A RECEPTION AT DR. MOYE'S.

In Honor of Miss Claudia Simmons

Dr. and Mrs. Elbert Moye tendered the young people of the town a reception Friday evening in honor of Miss Claudia Simmons, of Washington, who has been visiting Misses Glenn and Helen Forbes.

It was a pretty evening, a jolly crowd, and an ideal host and hostess. The spacious lawn was softly lighted with Japanese lanterns, and well supplied with hammocks, swings, chairs and benches, making convenient tete a tete places in all parts of it.

The guests were received at the door by Mrs. Moye and conducted to the parlor, thence to the hall where frappe was served by Miss Helen Forbes and Walter Wilson. Then the young people went to the lawn where they talked to who they wanted to until refreshments were served. These consisted of cake and creams of different kinds.

After the refreshments the guests talked on until the night was giving way to the coming morning.

Throughout the evening graphophonic, instrumental, and vocal music was rendered by different ones of the company.

Miss Simmons is attractive and entertaining. Dr. and Mrs. Moye have a way of making one feel at home and at ease and the crowd was a congenial one these combined made the evening a pleasant one indeed, and it was time to go before anyone had thought of it.

Among those present were: Miss Hinsdale and "Weary" Hooker, Miss Lottie Blow and Tom Moore, Miss Mary Higgs and Fred Hornaday, Miss Alice Lang and Ben Higgs, Miss Nell Skinner and Eugene Turner, Miss Vernessa Smith and John Shelburn, Miss Alice White and Jim Turner, Miss Jamie Bryan and "Dock" Horne, Miss Helen Forbes and Walter Wilson, Miss May Whitfield and Frank Wilson, Miss Claudie Simmons and Dick White, Miss Glenn Forbes and W. L. Best, Miss Jessie Sugg and Mr. Williams, Frank Skinner, Mr. Rowe, Mr. Thompson, Hill Herne, Alex Blow, Grant Tyson, Cary Warren, Jack Garden and Alvin Dupree. It was a pleasant evening for everybody.

Miss Simmons returned to her home in Washington this morning. She has made friends here that will be glad to see her again.

Funeral of Little Helen Hart.

Just as the sun was sinking in the West Friday evening, the remains of little Helen, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hart, who died Thursday morning, were laid to rest in Cherry Hill cemetery. Mr. Hart, who was absent when the little one suddenly passed away, could not reach home until the evening train, as the funeral took place as soon thereafter as arrangements could be made. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. J. A. Hornaday. The pall bearers were C. T. Munford, Frank Wilson, A. B. Ellington, C. M. Jones, Z. P. Vandyke, O. E. Warren, G. E. Harris and L. H. Pender. There were many beautiful floral tributes from sympathizing friends.

Charlie Expects Trouble.

Charlie Spettingue received an intimation yesterday that he might expect trouble at the reception he has planned for his aunt Donna Lucia at the opera house next Wednesday night. Charlie is filled full of superstition, so he has secured the services of Lord Faucourt Babberley, an old actor, who is something funny sure enough.

No telling what is going to happen, but old Babberley feels sure he will be a counteracting influence for whatever it is, and he has got a terrible face, and he is as funny as old Sir John Falstaff in the Merry Wives of Windsor, and he is so resourceful too. He has a nose like—but I can tell you so much about him. You go see him yourself next Wednesday night, and you will be glad of it, and you will have something to talk about when you go visiting.

Charlie is going to have Jack Chestney there too, and he is so handsome.

AND STILL WE WIN.

Greenville 10, Tarboro 2.

About four hundred people saw Greenville win the interesting game from Tarboro Friday afternoon. It was the slowest game seen here this season. For a while it was something fast then it began to slump, and it slumped, and it slumped, and it slumped until even the team grew careless, and played "kid" base ball.

The crowd went to the park for a good game, and everybody expected it for usually Tarboro has a fast game.

There were no spectacular plays to make the fans grow wild, only a long hit or two for them to applaud and talk about.

The features of the game for Greenville was the hitting of John Ivey Smith, who got four hits of five chances, the catch of Bert James behind second, and the all round loose work of the team.

A team always has an off day once in a while, Friday was the day. Next Tuesday they will be in trim and will give Washington all she is looking for, and perhaps a great deal more.

Greenville did do one right good stunt though didn't she. It was good work when she kept the visitors from scoring when they had three men on bases with nothing out. It looked so bright for them that they began to feel good and show their big pitcher, began to smile, for he was at the bat, and was counting on one of these hard, corking, stinging singles; one of these you usually score two runs on, but he was counting like people sometimes count little chickens and Tarboro had three men on bases when there men were out.

It would have been an easy shut out, but it seemed nobody wanted one. Three hits are what they are credited with, while we made four times that many. Eight errors are all we made, and they made seven. Nice game wasn't it? But, pshaw, nobody cares how it was, just so we won it, and nobody will kick on a bad game in Washington just so it comes our way, but it is going to take hard work to win it. Our team can work and the game is coming to us.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

Are not the places of vice, now being so loudly cried against recruited from the homes of our land? Then where does the evil begin, and where is the place to stop it?—Raleigh Post.

Wetake the above paragraph from the Raleigh Post and will give our answer as we see it. In the first place such evil begins in the homes, and the homes, and we might say churches too, are the right places to correct these evils.

To suppress an evil you must nip it in the bud. Don't wait until it has grown into a far reaching disseminating form. The preacher, Sunday school teacher, and more important than either, the parents, should exert every influence to properly train and educate the boys and girls of the land to ever be moral and virtuous.

If the young men and young women are not properly trained in the home and church all the laws of the land combined will not make moral, Christian people out of them. There can be laws enacted and enforced against certain crimes, but the idea of legislating into the hearts of men and women a sense of conduct as a moral code is absurd to say the least.

Is there any law that prevents the conceiving and harboring the desire to commit murder? No. And you might as well try to do this as to try to enforce a law against immorality. The only solution and remedy lies in the homes and churches, and to these and these only must we look for the remedy and suppression of existing evils. All the laws of our land cannot prevent vice. Nothing but the proper home training can prevent it.

An interesting comparison may be drawn from the review of the mayor's court as reported by Mayor Wooten to the aldermen Thursday night for the past year and the record for the previous year. For the year ending June 30th, 1905, there were 256 arrests by the police upon warrants issued by the mayor. Of this number 206 were adjudged guilty, 19 not guilty, and 30 bound over to Superior court. For the previous year ending June 30th, 1904, there were 385 arrests, 293 adjudged guilty, 28 not guilty, and 64 bound over to court. This record makes a good showing in favor of a dispensary over open saloons. It is well known that a majority of cases in the mayor's court are for drunkenness. During the year ending June, 1904, there were 11 saloons in Greenville, while during the last year there was a dispensary. But for the fact of existence of a distillery, and that left over whiskey from the saloons made business for blind tigers, there would have been fewer cases of drunkenness during the past year. As it is, the improvement in favor of the dispensary is large and gratifying.

The merchants in Greenville have been wasting money on their side-walks long enough for them to make a change. They are continually making repairs on the side-walks in front of their stores. They put in brick that last never more than eighteen months. It would greatly improve the appearance of the town and make their places of business more attractive if they would swing together, each man paying his prorata share, and put in a good asphalt side-walk on each side of Evans street, or even cement would be better and cheaper in the end. And again, why not save some of the money the town is expending in the present street force, and in the repairing of the streets after every storm, and pave or macadamize our streets and side-walks all over town.

It is said that Russia is not willing to sue for peace; that she wants to put the initiative upon Japan. We will just bet our last summer straw hat that when Japan is caught suing it will be for a big pile of damages—not peace. Japan don't want peace; she is having the time of her life in this war affair.

Georgia has covered herself in disgrace again. A few nights ago a mob went to the jail at Watkinsville, in that state, forced the jailor to open the door and lynched nine prisoners, one of them white and eight colored.

Japan can do more in the way of bringing about peace than all the combined powers put together. It will take some time but the job will be well done and will be lasting. Stand back and let 'em scrap.

It would be a good idea to have little Willie's picture made before the Fourth. In future years you can show different ones what a pretty little boy Willie was before he got his eyes blown out.

Trouble about some people is that they never discover how little and insignificant they are until they are ready to "kick the bucket."

It is not a question now as to who started the war between Russia and Japan. Who is going to stop it is the question at issue.

The liquor question in some counties is getting about as hot as the genuine article itself.

The farmers in several localities in Mexico are making strenuous efforts to secure Chinese immigrants as farm laborers. If these immigrants will make money for the Mexican cotton farmers why will they not do the same for those of the Southern states of this country. Negro labor is growing scarcer and scarcer here each year. It must be supplanted by some other class of labor. Can we get any better and cheaper than the Chinese? That question we throw out to our subscribers. What do the people have to say about it?—Wilmington Messenger.

A lady who complained to her milkman of the quality of milk he sold her, says Harper's Weekly, received the following explanation:

"You see, mum, they don't get enough grass feed this time o' year. Why, them cows o' mine are just as sorry about it as I am. I often see 'em crying—regular cryin', mum—because they feel as how their milk don't do them credit. Don't you believe it, mum?"

"Oh, yes, I believe it," responded his customer, "but I wish in future you'd see that they don't drop their tears into our can."

THE USE OF APPLES.

Dietetic Value of This Common and Best of All Fruit.

One medical writer says: "The more mellow apples one eats the better, provided they be taken at mealtime. It is best of all to eat fruit before meals, and freely as you like."

This will prevent loading the system with a heavy weight of less digestible foods. The no breakfast fad tells us that we must not only go without the morning meal, but that we must live much more largely upon fruit. Some of its disciples insist that the apple may be taken in the place of the ordinary breakfast. John Wesley once referred to apple dumplings as an illustration of the alarming advance of luxuries in England. Charles Lamb quotes a friend who says that "a man cannot have a pure mind who refuses apple dumplings," and Dr. Johnson speaks of a clergyman of his acquaintance who brought his family up almost altogether on this Anglo-Saxon combination. We have recollections of dumplings which might accord with the opinion of Lamb, and then we have recollections of other dumplings which might have been the origin of Calvinism. It must be borne in mind that the ideal apple is one that is fit to be eaten raw, yet the glorious old Spitzenburg is only fit for the cook, in whose hands it becomes the very perfection of pie apples. The nineteenth century went out with a marvelous evolution of new sorts of fruits of all kinds, but there was nothing in the list to exceed the delicious juices of the Northern Spy, the Macintosh Red, the Shannon or the Stuart's Golden.

There is nothing in the world to exceed the beauty of the apple blossom, while the air is laden with an exquisite perfume that has charmed a hundred generations, has added to the poesy, the love and the comfort of Greek, of Roman and of Briton. But if there be anything more beautiful than the apple in blossom it is the same tree loaded down with crimson and golden fruit. Then it is that the apple touches human nature and wakens in the housekeeper the highest conceptions of the science and the fine art of dietetics.—Independent.

THE MAID AND THE BELL.

The maid had just come over from Ireland, and a Brooklyn woman engaged her. A bell hung in the girl's room, and the morning after her arrival her mistress rang this bell to get her up.

But the maid did not get up, though the bell rang and rang. Finally, therefore, the mistress arose herself, and slipping on a dressing gown, she hastened to the new servant's room.

There, wide awake, the maid lay, laughing at the top of her lungs.

"What on earth are you laughing at, Nora?" said the mistress.

"Faith, mum," Nora answered, "I'm laughin' at that bell. As shure as I live I haven't touched it, an'—just see—it's wagglin' yet!"—New York Tribune.
