WILLIAM GORRELL IS WISE

He is the Least Bit Shy When He Sees a Real Down-Right Country Nigger. Early yesterday morning five turnouts—single buggies drawn by farmstained mules—came up West Trade street, turned to the right at the square and passed down South Tryon street. The Balaams had a regular trot and the buggies were occupied by negroes in couples. As the procession went by the Manufacturers' Club, William Gorrell, the famous colored janitor, arose from his seat on the threshold of the door and walked back inside and looked out through the grill-glass door. An Observer man, seeing William make this peculiar move, boned him for an explanation. "Well sir, it's des like dis, you can't allers tell what er country nigger's goin' ter do. Des as lak as not one uv dem pig-headed niggers would er pulled out er gun an' shot at me des ter see me jump. No, sir, you can't tell dis nigger nothin' bout yo' country coon, ter he's done been all long dere when he lived in Guilford. Cose I ain't no better dan er country nigger, but I des knows his tricks. Dat's des why I move back in de do' when I seed 'em comin'. Dey'e all got gals in dere wid 'em, an' it's des lak 'em ter show off er little as dey go long. Dey mus' be goin' ter er camp meetin' somers down de Pineville road. Ef you don't know now you'll know 'fo' moruin', fur dey'll need de coroner an' de sheriff 'fo' it's all over.—Charlotte Observer.

TOWN MATTERS

Changes in Dispensary and Fire Department. The board of aldermen held an adjourned meeting Monday night to complete some business left over from the regular meeting on the 6th. J. N. Hart, J. W. Bryan and J. L. Sugg having resigned as dispensary commissioners, B. J. Pulley, J. S. Congleton and L. H. Pender were elected to succeed them. A. J. Griffin having declined to accept as chief of the fire department, B. Hyman was elected to that position. The board made an appropriation of $75 per year to aid the public library. Steps were also taken looking to advertising the town with a view of attracting settlers and investments.

Excursion Tomorrow

The Lillian is a new and large boat. It can carry 200 passengers and has several accommodations for ladies. It has two engines and can make good speed with either alone. It has been making regular trips between Falkland and Washington for some time and without an accident. The trip to Bath will be a nice and pleasant one. Will leave here at 9 o'clock, a. m., (after arrival of train) You may not get another chance to visit historic Bath this year, so go tomorrow. You can not afford to miss it.

Judge Forsaith's Little Joke

A pickpocket was before Judge Forsaith in the municipal court the other day, charged with larceny from the person. The judge leaned over to the officer in charge of the case and said: "I guess I'll fine him $25." "But he has only $15, your honor," replied the officer. "Well then, turn him loose in the crowd and he'll soon get the $10," said the judge in such a matter-of-fact way that at first the officer was taken in.—Boston Herald.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., July 18, 1904. Misses Sallie Robertson, of Tarboro and Daisy Tucker, of Black Jack, came on the train Saturday on their way to spend some time with Miss Fannia Hardee, of Ormondsville. There is a good time in store for some folks. W. E. Hooks informs us that through his ad in our Ayden department, a gentleman from Greene county came over and took out a fire policy for quite a large amount. Mr. Hooks says he had not solicited the gentleman, but that the ad did the work. Mr. Hooks declares advertising pays, and so do we. Mrs. Marion Crawford, of Winterville, spent from Saturday until Monday here with friends. If Ayden had electric fans, run by steam, on every street corner would the atmosphere here about stirred by their vibration prove nauseous to a delicate stomach? We only ask for information. Mrs. J. W. Quiberly and Miss Helen Quinerly returned Friday from a visit to Centerville. Mrs. D. B. Gaskins went to Halifax, Mrs. D. G. Berry and Miss Olivia Berry went to Hertford last Friday. A terrapin picked up at the lumber camp near here the other day had the date 1896 and the initials W. E. M. carved on its back. How old does a terrapin live to grow. Prof. C. W. Edwards, of Durham, has been a visitor here during the past week. J. J. Smith went to Greenville Friday. All merchants and druggists throughout Pitt county have obligated not to cut prices on patent medicines. Mrs. J. W. Brown, after a visit to friends here and in the community has returned to her home in Greenville. Harvey Johnson and wife, who have been spending sometime here with friends have gone to their home, Scotland Neck. Miss Daisy Parker, of Oakley, after a visit to the Misses Ross left last week. Mesdames W. E. Hooks and W. J. Kittrell and children are visiting the Misses Wesson in Winterville. J. A. Harrington has on exhibition in the drug store a tomato that weighs 25 ounces. Mr. Harrington is not only a good gardener, but his friendliest seem him a pretty all around sort of a fellow. Miss Lizzie Anderson, of Grimesland, has been visiting Mrs. Stancil Hodges. Twenty-dollars reward each for Tiger doesn't seem much of an inducement to catch or betray. Robert Worthington has accepted a position with the Ayden bank. The business of the bank is on a rapid increase as is all other business in Ayden. Tax consideration and condition seem to cut but a small figure when the brunt is on the other fellow. The following named young men have formed a ball team here: Dick Jackson, c; Lis McLawhorn, p; Barnes Sumrell, 1b; Charles Ross, 2b; Jasper Gardner, 3b; E. J. Gardner, ss; Stephen Nobles, rf; C. F. Cannon, cf; M. M. McKinney, lf. They will play Ormondsville Friday. We are in receipt of an invitation to attend the marriage of our friends Mr. Robert Lee Little and Miss Mamie Virginia Galloway which happy event takes place in the M. E. church at Grime laid Wednesday, July 26th, 1905. We return thanks. Miss Bessie Hattor has come home from a very pleasant visit to Mrs. Calvin Tucker at Grifton. Miss Rutha Dennis died at her home near here Saturday night about 9 o'clock, aged 90 years. In her earlier life she attained right much notoriety, owing to her immense size, great physical power and a very masculine appearance. It is said that in her best days she could easily lift a barrel of turpentine under each arm and place them in a cart. She was utterly devoid of fear and was the man who dared tamper on what she considered her rights. Yet she was kind-hearted and noted for her strict adherence to honesty. Hers has been a useful life and may her future be blessed with such rewards it merits and peaceful her ashes rest until resurrection morn.

Died.

Flournoy Allen, aged 10 months, infant son of Dr. R. L. Carr, died at 8 o'clock this morning. The mother of the child was taken last October when it was but a few days old, and now the little one has gone to join her in the world above. Much sympathy is expressed for the father in this second affliction that has befallen him. The interment will take place at 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Attempt to Murder Italian Official.

Naples, July 17.—An attempt was made early this morning to murder Admiral Mirabelle, brother of Admiral Mirabelle, the Italian Minister of Marine, who is residing at Portici, a small coasting and fishing port and residential town on the bay of Naples. The admiral's wife was seriously injured while defending her husband.

IS IT GAMBLING?

A few months back farmers were holding their cotton for 9 cents—admitting this to be a good price. Nine cent cotton came—only to find these same 9 cent farmers waiting for 10 cents. Ten and eleven cent cotton has come, but still they are holding for 12 cents.

Of course farmers have a perfect right to hold their cotton, but is this not gambling and greed combined? Farmers should unite for a staple price; as an exchange says, "there is a golden harvest in 10 cent cotton."

The trouble with some farmers is that they never know when to turn loose. Some people want the earth, but it is probable that they will only get a very small strip of it. There is a possibility that it will go up still higher, but this is more than a horse knows, (and he is pretty long headed) there is a stepping point, and the chances are when it reaches this point it will topple over.

The North Carolina Society of Norfolk, that organized last spring, held its second social gathering Saturday night at Wiloughby Beach hotel, one of the delightful resorts near the city. It was fitting that a hotel presided over by a North Carolina woman should be selected for this occasion. An elegant course menu was served. The affair was entirely informal and greatly enjoyed.

The damage suit began in Goldsboro last Saturday by Dr. Stockard against Dr. Powell for $10,000 for alienating his wife's affections is a new break in this state, if we exclude it from the mental anguish class of litigation, where it, perhaps belongs.

Mr. Roosevelt seems to be down on Holmes in good fashion. If there is any way in which the late statistician can be made to do time, he seems determined to find it out and have justice meted out.

"The only women who are good at figures are dress makers"—Atlanta Journal.

The men who have to foot dress makers bills think so without a doubt.

"Who will man the Russian fleet?" asks an exchange. "We don't know, but it strikes us that McGinty would come in right well for this job."

The best way to draw the color line is to attach the colored brooder to a plow line and keep him there.

NATURAL SIGNS OF RAIN.

Col. Tom Black is an Old-Time Weather Forecaster and He Looks About Him for Indications.

"Is it going to rain, Col. Black?" asked a love-sick young man, who was about to start for a drive with his best girl, of Charlotte's most handsome blond-haired police officer the other day.

"Yes, just as certain as a dunghill rooster is to run from one of my war-horse game cocks. I'll bet you a drink of butter milk on it. I saw a sign that never fails."

"That is interesting, Col. Black," said an Observer man, who happened to be standing near. "What is your sign that you are so sure of? It can't be the weather bureau?"

"No; I never pay any attention to the weather bureau, and it does not become any countryman to depend upon anything but natural signs. As I came up from dinner today I saw one of these eussed little English sparrows rolling and kicking in the dust. He was taking a sun bath; that is the surest sign of rain. I'll be hanged if I know how the little rascal tells, but he is generally right."

"Do you recall any mere signs, colonel?" was asked.

"Yes, there's a whole h—l of a lot of 'em. Haven't you never seen an old hen stretch out in the sun just after dinner, on a hot summer day, and throw her wings as far out as possible? That's a good sign. It is one of the best."

"If you hear a frog holler before noon, a rain will come within 24 hours. The frog is quite a weather prophet. He can tell all about rain."

"I tell you another sure sign; if you hear a guinea hollering, 'Pot-rack,' early at night, then you may look out. The peafowl is a sneak. He can't tell anything by the atmospheric conditions, but has a powerful keen ear. When you see him mounted high up on the top of a chimney, his favorite roosting place, and hear him cry out, 'Peawheel!' then you may look for rain almost any time, for the rascal has heard it thunder way off in China or Japan or somewhere else, and the cloud may come your way."

"The duck has a whole heap of sense about the weather. It is sure to rain if a duck takes a dry bath."

"There's plenty more but I can't think of them."

"You have done pretty well, colonel, for I have heard every one of those down home," said the man from Providence.

"There are others just as good. Down in Providence if they see the sun go down behind a cloud on Sunday they say it is sure to rain before Wednesday night. If the door knob sweats rain will follow. A red sun rise is the shepherd's warning, and a red sun at night is his delight. If the corns on your toes hurt, then rain is not far off."

"These are Providence signs. Lightning in the north is a certain sign of rain."

This is interesting, but all signs fall in dry weather. The Irishman has but one sign, and that is, when "it's cloudy all round and pouring down like the devil in the middle."—Charlotte Observer.

Immigration and Character.

"Citizen" writes to the Observer from High Point protesting against immigration. His objections may be summarized as follows:

First—Out of our million immigrants last year one quarter could not read or write.

Second—These foreigners might vote and carry an election.

Mr. Citizen seems to forget that his own immediate ancestor was an immigrant and came expecting to vote. Also that the proportion of immigrants who may read and write is according to his account as good or better than the present population of the state. He forgets that many of the original settlers of North Carolina were convicts and of Georgia paupers. And yet even the descendants of these have not impaired the quality of our citizenship. Let the immigrants come on.—Charlotte Chronicle.

We have no desire to encourage our Republican friends to pour money in a rat hole, but they are missing some good hot stuff by not having their paper running just now.—Greensboro Record.

One of Mr. Root's admirers wrote him while he was "considering the acceptance of the secretaryship: "If you are willing to take up official burdens, would it not be best to wait three years for the substance rather than take the shadow now?" To this, Mr. Root made reply: "I thank you very much for your kind telegram. My feeling is that the things one has an opportunity to do are substance and the things one tries to get are shadow." That was neatly done and in doing it, Mr. Root has given to the public a motto that will do to go by.—Charlotte Chronicle.

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory.

A Raleigh small boy was amusing himself with a June bug in the usual way—with a string tied to the bug's leg. By and by the bug flew into the boy's mouth and went down his throat. Then that youngster lifted up his voice and alarmed the neighborhood. After he was quieted the bug was pulled out of his throat by the string which was still attached to the insect's leg.
