Still Continues to Burn Advertising Space and Money.

"EFF" Mary had a little lamp
The Vapo-resolene
And everywhere that Mary went
The lamp was always seen—
For Mary had the whooping cough—
She would cough, cough and cough
And but for Mary's little lamp
She'd cough her head right off,
But ev'ry night by Mary's bed
The faithful lamp burned bright,
And Mary's cough and parents, too,
Could rest the whole long night

Ideal Clothes are not easily defined, but it's easier to define than to make them. Ideals vary, what satisfies one man doesn't please another. That's what makes ideals an index to character, and also what makes ideal clothes difficult to produce. There are some general principles, however, and good quality is one of them.

The Style of Your Clothes

the pattern, the price you pay disclose your taste and common sense, but the quality is an index of character.

If you pay an all wool price for "mercerized cotton" fabrics that shows that you are easily "flimflamed," but your ideals may be good. If you willingly buy and wear the "mercerized cotton" adulteration, because it looks good, and nobody knows the difference, that's another indication. Maybe you govern your conduct by the same test.

Be an All-Wool Man

when it comes to buying clothing. Your clothes can be as good as they look if you say so. Our label means all wool and best workmanship, it is a small thing to look for, a big thing to find. Let your next suit have

ARE THEY "COCK OF THE WALK?"

The Score Was 5 to 3 in Favor of Greenville.

It was an ideal, yes, a perfect afternoon that greeted the twelve hundred fans Friday at the park; not too warm, not too cloudy, and with a soft, cooling breeze beating itself through the wires of the grand stand. Indeed it seemed an afternoon set apart for the Washington base ball game.

The grand stand was a scene of inspiring beauty. It was filled to overflowing with the rooters of each team. It was gay and beautiful with its pure women standing for their favorites, bidding them to do or die. And the colors of the opposing teams lent beauty to the scene; gaily they were flapping and fluttering in the breeze from the hands of pretty women. Megaphones entwined with blue and red and megaphones entwined with orange and black were fruitful with encouragement and shouts of approbation.

Washington, the "queen of the marshbanks" had come to administer defeat to the "insignificant city on the Tar." Yes, Washington, the queen of the mosquito producing boggy, unhealthy marshbanks of the Tar, with their two hundred human souls, proud, expectant, and confident they came. The proud, self-considered beautiful city had come with their invincible Wooten, their absolute King, who nails them all at second, and Fatty Giles, the erstwhile leaguer. Hallelujah! wasn't it jarring to them? Oh, citizens of Greenville, just think of it, the "little insignificant hamlet on the Tar," five runs, the "cock of the walk" just three. Oh, couldn't you shout all day?

If you ever say Bert James can't play second you tell a —, well somebody will tell you he can. Turner, J., became over-esteemed and was out of the game after the first inning; out of one time at the bat he bagged one single and scored one run.

Dick White, on first, went in the air after 'em like he had springs in his shoes, and he handled the stick like a veteran. "Pap" Harris, in the central garden was a caution. He paddled his shovels at racing speed, and took everything that went his way.

Turner, E. covered the third sack in fairly good style, with the practice he's had, and beat out a couple of bunts.

And are we forgetting "Farmer" Gus and old "Bull" Thompson? Not on your life. Suppose "Bull" had hit one of those he missed? He sayed a 3 base hit by one of his stops, and Gus was there with the goods every single time.

Walker in the box was a proposition too tough for those "Cock of the Walk" batters. They fell before those sweeps of his like weary travelers by the country way side.

Rowe, the redoubtable ladies' man. Are you wondering why he was saved for the last? Well, he is pretty nearly the best, and that always comes last; you know. He is verily a tower of strength. His throwing was exactly to the point, and he was in the game from the jump.

Now a word about our opponents. Did you ever see a Canadian thirty cent piece? Well, that was Wooten. Oh my, didn't he get his bumps? Up against that Canadian thirty cent piece there looms up a beautiful American certificate for $2.00 in gold. Well, that's Walker. He's good for his face value.

Nine hits were made against that thirty cent Washington considered invisible pitcher. Isn't it amusing that the little "Tar river hamlet" should have done this?

The feeling between the towns has been too strong in the past. Let us have a good, pleasant, friendly rivalry between them.

WASHINGTON MAN DROWNED.

Attacked With Vertigo and Fell Overboard.

There was a sad ending to the Washington base ball excursion to Greenville Friday. As the excursion boats were returning to Washington A. J. Mitchell, who was on the gas boat Magnolia, had an attack of vertigo, fell overboard and was drowned. The accident occurred between Pactols and Grimesland landings. Mr. Mitchell was between 45 and 50 years old and leaves a wife and four children. The body had not been recovered at last report.

The Young People's society of Christian Endeavor will hold a special service for which an elaborate program has been prepared by the National committee. Solos, recitations, addresses and responsive readings will compose the main features. The subject for the meeting, which will be led by Miss Minnie Tunstall, will be "Our National Heritage."

H. H. Moore, pastor.

Cotton Blossoms.

H. J. Mills, of Winterville, brought us two cotton blossoms this morning.

J. L. Moore brought us a red cotton blossom today that opened on the 21st.

The incident in the last inning was unfortunate and is to be deplored. We believe Washington people are broad enough to place the blame where it belongs.

Summary.— Earned runs, Greenville 1, Washington 1; two base hits, Giles two; first base on balls, Walker 4; Wooten 0; struck out by Walker 5, by Wooten 5. Time of game 1:40; umpire, E. Lewis, scorer, Frank Skinner.

The next game is with Kinston Wednesday, are you going?

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight, showers in central and eastern portion, cooler in eastern portion. Sunday partly cloudy.

DOPE FOR THE FANS.

Hot Liners From All Quarters of the Diamond.

Are you going to Kinston? Ned Laughinghouse was there. Maybe "Pap" didn't hit 'em some.

Walker and Rowe sure work well double.

Paul Metrick carried the biggest megaphone.

My! but that boy "Gene" Turner can play anywhere.

Simmons made the prettiest catch in the game.

The hamlet, insignificant, on the Tar, Ha! Ha! Ha!

Did you ever see a player boot 'em around like Short?

Gee! but there was a lot of swell calico in the grand stand.

The great wonder Springs only found the air three times.

The team work of the Greenville team is what did the work.

Rowe and Harris both hit at 500 in the game. How is that?

It was a gala day crowd at the ball game; a regular record breaker.

Washington came up with colors flying but went back with them trailing.

Did you ever see two such tired looking "wonders"??? as King and Wooten.

Harris, Thompson and Forbes are a fast trio. They look mighty good to me.

Springs looks pretty good running bases, he is the fastest man on either team.

Poor little "Cotton Top" King, don't he look tired? Enegy, enegy, where art thou?

Greenville has a rooting bunch. Who couldn't play ball with such fair supporters?

Little Dave Whichard saw the game. He said it suited him, and was all to the good.

The Washington crowd was good looking, orderly, and enthusiastic, but weren't they sore?

Ain't the the merchants laying to the team? All of them closed, and their fronts were decorated in fine style.

Didn't Turner E., work 'em, beat out a bunt down third and next time up dumped one down toward first and beat it out.

The loggers from the lumber camp down the Pamlico have learned that there are some ball players at the hamlet up the Tar called Greenville.

"Tige" kept the blackboard and marked the score, filling in the blank space with pictures.

His 9th inning cartoon was "EZY." If you were standing around the catcher at the game, don't you think it would have been far more fair to the two teams, and to the people, in the grand stand who had paid more than you, if you had stood back as you should have done? Try to improve on it next time. It is not fair to the catcher. By the way, isn't Rowe rather a warm rag?

After defeating Suffolk, Washington sent out a challenge to any club in North Carolina or Virginia to play a game in Washington. The Washington club, on the Washington grounds, with a Washington umpire can beat any club in the United States, John McGraw's aggregation not excepted. But they can't do it elsewhere.

John Ivey Smith was not commented on in the regular write up. John is a sui generis, excuse that Latin, please, but it's the expression for him. John marshalled his team well, and directed their movements with a master hand. No wonder we won the game. You feel one of these satisfied feelings when you see a ball going to John's precinct, and you usually see a good stunt when he goes to the bat. John makes a pretty good captain, don't you think? Greenville deplores and con-

This way of cotton jumping up in price just between crops brings no comfort to the farmers.

The most wise thing for the Czar to do would be to follow the examples of his uncles and resign.

It is said the hoop skirt is coming back. We hope it will be side-tracked or wrecked somewhere on the way.

We learn that peace and quietude is reigning in Durham. We suppose her attention has been diverted by Greensboro.

A middle western man shipped ten barrels of Irish potatoes a few days ago. And in turn received 15 cents for the shipment.

In a New York divorce trial the fact was disclosed that the husband in the case did the family washing, owing to poverty and his wife's high mindedness we suppose.

The attorney-general of the state declares that county boards of health have the power to enforce compulsory vaccination in any township where smallpox is prevalent. Those who oppose vaccination will do well to make a note of this fact.

As might have been expected that lightning 18-hour schedule between New York and Chicago resulted in a big wreck. The disaster killed nineteen people and wounded many more. The railroad has decided to quit the fast trip and move back to a 20 hour schedule.

Mrs. Rogers, the condemned Vermont murderess, has escaped the gallows. The governor has given her a reprieve until December in order that she might take an appeal to the United States Supreme court on certain constitutional questions touching her case.

Dr. Charles E. Taylor, who has been president of Wake Forest College for twenty years, has tendered his resignation because of feeble health. Dr. Taylor has made the college an exceptionally able president, and has given it rank with the best educational institutions in the South. Prof. W. L. Potat, who has been professor of biology in the college for a long time, has been chosen to succeed Dr. Taylor and will make a worthy successor to him.

In discussing at length the Chinese boycott of American manufactured goods the New York Times says:

"Clearly the best possible policy for our government would be to repeal the oppressive features of our laws which are in contradiction to our treaty pledges, which we could do with very little harm to the interests of even the most violent foes of Chinese workmen. This the mercantile bodies who have trade with China urge, and the President has, it is reported, substantially promised to recommend to Congress. Whether Congress will pay any attention to it depends on the force and direction of public opinion and that is as yet uncertain."

Does this boycott amount to any thing? We think it does, and the South will be the biggest loser. In China lies our hope to create new markets for the sale of our cotton goods. If this field is shut off the South can look for low prices for the next three or four years.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutritive properties to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system, overcomes and cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, etc. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for what is sometimes called America's national disease. Dyspepsia, is destined to eventually work a wonderful and lasting benefit to sufferers from this distressing and mind harassing condition. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten.

Why Discriminate and Call it Justice

How poverty works against a man even in some courts finds exemplification in the case of Johann Hoch, now under sentence of death in Chicago for the murder of one of his many wives. Hoch wants to appeal his case to the Supreme court of the state, but cannot do so unless he can raise $700 to defray the expense of making up the record of the case on appeal. There is something hard, something cruel, something unjust in this. It means that a poor man in Illinois is deprived of the power to appeal to the Supreme court because he is poor. Because it is Hoch has nothing to do with it. He is a citizen not allowed the rights because he is poor. This would apply to any poor man, we take it. Yet a man of money or with friends of wealth would find no trouble in appealing to the higher court. It is almost like liberty being purchased and in some cases it would be purchased.—Charlotte News

Bilious Bill the sleepy head, Dearly loved to lay a bed, Couldn't wake him if you shook him; When his slumbers overtook him, Suddenly he started waking Ev'ry morn when day was breaking.

What's this magic nectomancer? EARLY RISERS, that's the answer.

The Famous Little Pills, "Early Risers" cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by John L. Wooten's Drug Store.

The Cotton Warehouse

The bankers and merchants of Maxton and the farmers roundabout, have organized a company to build a cotton warehouse with a capacity of 2,000 bales. A Mecklenburg farmer has built his own warehouse. These things show the tendency of the farmers to look after their interests more closely in the future than in the past. The warehouse idea is a good one and is spreading throughout the South. One day these smaller warehouses may become a part of an extensive system which will result in the practical control of the cotton crop and the maintenance of good prices.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Salve That Penetrates.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve penetrates the pores of the skin, and by its antiseptic, rubefacient and healing influence it subdues inflammation and cures Boils, Burns, Cuts, Eczema, Tetter, Ring Worm and all skin diseases. A specific for Blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles. The original and genuine Witch Hazel Salve is made by E. C. DeWitt & Co, and sold by John L. Wooten, Druggist.

Never was there a more remarkable example of the cheapness of the American government in paying salaries to its officers than the case of Paul Morton. As secretary of the navy he received $8,000 a year. As president of the Equitable he will receive $125,000. At the time of the revolution $8,000 was doubtless considered a good salary, while $125,000 would have been regarded as fabulous. While there has been a big increase in the market value of men elsewhere, the prices in the government service have advanced but little in the last 125 years.—Oklahoma State.

It is said that the Yancey county commissioners have declined to pay interest on bridge bonds because the structure was not satisfactorily constructed. The owners of the bonds, who are residents of Ohio, had nothing to do with the bridge contract, having only paid cash for the bonds. If correctly stated, this is about the rankest instance of repudiation yet attempted in North Carolina. It is as if a man borrow money and make an unprofitable deal with a third party and refuse on that account to pay back the amount borrowed. The courts will in all probability decide for the bondholders.—Charlotte Observer.

The Children's Favorite.

For Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc., One Minute Cough Cure is the children's favorite. This is because it contains no opiate, is perfectly harmless, tastes good and cures. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten's Drug Store.

An exchange tells us that Speaker Cannon is a great lover of green corn. He boards at the Arlington during the sessions of congress. This same exchange says that on one occasion Mr. Cannon had a constituent, to take dinner with him and describes Mr. Cannon's corn eating proclivities in the following:

Cannon made his dinner on green corn, eating seven ears. The farmer asked him how much he paid for board at the Arlington, and Cannon replied, "Six dollars a day." "Well," said the farmer constituent, "Joe, don't you think it would be cheaper for you to board at a livery stable?"—Wilmington Messenger

BUCKHORN LITHIA WATER

Are You Suffering

From Indigestion, Constipation, or do you have any trouble with your Kidneys or Bladder if so Drink the Famous Buckhorn Lithia Water.

ST. VINCENT HOSPITAL, NORFOLK, VA., May 11, 1905.

Buckhorn Water Co. Henderson, N. C.

Gentlemen—It gives me pleasure to state I have been using myself and prescribing for my patients the Buckhorn Lithia Water very freely for several months and I do not hesitate to recommend it in highest terms.

In lithemia, in rheumatic and gouty conditions and in certain cases of constipation I have seen excellent results follow its use. It is an exceedingly pleasant drinking water.

Very truly,
L. L. PAYNE, M. D.

OUR GUARANTEE:

The shippers guarantee, that, of all the mineral waters so far known, this is the most powerful diuretic. They will furnish a case of any other water, regardless of its reputation or price, and convince, by actual, practical, scientific comparison, that there is not a lithia water known to the public that will equal Buckhorn Lithia in uric acid diathesis.

Baking Powder

Buy Good Luck Baking Powder. In so doing you get the most of the purest baking powder at the smallest cost. Furthermore, if you will save the coupons that you will find plainly printed on the label of each can, you can get the beautiful premiums we are now offering. Cut out these coupons. They are valuable. It takes but a few of them to obtain some of the numerous useful gifts on the premium list. A little book inside of every can explains all about the premiums. It shows a picture of each gift and tells just how many coupons are required to get them. Don't fail to save the coupons. Take a delight in your baking and secure some of the charming premiums.

GOOD LUCK

was established in 1892. The sales have so increased to date, that to-day we are shipping Good Luck Baking Powder in carload lots to every section of the country. The cause of this enormous popularity is plain. In Good Luck, housekeepers get not only a positively pure baking powder of great leavening force, but at a price a little less than they have been accustomed to pay for some other kind that was not as satisfactory in results. When buying Good Luck think of its purity and consider the good results obtained from its use. Remember every Good Luck coupon counts for a present. If your grocer doesn't keep Good Luck, send us his name and we will see that you are supplied.

An Old Turkish Folklore Tale Told Since Mohammed's Days.

This is a story which the old Turkish grandfathers tell their grandsons, a folklore tale that was told about the fires in the days of Mohammed.

A young man was about to set out to seek his fortune in a strange land beyond the rugged northern mountains. So he went to every member of his family and asked what presents he should bring back.

Each member of the family expressed a desire for some particular present, and the young man carefully noted them down. When he had done so, he noticed that his old father had not yet expressed a wish.

"And what shall I bring for you, father?" he asked.

"My son, I shall make one request. I would like you to save all the crumbs from your table and bring them to me when you return."

The son thought this a very strange request, but nevertheless he promised to fulfill it.

So he journeyed on to the land beyond the mountains, where he entered into trade and in a few years became a wealthy merchant. Then he determined to return to his native land. His belongings he sold and converted into gold, and with this, including the presents for his family and the crumbs he had saved for his father, he joined several other travelers, and together they set out to cross the mountains into Turkey.

But in the mountains a great storm overtook them, and they were lost for many days. Finally their provisions gave out, and they were on the point of starvation when the young man thought of the crumbs he had saved for his father.

"Aha!" he cried. "I cannot carry my father the present I promised him, for hunger compels me to use it for ourselves."

When the young man reached home and he had embraced all the members of his family, he distributed the presents. But when he came to his father he had nothing to give, and he cried:

"Alas, father, I have not been able to fulfill my promise to you.
In the mountains I was overcome by hunger and was forced to eat the crumbs I had saved for you to save my life and those of my companions."

And the old father replied: "Tis well, my son. The object of my request has been fulfilled."

She Knew "Backis."

"Missus, who's dis yere man Backis anyhow?" asked an old family servant of her mistress, a Baltimore lady, recently.

The lady took from the old darky's hand the circular advertising a certain brand of wine and saw the merry god, Bacchus, mentioned. She then explained to the old negress that Bacchus was a god of the ancients.

"Ah, knowed Ah done heahed ob dat man befo'. Ah read 'bout him in de Bible; 'bout him and de mule.
Backis wuz er ridin' de mule, and de mule seed er ghos' and got scart, and Backis he beat de mule, and de mule he frowed Backis. Yessum, Ah knows all 'bout dat man."

The mistress had some difficulty in explaining that Balaam was an entirely different personage from the god of conviviality.—Baltimore Sun.

BALL TEAM ENTERTAINED.

A Pleasant Evening for the Boys and Friends.

Last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White the ball team gathered at an informal reception. Others present besides the team were Misses Nina and Mary James, Ada Wooten, Alice White, Maud Nixon.

Mr. and Mrs. White are ideal entertainers, and made everybody feel at home, and gave them a nice time.

Music, vocal and instrumental was rendered by Miss Nina James, and others of the company.

Refreshments were served in the dining-room, and soon after the evening had flown, and it was time to bid the host and hostess goodbye. It was a pleasant occasion, and every member of team enjoyed it, and pronounce it the pleasantest occasion of the season.

Buggy Wrecked.

There was a run away as the crowd was returning from the ball game in Arthur park, Friday evening. A buggy literally smashed to pieces was the extent of the damage. A colored boy occupying the buggy was thrown out but escaped injury.

demonstrate the trouble that occurred near the end of the last inning. A man with a wooden "base" tripped up a Washington runner who was making for the home plate and hurt him. The runner gained his feet and knocked his man down. As both were Kiastonian and chums, with honors between them being about even, it should be no cause for contention between Washington and Greenville. All the same Greenville regrets such an occurrence on her grounds and condemns it.

Greenville, N. C., June 19, 1905. Mr. F. M. Hornaday, Insurance Agent, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:

For some time I have had insurance in some of the Northern companies, but feeling that their rates were too high I gave you an engagement to show me contracts of the Security Life and Annuity Company of Greensboro, N. C. As a result I am now holding a policy with you that is much cheaper and far more desirable than anything I could get from outside companies.

I realize that on account of a higher interest rate and lower expense loading, The Security Life and Annuity Company can, and is making this great saving for me, and I heartily recommend your company to all who desire the very best protection.

Yours truly,
J. W. ALLEN

THE Capitol of the United States was painted last summer with Harrison's Ready Mixed Paint and looks better than ever before. Is such a paint good enough for you? We should like to tell you more about this case.

NOTICE.

I have been greatly annoyed by the boys of the town who tramp through my field and over my crops in search of fruit, and I take this opportunity to notify both the boys and their parents that positively I will prosecute for trespass any boy who repeats the offence hereafter.
