RIGHT ARM BROKEN

Mr and Mrs. Geo. S. Prichard Meet With an Accident.

Through a private letter to a friend here in Greenville we learn that late in the afternoon last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Prichard, who are spending the summer at Panacea Springs, were out driving; by accident the carriage was driven against a stump and Mr. and Mrs. Prichard were hurled to the ground. Mrs. Prichard's right arm was broken and she received several ugly cuts about forehead. Mr. Prichard was more fortunate, though he was dragged some distance and badly scratched and bruised. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Prichard will be grieved to learn of their misfortune but rejoice that the accident proved no more serious.

God to Judge.

Did you ever hear of a man trying to lift an unfortunate woman when she falls from the pedestal of honor and virtue? Nay a lift. Too much Adamic blood still creeping through our snake polluted veins. When once a woman trips and falls from high and honored position, she lands in hell, from which no human will stop to lift her out, husband and brother, father and son are dead to the cries from that hour. But on the other hand how be it? We have seen men as low as it is possible for them to fall. We have seen the wife lift the husband from the gutter and press him to her heart while tears trickled down her cheeks in profusion. We have seen the wife follow the husband through life in one constant whirl of misery and misfortune, and when at last at the gate of hell they are separated, she would wring her hands in anguish because the curtain had fallen between them and she could go no farther. We have seen the mother follow the son through paths of crime, shame and degradation, through which a man was never known to follow a woman, yet who is to blame for the downfall of woman? Who? Let the angels be the jury and God Almighty the judge.—Ex.

The Seasick Colonel.

Captain Dugge, of the Hamburg American liner Piazz Oskai, was talking about seasickness says an exchange: "One voyage," he said, "I had on board an English soldier, a colonel. We had hardly left Genoa before the colonel went down to his stateroom, and by the time Sardinia was in sight he was sick beyond description—limp as a dishcloth, pale green in color, and unable to eat or drink anything.

"As he was a friend of mine I went to see him on the fourth day. He lay on his back with his eyes closed, very still, very green.

"First, I thought he was asleep, but, noticing a slight movement of his lips, I leaned over and heard him murmur faintly:

"Corporal—corporal—sergeant, major—lieutenant colonel—lieutenant colonel—

"Could he be delirious? I listened again and again the monotonous murmur continued:

"Sergeant major—ugh, lieutenant general—corporal—corporal—ugh, lieutenant general—

"Then his eyes opened, and he said: "Good morning captain."

"Why, I said I thought you were delirious. What on earth were you doing?"

"Assigning the waves their rank, he answered with a sad smile. "There have been six lieutenant generals in the last four minutes."—Wilmington Messenger.

Mrs. Sallie Fitzgerald, of Johnston county, aged 100 years, died Thursday night. Up until about five months ago Mrs. Fitzgerald personally superintended the work on her 200 acre farm.

New Market for Tarboro.

Tarboro, N. C., July 14.—The question of a market house so long agitated seems now a certainty. The town commissioners have purchased a handsome two-story brick building, situated in the heart of the town and will expend a thousand dollars deemed sufficient to convert what is now a carriage factory into an up-to-date market house with concrete floors. Walls impervious to water and fitted up with all modern improvements.

The saying that "you have to die to beat the insurance company" don't go now. There have been several eminent gentlemen who have beaten insurance companies that are still right much alive.

Cotton farmers ought to get in the habit of cultivating the hay fever. It strikes us that hay will grow wherever cotton does.

The New Yorker who estimated the population of that city to be about 5,000,000, surely did his estimating on the 4th of July.

Uncle Sam is not making much fuss over the deficit. Perhaps he is like the majority of us, never happy unless he is head over heels in debt.

The Standard Oil Co. would possibly like to furnish Lawson with enough oil to run him to a warmer climate than this.

If it keeps on raining a few days longer a trip to the sea shore will not be necessary. We can just go sailing right at home.

It is usually charged that a man marries a girl for her money, but in 90 cases out of 100 it is the old man's money.

One thing we never have understood and that is where and how the bank examiners spend their time between bank failures.

The rainy weather is helping some of the base ball teams, especially in the per centage columns.

We do not think the idea of selling the cotton crop before it is made is a wise one.

Possibly Mr. Aycock realized the fact that it was hard to beat a fellow at his own game.

The only thing we have heard of being dug up in Panama is trouble.

He Knew of One.

The cross-examiner was a smart man whose object was to discredit the witness and discredit his testimony.

"What did you say your name was?" was the first question.

"Michael Doherty."

"Michael Doherty, eh? Now Doherty answer me this question careful. Are you a married man?"

"O' think O' was married."

"So you think because you got married that you are a married man do you?"

"Now tell me when you married?"

"Who O' married? O' married a woman."

"Don't you know better than to trifle with the court? Of course you married a woman; did you ever hear of anyone marrying a man?"

"Yes, moi sister did."—Exchange.

The police of Philadelphia made a raid on lawless parts of the city and among the four or five hundred prisoners arrested were many men and women supposed to be respectable. Some of the women begged to be allowed to kill themselves rather than face disgrace—and they have known the wages of sin.—Ex.

FROM MOUNTAINS TO SEA.

[Editorial Correspondence.]

Norfolk, Va., July 14th.

We have heard of toboggan slides and had visions of the "shoot the chute," but neither of them can equal the exhilaration of a roll down from the mountains to the sea. Having spent nearly a week among the superb mountain scenery of Western North Carolina, I decided to take the remainder of my vacation within the sound of the rolling billows, and in 18 hours the 500 miles between Asheville and the Atlantic had been covered, and here I am.

Norfolk is among the most enterprising and progressive cities on the Atlantic coast and there is always much of interest to be seen. It has been a few years since I was last here and the changes noticed are almost marvelous. There is thrift and progress on every hand, and the modern sky-scraper is also getting in evidence.

There are so many "down homers" here that a North Carolinian feels much at home when he strikes Norfolk. The city is largely composed of people from across the line, and the best business brain and energy came from North Carolina. The Old North State largely built Norfolk and made the city what it is. The city directory reads very much like it was of a North Carolina town.

Pitt county is well-represented among Norfolk's business men. The wholesale dry goods firm of Winston-Whichard Co. has two Pitt county boys in it—C. L. and H. W. Whichard—and they rank with the best business men here. The Mercantile Bank has a Pitt county boy—C. C. Cobb—as its president and he is also the leader in the commission firm of Cobb Bros. & Co. Whichard Bros., Pitt county boys, do a large retail business in South Norfolk. Miss Minnie Quinn, a Pitt county girl, is proprietress of the Granby Hotel and is also conducting the summer resort hotel at Willoughby Beach. W. O. Little, of Pitt, conducts two large drug stores at Newport News. Beside these there are several young men from Pitt holding important positions in business houses here, and there are none better than our boys.

Norfolk is ideally located for pleasure and it is no wonder that through the summer excursionists come here by the thousands. There are many places of interest within the city, while the splendid electric car service brings such delightful resorts as Old Point, Virginia Beach, Pine Beach, Ocean View, Willoughby Beach, Cape Henry and others within easy access, the furthest being reached in less than an hour. Some of these resorts rival Coney Island and Atlantic City in attractions, while for real enjoyment in sailing, fishing and bathing they cannot be surpassed.

Norfolk's harbor is one of the finest in the world and ships from all nations of the earth can be seen coming and going through Hampton Roads. In population, business and wealth the city goes forward with rapid bounds. It has up-to-date newspapers and they are doing their part toward the city's advancement.

Preparation goes steadily on for the Jamestown exposition here in 1907, and it is going to rival any similar enterprise ever held in this country, while from a naval standpoint it will surpass anything the world has ever seen. D. J. W.

It makes no difference how many medicines have failed to cure you, if you are troubled with headache, constipation, kidney or liver troubles, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. Wooten's Drug Store.

I'll brave the storms of Chilkoot Pass,

I'll cross the plains of frozen glass,

I'd leave my wife and cross the sea.

Rather than be without Rocky Mountain Tea.

There's a pretty girl in an Alpine hat,

A sweeter girl with a sailor brim

But the handsomest girl you'll ever see,

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings.

He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved.

That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses.

Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on.

It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

For sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

When you want a pleasant laxative that is easy to take and certain to act, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.
