Ladies in Burning Launch.

Newbern, Aug 5.—A party of ladies had a narrow escape from death by drowning here today. They were on a pleasure trip in a gasoline launch and were going to Wilkinson's Point on the Neuse river. They were Mrs. William Haar, Mrs. Frank Duffy, Misses Adelaide, Irene and Thelma Peck, Nettie Fowler and her niece, Carol Daniels. Dr. Ward was the only man on board. The cause of the accident was the striking of a match by Dr. Ward to light his cigar. Throwing the match down in the bottom of the boat. It ignited the gasoline and the whole boat was immediately ablaze. Dr. Ward shouted to them all to jump and four ladies obeyed, Mrs. Haar and the Misses Peck. The cork cushions were thrown to the ladies to keep them afloat, which they used. Miss Adelaide Peck nearly drowned but the others in the water suffered no particular danger, being rescued shortly. Mrs. Duffy, Miss Fowler and her little girl, Carol Daniels, remained in the boat. The little girl was badly burned on one limb. Other injuries were only superficial. The entire party was saved by a negro who was fishing near by.—Charlotte Observer.

The Detention of Letters

Goldsboro, N. C., August 7th.—There was tried this morning before United States Commissioner, Hugh Humphrey, Samuel W. Scarborough, who was charged with the violation of section 38-81, revised statutes of the United States, also section 1605, postal laws and regulations of 1902. He was a rural route carrier from Kinston and charged with detaining letters addressed on August 3, 1905, to Mr. J. Hill, of Lenoir county. The government not being ready for trial on account of absence of witness, the commissioner continued the case until August 15, requiring the defendant to give bond in the sum of $300.00. The warrant was sworn out against defendant by H. Buck, a postoffice inspector. Bond was given and the defendant was discharged from custody.

Cotton Expert Appointed

Washington, Aug. 7.—P. L. Hutchins, formerly chief chemist of the state board of agriculture of Louisiana, who is regarded as an expert in cotton statistics, has been appointed by Secretary Wilson to the position of traveling inspector of the agricultural department in the cotton district, with the understanding that he will perform duty on the cotton crop estimating board when called upon to do so.

Steamboat Sunk.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 7.—With two hundred persons on board, many of them children, the pleasure boat Sunshine, which plies on the White river above Broad Ripple, went down this afternoon in fourteen feet of water, causing a panic, but so far as known not resulting seriously. Five persons were injured and a dozen or more are missing, but it is not certainly known that any lives have been lost.

Did the Work.

A traveler put up for the night at the leading hotel in a small town, and before retiring left very particular instructions to be called in time for an early train. Early in the morning he was disturbed by a lively tattoo upon the door. "Well!" he demanded sleepily. "I've got an important message for you!" replied the bellboy.

The traveler was up in an instant, opened the door, and received from the boy a large envelope. He tore it open hastily, and inside found a slip of paper, on which was written in large letters, "Why don't you get up!"—Seattle Union-Record.

Young Acquitted

Dunn, N. C., Aug. 7.—The warrant against E. F. Young, charging him with forgery, was dismissed by Justice J. R. Godwin, upon the uncontradicted testimony of the state's witnesses today, the court finding no probable cause to sustain the charge. A large crowd had assembled to witness the trial and hear the argument of counsel, and a spontaneous outburst of applause greeted the magistrate's decision. Ex-Governor Aycock, W. A. Stewart and J. C. Clifford represented the defendant, and Godwin & Davis and H. L. Godwin the prosecution.—Raleigh Post.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Aug. 8, 1905.

Miss Helen Quinerly came home Friday from a visit to Grifton.

Miss Lizzie McGowan after spending the past week with Miss Rosa Bland has returned to her home in Greenville.

The board of road supervisors met Saturday and had a big day.

B. B. Jones came in Saturday evening and before J. J. Stokes Esq., entered into a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance at the next term of court to answer the charge of killing a small negro boy the day previous.

John S. Hart and Alf Harrington have been to Greenville once more.

The complaint among our farmers regarding the damage of crops is really distressing. If one half that is told is true, unless there are exceptional fine prices the coming season, conditions will be deplorable indeed.

We might say to the candidates who got left, don't despair, another day will come bye and bye. Cheer up boys.

John Stokes and family are stopping at Hotel Tripp.

Miss Annie Edwards who has been visiting LaGrange and Kinston has come home.

We hope those of our friends who appreciate our items from this point will pardon their scarcity in this issue as we have been very sick and unable to attend to business for nearly the whole of the past week.

The colored teachers' institute opened here Monday. We have been informed right many of the teachers have arrived and there are bright indications of a large attendance. They have some of the very best educators in the state employed to conduct it.

Sunday they tell us, was a dull day in town, there were no services in any of the churches.

There are right many strangers visiting friends in Ayden, but owing to our recent illness we have been unable to learn their names, hence our failure to note.

J. W. Taylor, wife and child have returned home. Mrs. Taylor and child have been visiting her parents, while Mr. Taylor has been taking a special course in optics in Philadelphia for the past month.

Everybody is glad to see Willie back, especially Foa Jenkins.

A D Johnston and J. L. Hodgson made us a pleasant call Saturday. We regret being unable to entertain as we would have liked to.

Dr. Dixon is a good doctor, but he does give some bad medicine.

W. J. Boyd, of Edwards, is here visiting relatives.

Mrs. Marcellus Bedard went to Greenville yesterday.

W. C. Hemby, of Winterville, was appointed last Monday constable of Contentnea township to succeed the late Fernando B. Tucker. If Mr. Hemby succeeds near so well as Mr. Tucker he will surely prove an efficient and faithful officer.

We don't believe in carried over goods. They've a poor claim for patronage.

Whas would you think if next year you bought a Shirt from us identical to the one some fellow got this season? You'd feel pretty cheap, wouldnt you?—and you wouldn't have a very good opinion of us. Now to obviate things of this sort we are willing to accept a loss—a most severe one. Hence this

The Security Life and Annuity Company Mutual. Legal Reserve.

A Home Company conducted on a safe, economical basis in the interest of its policy holders. Why we can save you money.

The oldest companies have been on a 4 per cent. reserve basis for many years. Several of them have recently changed from a 4 per cent. basis to a 3 per cent. or 3 1/2 per cent. basis, on account of a decrease in interest rates. Probably 90 per cent. of all the outstanding business is now on a 4 per cent. reserve, only the new business being on a 3 per cent. or 3 1/2 per cent. reserve. Following are the rates of a few companies on the old and new basis:

COMPANY	OLD RATE	NEW RATE	NEW RATE
New York Life	4 per ct.	3 1/2 per ct.	3 per ct.
Equitable	$35 00	35 00	$38 34
Penn Mutual	35 00	34 21	37 25
Prudential	34 01	33 97	36 95
Mutual Benefit	33 97	31 97	36 22
Aetna	31 97	35 00	36 96
Mutual Life	35 00	34 91	37 60
North Western	34 91	32 60
Security Life & Annuity	32 60

The variation in rates of companies on the same reserve basis is due to difference in the amount added for expenses. Every policy is registered and the full legal reserve deposited with the Insurance Commissioner.

BOYCOTT CONTINUES

The guilds of China, who control the trade of that country, continue to boycott American goods, regardless of Mr. Roosevelt's assurance of better treatment of the Chinese travelers. The assurance is all well enough, but they want to see it put into operation. The decision of the Supreme court that a Chinaman born in this country has no country is a grave blunder.

There was a Chinaman who lived in this country by name of Lee, of course, who had adopted American costumes and customs, could speak the language, and had become very prosperous, was a member of the Presbyterian church. But it was discovered that he was not regularly admitted into this country according to the requirements of the law and was arrested and deported back to China.

This man Lee will have a story to tell in which it will be seen that he had anything but a square deal.

The two regiments of the state guard recently in camp at Wrightsville, got some praise for exhibiting better conduct than usual, but the two regiments now in camp at Charlotte are kicking up such devilment that the mayor and police have been called on to stop it. Looks like they get some tough characters mixed up with the state guard and this character becomes most prominent when they get away from home.

We used to tell our children if they would be good little boys they would be president some day but if they were bad little fellows they would go to the bad place. But ways as well as things have changed and if they act bad now they are liable to grow up and drift into the United States senate.

The Russian and Japanese ambassadors are now at Portsmouth, N. H., where the peace negotiations are to take place. So we will have the war on this side of the pond for the time being and more interest will center there than in the actual combat in the East.

Once a year when the 8th of August rolls around the editor is reminded that he is one year older. We used to think that these years came around so slow, while now it seems that the speed of eagle's wings is with them. We are yet young though.

The president preached a lay sermon at Oyster Bay, Sunday night, just read the Scriptures and made a little talk, and an account of it filled much space in the Monday morning papers. The press dispatches had to tell about something.

Seaport towns a long ways off from the seat of the yellow fever are quarantining. But there is no telling where the scourge might strike, and there is an old saying that "an ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure."

New York does not feel the most comfortable over the yellow fever situation. Among the suspects held there in the detention hospital three cases of the scourge have developed, two of them resulting fatally.

Capt. Evan P. Howell, of Atlanta, father of Clark Howell, editor of the Constitution, died Sunday. He was a prominent Confederate soldier, and an active business man since the war.

If loafers and persons having no business there were not allowed to congregate around the depot at train time, such an occurrence as was witnessed there Monday morning could not take place.

There is one thing you can say, and that is that there has been great weight added to the cabinet by the accession of Secretary Bonaparte—he weighs just 300 pounds.

If there were shops where damaged reputations could be rebuilt and made to look as good as new, some of the Equitable gang would be happy men.

For several days past the weather bureau has been promising showers that have not come. They may hit it right after a while.

Some of the Equitable officers might be granted leaves of absence while they serve terms in the pens.

Chartered Pullman is a Costly Luxury.

To carry four persons to Indianapolis the Southern yesterday afternoon dispatched by the afternoon train for the West a Pullman sleeper.

The car was chartered to carry a sick lady to her home. She is Mrs. Levi, who has been at the Battery Park Hotel, and she was accompanied by her husband, physician and nurse.

The cost of this transportation was $360. When a Pullman car is chartered it is necessary for the person engaging it to pay eighteen fares. Eighteen was the capacity of the original Pullmans, and this rule was made because it was reasoned that one who wished the exclusive use of the car should pay what the company might obtain for seats if they were sold separately. Although the modern Pullmans carry twenty-four or more persons, the charter price has not been increased.—Asheville Citizen, 5th.

Original Observations.

Stealing a kiss is simply a misdemeanor.

It takes a good farm and an industrious farmer to raise a mortgage.

It is gratifying in the extreme to have some people for your enemies.

No use to attempt to commit suicide in the old way—just hire an automobile.

When marriage brings a woman to the wash tub she has a right to call it a labor union.

The difference between charity and reform is that charity sometimes begins at home.

For every man who is willing to lift, you will find a dozen willing to stand by and grunt.

One reason why the devil succeeds so well is because he always selects such hustling advance agents.—Orange, Va., Observer.

One day last week the Southern Railway ticket agent at Morganton took in six hundred dollars for tickets from parties who were leaving that section to make their homes in the far West. That is the saddest piece of news that has appeared in these columns this year. A few of them will succeed better than at home and write back glowing letters. Most of them will fail. All of them will lose the sweetness and happiness that belong to the scenes of one's early life.—Raleigh News and Observer.

It is said that Secretary Bonaparte has ruled that no man in his department shall be dunned during business hours. If that should become a universal custom it will bid fair to break up the regulation of work hours by labor unions.—Raleigh Post.

The leak in the cotton statistics, according to Secretary Wilson, was discovered because "two gamblers in New York got into a quarrel over a woman." There is always a close connection between cotton and calico.—Washington Post.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.) (Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

LIFE IN ICELAND.

No Liquor Made There, No Jails and Only One Policeman.

There are no factories in Iceland. Each home is a factory and every member of the family a hand.

Shoes are made from goatskins. The long stockings worn over these in wading through the snow are knitted by the women and children, and even the beautiful broadcloth comes smooth and perfect from the hand loom in every house.

The sweet simplicity of their national costume does away with the necessity of fashion books. Young girls who are about to be married need take no thought as to "where-withal shall they be clothed." When they array themselves in the wedding garments of their ancestor, two or even three generations remote, they are perfectly up to date in the matter of attire.

This simple life is conducive to a state of high morals, higher probably than in any other part of the world. There is not a drop of liquor manufactured on the island, and for the 78,000 population there is but one policeman. There is neither a jail nor any place of incarceration for criminals, nor yet is there a court in which a high crime could be tried.

The percentage of crime is so small that it does not warrant the expense of keeping up a court. When a criminal trial becomes necessary the offender is taken to Denmark to answer to the law for his misdeeds.

The women are among the most advanced in the world. Their Woman's Political league has a membership of 7,000, and they enjoy more civil rights than the women of almost any other country, having a voice in all elections save that for members of their legislative body.—Pilgrim.

A Misunderstanding.

"Mr. Tompkins," said the lawyer for the defense, "you have sworn to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Now answer me this question: 'Were you ever in jail?'"

"Y-e-s."

"Don't be so slow about it. Were you ever in jail for thirty days?"

"Yes, sir."

"That's better. What were you there for?"

"On account of a misunderstanding."

"Come, now, no quibbling. What was it for?"

"For refusing to support my wife."

"Ah, we have it! You refused to support your wife, did you, and the law stepped in and—"

"But I say it was a misunderstanding."

"How?"

"Why, up to the time I was sent to jail I hadn't got it figured out whether I married my wife to be supported by her or she by me."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Maine Legend.

One of the legends of Searsport, Me.: A man named Harrison was much bothered by bears that invaded his planted fields. Meeting a neighbor one day, he applied to him for advice as to what could be done to keep them out. The neighbor replied:

"Bears are fond of molasses. You just make a trough and fill it with molasses and rum and put it where they come into your field, and they will drink it for the sake of the molasses, and the rum will make them drunk, so you can go in the morning and knock them on the head."

Mr. Harrison followed this advice and went to the field the next morning. There he found, not a bear, but his neighbor drunk.

He Needed a Doctor.

A pastor in a New Hampshire village was the owner of a swift and spirited horse. On one occasion, says the Boston Herald, while he was driving through the village he overtook the local physician on foot.

"Jump in, doctor," he said, pulling up. "I've got a horse here that goes pretty well."

The doctor jumped in and the parson drove off. The horse did go well in the sense of speed, but in a little while it began to behave badly and ended by tipping over the carriage and spilling out both the occupants.

The doctor jumped to his feet and felt himself all over to see if he was injured. The parson also got to his feet.

"Look here!" exclaimed the doctor. "What do you mean by inviting me to ride behind a horse like that?"

"Well, you see," gasped the parson, "luckily this time I guess there are no bones broken, but on such occasions I like to have a doctor along."

They Agree.

Mrs. Breeze—I am so sorry, DeJia, to hear that you have had trouble with your husband.

Mrs. Geeze—You have been misinformed, Amelia; merely a little disagreement. You know married people cannot always agree.

Mrs. Breeze—Can't they? Well, we always agree. In fact, I make it a point to see that we do agree, or, rather, that John agrees with me, which amounts to the same thing.

Always Has Something

New to Show You

But new things never find a place with us until they have earned recognition by their merit. We like our friends to FEEL safe and BE safe in every transaction. No experimenting at their expense. Now, however, after the most careful scrutiny, we are pleased to offer which is a real innovation, and comes to us bearing the seal of approval, it being recommended by New York's most famous dressmakers and it actually disposes of some grave corset difficulties. The name almost lets the cat out of the bag, but one glance will tell any corset wearer the whole story. No matter what corset you wear this new corset will interest you, and we hope you will come and look. Among the many fine models you will find just what you want, and, like the little girl in the book, "you'll be happy ever after."

Colton's Invisible Lacing Corset

No Truth in Report.

Capt. J. M. Turner, president of the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad, said last night that the report that has been floating around through the eastern part of the state that the Raleigh and Pamlico Railroad had been sold to the Atlantic Coast Line is utterly without foundation. The work, he says is progressing very well, a large force of convicts being engaged grading the road. More than ten miles of the track is laid and a material train is being operated.—Raleigh Post.

Pleasure Ahead.

Otto Henningsmeyer, general manager of the Imperial Entertainment Co., spent today here arranging for the appearance of his company in Masonic temple opera house on the 18th. The company comes highly recommended as one of the best on the road and there is an evening of rare pleasure in store for all who attend the entertainment.
