A HUGE "BABY."

Tips the Scales at 337 Pounds

"There is a good sized baby at my house," remarked Superior Court Clerk D. C. Moore to the reporter this morning, there being a jovial twinkle in his eye as he spoke.

"Thought you had retired from that kind of business," replied the reporter with a bit of astonishment. "O! but this baby weighs 337 pounds," he added.

The astonishment was still greater until the judge went on to explain. He referred to J. B. Farmer, of Wilson, who is visiting him. Mr. Farmer is truly a giant in size and carries 337 pounds of avoirdupois around with him. He is also as jovial and good natured as he is large. Mr. Farmer is manager of the dispensary at Wilson and makes an excellent one.

AVON FARM CROPS.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

On the Avon farm, now owned by W. H. and S. T. White, is a scene to be delightfully enjoyed. W. H. White gives his personal attention to the large farm with its 200 acres in cotton, 375 acres in corn, and 30 or 40 acres in tobacco.

The Avon has been noted in days gone by—when Col. Joseph H. Saunders was the princely superintendent for William Grimes—and was the most valuable piece of property of a farm nature Mr. Grimes owned. Messrs. White have again gotten the farm in its pristine glory. There is a crop of great beauty on the place this year and Mr. White expects to harvest a bale of cotton to the acre and something like fifteen hundred barrels of corn.

Mr. White has used no commercial fertilizer except potash, and this with cotton seed meal he made from the farm, and he attributes much of the success of this year's crop to the fact of giving distance to the crop in the row, his cotton rows being 4 feet apart.

This shows the wisdom and good judgment of Mr. White in his management. We dare say there is not a more attentive and successful farmer. He is running forty-two plows on his several farms in the county, and is a first-class man and citizen in every respect. X.

Mrs. Hadley Entertains.

LaGrange, N. C., July 27.—A select company was entertained last evening by Mrs. G. W. Hadley, who gave a progressive fitch party at her beautiful and commodious home. The prize, a pair of ladies' gloves, was won by James Stanton on a cut and presented by him to Miss Glenn Forbes. The booby prize, a huge stick of candy, was won by Ed Sutton.

Those present were: Misses Parker, Higgs, Moyer, Bynum, Carrie Wooten, Charlotte Wooten, Belle Murchison, Glenn Forbes, Helen Forbes, Lizzie Jones, Bessie Kennedy, Eliza Kennedy, Messrs. Monk, Wells, Shade Wooten, Edwin Wooten, Ed. Sutton, Jack Perry, James Stanton, Jno. Burke, Robin Kinney, Mrs. J. M. Murchison, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Wilkinson, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. Langley, Messrs. Kirby Sutton, Flavius Allen and Dr. J. C. Greene.—Raleigh News & Observer.

Third Case of Diphtheria.

Physicians have pronounced that another child in town has diphtheria. It is a little son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Perkins, on Greene street. This is the third case that has been reported. As every precaution against the spread of the disease is taken, and the cases are very mild, there is no need of alarm. At the same time it is well enough for parents to be careful how their children run around.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., July 28, 1904

Thursday evening near Hanrahan, Mr. Absalom Williams and Mrs. Sarah Fleming were united in marriage by Eld. C. C. Bland.

Yesterday in this place Jacky Ann Patriek and William Henry King, colored, were married. The bride is 50 and the groom 72 years of age. The bride is a daughter of the notorious Ben Soon who before the war was a great terror through Eastern Carolina and upon whose head a price was set owing to numerous crimes committed by him, and who went to the Yankees at New Bern, where his offenses were reported, and those whom he sought as friends, had him arrested, tried, convicted and punished him with death on the gallows. We hope for the bride, however, a happier fate and may the groom too in his old age find and realize in his new made mate a solace and a comfort which none but the blessed can enjoy. The high and distinctive honor of uniting this aged couple was conferred upon J. M. Blow, Esq.

It is with sincere regret we write of the death of our friend, F. B. Tucker, late constable of Contentnea township. Of Mr. Tucker it can truly be said he was an excellent young gentleman, strictly moral and truth was one of the strong characteristics that went to make up the man. He was no extremist, but sincere and earnest in his friendships and as an officer he was painstaking and careful and in this particular his death is a great misfortune to our township. He had no enemies and his friends were numbered among all who knew him. We admired the man, we esteemed him highly and to us his demise is both pecuniarily and socially a sad blow. We extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy and assure them we believe their loss is his eternal gain. He was a good man.

An unusually large crowd went from here on the excursion to Norfolk Tuesday.

Mrs. C. E. Flynn with her children, who has been visiting her father, B. E. Early, here, has returned to her home, Old Point.

Hugh Parham, of Kinston, has been here during the week on business.

Mrs. Lula Stancill, of Washington, after a very pleasant visit here to the family of her father, E. S. Edwards, has gone home.

Miss Daisy Tucker, of near Greenville, has been visiting Miss Ida W. Edwards.

Look out for ten cent counterfeit pieces. J. J. Hines and others here have been taken in. The money is bright, a little heavier than the usual dime and bears dates from 1854 to 1901.

Mrs. Prince, of Parmele, has been here visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Smith.

Miss Rosa Bland returned yesterday from Kinston, accompanied by Miss Lizzie McGowan, of Greenville, who will spend several days with her.

A new telephone system, known as the Bell system, has been put in here. We believe their offices are over the store of Cannon & Tyson.

Mrs. A. W. Rouse and children are visiting Mrs. Julia Manning, sister of Mrs. Rouse.

H. A. White and David James, Jr., of Greenville, were here yesterday. The latter while here made a map of the town.

Monday week the county commissioners will have to appoint a constable for Contentnea township. We hope their selection may be a wise one.

J. J. Perkins spent Wednesday in Ayden. He came especially to see our town, and after riding all over the place he declares we have one of the prettiest, nicest and most progressive towns in Eastern Carolina. We enjoyed his visit very much and will be pleased to have him call again.

Miss Georgia Joyner, of LaGrange, after several days visiting friends in and around Ayden has returned to her home. She was accompanied by Miss Annie Edwards who will spend sometime with her and then visit friends in Kinston before her return home.

Miss Fannie Hardee, of Ormondsville, spent Wednesday night with Miss Ida Glenn Edwards and left yesterday for Winterville.

Mutual. Legal Reserve.

A Home Company conducted on a safe, economical basis in the interest of its policy holders. Why we can save you money.

The oldest companies have been on a 4 per cent. reserve basis for many years. Several of them have recently changed from a 4 per cent. basis to a 3 per cent. or 3 1/2 per cent. basis, on account of a decrease in interest rates. Probably 90 per cent. of all the outstanding business is now on a 4 per cent. reserve, only the new business being on a 3 per cent. or 3 1/2 per cent. reserve. Following are the rates of a few companies on the old and new basis:

Twenty-Payment Life. Age 35.

COMPANY	OLD RATE	NEW RATE	NEW RATE
	4 per ct.	3 1/2 per ct.	3 per ct.
New York Life	$35 00		$33 34
Equitable	35 00		33 34
Penn Mutual	34 21		37 25
Prudential	34 01		36 95
Mutual Benefit	33 97		36 22
Etna	31 97	$36 96
Mutual Life	35 00	36 87
North Western	34 91		37 80
Security Life & Annuity	32 60

The variation in rates of companies on the same reserve basis is due to difference in the amount added for expenses.

Every policy is registered and the full legal reserve deposited with the Insurance Commissioner.

BETTER HOLD IT AWHILE.

It is handed down now from high up that the penitentiary cleared one hundred and twenty thousand dollars last year over and above expenses, twenty thousand more than the authorities expected.

While we favor the reformatory idea, we would suggest that this extra sum be held so the penitentiary authorities will not have to borrow or ask for an appropriation in the near future because of discovery of a mistake in their calculations as to what profits the institution has made.

That the Japs are no fools becomes more pronounced every day. It has come to light that they do not want the Philippines, even if a bonus should be attached.

A New Jersey posse in pursuit of a negro murderer, surrounded him in a thick woods and set the woods on fire to smoke the negro out.

Japan will ask for an indemnity of about a billion dollars from Russia. When you think that the war has cost Japan a million dollars a day, the amount asked for does not seem so large.

You can't stop Asheville. She has opened her doors to the New Orleans yellow fever fugitives and sent them an invitation to come up to the mountains and escape the plague.

The steamer fitted up to take Peary on his arctic expedition is named the Roosevelt. Guess it has a big stick on the bow with which to break the ice.

Lawson is eager to take the West into his confidence. The West will be very wise, however, if she don't let Tom take her money also into his confidence.

Mr. Root is now favoring the precedent which was in vogue about seventy-five years ago, whereby the secretary of state shall succeed the president.

Put as much energy in work during the fall and winter as has been given to base ball in the summer, and there will be better times ahead.

The long-promised Charlotte hotel looks to be on the way. A contract has been let for one to cost $200,000. It will be called the Highlands.

Cotton leak fame Helms has not been bothered yet. It begins to look like he knows a little about "the man higher up."

It is said Premier Balfour refuses to resign. Acting just like some of our Americans.

Morton has been elected president of the Equitable. The little salary of $80,000 per year attached will probably enable him to keep fairly presentable.

Emperor William, it is said, will have Japan and Russia to understand that he has no advice to give away. Evidently he means to charge for it.

Might not be a bad idea for New Orleans to send representatives to Havana to learn how to stamp out yellow fever.

The political campaign in Norfolk is being enlivened by scraps between the candidates.

AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION.

The young men of North Carolina have unusual opportunities for education and training in agriculture. With the completion and equipping of the new agricultural building at the A. & M. College, Raleigh, N. C., the best of opportunities are provided for young men to secure a training in all of the lines of work dealing with farm life.

The college opens September 6, 1905. Scholarships and work to help pay the expenses are offered for the assistance of young men who are depending on their own resources.

Young men over twenty years of age are admitted to the two year course in agriculture without examination. Arithmetic, algebra, English composition and history are required for admission to the four year course in agriculture.

Further information and catalogue can be obtained by addressing the professor of agriculture, C. W. Burkett, West Raleigh, N. C.

Record of Cleveland's Cabinets.

Of the members of the two cabinets of President Grover Cleveland, only seven are now living and 14 are dead, as follows:

Living—John G. Carlisle, Don M. Dickinson, Hoke Smith, Judson Harmon, David R. Francis, Richard Olney and Charles S. Fairchild.

Dead—Daniel S. Lamont, Thomas F. Hayard, Walter Q. Gresham, Daniel Manning, William C. Endicott, Lucius Q. C. Lamar, William C. Whitney, Hilary A. Herbert, Norman J. Coleman, J. Sterling Morton, Wilson S. Bissell, William L. Wilson and Augustus H. Garland.—Philadelphia North American.

Chas. O. Haines, of the North Carolina & Ohio Railroad Company, which proposes to build a road from Washington, N. C., to Durham, is spending a day or two here, conferring with a number of capitalists who met him here. He says a surveying corps has already completed a survey from Washington to Greenville and is now working between Greenville and Newbern. The proposed route will be via Wilson and may include Raleigh. Within the next few days the aldermen of Washington will act on an application for right of way through certain streets to a desirable water terminal and much depends on the action they take.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live from One Hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of M. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says, "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

Senator Butler says the News is going to be a self-sustaining paper in a short time. Right along there, we believe, is where he is mistaken. We understand that it proposes to compete in some sense with the Charlotte Observer. That paper, we should think, gets away with about seventeen or eighteen hundred dollars a week. Say the News will expend about twelve hundred on that basis there will have to be some hard work done and done with surprising quickness if the News quickly becomes a "self-sustaining" institution.—Greensboro Telegram.

When e'er you feel an impending ill, And need a magic little pill, No other one will fill the bill Like Dewitt's Little Early Risers.

The Famous Little Pills, "Early Risers," cure Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, etc. They never gripe or sicken, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

Senator Simmons' position that the cotton estimates should not be discontinued because of the cotton scandal recently unfolded is exactly right. The Department should, as he says, be purged of those responsible for the leak. As to the actual value of the government's estimates we are not in position to speak, but their abandonment now would be a confession the United States government cannot clear itself of dishonest officials.—Charlotte Observer.

Buy It Now.

Now is the time to buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is certain to be needed sooner or later and when that time comes you will need it badly—you will need it quickly. Buy it now. It may save life. For sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

With Japan moving on Vladivostok in a business-like way and the Russians sending re-enforcements to Gen. Linevitch, it appears that neither side is willing to take anything for granted regarding the peace conference.—Charlotte Observer.

QUEER FRIENDSHIPS.

The Way Children and Snakes Play Together in Australia.

Children and snakes appear to get on well together in Australia. A writer in Chambers' Magazine, who lives in Sydney, says he has never heard in the bush of a snake biting a child, nor do the children show any fear of snakes. The bigger the snake the greater the joy in getting near to it and the stronger the desire to play with it. The snake's bright eyes and sinuous motion probably charm, and snakes, even the most vicious, respect the confidence. At Koondrook, a little settlement in Victoria, a woman heard her child, eighteen months old, laughing as if she was having great fun. The child was supposed to be asleep in bed. The mother went to the room and found the child scrambling over the bed after something she could not see. That happened several times. Once, however, the mother went in suddenly and heard something drop off the bed. Looking hurriedly under the bed, she distinctly saw a large snake that turned upon her with evident intention to fight.

When the husband came home he pulled up the boards of the floor, but there was no sign of the snake. Next day, however, snake and child were discovered lying together on the floor, the child asleep and the snake apparently so. That night the husband tried a plan. He placed a candle on the floor alongside the child and asked his wife to play a slow air on the harmonium. Movements of the snake could be heard, but the rustle was all he vouchsafed. Next night the child was similarly posted, and the mother tried the effect of working her sewing machine. The sound was too tempting. The snake wriggled to the child with alacrity and was promptly dispatched by the father. It was a tiger snake nearly five feet in length and when killed was fondled by the child as an old acquaintance.

Different Views of It.

"What is the secret of success?" asked the magazine.

"To write," said the pen.

"Be progressive," said the euchre pack.

"Be exact and on time," said the clock.

"Be careful not to break your word," said the typewriter.

"Don't be afraid to strike when you find your match," said the lamp.

"Push and pull," said the door.

"Stand firm and unyielding," said the flagstaff.

"Don't change with every wind that blows," said the weather vane.

"Never become dull and rusty," said the hoe.

"Climb steadily up," said the hill.

"Keep bright and don't mind the clouds," said the sun.

"Cultivate a calm exterior, but be ready for emergencies," said the innocent flower; "even I always carry a pistol."—Nellie Munson Holman in Success.

An Unhappy Comment.

"It seems to me that you can be depended on to say the wrong thing more than any other man that I know."

"What have I done?"

"Insulted the Bliggins family."

"Why, I tried to compliment them."

"You said that their baby, who hasn't any hair, looked exactly like its father."

"Yes."

"Well, Bliggins is insulted on his own account, and his wife is insulted on behalf of the baby."

Jim Crow Cars.

Following the lead of other progressive cities of the South, Asheville will shortly, it is believed, have a "Jim Crow" street car law that will compel the negroes, who patronize the street cars of the city, to ride on seats set apart for that race. The question of separating the negroes from the whites on the street cars has been discussed in an informal manner by members of the board of aldermen and citizens who are urging the adoption of such an ordinance and it was stated Monday that the matter will, in all probability, take definite shape in the near future.—Asheville Citizen.

Relic of Last Century.

In looking over some old papers Col. I. A. Sugg found a relic that reminded him of by-gone days. It was a Confederate bond for $1,000, which he says is one of fifty that he purchased before he was 15 years old. These bonds were issued by act of congress of the Confederate states in 1863 and were payable in 1868, but of course the result of the civil war made them valueless. Col. Sugg has had his framed to preserve it as a relic.
