

THE MERCERIZED CONTROVERSY

Still Continues to Burn Advertising Space and Money.

"EFF" Mary had a little lamp
The Vapo-Resolene
And everywhere that Mary went
The lamp was always seen,
For Mary had the whooping cough—
She would cough, cough and cough
And but for Mary's little lamp
She'd cough her head right off,
But every night by Mary's bed
The faithful lamp burned bright,
And Mary's cough and parents too,
Could rest the whole long night

Ideal Clothes are not easily defined, but it's easier to define than to make them. Ideals vary, what satisfies one man doesn't please another. That's what makes ideals an index to character, and also what makes ideal clothes difficult to produce. There are some general principles, however, and good quality is one of them.

The Style of Your Clothes

the pattern, the price you pay disclose your taste and common sense, but the quality is an index of character.

If you pay an all wool price for "mercerized cotton" fabrics that shows that you are easily "flimflamed," but your ideals may be good. If you willingly buy and wear the "mercerized cotton" adulteration, because it looks good, and nobody knows the difference, that's another indication. Maybe you govern your conduct by the same test.

Be an All-Wool Man

when it comes to buying clothing: Your clothes can be as good as they look if you say so. Our label means all wool and best workmanship, it is a small thing to look for, a big thing to find. Let your next suit have

THE LIE GIVEN, A BLOW, A SHOT.

Mr. L. W. Batchelor in Sanitarium. Van Sharp in Jail.

Wilson N. C., June 19.—Mr. L. W. Batchelor, a Wilson man, is lying in the sanitarium with a bullet wound in his left hip inflicted by another white man named Van Sharp, of Wilbanks. Mr. Batchelor was brought here Saturday night and is resting comfortably.

The trouble occurred about three miles from Selma at the saw mill Mr. Batchelor is located on the Neuse river, where the Southern railroad crosses. Sharp has been cooking for his force, and Saturday afternoon Mr. Batchelor, after paying, informed him that he had not been doing his duty of late and therefore his services were no longer required. Sharp, so Mr. Batchelor says, at once disputed his word and was asked if he intended to call him a liar. The words were repeated and Mr. Batchelor struck at Sharp who pulled his pistol and fired with the above results.

Sharp is now in the Smithfield jail and having had his preliminary hearing Saturday afternoon, was imprisoned in default of bail for $1,000. — News and Observer.

Excellent Woman Dead.

Mrs. Lucy Randolph, widow of the late Mr. John Randolph, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at her home in South Greenville, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Randolph was in her 62nd year, and was a woman of exemplary Christian character. Her circle of friends was large and her death brings sorrow to many hearts. The deeds of kindness and love through her life will make her memory dear. She is survived by three sons and two daughters. These are John B., William and Richard and Misses Mary and Lucy Randolph.

The burial will take place Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the old home place five miles from town.

Late Every Day.

As the passenger train cannot keep its schedule it would be a good idea to change it. The public could get some consolation in knowing when the train would come without having to wait at the depot from one to two hours. With so much delay in the dull test of the year what can be expected when the busy season comes?

Ready for the Fray.

With the additional new players recently secured for Greenville the local team is in fine trim. They are ready for the contest with Washington Friday and have no idea of letting the visitors bear off the palm. Everybody turn out Friday and give the boys plenty of encouragement.

Was Too Previous.

An itinerant photographer pitched his tent on the lot fronting the court house, Tuesday afternoon, and took it down again. He pitched his tent without first ascertaining what the town tax was, and after learning that it was $10 per month he folded up and took his departure.

Codine a Winner.

Haywood Dail's trotting mare, Codine, arrived Tuesday from Baltimore, where she was entered for a series of races. She won first, second and fourth money respectively in the three races entered. With her came Mr. Dail's new horse, Little Ned, a trotter of repute.

Stores Will Close.

The base ball spirit is ever on the increase. A petition has been circulating today among the merchants asking them to close their places of business for the Washington game Friday afternoon. About three fourths have complied with the request.

The Suffolk team is a strong looking aggregation, and impresses one as a much better class of men than our visitors of last week, who were so conspicuous and generous with their "dispensary banners."

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1905.

This fine weather is dollars to the good old farmers just now.

The best way to keep the law breakers down is to send a few of them up.

And the bachelor says a man can easily make or lose a fortune while two women are telling each other good-bye.

If some of the unpronounceable names had been sunk along with the Russian ships the country at large would feel relief.

"Men who stay at home every night are not good for anything," says Dr. Julia Holmes Smith. All the apron string hobbys take notice.

If the czar ever musters up another navy, he will doubtless keep it at home to preserve peace instead of sending it out on a trouble hunting expedition.

If some of our pretty women continue to decrease their clothing for the next month as they have for the last few days we would hate mighty bad to be blind on the 4th of July.

Recent events having brought to light the method of tampering with juries around Raleigh, it is no longer surprising that flagrant miscarriages of justice have occurred in Wake county courts.

The Republicans in the Palmetto state have caught the contagion which has spread its germs over this state. However, they are only talking of running one party paper at present.

An exchange says a man in an English village has died after holding the office of constable for just eighty years, and in all this time never made a single arrest. Wonder what kind of a looking animal he was?

Possibly one reason women never practice the habit of sleeping in church is that by the time they get through sizing up what kind of a dress or hat the other women have on the preacher has finished his sermon.

France is seeking Russia's aid against Germany, and Germany is trying to get her grip on Morocco, while Britain struggles to offset Germany's advances, Hungary snarls at Austria and Norway warns Sweden to keep off the grass.

If the Republicans in South Carolina have as long a wrangle over their proposed party paper as the Republicans have in this state, by the time they get ready to buy their plant, they will please communicate with Chairman Rollins.

The business of Greenville is hindered greatly by inadequate and irregular railroad service, yet the town goes right on submitting to this pull back. When Attorney General Johnson was here recently he gave the merchants' association some good suggestions as to how these troubles might be remedied, but it will take some action to bring it about.

Five tombstones have been purchased by Carrie Nation, the joint smasher. One of them will mark the grave of her divorced husband, while another will mark the last resting place of Mother Gloyd, who lived with her until her death. The three others, each surmounted by a marble lamb, will be sent to Texas to mark the graves of Mrs. Nation's children.

Reading trashy novels of Jesse James and other kindred stories often results in the undoing of boys. Several youngsters near Wilmington who had loaded their minds with this kind of literature and been further inflamed by witnessing moving pictures of the deeds of bandits exhibited at a street carnival, started out to imitate such deeds and were soon in the clutches of the law.

Again we call attention to the necessity for perfect cleanliness in all sections of the town. We hope our authorities will make rigid investigations weekly, and see to it that the sanitary laws are strictly observed. This is the worst season of the year, for it is easy for diseases to spread if the utmost precaution in reference to cleanliness is not strictly observed. Greenville is, and enjoys the reputation of being a healthy town, but this should not cause any one to lose sight of the fact that real danger to health can exist here as well as anywhere else.

THREE JURORS CURED

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates on experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Cleburne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale at Wooten's Drug Store.

Wrong Diagnosis.

With no desire on earth to reflect on the medical profession, we must nevertheless be permitted to tell a good one. A young person in Greensboro who pined away until she was first cousin a skeleton, was said to be suffering with appendicitis, but she said she would die before she would submit to an operation, and she acted just like she meant it. Then the doctors told her it was up to her. Now she is getting well. It has been ascertained that she had been eating common baking soda by the wholesale just as one would eat cake, which in time gave her colic. The supply was cut off and she is getting well. She says she became fond of it some years ago and used to steal it several times a day and eat it vociferously. All of which shows that it is impossible to make a correct diagnosis every time. Greensboro Record.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system, overcomes and cures indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, etc. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for what is sometimes called America's national disease. Dyspepsia, is destined to eventually work a wonderful and lasting benefit to sufferers from this distressing and mind harassing condition. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Handsome and largest stock of Iron Bedsteads at S. M. Schultz.

Down in Arkansas they have introduced a hugging society to swell the church treasury and an Arkansas paper gives the following scale of prices, says an exchange: Girls under 16, 15 cents for a short squeeze; from 16 to 20 years of age, 50 cents; another man's wife $1; widows, according to looks, from 10 cents to $8; old maids 3 cents apiece or two for a nickle and no limit of time. Preachers are not charged and editors pay in advertising, but are not allowed to squeeze anybody but old maids and school ma'ams—Oklahoma Outlook.

Billions Bill the sleepy head, Dearly loved to lay a bed; Couldn't wake him if you shook him; When his slumbers overtook him, Suddenly he started waking Every morn when day was breaking.

What's this magic accompaniment? EARLY RISERS, that's the answer. The Famous Little Pills, "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never grip or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

If Mr. Butler is really to re enter North Carolina politics where are his followers to come from? The Populists have had sufficient experience with him, the Democrats will certainly not flock to his support and we venture to say that comparatively few Republicans would desire his leadership. However, he is a kind of man that can generally be depended upon to get a following of some kind wherever he may be. As a smooth proposition he leaves little to be desired.—Winston Sentinel.

Sour Stomach

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

As advice to pretty girls who lose their tempers a Chicago writer suggests that, when angered, they stop and count ten before speaking. It is respectfully suggested that when a girl in the habit of losing her temper is able to stop and count ten before speaking, she needs nothing to keep her from losing it. The cure suggested is like catching birds by sprinkling salt on their tails.—Oklahoma State.

The Salve That Penetrates.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores of the skin, and by its antiseptic, rubefacient and healing influence it subdues inflammation and cures Boils, Burns, Cuts, Eczema, Tetter, Ring Worm and all skin diseases. A specific for itching, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles. The original and genuine Witch Hazel Salve is made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. and sold by John L. Wooten, Druggist.

We learn from undisputed authority that the managers of the Butler paper which it is proposed to establish at Greensboro have made an effort to secure as business manager Mr. Geo. B. Crater, formerly of the Charlotte Observer and now of the Raleigh Times. We have it from the same source, we are glad to note, that Mr. Crater will not accept.—Concord Times.

Cured of Lame After 15 Years of Suffering

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, Gilliam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by Wooten's Drug Store, Greenville.

ST. VINCENT HOSPITAL, NORFOLK, VA., May 11, 1905.
Buckhorn Water Co.
Henderson, N. C.

Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to state I have been using myself and prescribing for my patients the Buckhorn Lithia Water very freely for several months and I do not hesitate to recommend it in highest terms.

In Rheumatism, in Rheumatic and gouty conditions and in certain cases of catarrh I have seen excellent results follow its use. It is an exceedingly pleasant drinking water.

Very truly,
R. L. PAYNE, M. D.

OUR GUARANTEE:

The shippers guarantee, that of all the mineral waters so far known, this is the most powerful diuretic.

They will furnish a case of any other water, regardless of its reputation or price, and convince, by actual, practical, scientific comparison, that there is not a lithia water known to the public that will equal Buckhorn Lithia in uric acid diathesis.

A GHOST STORY.

The Creepy Experience of a Dinner
Guest in South Africa.

Recently, it is said, an army captain, a "quiet, thick set, level headed man, with a clear eye, a strong will and common sense," went to dine with some lady friends at an old Dutch manor house at Stellenbosch, in South Africa. On his arrival he was startled by the appearance on the veranda of a huddled up old woman "with a long, yellow face and thin lips," and later on in the evening, when, after some music in the drawing room, he returned to the dining room for a whisky and soda, he noticed that a half length portrait hanging on the wall was swaying from side to side with a slow, deliberate swing and that the eyes of the man it represented were watching him enviously. Then it seemed to the captain that a fog or mist was rising in the room. It crept up and up till it reached his chin, and then, with a shiver of wild terror, he felt two hands fasten on his throat—hands with thin yet muscular fingers that clutched ever tighter, as if growing strength as they materialized. And the man of the portrait, hanging clear of the gathering mist, still watched him with an evil leer. With an effort
he managed to get away, but again,
as he hurried from the house, he was startled by the vision of the old,
yellow-faced woman.

On the following morning he heard that his friends had left the house, and one of them declared that she had been nearly strangled in the night. Afterward the captain discovered that the house for some time had been used as a temporary hospital and that two of the sick, who had been placed in the dining room, had screamed for help during the night, imploring their attendants to take them away, as some one had tried to choke them.

From local inquiries the captain learned that the amiable gentleman whose portrait had brought him so strange an experience had hanged himself about 1810 after strangling his youngest daughter in the dining room. Von Holtz was his name, and the legend of the tragedy is still whispered in the district.

She Would Not Do.

A Boston mother with the true
Boston woman's born and bred horror of anything "vulgar" had to engage a nursery maid to take the place of one who had married. An advertisement calling for the services of another maid was inserted in the papers, and an applicant appeared in the person of a demure looking young woman, to whom the mother of the four young hopefuls said: "I am very particular regarding the language used by my nur-ery maids. I am especially particular regarding the use of slang. I never allow my children to use any form of slang, and I hope you would not mind if I corrected any grammatical errors I might discover in your conversation."

"Well, I dunno," said the applicant after a few moments' reflection. "I guess, lady, that I'd hardly come up to the scratch, so I might as well git a move on me an' look somewhere else for a sit. So long, lady."—Woman's Home Companion.

A Story of Von Moltke.

In 1870, a few days after the mobilization of the German army had been ordered at the beginning of the Franco-Prussian war, a friend of Moltke, who was anxious to see him on important business, called upon him, in some trepidation of mind, expecting to find him overwhelmed with work. He was shown into Moltke's study and found him lying on a sofa reading a French novel. "You could not have come at a better time, my dear fellow,"
was his welcome. "My work ended when mobilization was ordered. I begin again when we move to the front."

Disobeying Orders.

One day a group of staff officers were discussing in Sheridan's presence the qualities most essential for a soldier. Some thought personal bravery, others moral courage, strong love of country, while one insisted rather obtrusively that obedience—unreasoning obedience—was everything. "Give me the man who always obeys orders," he declared.
Then, appealing to Sheridan, this officer asked, "Isn't he the perfect soldier, general?" "No," replied Sheridan shortly. "I prefer the soldier who knows when to obey them."

Looked Like Smuggling.

"Hi, there!" exclaimed the janitor of the swell apartment house,
who was watching the unloading and carrying in of the goods of a new tenant. "What's that?"
"That is a clothes basket on wheels," explained the new tenant.
"All right. Take it in," said the janitor. "I thought it was a cradle."—Chicago Tribune.

Died.

At 5 o'clock Tuesday evening death invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Griffin, on Greene street, and robbed them of their youngest child and only daughter, Mary Elizabeth, aged one year and three weeks. The little one had been sick several days, but her condition was not thought to be serious until the morning of the day that death claimed her. The sad bereavement falls heavily upon the parents and the sympathy of all goes out to them in their sorrow.

The interment took place at 11.30 o'clock this morning in Cherry Hill cemetery, funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. A. Hornaday. The pall bearers were James Brown, J. T. Prince, J. A. Ricks, Wiley Brown, J. S. Congleton, S. I. Dudley, W. L. Brown and J. L. Starkey.

Catcher Hurt.

The ball team in the Suffolk game will be visably effected by the absence of catcher Rowe. He was struck in practice with a ball and has been quite sick from it. He is counting on being ready for the Washington game, so the fans may count on winning it.

Queen Quality

It Sets the Style.

What do we mean when we say that the styles of most of the shoes for women originate with the "Queen Quality" Shoe?

Simply this. The "Queen Quality" is, and always has been a leader. It gets up its own original patterns at great expense, and has established a reputation for the style and beauty of its creations.

OTHER MAKERS ARE CONTENT TO AWAIT THEIR APPEARANCE, and then copy them as closely as possible.

But "Queen Quality" "sets the style"—don't forget that!

And one other point—"Queen Quality" offers twice as many styles for your consideration as any other shoe.

You cannot suggest a need which is not fitted with a "Queen Quality" shoe specially designed for it.

Does not this realize the ideal of a strictly custom shoe? And such a shoe for $3.00. Think of it! Oxfords $2.50.
