Originated Klu Klux Klan.

Norfolk, Va., June 10.—Joseph Richardson Coombs, aged 68 years a lieutenant in the Confederate army, who while a prisoner of war on Rock Island, Ill., in 1863, with seven other Confederate prisoners planned the Klu Klux Klan, died at his home in this city today. Mr. Coombs, a native of Maryland, was captured at Centreville during the Civil War and made a prisoner at Fort McHenry, Baltimore from which prison he escaped, afterward being recaptured and sent to the military prison at Rock Island. He married Miss Ada Lee, a cousin of General Robert E. Lee and lived in Lynchburg, Va., up to a year ago.

Advertising is read: A G. A. B. man had his picture in the papers as a testimonial, saying he had been completely cured by using a certain patent medicine. His pension of $12 a month stopped, and the naughty Pension Department declared that a man completely cured was not entitled to a pension.

RESOLUTIONS.

To the officers and members of the M. E. Church, South, Sunday school.

Death has again entered our school, this time our Cradle Roll, and claimed one of its little ones in the person of Octavius Deens May, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. May. Little did we think only a short time ago when the parents dedicated their first born little boy to God in holy baptism that he would be so soon taken from them to live with God forever.

Therefore, resolved 1st, That we tender to Brother and Sister May our heartfelt sympathies in their sad grief, and pray that this sore affliction may draw them nearer to Him who said "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, and may they so live here that they may spend eternity with each other where parting will be no more.

Resolved 2nd, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and be spread upon the minutes of the Sunday school and sent to the DAILY REFLECTOR for publication.

Pythian Memorial Services.

Tar River Lodge No 93, Knights of Pythias held interesting memorial exercises in Masonic temple opera house Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The lodge assembled on the stage, the audience occupying seats in the reserved section of the hall. The lodge lost one member during the past year, the late James B. Cherry, and it was in his honor that the services were held. Ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis was the speaker of the occasion and delivered a beautiful eulogy on the life and character of Mr. Cherry. During the exercises a select choir sang two beautiful anthems and a hymn.

The eulogy delivered by Gov. Jarvis will be published in THE REFLECTOR, beginning tomorrow.

Two Sudden Deaths at Kinston.

We learn from the Free Press that two sudden deaths occurred at Kinston Saturday. One was J. W. Nelson, who dropped dead in his yard from apoplexy while stooping over assorting potatoes. The other was W. S. Wallace who was instantly killed by the caving in of an excavation in which he was at work superintending a connection with the water main.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our thanks to the Masons for the use of the opera house on Sunday afternoon during the Memorial services, and also to the ladies and gentlemen who so kindly assisted in the singing.

MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1905.

The day for jokes at Rojstrensky's expense has passed.

The cold nights we had last week may prove worse to cotton crops than the boll weevil.

It is astonishing how many blind horses there are when they are being listed for taxation.

There are two sides to all questions except the question of morals. To this there is but one side.

Don't fret over the dry weather now. Remember the old adage, "A dry June never begs bread."

Better be careful how you eat green fruit these days. The doctors are very fond of the appendicitis knife.

A Georgia judge says whiskey and cards will ruin a lawyer. Depends on who deals in these two evils, judge.

The Czar is trying to buy peace and it will be funny if the Mikado decides to form a peace trust and raise the price.

Forty bales of cotton were burned down in Georgia last week. We thought that the burning of cotton was out of style.

If it wasn't for the good old farmers we would feel like asking June to borrow a few more days from February.

An Alabama couple have started out on an Automobile bridal tour. They will possibly be brought back on the train feet foremost.

What has become of J. Logan C. Harris? He ought to get his adherents together and start a daily Republican paper in Raleigh.

Some women should not be blamed for making so much of pet dogs when you come to think about the kind of men they are tied to.

"We need a Folk," says the Philadelphia Republican press. If they cannot get a Folk, they should at least learn Folk's ways.

Truly America has shown France what it is to be neutral. The disabled Russian ships which sought refuge in Manila bay have been interned.

"Should a politician be educated?" Some fellow asks. We think so, and a good many of them should be educated in the penitentiary or on some state farm.

We think Dewey is in error. He says one of Rojstrensky's blunders was that he failed to locate Togo's fleet. We think the biggest blunder he made was when he did locate it.

A man in Philadelphia has brought suit against his wife for divorce, because his wife threw a wad of dough in his face. A good many family scraps are caused over "dough."

The following is from the New Orleans Picayune and we heartily endorse every word of it. It reads: "The Confederate cause represents something holy and immortal to those who stood for it and in it during four terrible years of war, but it means nothing to the rest of the world, and it is foolish to attempt to force it on those whom it does not concern, as we only get ourselves snubbed for our pains.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some house meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Ways of Spending Time.

There are twenty-four hours in every day—too few, some men find, for the serious work that they have to do; but others are always looking for something to do to "kill time." How anyone can find time to "kill" in a short life of three-score years and ten is a problem that appeals to the intelligent as supremely ridiculous. There may be time for work, time for rest and time for play, but there should be no time to kill. Reading the cheap stories in the magazines is even more profitable than mere time-killing—and they are about the limit.

There are men, however, who consume all the time not actually employed in bread winning to solving puzzles and charades and so forth. They do not do this for mental recreation after hours of severe strain, but merely as a time-killer, until bedtime comes or time to go to work again. It is almost needless to predict that they will never rise above their present positions or leave enough of personal history to make an inscription on a tombstone. Study to them, reading of valuable character, are unknown suggestions. There is no tide in their lives, and when they are gone they will not be missed. Their chief purpose is to kill time. —Mercantile Journal

Quality vs. Quantity

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system, overcomes and cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, etc. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for what is sometimes called America's national disease. Cost to Whites of Negro Country Schools

The Raleigh Post recently detailed a set of figures in such way as to produce a very surprising result. Its subject was the division of the school tax between the races and its figures are from the official records. It shows that for the year 1903-'04 the total expenditures for negro country schools were $245,510.44 and that the total spent for country schools was $1,515,446.49 for both races. The total amount levied for school purposes—on negro property and polls, and including one-third of the liquor, railroad and corporation school taxes levied—the negroes being correctly reckoned as one-third of the State's population—was $219,778.86. The difference between the amount of negro country school taxes levied and the expense of the negro country schools is $25,731.58, which excess the whites pay. Pursuing its figures, the Post shows that this sum, divided among the white population of the State, given by the census of 1900 as 1,263,603 amounts to 2.04 cents per capita, or, divided among the 290,000 white voters, to less than 9 cents each.

It will be some time before the white voters of North Carolina are utterly impoverished by paying 9 cents a year each for negro education. The Post has done a good service in putting these figures together.—Charlotte Observer.

Bilious Bill the sleepy head, Dearly loved to lay a bed; Couldn't wake him if you shook him;

When his slumbers overtook him. Suddenly he started waking Ev'ry morn when day was breaking.

What's this magic necromancer? EARLY RISERS, that's the answer.

The Famous Little Pills, "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The report comes from Charlotte and other sections for that matter, that the farmers are greatly in need of help to work their crops. The negroes in the South are becoming year by year, less reliable as farm hands, and it is imperative that the State make some arrangement to secure help for her farmers.

The opponents of the establishment of the bureau of immigration made their great fight, on the idea that the riffraff and scum of the European countries would be brought among us. This was never contemplated by the supporters of the measure. We need a class of men who can come among us and either farm for themselves or help us tend our farms. We think even the opponents of immigration will admit this now. The step taken by the Board of Agriculture last week was a wise one, and we are confident that much can be accomplished through this agency.—Raleigh Times.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

A Chicago editor defends that Memphis man who was fined $20 for snoring in church, by asserting that it is commonly supposed that salvation is free.—Oklahoma State Capital.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

Pat's Lesson in Golf.
Pat had been helping the greens keeper construct several tees at the new golf links and during the noon hour had been given a few lessons in driving. A day or two later he was telling his friend Casey about it. "Faith, Casey," he said, "this game they call golf do be a funny game. Yez have a little white ball an' a long stick wid a knob on the ind av it, an' yez put the white ball on a little hape av sand. Thin the game is to haul aff an' knock the ball so far yez never find ut ag'in." "An' did yez hit the ball whin yez tried?" asked Casey. "Did Oi?" said Pat. "That's the funny thing about golf. Shure, the first toime Oi hit ut Oi never touched ut!"

Two Points of View.
"Papa, you know you gave me a sovereign and a sixpence the other day. Well, I made a mistake, and—" "I knew you would, you blundering idiot! You paid out the gold piece for a shilling!" "No, I didn't, but I passed the sixpence on somebody for half a sovereign, and I bought a whole lot of things with the money, and I've still got the gold." "Oh, well, I wouldn't worry about it. We're all likely to make mistakes, sometimes."—London Tit-Bits.

Spoiled the Romance.
"We are looking for the comet," explained the young man on the porch as the father of the young woman came out to see what was detouring her. "Why, bless you," said the kind old gentleman, "the comet is in an entirely different part of the sky." And he took him round to the other side of the house, showed him the position of the comet and talked to him for about half an hour about it.

Useless Phrase.
Bobby had returned from his first tea party, his round face wreathed in smiles. "I hope you were polite, Bobby," said his mother, "and remembered your 'Yes, please,' and 'No, thank you,' when things were passed to you." "I remembered 'Yes, please,'" said Bobby cheerfully, "but I didn't have to say 'No, thank you,' mother, because I took everything every time it was passed."

Not Uncommon.
"I heard you were at the matinee yesterday," said the girl as she met a friend in the evening. "What did you think of the play?" "Oh, I liked everything but the ending." "What was the matter with it?" "Nothing that I know of. The people in front of me were putting on their things, and all I could see were their elbows and hats."—Detroit Free Press.

Mistaken.
"Sir," exclaimed the injured party, "you stuck your umbrella into my eye!" "Oh, no," replied the cheerful offender, "you are mistaken." "Mistaken!" demanded the irate man. "You idiot, I know when my eye is hurt, I guess." "Doubtless," replied the cheerful fellow, "but you don't know my umbrella. I borrowed this one from a friend today."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe. You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.

Tans in all shape are here.
