Bargains Never go Begging

Our bargains never go a begging, always a prompt, hearty response when the news gets abroad. The reason is that we are always careful to use the word "bargains" in its broadest and fullest sense. Bargains at this store do not mean special lots of cheap merchandise, bought for the purpose of advertising at a low price, but our offerings consist of regular goods from regular stock at reduced prices.

The buying public will not fail to note the difference. You are invited to make an investigation, note the prices and quality of the goods offered. They are all of a wanted summer nature, picked from various stocks to fit the needs of now. All summer goods have their orders to leave.

EPWORTH LEAGUE PARTY.

Interesting Program Rendered and Delicious Refreshments Served.

The Epworth League of Greenville Methodist church, gave a delightful entertainment to the members of the league and their visitors Thursday evening in the large tobacco warehouse of Messrs. Parham & Parham, on Dickson avenue. A very interesting and instructive program was rendered by the literary department, after which delicious refreshments were served by the social department.

The spacious warehouse had been brilliantly lighted by electricity for this occasion and settees, tables, and cozy corners were tastefully arranged. The rain in the early part of the evening caused a slight delay in the arrival of the league's and guests at the warehouse, but shortly after the appointed hour a very large percentage of the members and many visitors were seated around the tables engaged in interesting games and conversations, and the rain had only added enjoyment to the already enjoyable occasion, by cooling the atmosphere.

The program rendered by the literary department which is under the management of Miss Dora Hornaday, showed special care and preparation. The recitations were especially pleasing and the entire program was a rare treat. The contest of the evening consisted of questions on Methodism, and showed the league to be well posted on the fundamental principles of their church. The prize for the best list of answers consisted of an elegant box of candy, and was awarded to A. B. Ellington by Mrs. E. A. Moyer in her usual pleasing manner.

After the completion of the program the social department served delicious refreshments, consisting of the choicest delicacies. The committee on this department consisted of Mrs. E. A. Moyer, Miss Mamie Haskett, C. M. Jones and J. White. Mrs. Moyer, as chairman of the committee, is unsurpassed in her ability for making all feel at home, and had the hearty cooperation of each member of the committee in her successful efforts to make the occasion of Thursday evening one of the most pleasant in the history of the league.

The earnest efforts of our league officers and members have resulted in building up in Greenville one of the best chapters in the state and with the present manifestation of willingness and determination we predict great things for our Epworth League.

F. M. Hornaday, Corresponding Secretary.

Valuable Animals Die.

Tarboro, N. C., July 20.—Several valuable farm animals died here yesterday from sunstroke. G. T. Debray lost a horse and a mule. Capt. J. W. Day lost a horse and a mule, N. B. Dawson, of Conetoe, lost three of his team. The intense heat seems to have overcome them that when given water they died. Some of them had convulsions one after another until they expired. —Raleigh News and Observer.

They're Honest People.

Prof. T. M. Seawell taught school last spring in Pamlico county and one day while out driving in April he lost his watch on a public road and was unable to find it. Last week while on a visit down there he took a drive over the same road and found his watch in the sand in the public road where it had lain for three months uninjured and went to running when he wound it up. This is another streak of luck for Tom. —Moore County News.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., July 21, 1904

Mrs. W. J. Kittrell, after spending several days here with relatives, has gone back to Grifton, her home.

Master Preston Mumford who has been visiting his grandparents in the country for the benefit of health has come home very much improved.

There has been some hot weather down here, but we have been more fortunate than our sister towns, New York, Baltimore and other places. We have had no sunstrokes nor deaths. This is certainly a God blessed section in which we live.

A negro, Joe Holton on Saturday the 15th inst, went to the home of Ransom Dixon, where there were only three small children left in possession of the premises, and snatched a pistol at Mike Dixon, a lad 12 years of age, not satisfied with this he must needs try his unloaded rifle on the boy with the result of better success, the boy receiving a wound extending the length of the forefinger and the ball lodging up in the arm near the wrist, Mr. Holton is now rusticated behind the bars in shady seclusion at the sanatorium presided over by none other than our highly esteemed sheriff, L. W. Tucker, awaiting a reward justly merited from a higher tribunal and where no doubt for sometime to come pistols and rifles will play but a small part in his already checkered life.

A large crowd of negroes left here for Kinston Wednesday evening where they expected to go on the excursion to Raleigh from that point yesterday.

Misses Maud and Jessie Hodges have been here on a visit to their uncle, Stancill Hodge and left for House yesterday.

D. G. Gibb and Dr. L. C. Skinner returned from Morehead Tuesday morning.

Miss Alice Hodges, of Kinston, is visiting Miss Blanche Cannon.

C. L. Patrick went to Greenville Tuesday.

Mrs. O. C. Nobles and Mrs. J. B. Gardner spent the day in Winterville Wednesday.

George Dail, of Snow Hill, has been here during the week.

W. T. Lipscombe and son stopped here a short while Wednesday on their way to Seven Springs.

There was a picnic day before yesterday out at Bethany, a short distance from town, a large number of our young people attended and report a nice time.

Mrs. W. E. Hooks and children have come home from their visit to Winterville.

We saw a day ruse since in THE REFLECTOR that a certain citizen of Greenville had been sent to the roads for vacancy for 30 days. When we consider the fact of this man having been born and raised there and never in his life known to work, but unfortunate like many others, that now in his comparative old age, a physical wreck and perfectly harmless, we deem such treatment of him a shame, and we are yet to hear the first word of approval for this display of smart alecism.

The Masons held their regular semi-monthly meeting yesterday. Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Smith and Miss Smith, of Georgia, are visiting their brother and uncle, James Turnage, of Ormondsville. They got off the train here Thursday.

Sumrell & McLawhorn have moved into their new brick store on south side of Main street.

We are again indebted to our friend, J. A. Harrington, for some of those luscious, mouth melting, delicious peaches. He brought them in Thursday, and what a time to be sure; nobody present but me, Joe and our own sweet little self. It may look hogzish, yet it was a feast for ye saint's delight, and it was delight they were just good and we thank our friend. We ought not to say it, but we do hope he'll do it again.

The ball team left this morning to play the Ormondsville team on their ground. There's no question about its being a hot old game.

Prof. Allen Barwick, of Georgia, is here on a visit to his brother, J. F. Barwick.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

J. W. Allen went Raleigh today.

R. Greene, of Washington, came up Thursday.

Eugene Turner went to Ayden Thursday evening.

Fred Forbes returned Thursday evening from Wrightsville.

Mrs. T. E. Hooker and little daughter, went to Virginia Beach this morning.

Little Miss Malissa [Adelaide] Taft went to Henderson today to visit relatives.

Mrs. A. B. Ellington and daughters, Misses Bessie and Eloise, returned Thursday evening from a visit to Petersburg.

Rev. J. A. Hornaday and daughter, Miss Bernice, accompanied by Miss Mary Brown, left this afternoon for Beaufort.

Misses Margaret and Rue Clark, of Washington, who have been visiting Miss Julia Harris, returned home this morning.

Miss Bettie Russ and brother, Richard, of Raleigh, arrived Thursday evening to visit their father, Mrs. Elizabeth Swindell.

Mrs. H. P. Butler, of Elizabeth City and Miss Essie Albritton, of Bethel, arrived Thursday evening to visit their sister, Mrs. J. S. Keel.

TWO ROBBERIES.

The Dispensary and Railroad Depot Broken Into.

Sometime during Thursday night two robberies occurred in town, the dispensary and A. C. L. freight office being the buildings entered. As both buildings were entered in about the same way it is probable that both robberies were committed by the same parties.

The dispensary was entered by breaking out a panel of the back door. The only thing disturbed on the inside was the cash drawer, which was broken off, but as no money had been left in it the thief got nothing therefrom. No goods were missed, though if a few bottles had been taken the loss would be hard to discover.

At the A. C. L. depot the freight office was entered by breaking a panel of the door next to the railroad. Like at the dispensary, the only thing disturbed on the inside of the office was the cash drawer. This was broken off but no money had been left in it, so the thief made another empty haul. No goods were missed from the freight room.

It seems that in both these instances the thief was only hunting for money.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to return heartfelt thanks to the many friends who were so kind to us during the recent severe trial through which we passed in the death of our little daughter. The circumstances of separation surrounding us at the time made the exceeding kindness of these friends all the more appreciated, and through life we will not cease to feel grateful to each and every one.

MR. AND MRS. J. N. HART.

FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1905.

The heavy rains during the first two weeks of this month possibly damaged the corn crop 30 per cent and the cotton crop at least 20 per cent. Where the farmers have used manure and less commercial fertilizers, the crops are better.

The man in Maryland who got in trouble in which he got his nose cut off possibly is convinced of the fact that it don't pay to nose into other people's business.

We are still in favor of immigrants but if they are to come from the larger cities—cities which are glad to get rid of a certain class, then we don't want this kind.

Since Raleigh has cut out the hack drivers, she ought to have the trolley car line extended to the depot to accommodate the traveling passengers.

Russia seems to think it is kinder "improper" for Japan to take Sakhalin Island. No, it is not improper; it is just simply insulting—that's all.

Mr Bryan says the woods are full of Democrats. We do not say Mr. Bryan drove them there, but how then came them in the woods?

From the way mercury is acting there must be a little more room at the top.

The oath has been taken and we will now have some Root in the secretary of state's office.

South Carolina seems to be trying to dispense with her dispensary.

Seventy-five deaths from heat was the record in New York for one day.

Movement to Abolish Government Crop Reports.

Ever since the cotton report scandal was made public there has been more or less talk of a movement to discontinue the government reports altogether, and the Washington correspondent of the Birmingham Age Herald says when the agricultural appropriation bill is brought up in Congress this winter it will be the subject of lively debate, and that it is certain that a considerable number will advocate the discontinuance of cotton and other reports altogether. Continuing, the correspondent says: "A very determined effort has begun in New York for the discontinuance of all government crop reports. It is by no means confined to brokers. Commission merchants, among the oldest and most respected in the business, agree that the reports are inaccurate and are secured at an expense out of all proportion to their value. The agitation is directed largely against the cotton reports, but also comprises other crops. Since the Department of Agriculture began to gather these reports the opposition to them has been pronounced. Secretary Wilson, as well as the statisticians of the Department, have incurred the opposition of business houses in New York and elsewhere. This warfare has come to be of a permanent character with neither side having much regard for the opinions and efforts of the other. The strongest opponents of the present system are to be found in the ranks of the cotton men, 'bulls' and 'bears' and spinners' representatives alike expressing the opinion that at best the government reports are only estimated and that they are of no real benefit to the farmers of the country." It is likely that after the effect of the leak in the Agricultural Department blows over the opposition to reports on crops, as now made will diminish and the estimates continue to be issued. While at present, the government figures are somewhat at a discount, they have heretofore been regarded as the most accurate estimates available, just as government census figures are taken as the standard. If there is, as has been asserted, no reason for the government making these reports, they should be abolished, but the recently unearthed scandal in the Agricultural Department should have nothing to do with the matter, no more than should a scandal in any other branch of the government service operate to put that particular division out of business.—Charlotte Observer

A Worthy Colored Woman.

Colored people who think they have no showing in this country can learn something by the career of Marinda Mitchell, one of their race, whose remains were brought back here for burial today. She was an ordinary servant and received ordinary wages, but she saved something and invested it in real estate and was worth several thousand dollars.

When she took service with a family she made herself indispensable and she always had a place at an increased salary. She was never known to quit one place to accept another, a habit too prevalent with her race. In fact, the average servant is heard to say she would not live with one family longer than a few months. This class is usually in want, if not in life, then in death and half the time the public has to bury them.—Greensboro Record.

Generally the Case.

Maude is in the garden Culling pretty flowers; Grace is in the hammock Dreaming by the hours, Kate is by the brookside, Where it's nice and cool; (Kate is rather jaded From the grind at school) Nell is in the parlor Just to snatch a nap; Eva's on the front porch Flirting with a chap, Fannie's in the orchard, May is in the grove; Mother's in the kitchen With a red hot stove. —Houston Chronicle

A circular from Mr. T. K. Bruner, secretary of the State Department of Agriculture, says that reports received from 70 counties indicate a scarcity of labor and a desire to secure both tenants and shareholders. To aid in supplying this need the board of agriculture has authorized the department to undertake to secure immigrants for those who may apply, and for this purpose blanks have been prepared and will be forwarded to those who wish to engage labor, tenants or shareholders. Persons interested are asked to write the Department of Agriculture, Raleigh, after August 1st, next, for blanks on which to make formal applications for persons needed. It has also been arranged to list in the department forests, farms and mineral lands offered for sale in this State, and these lists will be printed and sent out with the literature of the department. Blanks for this purpose will also be supplied.—Statesville Landmark.

The last Legislature passed a law re-acting the construction of buildings and arrangements for fire districts in the towns of the State having more than one thousand inhabitants. The law while unquestionably passed at the request of the insurance companies or some of them doing business in the state, is a good one. Now the insurance companies should lower the very exorbitant rates they have been and are charging for carrying risks in the State. The premiums paid by the patrons in North Carolina of the companies is simply outrageous. While Mr. Young and the insurance department that he so ably presides over, is looking after the enforcement of the law, suppose he direct some of his energies along some channel that will bring us the relief mentioned above.—Rocky Mt. Record.

The directors of the North Carolina Railroad Company, at their meeting last week, increased the salary of their "expert railroad examiner" from three to five hundred dollars, and for this they have been much criticised and deservedly so. While this increase of $200 is a small sum yet the principle involved invites criticism. There is no suggestion even that the newly elected officer is any more competent than his predecessors or that his duties will be any more onerous than theirs. The truth is this position is a sinecure and is not usually filled by men who even pretend to be railroad experts, but is given as a matter of political or personal favoritism.—Chadborn Record.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory.

A PROMPT REPLY.

The Reward One Woman Got For Not Procrastinating.

It was a sad piece of news that the man brought home from Detroit. It concerned his wife's sister's family. He told it immediately after dinner. As he talked his wife rocked and fro on the sofa and cried and said, "Oh, dear; oh, dear!" "Now, mind you," said the man in conclusion, "not a word to a living soul about my telling you this. I am not supposed to know it. I only learned it by accident. Margaret would have a fit if she thought I even suspected anything. She will write you all particulars. In fact, I happen to know that she had written the letter before I left. You will probably get it tomorrow morning, and just as soon as it does come I want you to answer it. You know you have a reprehensible habit of putting off answering letters until they are six months old. You can't do that this time. Margaret needs sympathy, and you've got to write."

And the woman did write. She wrote that very night. She said: "Dear Margaret—Your letter received this morning. I grieve for you, dear sister, from the bottom of my heart. I am so glad that you have confided in me. Believe me, everything is safe with me. Not even to Henry shall I breathe a word of what you have told me."

The woman wrote four more pages, all in the same strain. When she had finished she said: "There! Henry can't accuse me this time of procrastination. I have answered that letter promptly enough to please even him."

The next morning while the woman was dressing her eye lighted upon the letter.

"No doubt I'll hear from Margaret in the first delivery," she thought. "I'll mail this now and give it a good start."

She stepped across the hall and dropped the letter into the mail chute. Then she began to look for the promised communication from Margaret. It did not come in the first delivery, nor the second, nor yet the third. In fact, it did not come until the end of the week, and then it gave the woman the shock of her life, for it said:

Your letter in reply to the note I had written, but later decided not to send, just received. I appreciate your sympathy and your promises of secrecy, especially your determination not to tell Henry. It is very sweet and thoughtful of you to keep the news from even him."

There was more of the letter, but the woman did not read it for several days. She was kept too busy formulating rules for the regulation of the future conduct of Henry.—New York Post.

Justified Alarm.
Very much excited and out of breath a young man who could not have been married very long rushed up to an attendant at one of the city hospitals and inquired after Mrs. Brown, explaining between breaths that it was his wife whom he felt anxious about.

The attendant looked at the register and replied that there was no Mrs. Brown in the hospital.

"Don't keep me waiting in this manner," said the excited young man. "I must know how she is."

"Well, she isn't here," again said the attendant.

"She must be," broke in the visitor, "for here is a note I found on the kitchen table when I came home from work."

The note read:
"Dear Jack—Have gone to have my kimono cut out.
ANNIE."

Vacation Granted.
The Methodist of Greenville have granted their pastor, Rev. J. A. Hornaday, a vacation of two weeks, commencing today. This was done at the church conference held last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Hornaday left today for Beaufort, where he will spend half his vacation. He will then go to the western part of the state and remain a week, returning to Greenville at the expiration of the two weeks absence granted him.

Diphtheria.
On Thursday Dr. J. E. Nobles, county superintendent of health, found a case of diphtheria in town. It is a child of Willis Clark, colored, who lives on the corner of First and Evans streets. The house was promptly quarantined and every precaution taken to prevent any spread of the disease.

Judge Purnell, of the United States District Court, has made some changes as to the Newbern and Washington divisions. By this change the Newbern division is composed of Craven, Pamlico, Carteret, Jones, Onslow, Lenoir and Greene counties, that part of Wayne east of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, and that part of Beaufort and Pitt counties, except Greenville, on the south side of Pamlico and Tar rivers. The Washington division is now composed of Hyde, Martin, Beaufort and Pitt counties north of the Pamlico and Tar rivers, including Greenville.
