicolas of Cues. The map was completed in 1464. This find greatly interested geographers. Mercator's famous map of Germany was published more than a century after that of the learned cardinal.

A Persistent Dun.

An aged lady complained to a London magistrate that because she was a little behind in her rent her landlady followed her to church and asked for it there. The landlady came into a pew alongside of her and when she was joining in the responses was constantly whispering to her about the rent. When it came to the response, "Incline our hearts" the landlady would add, "To pay our rent." The magistrate said that it was very annoying, but there was nothing illegal in it.

NOT AN ADVERTISEMENT

But a Notice Issued to the Customers of Baker & Hart.

It is a well established fact that no other paint manufactured anywhere is the equal in durability and covering capacity of "Town and Country Paint." Like all other commodities of recognized merit this excellent paint has not escaped the attention of counterfeiters, and various other kinds of paint, none of which possess any of the distinctive and desirable qualities of "Town and Country," are being offered as its equal, thus employing the reputation of this deservedly popular paint to sell an inferior product.

"Town and Country paint" will readily distinguish itself when on duty, but it is difficult for those who are not familiar with paint to appreciate the importance of using the best. "A rose called by any other name will smell as sweet" is an old saying, just as all paint is paint in the minds of many inexperienced consumers. But we believe that those who expect the best results for the money when they buy paint will appreciate any suggestion that will offer more positive and ready means of securing the right kind of paint. Be sure that the paint you buy is branded "Harrison's Town and Country Paint."

It is neither our desire or purpose to decry the character or quality of any other paint, and certainly not that of our honorable competitors, but it is proper that we should make an effort that will, while preserving the proper distinction between a perfectly pure paint and a so-called pure paint, enables the property owner and the trade at large to guard against the mistake of buying undesirable paint that is claimed to be just as good on the reputation of "Town and Country Paint," which is, as every one knows, of unquestioned merit, and which during our experience of over one hundred years of good paint making we have jealously guarded.

Is it Right?

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes more on fourteen gallons of ready for use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property owner loses just $4.20. Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten thousand churches painted with Longman & Martinez L. & M. paint.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe.

You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.
