Bound Over to Court

We see from the Washington Gazette Messenger that two former Greenville citizens, Charles Denser and John Loeb, have been having an interview before the mayor of that city on the charge of gambling. They were sent up to a high court.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Sunday.

AT THE CHURCHES.

CHRISTIAN.

At the Christian church tomorrow the services will be as follows: 10, a. m., Bible School; 11, a. m., preaching by the pastor; 7:30, p. m., Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, Miss Nannie Johnson, leader. At eight o'clock the annual Children's Day exercises will be given. An elaborate program has been prepared and the little ones will no doubt carry out their parts with the usual grace and charm which belongs only to them. Recitations, songs and choruses, and other features illustrating the work of missions in foreign lands will be given. An offering for heathen missions will be taken at the close and forwarded to the foreign Christian missionary society at Cincinnati for use in the foreign field.

Next Tuesday the hearts of the little ones will be gladdened when they start on their annual picnic. This year the happy event will take place at "Yankee Hall." A boat from Washington has been chartered for the occasion and ample accommodations provided for all who will go. The usual feast of good things will be in evidence, and a good time is assured if the weather permits.

MISSIONARY BAPTIST.

Rev. J. Manning Dunaway, of Emporia, Va., will preach in the Baptist church here Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Dunaway comes highly recommended as a splendid preacher and a treat is in store for those who hear him.

The congregation would be glad to see all of their friends and others out at both services. A full Sunday school is also desired. Every member is requested to be present at 9:30, a. m.

The time of meeting of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church has been changed to 7:30 p. m.

The following program will be had at tomorrow evening's meeting:

Song—"The Crowning Day is Coming."

Reading of Scripture and prayer.

Song—"Bulah Land."

Recitation by a little girl.

How can you help each other as Christians—J. W. Bryan.

General Discussion.

Song—"The Home Over There."

Benediction.

METHODIST.

I had planned to be away on tomorrow, and have Rev. P. N. Stauback, of Weldon, to fill my appointment here. But at the last moment all my plans fell through so the regular services will be held in the Methodist church tomorrow, as follows:

9:30 a. m., Sunday school, conducted by D. D. Overton.

11, a. m., preaching by the pastor. After the sermon the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

2:30, p. m., meeting of Bright Jewels.

3:30 p. m., devotional exercises of the Epworth League. Led by Miss Martha Lee Cowell.

8:15, p. m., preaching by the pastor.

Respectfully,
J. A. Hornaday.

This June 3rd, 1905.

Rev. T. D. Viehe, of Richmond, who was announced to preach here in the Presbyterian church tomorrow, is prevented by sickness from coming for the present.

EPISCOPAL.

Rev. W. E. Cox will fill his regular appointment at the Episcopal church tomorrow. Sunday school at the usual hour.

An excursion will come up from Washington to the ball game here on the 8th between Greenville and Washington.

MURDER ON TRAIN.

One Negro Sends Bullet Through Brain of Another.

On Friday there was a colored excursion from Washington to Goldsboro. There were six coaches and all pretty well filled. While the train was standing at the depot in Parmele a pistol shot rang out in one of the coaches and instantly a negro dropped over dead.

The negro who fired the shot was Fred Daniel and his victim was Will Eborn, both of Paelet in this county. It seems there had been no previous trouble and the murder was cold blooded. Eborn was occupying a seat with a girl and engaged in conversation with her. Daniel came walking through the car and seeing Eborn sitting beside the girl drew a pistol and sent a bullet crashing through Eborn's brain, the ball entering the forehead. Daniel made his escape.

The opposition did not materialize.

The primaries did a good night's work.

Togo can now go and receive the plaudets of Tokio.

Wonder what the preferred stock of that "high class" daily is bringing?

The Russian successes are about as scarce as goose berries on a strawberry bush.

That "high class" Republican daily to be published ought to be called the "Organ of the Rumers"

Greensboro will have more Republican papers than she knows what to do with if the fun keeps rolling.

The czar must be a very miserable man, with his fleet almost wiped off of the water and his people at home revolting.

Wisconsin has passed a bill making it a misdemeanor to tip a waiter. In that state there will be many a slip twixt the waiter and the tip.

We might say that those gentlemen who are satisfied with the present freight rate system are those who never pay any freight charges.

The price of radium, $3,000,000 an ounce, is not causing anxiety in this quarter. We never did care enough for it to try to get even one pound.

In New York a man may be imprisoned for failing to pay his debts, provided he has not got enough money to take advantage of the bankruptcy law.

The way the Wilmington Star of Friday mixed its headings on the Episcopal Council and Superior court proceedings, looked like Brother Bernard was just in from the horse show.

The treasury deficit for April was $9,000,000. This is about $18,000,000 more than Secretary Gage told us a few months back it would be. The secretary had better get out his pencil and go to figuring instead of guessing so much.

"I never took anything which would effect people who were not able to stand the loss," says defaulter Smith, of San Francisco. This sounds very much like the plea in abatement made by a society of religious people charged with receiving money dishonestly obtained by the donor.

It is announced that the Standard Oil Company has purchased 100,000 acres of land in Eastern North Carolina, containing several million feet of gum timber from which oil barrels will be manufactured at a coeperage plant to be established on the line of the projected Virginia and Carolina Coast railroad, which is to run into Norfolk.

Today several North Carolina editors depart for Guthrie, Oklahoma, to attend the meeting of the National Editorial Association in that city. From Guthrie an extended trip to the Pacific coast including a visit to the Lewis and Clark exposition in Portland, Oregon, will be taken. It will be a delightful trip. The editor of THE REFLECTOR was a delegate to the National Editorial Association and had intended taking the trip, but as it drew near found that he could not spare the month's time that would be necessary for it.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system, overcomes and cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, etc. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for what is sometimes called America's national disease, Dyspepsia, is destined to eventually work a wonderful and lasting benefit to sufferers from this distressing and mind harassing condition. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

The Home Paper.

Here are a few thoughts from the Portland Oregonian, one of the ideally-excellent papers of this country, that deserves reproduction in whole or in substance—with credit for modesty's sake—in all the "home papers" of the land:

"Your home paper never loses interest in you." To this, possibly, you have not given a passing thought.

No matter if you like the newspaper man or if he likes you, if he is true to his profession and publishes a paper for the people he allows no personal matters or petty spites to interfere with his news gathering.

He may meet you as a stranger, yet along with his best friends, chronicles your success and sorrows wherever you may be, and those who would otherwise forget you are ever and anon reminded of your existence by an item in your home paper. Others may deceive and defraud you, but your home paper never forgets you.

Possibly you do not deserve decent treatment by the paper, but you get it just the same, and if it should at any time say things to cause your fur to turn the wrong way, study a moment and see if it has not at various times said many nice things for which you fail to give it credit.

What's this magic necromancer? EARLY RISERS, that's the answer.

The Famous Little Pills, "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

It is not surprising that Secretary Taft's order has created consternation in the ranks of the champions of protection: Mr. Wellman says: "On the face of it this looks like nothing more than good business policy. But it does not please the high tariffites at all. They look upon it as rank heresy. They perceive, as everyone perceives, that it raises the whole tariff question, and raises it in a manner calculated to give far more comfort to democrats and independents and tariff reformers than to those who have helped push up the walls and who have made exclusion of foreign trade in any form an article of party faith. It will be a long time before the Panama commission and the country hears the last of the storm brewed by this important decision."—The Commoner.

Let Not Our Souls Be Vexed.

It has been discovered that the legislature of 1905 enacted a law prohibiting the newspapers from publishing a list of those persons who return incomes for taxation and immediately there is a protest that the freedom of the press is being abridged. Let's pass it up, brethren.

The income tax law of North Carolina is all right in a way but the gratuitous insertion of an advertisement that Billikins cleaned up $5,000 last year on salaries and fees while the "leading citizen" speculator who raked off ten thousand or so on corn, wheat or cotton is exempted from the provisions of this law and protected from the public gaze, will not commend itself to thoughtful people.—Salisbury Post.

The Children's Favorite.

For Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc., One Minute Cough Cure is the children's favorite. This is because it contains no opiate, is perfectly harmless, tastes good and cures. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A United States senator, evidently devoted to the republican party's protection theory, said that he could hardly credit the statement that a commission, acting under the republican party proposed to purchase a considerable amount of supplies abroad. And another senator, who, according to Mr. Wellman, "stands high in the republican party," said that Mr. Taft's action was "highly unfortunate and certain to bring the republicans face to face with the tariff issue in its keenest form." This senator added that Taft's order would give the democratic party "just the weapon it most badly needed in its fight against the protective tariff system."—Ex.

Letters from Women

Cured by the use of Kodol are received daily. Their troubles nearly all begin with indigestion or other stomach disorder.

If the food you eat fails to give strength to your body, it is because the juices secreted by the stomach and digestive organs are inadequate to transform the nutrient properties of the food into blood. That is indigestion. The system is deprived of the amount of nourishment required to keep up the strength, and the result is that one or more of the delicate organs gradually grows weak, and then weaker, until finally it is diseased. Here a great mistake is made. That of treating the diseased organ. The best doctors in the land make this very mistake. Why should they? It is so easy to see that the trouble is not there.

Kodol Cures

This famous remedy puts the stomach and digestive organs in a healthy condition so that rich, red blood is sent coursing through the veins and arteries of every muscle, tissue and fiber throughout every organ of the entire body, and by Nature's law of health, full strength and vigor is soon restored to each.

Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. I have taken Kodol for nearly two months after each meal and it is the only remedy that gave relief from the terrible pains I endured. After a time I would take it but once a day, and now, while I keep a bottle handy, I seldom need it, as it has cured me. Mrs. J. W. COOLBAUGH, Milo Center, N. Y.

PROOF AGAINST COLD.

Insects Not Injured by the Lowest of Low Temperatures.

The severest cold has no terrors for insect life. It has been shown by experiments that insects may be artificially or naturally frozen, subjected, indeed, to very low temperatures, without killing or even injuring them. Eggs, larvae, the pupae, the stages in which most insects pass the winter, are perfectly immune to cold.

It is a common idea that cocoons of insects serve as a protection against cold, but this is entirely erroneous. They, like the summer webs of webworms, are a protection against birds and insect parasites, but not against cold. The cocoons of summer broods are as stout and thick as those of the generations that pass the winter. Moths, butterflies and other insects build stouter and more compact cocoons in tropical and torrid countries than they do in those climates where they are besieged by winter. There are many insects, allied to the builders of cocoons, that make no such covering, the pupa or the chrysalis being left entirely exposed. And so little heat is maintained by the pupae of insects that no matter how thick the cocoons they are always too slight to repel freezing cold.

Certain degrees of frigidity seem to have vastly different effects on different species of insects. Gnats and midges dance in the winter sunshine; butterflies—vanessa, graptia and sometimes collins—skim over the snow; wasps and bees wind their way through the leafless woods, ground beetles run quickly over the cold earth, crickets peep from beneath stones and rotting logs, while other species—the vast majority in fact—are locked in the lethargy of hibernation. One of the commonest evidences of this hibernation is to be seen when firewood is carried into the house and placed near the warm stove. It takes only a short time to bring out a swarm of ants that were sleeping in beetle borings, their common retreat.—St. Nicholas.

Threw In the Tobacco.

In city stores where clerks have no control over the prices of goods the old time practice of "throwing in" something with a purchase has gone out of fashion. Years ago, however, when "Long John" Wentworth, afterward Mayor Wentworth of Chicago, was a clerk in a grocery store, it was an established custom. A certain customer was particularly urgent in his appeals for what in New Orleans is called "jagnappe."

"Now, Johnny, my boy," he said on one occasion when he had bought a gallon of molasses, "can't ye just throw in a trifle of fine cut?"

Young Wentworth looked at him for a moment; then his eye twinkled.

"Certainly," he said, and uncorking the jug, he "threw in" a handful of chewing tobacco. It cured the man of his habit of asking for a bonus, if not of the habit of chewing tobacco.

He Found Fault.

"He criticised me for almost nothing!" moaned the wife.

The friends sought to comfort her, but she was not to be soothed. Between her sobs she told of how her husband had expressed very unfavorable opinions of her new ball gown.

"But you said he criticised you for almost nothing," argued the sympathizers.

"So he did." Here she gave way to a fresh outburst of sobs. "He—he said I was wearing it."—Youth's Companion.

An Anxious Youngster.

A youngster was anxious for a watch, and her grandmother had said, "When I die, Margaret, I shall give you my gold watch." A few weeks after she was visiting with her grandmother and, evidently longing for the time when she should receive her legacy, started her relative greatly by saying, "Grandmamma, when are you going to die and go into a hole, so I can wear my watch?"

The Cheerful Idiot's Poser.

"What is the difference," asked the cheerful idiot, "between an old, neglected pair of trousers and a bad boy who persists in throwing stones at a beehive?"

"Goodness knows," responded the weary listener.

"Of course I do," acknowledged the cheerful idiot. "One keeps bagging at the knees and the other keeps nagging at the bees."—Baltimore American.

Where He Was.

"Mr. Dabble," said a lawyer to a witness in the box, "at the time these papers were executed you were speculating, were you not?"

"Yes, sir."

"You were in oil?"

"I was."

"And what are you in now?"

"Bankruptcy," was the solemn reply.—London Tit-Bits.

Died.

Departed this life on the 29th of May, John F. Moseley, in his 55th year. Mr. Moseley had been confined to his bed for some considerable time, but had greatly improved. With his wife he went down in the field where his folks were at work and was taken with a choking, and in a few minutes was dead. His death was so sudden that it shocked the neighborhood.

Mr. Moseley was one of the most prosperous farmers in Falkland township, a good neighbor, a good citizen and a life long Democrat. He leaves a wife and eight children to mourn their loss.
His funeral was largely attended and we never saw more sorrow expressed. W. R. W.

uniting them as one was pronounced by Rev. Josiah Crudup,

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe? Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that! And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe. You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
