Conference With Former Wife.

Durham, N. C., June 3.—Brodie L. Duke returned from Greensboro this morning, where he went yesterday to hold a conference with his divorced wife, Mrs. Minnie W. Duke. He was asked about his trip and the conference with his divorced wife, and he said that his conference with her was of a purely business nature. "I had rather that nothing would have been said of this trip," he said, "but I don't mind telling the object of the visit. It was in reference to the education and taking care of our son, Woodward, that I met Mrs. Minnie Duke in Greensboro."

Continuing he said that there is a certain trust fund in New York and that this cannot be distributed without the legal appointment of a trustee. "Mrs. Duke asked me," he said, "if I would accept the appointment as trustee of this fund." He then said that he told his former wife that he would do anything within his power to see that the son was educated and taken care of, and that if necessary he would contribute the necessary money out of his pocket. "This is all there was in the trip," he said. Mrs. Duke was on her way from New York to Chattanooga and wired Mr. Duke to meet her. It is learned here that in New York today proceedings were instituted by B. L. Duke to get a divorce from his third wife, Mrs. Alice Webb Duke. He admitted that the proceedings had been instituted but would give nothing further for publication.

Girl Married the Other Fellow.

The North Wilkesboro Hustler says that Mr. S. F. Shore, of Yadkin and Mr. R. E. Lee, of North Wilkesboro, had been paying marked attention to Miss Lena Erwin, of Wilkesboro. Tuesday Mr. Shore appeared in Wilkesboro and announced that he and Miss Erwin were to be married that afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. He secured the license, engaged the minister and invited his friends. In the meantime Mr. Lee received a communication from Miss Erwin and he went to her home at once. She got in the buggy with him and drove to the home of his mother in North Wilkesboro. When Mr. Shore realized the situation he very sensibly returned to his home in Yadkin. Mr. Lee and Miss Erwin returned to Miss Erwin's home and were married the same afternoon.

Recovered Speech.

Elizabeth City, N. C., June 3.—Mrs. R. E. Perry, who lives on Beach street, recovered her powers of speech after 59 days, during which time she could not utter a word. About two months ago she was prostrated by an attack of the grip, one of the most severe cases ever known in this section, and the loss of speech was one of the ways in which it affected her. When she had recovered from the sickness still she could not utter a word, her tongue seemingly being paralyzed, and her people had almost lost hopes as to her ever speaking again. However, she suddenly regained the use of her tongue and can now speak as well as ever and she is happy.

Wife Murderer Did Not Want Pardon.

Conyers, Ga., June 3.—Will Simms, a negro, was hanged here today for the murder, last April, of his wife. He objected to any efforts to secure a pardon or commutation of sentence for him, saying he was ready to die.

Died in Tarboro.

Miss Emma Craven, of Tarboro, and daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Craven, died in that place Friday night.

New-Born Knights.

New Bern, N. C., June 3.—Grand Chancellor Commander W. F. Robertson, of the Knights of Pythias, arrived here tonight and will deliver the memorial address of the local lodge here tomorrow.

There was a special meeting of the lodge tonight, and degree work was done, after which Maj. Robertson made a very interesting and instructive talk to the members present. After the lodge closed an informal reception was tendered the distinguished official, and the occasion was enlivened by the K. of P. band rendering several selections.

Tomorrow afternoon the memorial exercises will be held at the new Masonic opera house, after which they will proceed to the cemetery, where the appropriate closing exercises will be held over the graves of their departed brothers.

Robbery Mystery.

Goldboro, N. C., June 3.—This morning Mr. A. V. Korney, secretary and treasurer, of the Goldsboro Buggy company, went to the Bank of Wayne and drew $250, as was his custom, to pay off his employees at the factory. After he left the bank he came up to the Goldsboro Drug company's store, where he left the money, which was all in silver, in the drug store safe. He called back there this afternoon about 2 o'clock and went to get his money, but it was gone. A search was instituted, but the money was not to be found. Where the money is or who got it is a mystery, as no stranger was seen in the store anywhere near the safe.

A Tar Heel Wins Honors.

North Carolina boys continue to maintain the reputation of the old North State. One of the graduates at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute this year is John H. Squires, of this State. He hails from Lenoir but his family has recently come to this county to live, so Mecklenburg can now claim him. Although this is his first year at the school, so good has been his record that he is one of the first names on the honor roll and has been chosen as one of the commencement orators. Mr. Squires is a brother of Mrs. W. L. Nicholson, of this city, and has many friends here, who will be pleased to hear of his success. —Charlotte Observer.

Capt. and Mrs. Hobson Welcomed.

Greensboro, Ala., June 3.—Captain Richmond P. Hobson and his bride arrived in Greensboro afternoon, after having driven this across the country 25 miles. An immense reception was given the bride by townspeople, practically every citizen taking part. Mrs. Hobson, who has been reared in the North, has 32 cousins in Greensboro.

Two Splendid Sermons.

Rev. J. Manning Dunaway, of Emporia, Va., preached in the Baptist church here Sunday morning and evening. Large congregations were out to hear him and the people were well pleased with him. His sermons were excellent, and delivered with an earnestness and eloquence that drew the closest attention of his hearers.

A Startling Statement.

Cleveland Plain Dealer. "Yes, I believe that brevity is the soul of wit." "Don't be hasty. Look at little Codling—four feet one in his socks. He's the briefest thing we have about here, and he doesn't know wit from a watermelon!"

Please Give Both Addresses.

We have had several postal cards and letters of late from our subscribers who reside on R. F. D. routes with request to change their paper to the routes that they now receive their mail on, without giving us their former address. We have tried on several occasions to find their names and make the changes and in some instances have had to look through at least a dozen or fifteen post offices, and even then we have failed on some. If each subscriber will always give the post office at which he has been getting the paper and then the office he wants it changed to, it will save lots of trouble finding their names, and will be the means of the paper reaching the new address earlier.

There you get the benefit of the health giving waters and the fine, embracing climate. Beaufort will also be a popular place for our people, and we might mention here the opening german at Morehead this week; this will be a most delightful occasion. And there is the mountain resorts, don't forget them.

The Encampment.

MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1905.

Its hard to tell which Republican faction is ahead in Greensboro.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, seems to be cock of the walk these days.

If Mr. Rollins had consulted his father-in-law, possibly he would not have fallen into the hands of Mary Ann.

Discipline of Russian soldiers may be bad, but there is one thing certain, as sprinters, they are clear out of sight.

Russia says all the reports so far are only rough ones. No doubt about it, they are mighty rough on poor old Russia.

No doubt the trusts "love" the people. This is evident from the way in which they (the trusts) squeeze 'em.

The czar says he would rather die than sue for peace. His people ought to let him have his own way in this particular matter.

Between a trust and a burglar, the difference is this, a burglar does his robbing under cover of night and the trust robs both night and day.

When the railroads quit passing out passes to senators and representatives we may expect to see some anti railroad legislation passed—and not until then.

Paul Morton will have no trouble if he happens to become president of the New York subway as he has had considerable experience on the political subway for quite a while.

"Three tramps escaped from a western jail by means of a rope made of towels," says the Atlanta Journal. This is the first time we ever heard of a tramp having any use for a towel.

NORTH CAROLINA RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION.

Asheville, N. C., June 3, 1905.

The annual convention of the North Carolina Retail Merchants Association will be held in Asheville on June 21st and 22nd.

Pres. Clarence Sawyer has received letters from Mr. John A. Green, of Cleveland O., President of the National Association of Retail Grocers, and from Mr. W. B. Thomlin, of Birmingham, Ala., President of the Southern Retail Grocers Association, as well as from officers from the Retail Merchants Associations of our sister states, stating that they will be present at this convention.

Special attention is called to the fact that Messrs. Green and Thomlin will attend, as their presence will be a very important feature of the meeting.

The merchants throughout the South are beginning to awake to the fact that they can accomplish more through their Retail Associations than through any other channel, and are rapidly joining their local associations.

Officers from the various state associations are working hand in hand for the general good, and are receiving assistance and encouragement from the manufacturers, also from the National Association.

All indications point to a big meeting in Asheville, as the merchants throughout the state have begun to realize the power of their organization, since they were enabled to have the last legislature repeal the iniquitous sales tax, as well as to have some minor legislation enacted. They are even now at work, outlining plans to ask the next legislature to enact additional laws that will be of great benefit to them.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the box I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Nothing Is Impossible.

Nothing can withstand the force of a righteous public sentiment.

For a quarter of a century the city of Philadelphia has been in the control of a political machine that has been invincible. Time after time efforts were made to defeat it and give the city good government, but the reformers always failed, and finally gave up in despair saying: "There is no use to fight."

But there is no machine so strong that the honest masses are not stronger, if they will assert themselves. The bosses determined upon giving a long time contract for lighting the city to a company that the machine favored. Press and people denounced the outrageous steal, they crowded the council chamber to prevent it, but the "machine" was greased and the franchise steal was voted. It looked like the popular uprising would utterly fail, but the people were in no mood to be trifled with. They appealed to the mayor, who is personally an honest man, but who was elected by the machine and had been doing in the main what he was expected by it to do. He rose to the occasion and declared he would veto the franchise. The machine had voted enough to pass the bill over his veto. Lawyers were employed to get out an injunction, and press and people joined hands with the mayor to prevent the consummation of the steal. The whole world knows that they succeeded. The victory in Philadelphia proves that grafters can be defeated anywhere and everywhere if the press and the people are aggressive and determined, for Philadelphia has the worst ring in America. Let men never again say, "It's no use," but fight rottenness and graft. They can and will win if they fight!—News & Observer.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutritive properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system, overcomes and cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, etc. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for what is sometimes called America's national disease. Dyspepsia, is destined to eventually work a wonderful and lasting benefit to sufferer from this distressing and mind harassing condition. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

North Carolina, it appears, did not escape in the Washington grafting operations, Louis R. Smith, a former employe of the Land Office, confessing that he sold thirty land warrants worth about $5,000.—Ex.

The Children's Favorite.

For Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. One Minute Cough Cure is the children's favorite. This is because it contains no opiate, is perfectly harmless, tastes good and cures. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

A Baron Above Work.

"I have no occupation. I am a gentleman."

This was said in a New York police court by a European baron who had made a disturbance in a theatre lobby.

According to this test, about the only "gentlemen" to be found in New York or any other American city are the tramps who sit in the parks by day and sleep in them at night.

This baron's ancestor who first won the title for his family may have been something of a man. He may have been a hero in war or a leader in industrial enterprise. He may have had real nobility. But, unfortunately, he could transmit only the title, not the worthy qualities. And the title, fitted upon emptiness, seems to have made a fool.

Nobility would not be such a bad thing, if the nobility itself were hereditary. Most of the founders of the old European families were rugged, rough and ready fellows who had no false pride or nastiness about them. But the law that preserves the rank cannot preserve the character.

Hereditary nobility is held in contempt in this country for the simple reason that it is only an empty name. It unfit a man for usefulness. It makes him the exact opposite of noble.

This baron saw nothing incongruous in a nobleman's creating disorder in a public place. A baron can be a common rowdy. But work! That is beneath him. Work, he thinks, would tarnish his title.

Well, maybe it would. Certainly a patent of nobility is worth nothing to a man if he must stand upon his own feet anyway. And the man who doesn't stand on his own feet isn't much of a man, though he has a line of ancestry reaching back to Adam.

So if the title is tarnished, it doesn't matter much. A title that keeps one from being a man ought to be more than tarnished.

This baron has yet to learn that in this country every man must make his own title of nobility—and make it by labor.—Ex

Bilious Bill the sleepy head, Dearly loved to lay a bed; Couldn't wake him if you shook him; When his slumbers overtook him, Suddenly he started waking Every morn when day was breaking.

What's this magic nectomancer? EARLY RISERS, that's the answer. The Famous Little Pills, "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The President has taken a step toward bringing about peace in the Far East by pressing to the Russian ambassador to Washington the hope that Russia would conclude peace with Japan. It would be quite a compliment to the Chief Executive if he were the means of hastening an end to the bloodshed in the East, and in this connection he doubtless wishes Secretary Hay were in Washington.—Charlotte Observer.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

A Pittsburg man has been given 1,000,000 glasses of beer, but in order to prevent him from becoming a political power, the condition is made that he must drink them himself.—Economist.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame-back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain-Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilling, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

WHAT IS LOVE?

Some More or Less Clever Attempts at a Definition.

"What is love?" was the burning question asked by the company of immortals.

"Love," said the landlady, "is that power so subtle as to defy analysis, which draws two people together who cannot afford it and enables me to fill my third story front."

"Love," said the society woman,
"is the alliance of two families in such a manner as to produce the fewest offspring and then cut the greatest swath."

Said the psychologist: "Love is that set of sensations which, finding their way through the afferent nerves, stimulate certain ganglionic centers of the occipital portion of the brain and extend up through the higher areas of cerebral consciousness. It is purely subjective in its action, and, while it has no regular synthesis, being extremely diverse in all of its aspects, it seems to be subject to some higher definitive law as yet undetermined."

Said the college graduate, "Love is the supreme folly."

Said the octogenarian, "Love is eternal."

Said the theologian, "Love is that divine force, co-existent with Jehovah, that has dwelt in the hearts of men since the shepherds have watched their flocks and which enables us to force every one to believe in our own particular views, even if we have to do it with the edge of the sword."

Said the actress, "Love is an angel—with plenty of money."

Said the bachelor, "Love is ar-amusement."

Said the married man: "Love is the dearest thing in the world. It's the only thing that prevents me from living within my income."

Said the widow, "Love is constant in its change."

Said the dressmaker: "Without love I should go out of business.
Love pays all my bills."—Tom Masson in Life.

Where the Bank President Caught Him.
The bank president was talking to an applicant for a position in the bank.

"Our employees must be absolutely honest of course," he said.

"I am honest," replied the applicant.

"Do you pay your debts?" asked the president.

"Yes, sir."

"Would you pay even a poker debt?"

"Yes, sir."

"I'm sorry," said the president,
"but we have no place for you."

When the applicant had left, a friend of the president ventured to ask:

"Why didn't you employ him?"

"He's apparently honest enough."

"Well," replied the president, "he probably wouldn't steal, but he tells lies. No man ever pays poker debts."—Kansas City Times.

Had to Treat Back.

There was a sensation in a Glasgow street one evening when one man was seen pursuing another at a breakneck pace. The pursued, much the smaller man of the two, leaped on to a passing car. The pursuer leaped on almost at his heels, and, seizing the runaway by the collar, the two rolled off the car together on to the street. Deeming it was a thief who had been caught, a crowd collected. "What was he doing?" asked a man as the two struggled to their feet, the larger tightly grabbing the smaller. "Ach, the mean hound," he gasped. "I stood him a glass of beer along there, an' he was bolting' without standin' me yin. But I'll watch him." And he marched off his man.

London Relics.

In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries when a London street was newly formed its name and date were frequently recorded on a tablet built into the wall of a corner house. The houses themselves were also sometimes distinguished by initials, names or dates, either placed like the street tablets or on a rain pipe or inside the building. Some of these relics still survive, but there is constant danger of their destruction, for every year many old houses are leveled with the ground, and streets once important cease to exist, are merged into other streets or lose their importance by being renamed.—London Truth.

A Hint.
Mother—I can't have that young man staying here so late at night.
You must give him a hint of some kind.

Daughter (in the evening)—I am very much afraid something will happen to you on the streets at night. You must be more careful of yourself and not be out so late.
If anything should happen to you,
I'd—I'd die!

LETTER TO HODGES & CO.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sirs: Paint Devoc; it's the cheapest paint in the world; never mind the price; it may or may not be more. Less gallons will paint the house; and the paint will outwear anything.

Skip wear; you've got wait, to find that out. It covers mor; you haven't got to wait to find that out.

It's the cheapest of all; no matter about the price.

Mr. Frank A. Morse, West Rutland, Vt., says: "An old painter, who had painted my house led and oil a good many times, said 12 to 15 gallons Devoc." I got 15; it took 6 1/2, with 1 1/2 of oil.

Mr. William Maughan, Central Rutland, Vt., bought 9; had 3 left. That's how.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOC & CO.
P. S. H. L. Carr sells our Paint.

Some Grass.

A prominent topic of conversation among the farmers is the grass. One was telling how hard he had to work to keep the grass down. He said that after nearly killing himself for a whole week he left his plow at the end of the row Saturday evening, and when he went back to resume work Monday morning the grass had grown over his plow.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, June 1, 1905
Crops are far beyond an average in this section.

Rev. R. I. Corbitt returned from Pamlico county last Monday where he had been on a week's visit and reports a pleasant trip.

Rev. W. A. Woodard, a student in the Seminary at Ayden, filled the pulpit at St. Delight last Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

Miss Pearl O'Neal, of Oriental, came last Monday to spend some time with her cousin, Mrs. Nina Corbitt.

Quite a number of people from this community are attending the commencement at Ayden this week.

The commencement exercises at the Ormondsville High School last Thursday, May 25th, were very interesting. Hon. L. I. Moore, of Greenville, addressed the school and visitors in the morning, and the exercises by the school were given at night.

Handsomest and largest stock of Iron Bedsteads at S. M. Schultz.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe.

You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
