NOT MUCH DOING.

Story of the Battle Has Been Practically Told.

New York, May 31.—The story of the conflict between the Japanese and Russian fleets has been practically told and no new developments of consequence have been reported from the East today. Only two of the Russian fleet have been able to reach Vladivostok, the one being one cruiser and one torpedo boat destroyer. Admiral Togo is picking up the remnant of the scattered Russian squadron. There is great depression in St. Petersburg over the almost complete annihilation of the Russian fleet and such disastrous loss of life. Rejstrensky is a prisoner in a hospital, being severely wounded.

Hortsfield, of Goldsboro, at the conclusion of which George Kountree, Esq., of Wilmington, was chosen chancellor and Rev. F. N. Skinner registrar. The standing committees were also named today and proceeded at once to prepare their reports. At night there were discussions of a general nature on subjects of interest to the church. About fifty delegates are present—Raleigh Post.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Thursday.

A DAY OF JOY AND REST ON THE BANKS OF THE TRANQUIL TAR.

Reported for Reflector.

When the sun began to peep over the eastern hills on the morning of Tuesday, May 30, 1905, many youthful hearts in our town beat with joyous excitement, for at last had come the long anticipated, long desired day for the picnic of class No. 12, of the Methodist Sunday school, taught by Mr. Wiley Brown. Although a few clouds flitted over the face of the sun, no cloud of gloom veiled the glowing hearts of the to-be picnickers.

By ten o'clock the members of the class and the guests invited by them had assembled at Mr. Brown's residence and were ready to climb into the wagons that were waiting to carry them to Mr. Brown's farm about two and a half miles in the country. They were told that it was Mr. Brown's farm, but it proved to be of a more poetical character than the name implied—it seemed an enchanted land, over which some kind fairy had cast a magic spell of peace and happiness. Surrounding the picnic grounds could be seen great fields of tobacco, corn and cotton, and there where the happy crowd gathered was a soft carpet of green grass shaded by stately elms and cypresses, in the branches of which could be heard the low murmur of the leaves as they caught the warm kisses of the sunbeams and confided to the gentle breeze their tales of love. Beside this enchanted spot rolled the deep waters of the beautiful Tar.

From eleven until one o'clock was spent in playing games, "King William was King James' Son," "We're Marching 'round the Level," "Old Maid"—be it known, however, that no one felt old at that picnic—"Flinch," etc. Then dinner was served, and my! What a good dinner it was! Good things galore!

After dinner little strolls were taken by the brink of the river and through cool arches of shade. During one of these strolls a hungry hog found a hat belonging to one of the girls and although it was a good hat, he wore it out in a very few minutes! After these strolls, ice cold lemonade was greatly enjoyed. Four of the party then went fishing and caught, well, let's not tell how many they caught, but they caught an eel and more than one fish (two fish are more than one, are they not?)

Then chatting was in order, and one or two more games were played. When the wagons bound for Greenville appeared at six o'clock, mingled joy and regret filled the hearts of the picnickers—joy as an afterglow of the day's happiness, and regret that only the memory of the happy occasion was left to brighten the days to come.

Mr. Wiley Brown did all in his power to make the picnic a happy success, and he succeeded well. Class No. 12 is to be congratulated on having so noble and good a teacher as Mr. Brown. To him it may be said, "None knew thee but to love thee, None named thee but to praise."

The chaperones were Wiley Brown and Mrs. H. C. Hooker.

ARRIVING DAILY.

There is one thing that we do not claim in our business to do and that is to sell goods cheaper than they can be bought—neither do we want to create the impression that our store is full of shop worn, out of style goods nor by filling our store with show bills and sign boards will we try to impress false ideas in your mind that we are going out of business, but we do wish it understood that we are receiving daily shipments of the newest things in

RIBBONS, SILKS, EMBROIDERIES, LACES

A BIT OF SHOP TALK.

The war news that THE DAILY REFLECTOR gave Monday and Tuesday was a day ahead of the news the people of Greenville could get in any other paper. Some of this news was so startling that a few of our readers were loath to credit it at first, but when the state papers came a day later all THE REFLECTOR contained was confirmed. This is a sample of what we could do every day if THE REFLECTOR could afford to take the press dispatches regularly, but the present patronage of the paper does not justify it. Twice in the past this paper has given the press dispatches for two or three months, but found it so expensive that they had to be discontinued, as the paper had no capital except its earnings. It is our constant hope to reach the point of giving the dispatches regularly, and we yet expect to do so, though it is a big undertaking in a town the size of Greenville.

Some of our subscribers have suggested that the subscription price of the paper be raised to meet the extra expense of taking the dispatches, but we realize that increasing the price would be a hard thing to do successfully. While some would readily assent to it, others would not, so the net gain might not meet the desired end. A better plan would be for all who are reading the paper without paying for it to become subscribers. The borrowers of a local paper are always a heavy drain on it. We believe there are enough people around Greenville and vicinity who read THE REFLECTOR without paying for it to enable us to take the dispatches if they were subscribers. Help us get these to subscribe. If we can get one hundred more regular subscribers we will undertake the press dispatches. Help us talk this up and let us see what can be done.

Some people have a queer idea of what is good character. At Wilkesboro this week a man was convicted of running a blockade still right on the public road. When brought up for sentence a number of witnesses testified as to the defendant's character, every one declaring it was splendid. One of these witnesses was a preacher and when reminded by the court that the defendant had been convicted of openly defrauding the government—just a plain case of swindling—the witness said he was "just making a little liquor." The making of a "little liquor" in this case consisted of stealing, that's all, yet the defendant was given a splendid character.—Greensboro Record.

This is just about in keeping with the law that says a man must prove a good moral character to obtain license to sell liquor. The very fact of his engaging in the business looks like evidence that he has not a good moral character.

The state department of agriculture has made a report showing the decrease of cotton acreage through the state is a fraction above 21 per cent. In the twelve largest cotton growing counties in the state the decrease is averaged at 19 per cent. The acreage in these twelve counties is given as follows: Anson, 81 per cent.; Beaufort, 85 per cent.; Cleveland, 87 per cent.; Edgecombe, 82 per cent.; Halifax, 79 per cent.; Johnson, 76½ per cent.; Mecklenburg, 77 per cent.; Pitt, 80½ per cent.; Robeson, 85 per cent.; Union, 75 per cent.; Wake 79 per cent.; Wayne, 85 per cent.

Nan Patterson is advertised to appear with a theatrical troupe in Wilkesbarre, Pa., and the people of that town are protesting against her appearing there. She will get a big house all the same.

Looks like Greensboro is going to get that long-talked of Republican paper. Marion Butler is helping to back it and may find it a good hole in which to sink some of the money he made by fooling the people.

Again let us remind you that it is no time for indifference regarding the ward primaries Friday. The "other side" is at work, and there is danger that somebody may get beat en.

Rojestvensky found Togo, but no doubt wishes he had not.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and our small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

SPECIAL TO POTATO GROWERS

Washington, N. C., May 29, 1905.

To save yourselves from heavy losses we earnestly and strongly advise and beg every grower of potatoes this year to put up their potatoes in better shape than ever. Fill barrels full, rounded up, keep seconds and culls at home. If you do otherwise prices may go as low as 50 cents per barrel for fancy potatoes.

The potato market conditions today are worse than "5-cent cotton." And unless the grower is careful he is likely to make the biggest failure ever known with his returns from his potato crop.

It is well known now that too many potatoes were planted from Maryland to Texas. While the frost, rains and cool weather have cut down the yield the crop is still too large, especially of small potatoes. Those who try to market badly as sorted or small potatoes will ruin every market in the United States, and will get next to nothing for his potatoes, large or small.

This is a serious matter and the farmer alone can save himself.

Again we urge you: Put up your big potatoes only. Keep your culls and seconds at home.

This is personally addressed to you. Please tell your neighbor about it.

Yours truly,
WM. BRAGAW & Co.
and other dealers.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison, Kan., Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Pacific between Wichita and Klowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in the office today, we asked him about it." He says terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Just as surely as the sun shines your stomach can be brought back to its originally pure condition and life sweetened by this lasting and truly the greatest digestant known. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

A Day in Farmville.

One of the most attractive towns in East Carolina is Farmville. One of the finest farming sections in East Carolina is around Farmville. Until three years ago the small town of Farmville, in a prosperous part of Pitt county, had no railroad facilities, and therefore had not the opportunity to keep pace with other towns favored with such facilities.

For three years the town has had the advantages which came to it with the completion of the East Carolina railroad from Tarboro to that point; and the town has made the most of the opportunities which the coming of the railroad gives. When the railroad reached the town there were not more than three or four hundred people, perhaps, and now the population is about double that number. Fine stores, handsome dwellings, a prosperous bank, a most excellent public school with large and convenient buildings and capacious grounds, four churches and pleasing prosperity on every hand, are some of the attractive features of the town.

Added to these things is the kindness and abounding hospitality of the people. Prosperous and independent high toned and cultured, the people of Farmville and community are easily the peers in hospitality and social excellence of any we have met. It were invidious to mention one without mentioning all, so we say for one we say for all—they are most excellent people and know how to make a stranger comfortable.

Farmville's greatest attraction just now is its excellent graded school. The grounds are large and the building is quite sufficient for the needs of the school. For the past year the school has been under the management of Prof. J. H. McIver, as superintendent; and he and his splendid corps of teachers have had a most satisfactory year's work.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, a resident of Scotland Neck some years ago, is county superintendent of Pitt and he gives all his time to the care of the public schools. He has simply revolutionized the school system of the county in four or five years.

The closing exercises of the Farmville graded school were held Thursday, May 18. The exercises at night were of a high order and did great credit to the teachers who trained the pupils. We never have seen such good order on a similar occasion, all things considered.

At the morning exercises at 11 o'clock, the editor of The Commonwealth made some remarks to a good and considerate audience.

We enjoyed a day in Farmville very much and shall be glad when we have an opportunity of seeing these good people again.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Bilious Bill was getting bloated, and his tongue was much coated. Patent "tonics" wouldn't cure him.

Companies would not insure him. All his friends were badly frightened.

But their spirits soon were lightened.

For Bill said—and they believed him,

EARLY RISER pill relieved him.

The famous little pills "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno L. Wooten.

GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SALLOW PEOPLE

COLLECTED THE BILL.

A Business Letter That Turned Out to Be a Boomerang.

For three years a Brooklyn business house had tried to collect an undisputed bill of $20 from a lawyer, whom a Brooklyn paper calls Baker because that is not his name. Whenever a collector asked for the money the lawyer would protest vigorously that a man of his large affairs could not be bothered with so small a matter as a bill of $20.

One day the business house received a typewritten letter from the lawyer, manifold copies of which had probably been sent to many other Brooklyn business houses. It was evident that he had not recognized the firm's name when he sent it. The letter read in part as follows:

"I take the liberty of writing you, thinking you may have some claims on your books that should be collected. I undertake collections as a branch of my business upon the principle, 'No collections, no charge.' Of course, I do not bring actions at law for nothing; neither do I sue unless authorized. I believe that collections are stepping stones to other legal business and give an opportunity to become acquainted with my method of doing business."

The business house sent the following answer, together with its bill against the lawyer:

"We have at hand your favor of the 23d inst., asking us to send you some of our uncollected bills, and we take pleasure in sending you herewith a bill which we have been trying to collect for a long time without success."

"If you can do anything in this matter we should be pleased to send you other bills for collection. Will you kindly let us hear from you at your earliest convenience?"

Possibly this did not especially appeal to the lawyer's sense of humor, but the bill was paid without any further delay.—Exchange.

Appropriate.

The minister of marine was all things to all men. Once it fell to him to select the warship which should go to the rescue of some missionaries who had become embroiled with the heathen they were saving. "Send a converted cruiser," said his excellency, with rare delicacy and tact.—Puck.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. For sale by Jno L. Wooten.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This ointment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Is It Right?

Is it right that a property-owner should lose $4.20 to let a dealer make 50 cents? A dealer makes more on fourteen gallons of ready for use paint, at $1.50 per gallon, than our agent does on eight gallons of L. & M. paint and six gallons of linseed oil, which make fourteen gallons of the best paint in the world, at $1.20 per gallon; the property owner loses just $4.20.

Is it right?

It only requires 4 gallons of L. & M. and 3 gallons linseed oil to paint a moderate sized house.

Ten thousand churches painted with Logman & Martinez L. & M. paint.

Liberal quantity given to churches when bought from H. L. Carr.

Hand Nearly Blown Off.

Dred Jones, a boy about 16 years old living near Ballard's X Roads, met with a serious accident Tuesday. He was out with a gun snooting chickens when the barrel of the gun burst just where his left hand clasped it. Three fingers were blown off and the hand was so badly lacerated that more of it had to be amputated. Dr. William Fountain performed the operation.

Mr. J. J. Rollins Ead.

Mr. J. J. Rollins, a prominent citizen of Pactolus, in this county, died Monday. He was in his 74th year. The remains were taken to Washington for interment. He leaves two sons and a daughter.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe? Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that! And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe. You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
