GREAT WATERMELON PARTY.

Complimentary to Two Virginia Ladies.

Tuesday night on Pitt street a watermelon supper was given by J. Benjamin Higgs complimentary to Misses White and Walker, two charming young ladies from Virginia, who have been visiting Miss Elise Vincent.

In Mrs. Vincent's yard just as the moon was rising in its glory Mr. Higgs taking his stand at the tables with large carving knife in hand, coat off and sleeves rolled up, began to carve the luscious fruit, and for one solid hour and a half he stood there and handed the tempting slices to the gathered company. With such a pilot as the genial and popular Mr. Higgs the occasion could not have been anything but a marked success. After all had eaten to their satisfaction of the watery fruit, and after they had emptied their hearts of graceful speeches, and heartfelt compliments, the happy crowd dispersed and a very delightful occasion was over.

DOPE FOR THE FANS.

Flies Caught Out in the Field.

The town is hot, dull and quiet—no base ball, and so many people visiting.

Turner, J., played ball with Wilson against Suffolk Tuesday and today.

The two "Bull" Thompsons are mixed more than they thought they would be.

Next week will be a week of games. The team will make up for lost time.

Does any one know where Asst. Manager Forbes is? Perhaps he is playing a game of his own, and has forgotten base ball in Greenville. Good luck to you Mr. Manager if you are.

Have you seen Tige's cartoons of the Norfolk trip? They are on the boards in the club rooms.

Hobgood may be a boring place to wait for a train on a warm afternoon, but the dinner the team got there was the best while we were away from Greenville. It was anything you wanted for 35 cents, and on credit if we wanted it. The proprietor did not know us but he did know Greenville, and said it was all right about the money, for he had been treated too well the last time he came here to have any fear about the money. This speaks well indeed for Greenville, for here was a man who was so well pleased with the treatment accorded him while here that he was willing to credit a team of strangers for a meal, and said it was all right if he never got the money. We were in a hole at Hobgood, for John Ivey was sleeping or reading, or if you can imagine such a thing, perhaps he was thinking; anyway he did not get off at Hobgood, but was taken on to Tarboro. We learned later that had John gotten off we would have been in no better shape, for Manager Flaungan proteem, had neglected to give him anything for our mid-day meal, and we would still have been on the mercy of the hotel man. We did not learn the host's name, but I wish we did so I could put it here, for the people of Greenville ought to know him.

Mrs. Sam Dunn, of Scotland Neck, spent last week with Miss Mattie Grimes.

Miss Effie Grimes has just returned from Seven Springs.

Miss Addie Lee Long spent last week at Seven Springs.

The ladies who are visiting Miss Blanche Mayo are Miss Lizzie Brown Stokes, of Windsor, Misses Pattie and Sidney Davenport, of Pictolus, Misses Mary Taylor, of Tarboro and Margaret Redmond, of Tarboro, and many girls from Bethel. You can imagine they make a full house party.

H. L. Salisbury, of Hassell, has been a frequent caller during the house party.

Ask Jno. Staton who he wants to teach in Bethel next year? "Good boy."

J. W. Thomas has just returned from Seven Springs where he spent his week's vacation.

H. V. Staton's arm improves but little from his fall in playing ball.

W. J. Roberson and Jno. Staton spent the fourth at Seven Springs.

E. L. Mayo is spending his vacation at home. Wonder who was the cause of it.

V. E. Staton, of Rocky Mount, is spending this week at home.

Mrs. Frank Andrews has just returned from a trip down the road.

It was a mighty bad day to have a picnic last Thursday, yet all who attended the one at Mayo's school house can't help from saying they never had a better time.

Mr. Speight, of Greenville, will tell you the same.

A storm party consisting of Miss Mamie Hudgins, Miss Albritton, Misses Edie and Mattie Grimes and Jno. A. and H. V. Staton went out to Miss Mayo's last Friday night. It was a beautiful moon, light drive.

Odd Fellows Grow.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1905.

TWO OBJECT LESSONS

Two men have brought themselves in the lime light and are passing before the American people one is Mr.
Elihu Root, the other is Judge James B. Dill. Both of these men were attorneys drawing enormous salaries.

Mr. Root was one of the very foremost lawyers of the New York bar, with a practice, reputed by trustworthy authority, that netted him $200,000 annually.

Mr. Dill was author of the New Jersey corporation law, he drew up the charter for the steel trust, he commanded, by his power, recognition as one of the very best corporation lawyers in the whole country, and he was receiving the princely income of $300,000 a year.

Mr. Root has left his $200,000 salary and is receiving $8,000 as secretary of state. Mr. Dill has given up his income of $300,000 and is receiving $3,000 as a common judge.

Noble and unselfish men, you say.
Broad, unselfish men, you think them, but let us inquire into their motives.

In the three years distant political future Elihu Root sees a possibility for the materialization of that possibility he has working with him a power no less than the president of the United States and Secretary Taft. The possibility he sees is the presidency of the United States, and he has begun already to make himself sure for it.

There was no political motive to prompt the action of James B. Dill.
It was his love for state and country, his patriotism that prompted his action.

It is a magnificent picture, a man with a position like his, giving it up to become a common judge in order to do what he considered his duty to his community and to his fellows. It is a noble example, and if we could only follow it in the little things, if we could only give some more, even a little more, to the duties that we as citizens owe to our town, our county, our state and to our fellowmen, would we not make our state purer, and ourselves less subject to injustice.

Let us give more of ourselves to our state and to others, and watch and wait for the result.

IS IT ANY CLEANER.

Commenting upon churches accepting "tainted money" from John D. Rockefeller, a certain minister remarks:

"Is money taken from the people of political graft or commercial dishonesty any less 'tainted' than plunder secured by a pirate on the high seas?"

As we see it all churches stand for principle. If it doesn't stand for this it doesn't stand for anything.
The church must be better than the world, it must have principle to champion, high ideals to hold before men, holy inspiration to breathe into every man's soul, and if this is not practiced in all churches what use have we for them?

It comes down the pike now that a certain lady while eating ice cream at the luncheon in Vanderbilts dairy got part of her dress chawed off by a cow.

We have not heard of Mr. Root expressing himself as having made a great sacrifice in accepting the position of secretary of State. If he has there was no reason for it. Although he is a good and able man he is not the only prop this nation had to lean on. No not by a thousand Mr. Roosevelt is the only man we have heard of laying such stress on the fact that Mr. Root had made such a sacrifice.

It is said George Vanderbilt has grown sick of his experiment at farming and will let out that department of his Biltmore estate to tenants. Perhaps he went in on too large a scale for his experience.

The deeper the probing in the matter of jury tampering in the Gattis-Kilgo case at Raleigh, the uglier it looks.

The Winston man who has invented a shoe shining machine has struck the polish.

If Peary is anywhere near the North Pole he must be a mighty happy man.

Russia's envoys might first pick up the pieces before she tries to patch up a peace.

This is the kind that makes you wish for an ice factory.

Where Silence is Golden.

This story is illustrative of the absolute silence and loneliness of the typical Australian bush camp.

Two men were camping together, but rarely exchanged a word.

One morning one of the men remarked at breakfast: "Hear a cow bellow in the swamp just now?"

Nothing farther was said and they went about their business for the rest of the day. Twenty-four hours later, once more at breakfast, the second man said: "How d'you know it wasn't a bull?"

Again no comment. Again a pause of twenty-four hours. Next morning the first man began to pack up his "bill" and "swag."

"You going?" inquired the other.

"Yes."

"Why?"

"Because," said his friend "there's too much argument in this camp."

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N.
Dewey of Arnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

Certain physicians of the East are fixing to get into a whole lot of trouble if they have much more to say about the harm in hatpins.
They claim that the hatpin pulls at the roots of a woman's hair and therefore produces bad effects. If these doctors think that womankind is going to part with one of her best friends and protectors they reason poorly. The hatpin is here to stay, and the doctors who have taken the matter up might as well turn their thoughts to other things more easy of accomplishment.—Charlotte News.

Here, 40 years after the Civil

A good, valid pension is a better aid policy.—Baltimore Sun.

"The world is a rushing, pushing throng. Every one seems to be striving to get ahead. It is a sweetly comforting thought that the requirements of God are only according to as He has given us ability to do." Thus said John D. Rockefeller, at a Cleveland prayer meeting. It is a great thing to be able to find sweet comfort in thoughts that others might expect to cause discomfort.—New York American.

effective, and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments. I recommend it to my friends." Sold

While Rogers and Sorrell sweated in jail those "higher up" shivered in fear that the truth would out. So far they have escaped, but as sure as "murder will out" the sin of those who conceived the crime of corrupting the jury will be found out and they will stand exposed in their nakedness.—News and Observer.

BUCKHORN LITHIA WATER

Are You Suffering
From Indigestion, Constipation, or do you have any trouble with your Kidneys or Bladder if so Drink the Famouse Buckhorn Lithia Water.

ST. VINCENT HOSPITAL, NORFOLK, VA., May 11, 1905.
Buckhorn Water Co.
Henderson, N. C.

Gentlemen:—It gives me pleasure to state I have been using myself and prescribing for my patients the Buckhorn Lithia Water very freely for several months and I do not hesitate to recommend it in highest terms.
In lithaemia, in rheumatic and gouty conditions and in certain cases of constipation I have seen excellent results follow its use. It is an exceedingly pleasant drinking water.
Very truly,
R. L. PAYNE, M. D.

OUR GUARANTEE:
The shippers guarantee, that, of all the mineral waters so far known, this is the most powerful diuretic.
They will furnish a case of any other water, regardless of its reputation or price, and convince, by actual, practical, scientific comparison, that there is not a lithia water known to the public that will equal Buckhorn Lithia in uric acid diathesis.
R. H. HOOD.

This Water is on sale at J. A. RICKS & BRO.

FINGER RINGS.

Origin of Wearing Them Traced to Prometheus and the Rock.

In many lands and through many ages a ring has been the symbol of marriage. Young folk are seldom much in love with antiquities, but here is an exception to the rule, for there are few things older than the wedding ring, and in it young people have not yet lost their interest. There has been much outcry against rings politically, but here is the all dominating, all attractive, most influential of mergers and of all combinations the hardest to break.

Finger rings have been used as ornaments from the earliest times. There is a Greek story of the origin of their use. Jupiter chained Prometheus to a rock in the Caucasus, where a vulture preyed on his liver, which grew again each night. After 2,000 years of this chronic liver trouble Jupiter released him, but ordered he should wear on his finger an iron ring, having attached to it a piece of the rock, so that the deity might keep his oath of perpetual imprisonment; hence the use of rings of metal with jewels. Rings seem to have been among the first trinkets given and prized. They were tokens of trust, insignia of command, rank and honor, pledges of faith and alliance. They have also been badges of servitude, illustrating the proverb that extremes meet.

Pharaoh gave his ring to Joseph in token of delegated authority. The oldest rings now in existence came from Egypt, having been originally placed on the fingers of the dead. The most interesting ring in the world, at least to antiquarians, is the ring of Cheops, who built the great pyramid. It is of fine gold, weighing about the same as three five dollar gold pieces.

In early Roman times the ring was worn on the fourth finger of the left hand from a belief that a vein from it passed direct to the heart. An old Jewish legend tells us that Tubal Cain, the first of metal workers, made the first ring for his wife. The earliest marriage record of which we have an authentic record is mentioned in Scripture, where the shy and gentle Isaac placed a ring on the face—probably the nose—of the in nowise reluctant Rebekah. Isaac was always timid, and he would surely have managed the delicate matter more appropriately himself. —Chicago Chronicle.
