GREENVILLE WON 12 TO 4.

The Turner Brothers and Rowe Did Fine Work.

The Washington aggregation was simply outclassed Thursday afternoon at Arthur's park. At no part of the game did they have a chance to win. Our boys showed up in great shape, notwithstanding the fact that "Bully" Anderson, our crack right fielder, was out of the game. Turner J. and Turner E. did excellent work, while Rowe, our crack catcher, did the stunt beautifully behind the bat. His hitting cannot be criticized.

The home boys started in at first and made three runs, White making a beautiful single in this inning. Washington failed to reach the initial sack.

In the second Turner J. scored Blow by a beautiful hit, while Rowe, anxious for one more, hit the spheroid for three sacks. Washington scored their first two runs in this inning by three bases on balls, a man hit and an error.

Greenville failed to cross the rubber in third. Washington scored two in this inning on two two-baggers and two errors. After this our neighbors did not think of making a round.

In the fourth Greenville scored on a two bagger by James B. and a single by Rowe. Washington failed to score.

In the fifth Greenville drew a blank and Washington followed her example, Turner fanning three men.

Greenville scored three runs in the sixth by making three hits, a sacrifice and an error by Maxwell at first. Washington again failed to score, Turner fanning two out of the three.

In the seventh Greenville did not score, Washington was unable to.

Greenville scored one in the eighth by error of left fielder. Washington couldn't do anything. In the ninth White started off with a two-bagger, went to third and scored on block ball. Washington tried to hit the ball hard in this inning, Turner showing them that he was teasing.

Summary—Greenville, 12 runs, 11 hits, 5 errors; Washington, 4 runs, 5 hits, 8 errors. Struck out, Turner 11, Wooten 7, Carter 2. Hit by Turner 2, Wooten 4, Carter 0. Earned runs, Greenville 8, Washington 1. Time of game 2 hours. Umpire, Lewis. Scorer, Skinner. Attendance 900.

Greenville will play Washington at Washington on Monday, 12th.

One On the Physician.

"Say," said the doctor, addressing the druggist, and winking knowingly at the clerk, "do you know anything about this stamp tax?"

"Sure," replied the druggist. "What do you want to know?"

"Suppose," continued the M. D. "that I want to express my opinion; would I have to stamp the express receipt?"

"Undoubtedly," answered the druggist. "But if you will allow me, I would suggest that you forward your opinions by mail?"

"And why by mail?" asked the autocrat of physic.

"Because," replied the dispenser "as they have no weight it would be much cheaper."

BETHEL ITEMS

BETHEL, N. C., June 8, 1905.

Bethel is well represented at the institute for about fifteen left Sunday and Monday. Hope this month will soon be gone for we want them back.

Capt. C. S. Whichard and Robt. Howard, of Tarboro, spent Sunday afternoon in town.

C. Cobb and Walter Dawson, of Conetoe, spent Sunday afternoon at the hotel.

W. J. Mayo and Miss Mary Whitehead spent Sunday in town.

The potato men are here but they won't buy. The farmers must get behind them. It is rather sad looking to see them when they are selling for $1.00.

W. C. Ward has been on the sick list this week. He is some better now.

W. J. Roberson left yesterday for Manchester to be best man at his brother's marriage.

Miss Hazell had her finger badly bruised today while feeding the parrot. The bird got the finger instead of food. She knows how it hurts. The poor bird will miss lots of good things.

J. H. Andrews has improved rapidly for the last few days. Glad to hear the good news. Hope he will soon be out again.

Baker Wommack spent yesterday in the country. Short time was his only trouble.

SHELMERDINE ITEMS

SHELMERDINE, N. C. June 9.

Mr. Featherstone, representing a Lynchburg shoe firm, gave us a call this week.

Mrs. J. O. Bobbitt left Tuesday morning for Williamston to attend the Bobbitt-Daniels wedding.

Mrs. John Whitfield, who has been critically ill for the past few days is reported a very little better.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bobbitt, of Littleton spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bobbitt.

Mrs. Isaac Jacobs continues quite feeble.

Rev. Mr. King, of Ayden, and Rev. Mr. Stanfield, of Grimesland, filled their regular appointments here last Sunday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Whaley.

Mrs. D. C. Lassiter visited Greenville Monday.

Solon Minton, of Georgetown, S. C. is in town tonight.

Mrs. Allen, of Red Banks, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. N. T. Stokes.

Mrs. John Keter, of Halifax, arrived last night to be with her daughter, Mrs. John Whitfield, who is critically ill.

Dwelling Burned at Grifton.

A dwelling owned by Mr. W. H. McCotter was burned at Grifton this morning at 8 o'clock. The fire started in a closet and is supposed to have been caused by rats or mice, with match. The house was occupied by a tenant, a lady and three children, and she found it out in time to save about two-thirds of the furniture.—Kinston Free Press 8th.

Potato Quotations.

The prices on potatoes today were quoted as follows:

Philadelphia: Rose $2.25, Bliss $2.00.

New York: Rose $2.50 to $2.75, Chillis $1.75 to $2.25

Baltimore: $1.50 to $1.75.

Cleveland: $2.25 to $2.50.

Correction.

Through an oversight in yesterday's paper in the report of the Thigpen Keel wedding, the names of one couple of the waiters were omitted. They were Miss Nannie Johnson and L. L. Thigpen. We are sorry the omission occurred.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., June 9, 1905.

B. F. Early, who has been confined at his home for a very long while seriously ill, we are pleased to learn is so much improved as to be able to come out.

Don't forget the orphans tomorrow night. Remember them. It is a duty you owe to yourselves, your family and to humanity. Remember them substantially too.

We went on that bullfrog expedition Wednesday and did about as well as when we went fishing. Hereafter, hence forth and forever we shall confine ourselves strictly to the girls and soda water, and don't you forget it.

E. F. Mumford, of Morganton, is here on a visit to relatives.

R. F. Johnson and Dr. L. C. Skinner were in Greenville yesterday evening evening.

The man who don't advertise is not the man to get an honest trade from. He is too close. He will share you if he can, all he desires is the opportunity. Notice when you will. The liberal, open-hearted, generous advertiser will always do you well. Why? Because he has a clear conscience and an honest intent. Having for his maxim, "Live and let live."

There was a sociable at the home of Miss Rosa Bland last Thursday evening. Only a few special friends were present, but a very pleasant evening was spent.

Leslie Cox went to Greenville yesterday.

W. C. Jackson & Co., shipped a crate of huckleberries yesterday. The first of season.

Orphans' concert will be held in the Disciple church Saturday night. Sunday morning they will sing in the Baptist church. All are invited to be present on both occasions.

B. F. Manning, of Winterville, was a very pleasant caller at our office yesterday.

Miss Bessie Hatton is on a visit to relatives in the Great Swamp section.

Misses Etta McLawhorn, of Craven county and Pearl Nelson, of Lenoir county, are visiting Mrs. M. F. Sumrell.

Mrs. Roy Evans, of Greenville, on her return from a visit over in Greece county is spending a few days with Mrs. J. T. Smith, Jr.

Mrs. W. J. Jackson, from the country is on a visit to her son, W. J. Jackson.

Miss Helen Cox spent Tuesday in Greenville.

B. R. King, of Goldsboro, has been here during the week.

A. D. Johnson and Josephus Cox, of Winterville, were here Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boyd have returned to their home at Edwards.

W. E. Hooks is home from Fremont.

C. A. Fair went to Kinston Monday and returned Tuesday.

Miss Ethel Burnett, after a very pleasant week spent with her sister, Mrs. O. C. Nobles, left on the train Tuesday for her home in Oak City.

Many of our citizens took in the game of ball at Greenville yesterday.

Prince Who Caused Trouble Dead.

Berlin, June 8.—Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern, whose nomination for the Spanish throne led to the Franco-German war, died here today. He came to Berlin to attend the wedding of the crown prince. He was born in 1835.

TAFT & VANDYKE.

FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1905.

Poor old Rojje has learned that the war must go onsky.

The grafters in Philadelphia are up against the real thing—Mayor Weaver.

It looks very much like peace will arrive in the far East earlier than it will in Chicago.

Old man Dowie loves to raise a dust—especially gold dust—not the washing kind.

We suppose the reason it takes two women so long to say good-bye, is because they both want the last word.

"Has anyone profited by the strike?" asks the Chicago Chronicle. No one possibly but physicians and undertakers.

The Filipinos are catching on to American ways fast—judging from the way they are dodging the payment of taxes.

This is the tax listing month. If you let it pass without giving in, you come a double tax, and for this you have no one to blame but yourself.

A London cable says that Andrew Carnegie is living like a Duke. Pretty tough on the old gentleman. We thought he was a good bill settler.

William Ziegler, fourteen years old, has been left $30,000,000. He ought to at least be able to live comfortably on it when he becomes of age.

St. Petersburg says that all of Rojstrensky's fleet has been accounted for. Togo could have given Russia this information some time ago.

The Republicans have decided not to start but one paper at Greensboro. They could spend their money better by not starting any at all.

Wonder if Booker T. will accompany President Roosevelt to the Raleigh State Fair this fall to deliver the opening address at the colored fair.

Admiral Nebogatoff is safe and unharmed in Japan and is perfectly content to remain there. He will at least learn a little more about warfare.

Suppose the Czar holds his breath until General Miles and Capt. Hobson tell him what to do. No doubt but what it would end his troubles.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Editor Wilkins of the Washington Post, which occurred on the 8th. The Post was a broad and conservative paper and strictly non partisan. Editor Wilkins' place will be hard to fill.

The court of inquiries has decided that the officers of the third regiment were not to blame for the death of the two soldier boys who were killed while returning from the Morehead encampment about a year ago. A right good decision.

Since 1872, when the Oxford Orphan Asylum was established, 2,300 children have been under its care.

Many of those who have received its benefits are true, active, Christian citizens. Who can say what many of them would have been had it not been for the restraining, guiding, helping hand extended to them in the time of their peril and weakness, their need?

The newspaper squabble among the ins and outs of the Republican party in this state is sufficient to convince the more thoughtful and self respecting citizens of this state that this gang is no more fit or capable of running this state government than it was during the days of the carpet-baggers. The ignorant negro voters, who largely constituted the Republican majority in this state, have been disfranchised. Now this same gang of pie hunters would make believe that they have become respectable enough for Democrats to join their ranks. These newspaper promoters are simply plundering for political pelf.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some soured meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better. He would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

The Wife Beater.

"I remember once mamma was choked by papa. He wanted her to go to town and she did not want to go. He hit her and she was sick a long time. And once papa had gone to lodge and we sat up waiting for him. I went to sleep and when I woke up papa was striking mamma. He hit her twice in the face and her face bled."

This was part of the testimony of a twelve year old girl in a divorce suit brought by her mother against her father in a Chicago court. She unfolded heart touching scenes she had beheld when a tot, and more evidence was produced showing cruelty on the part of a brutal husband—cruelly long endured by a mistreated mother for the child's sake. The divorce was granted.

A divorce in a case of this kind is justice for the woman but it is not punishment for the man. There should be some way of reaching an inhuman brute of his calibre. With the exception of death no civilized punishment is too great for the man who accepts the love and care of a woman and treats her in manner that would shame the heathen, and it is an open question if such a brute does not deserve death, for he murders her happiness in this world and leaves her a wrecked being. The lash may appear uncivilized and even cruel, but after all it is probably the only remedy for the wife beater, and even then the lashes and pain that it would inflict would not be equal to the physical and mental torture that the woman suffered.—Wilming ton Dispatch.

Billious Bill the sleepy head, Dearly loved to lay a-bed; Couldn't wake him if you shook him;

When his slumbers overtook him. Suddenly he started waking Every morn when day was breaking.

What's this magic necromancer? EARLY RISERS, that's the answer.

The Famous Little Pills, "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Billiousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

Roosevelt's Diplomacy.

The New York Evening Sun thinks that the President displayed a rare bit of diplomacy in handling the case of the Russian vessels at Manila. It says that these ships are as good as buried and that if this impression obtains at St Petersburg there will be only perfunctory protest against the refusal of the United States government to allow the protected cruisers Aurora, Oleg and Zemchug to make repairs at Manila with the purpose of sailing away afterward. Admiral Train reported that it would take sixty days to put the Oleg in a seaworthy condition, thirty for the Aurora and seven for the Zemchug; so that if the rule applying to a combatant seeking a friendly harbor were to be enforced the Russian warships would have to go out one by one and would fall an easy prey to the waiting enemy. The Sun reasons that Russia is prepared to have all her internal warships claimed by Japan as spoils of war if Japan proves the victor, as must now seem fated. Russia has ceased to be a sea power. The three cruisers could only make the return voyage if they were to escape the vigilance of the Japanese, which is too improbable to be hoped for. Russia, then, should be deeply grateful to the United States for deciding to keep these vessels out of harm's way. It is really a friendly act. Japan, confident of being able to dictate the terms of peace, sees the Aurora, Oleg and Zemchug already under her flag. The United States avoids a row, if only a war of words, with Japan for giving countenance and aid to an enemy. "Our solution of a perplexing problem," says The Sun, "ought to give satisfaction to everybody—even to Admiral Enquist, bearded like a venerable pard and stiff in the joints as a grandfather, which no doubt he is. The futile old gentleman ought to be dreaming away the evening of life in the shade, or toasting his shins by a wood fire, instead of being asked to fight 12-inch guns, torpedoes and floating mines. Such is the inhuman cruelty of a bureaucracy."—Charlotte Chronicle.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system, overcomes and cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, etc. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for what is sometimes called America's national disease. Dyspepsia, is destined to eventually work a wonderful and lasting benefit to sufferers from this distressing and mind harassing condition. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

The Children's Favorite.

For refrigerators, ice cream freezers, water coolers, hammocks, screen doors and windows go to 5-30 4 t d and t. H. L. Carr

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because it gives the best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use "a tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:

- 1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.
- 2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.
3. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving.
- DON'TS (Don't use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.

2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.) (Lion-head on every package.) (Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

SOLD BY GROCERS EVERYWHERE

SHORTHAND IN MIDAIR.

How Reporters in the House of Representatives Have to Work.

Reporters in the house of representatives perform a feat in nearly all their writing which, it is said, is not equaled anywhere in the world. That is the taking of their notes while standing. It is necessary to move from place to place in the chamber in order to hear accurately all that is being said. Therefore the stenographer takes his notes in midair, as it were, while standing in the aisle, writing simply on the book he holds with his left hand. Only occasionally does he find a vacant seat within range of the orator into which he can slip and find a resting place for his blank book while he keeps pace with the speaker with his pencil. Unlike the house, the senate is small enough to allow debates to be reported from the desk. These reporters never use the typewriter in getting their notes into a form that a mortal can read. After working steadily for ten or fifteen minutes the reporter is relieved by a fresh man and allowed to repair to the transcribing room, where he proceeds to read his notes on to the recording wax cylinder of a phonograph. These cylinders go to the corps of typewriters, who put the reporter's words on paper as fast as they are reproduced through an ear tube. Hour after hour during the afternoons of the session the phonograph tells them to the typewriter operator, and in a jiffy she has them ready for the printer. Unless a member withdraws his remarks for revision they are on the way to the printing office before he has put on his hat and coat to leave the house for the evening, and often he can have a printing office proof delivered to him at his hotel before bedtime.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Juvenile Views of Marriage.

He was a curly headed boy with life before him. She was a little girl with a saucy pug nose, but wise, it would seem, beyond her years. The fact that she was nursing a doll with eyes that opened and shut with a click may have been his inspiration.

"Say, sister, I think I'd get married if I knew how."

"Oh, that's easy," replied the owner of the pug nose. "First you buy a diamond ring and give it to her; then you buy a gold ring, like mamma's got, and give that to her, and then you must buy her a watch for her birthday."

"An' what she give me?" expectantly asked the little chap.

"Why, nuthin', of course," smartly replied his little companion.

"Say, sister," he added, "I guess I won't marry."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

A Two Sided Story.

A yarn is told in Lowell, Me., about two men who were thorough going sports, and as they were riding by a river side one day one of them said, "I'll bet that I can prove to you that we are riding on the other side of the river."

"I'll bet you $5 you can't," said the other one.

"Who'll we leave it to?"

"The next man we meet."

So when they met a pedestrian the first speaker addressed him, saying as he pointed across the river.

"Say, mister, that is one side of the river, isn't it?"

"Certainly," answered the surprised pedestrian.

"And this is the other, isn't it?"

"Why, of course," still more surprised.

And the other man paid up his forfeit.—Leviston Journal.

Got It Finally.

"What is it, son?" said the dealer in paints and oils to the little boy standing hesitatingly near the counter.

"Have you got any crocodile paint?" asked the boy.

"That ain't what mamma told me to get, but it's as near as I can come to it. I've clean forgot the name, but it's got something to do with crocodiles."

The dealer reflected.

"You don't mean mile green, do you?" he asked.

"Course I do!" responded the boy, with a delighted grin. "Gimme a quart of it."—Chicago Tribune.

A Mean Man.

Three women stood before him and glared at the paper he held in front of his somewhat sanguine face.

At length he half arose and said, "Take this seat, madam."

The three women looked at one another.

"I mean the elderly lady," he added.

All the women turned their eyes upon the advertising cards and became intently interested in their contents.

Then the man slipped back into his seat and resumed his reading.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Splashin' in the Branch.

Splashin' in the branch there—tanned face, an' old straw hat—

Suspenders made o' cotton, an' him wearin' one, at that!

Takes you back to old times—to the country ranch,

When, jest like that feller, you was splashin' in the branch!

What is all yer money—dollars piled so high!

The joy you've left behind you is what money cannot buy!

A bird's song in the blossoms—the meadows of delight—

That barefoot feller, splashin' in the water cool an' bright!

Oh, Time—it keeps a-flyin' on swift an' careless wings.

An' no more you'll find youth's summer, where the honeysuckle swing

An the bright, barefooted fellers—there, at the country ranch,

Meet the blossoms o' the mornin', an' go splashin' in the branch!

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe.

You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
