SAM SLAUGHTER CAUGHT.

Both Brothers of Newman Slaughter Now in Jail.

Sam Slaughter, the other brother of Newman Slaughter, who helped him to escape from the officers at the depot Monday morning, was arrested early Wednesday night and placed in jail. One of the brothers, Ham, was arrested Monday morning immediately after the escape.

Information came to the officers Wednesday evening that Sam had been seen to get on the passenger train at Parme and ride on the steps of the coach as far as House where he got off. It was anticipated that he would come in town after night, so the officers planned at once to capture him. Policeman G. A. Clark took a posse and went to guard the county bridge, while Deputy Sheriff S. I. Dudley with a posse guarded the railroad bridge. It was not long after night before Sam came along on the railroad bridge. When he reached where the officers were in waiting he was suddenly surprised with several guns pointing at him and the order "hands up." The order was promptly obeyed and Sam was escorted to the jail and locked up.

While the officers were guarding the bridges some negroes in town got an inkling of what was going on, and two or three attempted to get across to warn Sam, but the officers would not let them pass.

The escaped prisoner, Newman Slaughter, the one wanted in New Jersey, is still at large.

CLAUDE BERNARD RETURNS.

Gave $5,000 Bond at Raleigh Yesterday—State Fair.

Raleigh, N. C., August 8.—Claude M. Bernard, ex United States District Attorney, returned to Raleigh (this morning after five weeks voluntary exile from the state. He was accompanied by E. A. Lackey, a wealthy distiller of Hamlet. They went immediately to the office of Attorney W. N. Jones, where a deputy sheriff was in waiting, and Bernard accepted service and gave a $5,000 bond in the suit brought against him by H. C. Howell for $20,000 damages for the alleged seduction of Howell's minor daughter, Bertha.

There was no demonstration against Bernard, and he spent part of the afternoon in his office here. His bondsmen are E. A. Lackey, John Nichols, H. E. King and T. F. Brockwell, the last three of Raleigh.

The return of Bernard is another chapter in the tragedy which occurred here June 21st, when Policeman Rogers shot and seriously wounded John C. Dockery, because Dockery and Bernard had accompanied the daughters of Rogers and Howell to a house of ill fame. Rogers has been released on a $5,000 bond and will have a hearing August 16th. Bernard, it is said, was anxious to be here before that hearing. The lawyers for Bernard are W. N. Jones and ex-Governor C. B. Aycock.

B. Frank Mebane, the wealthy cotton manufacturer of Spray, N. C., has accepted the place as chief marshal of the state fair here October 16th to 21st, which will be attended by President Roosevelt. Mr. Mebane is a friend of the president and was a delegate to the last National Republican convention.

Be Ready for Him

Frank Wilson announces his fall exhibit of tailoring fabrics elsewhere in this issue. Their system of to order tailoring is growing more popular year by year. Through their arrangement with the famous tailoring house of Schloss Bros. & Co., of Baltimore, the latter firm sends one of their most experienced cutters and fitters each year with an enormous variety of fall and winter patterns to select from, any of which will be cut to order. The prices they ask are low, the best material and workmanship is used and a perfect fit is assured. The cutter will be here on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 14, 15, 16.

Archbishop Chapelle Dead.

New Orleans, Aug. 9.—Archbishop Chapelle, who was stricken with yellow fever last Friday, died this afternoon. It had been thought that the crisis of his illness was past, but today he took an alarming change for the worse, and his physician, Dr. Larne, hurriedly called a consultation of other doctors. Their labors were fruitless.

THE WEATHER

Showers tonight and Friday.

BEST ON THE ROAD.

Sensation of the Twentieth Century.

The Imperial Entertainment Co., that will appear in the Masonic temple opera house on the 18th, comes with the highest testimonials from the press and clergy throughout the country. They have been playing a summer stand at Wrightsville beach where the show was visited by thousands of people, and are now on the way North, stopping at a few select towns enroute.

This company is the originator of singing and talking life motion pictures, and this feature has made it famous throughout the country. You not only see the pictures but you also hear the sounds which belong to the original scenes, giving the reproduction exactly as in life. Do not miss this select entertainment, if you do you will regret it.

Russians Forced to Retire.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 9.—A dispatch from General Linevitch, dated yesterday, says that a Russian force operating east of the Mandarin road, advanced August 5 to near the village of Chagon, south of Taulu. The Japanese thereupon resumed the offensive and turned both flanks of the Russian force, obliging it to retire northward.

The Women's Missionary society of the Baptist church will meet at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon at the church.

Woman Murdered

Last night, a few minutes before 12 o'clock, Alice Owen, a white woman who lives at a house of ill fame on Eighth street between Church and Castle, was shot and instantly killed by Thomas E. Lamb, a young white man from Florence, South Carolina. Lamb claims that the shooting was accidental, but several witnesses say that he did the shooting in a deliberate manner and that there was no accident about it.—Wilmington Messenger.

Unlawful to Kill Squirrels.

Pitt is one of the counties included in the law enacted by the legislature of 1903 in which it is unlawful to hunt, shoot or kill squirrels between the first day of March and the first day of November. The penalty is a fine not exceeding $10 or imprisonment not more than ten days.

Prices Continue Good.

The tobacco warehouses are having good sales, the quantity coming in increasing as the season grows older. It is noticeable that prices continue good, and this is what pleases the farmers best. The Greenville market has good warehousemen and a good force of buyers, and all are interested in seeing this the best market in the state.

J. B. Cherry & Co. have an interesting talk about shoes in their large ad. today.

The Chance of the Season to obtain high-class merchant tailoring, equal to the swellest New York tailor's work, right here in town at reasonable cost!

We shall hold an exhibition of Fall and Winter Styles and Faqrics, at our store, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 14, 15 and 16.

These are in almost endless variety and come from the famous Wholesale Tailoring House of Schloss Bros. & Co., of Baltimore & New York.

This grand array of stylish patterns will be in charge of an expert Cutter and Fitter (from the above-named house) who is an authority upon all matters pertaining to Correct Dress for Men and the most appropriate style.

You would do well to consult him, even if you do not intend to buy, as there is no better way of keeping in touch with the coming fashions.

If desired, he will take your measure and order your selection made up by Schloss Bros. & Co. Besides the certainty of fit, quality and style, every one of their garments has that clean-cut look of finish and distinction that only the best of metropolitan tailors can produce.

I have arranged for the Cutter to bring the garments back basted up and have them fitted to the customer before finishing.

The prices asked are not high,—$20 to $35 will pay for an excellent Suit or Overcoat.

Don't forget the date,—Mon. Tues. & Wed. 14, 15, 16

FRANK WILSON.

That martin shooting in the hotel grove on Wrightville sound has resulted in a clash between the board of health and game warden of New Hanover county. The board of health held a meeting at which the county physician stated that the appearance of the birds in such large numbers at the place in question was a menace to health, whereupon the owner of the premises was given permission to have the nuisance abated. The game warden forthwith gave notice that he would have prosecuted every person found killing the birds. We do not believe he could secure a conviction under these circumstances before any court in the state.

Another craze over the supposition that pirate Teach buried a lot of money and valuables somewhere along the banks of the Pasquotank river early in the last century has broken out among the people of that section, and they have gone to digging up the country in the hope of finding the treasure. The same amount of digging in a potato patch would pay better.

The government department of justice has started out to make a searching investigation of the whiskey frauds and collusion of revenue officials in Western North Carolina. If the investigation goes to the bottom there will be a shaking of bones among the said officials.

A strike involving twenty thousand iron workers is on at Cleveland, and the result will be more heavy losses from idleness.

Expert Snow has announced that he believed the wheat crop would be fully 725,000,000 bushels. This is 170,000,000 more than last year. In addition to this Canada will have a crop of 70,000,000. Thus the world can count on almost 800,000,000 bushels of wheat in North America. This will be the greatest crop in the history of the continent. In 1901 the wheat crop in the United States was 748,000,000, but Canada produced a very small crop.

Corn also promises to make a record this year, some estimates putting the yield at 2,800,000,000 bushels when harvested.

The cotton crop is menaced by disaster. Private reports from the South are so bad that they are being withheld from publication until large operators can take their positions in the market. The present heaviness of the cotton market is admitted by most observers to be manipulated in the interests of operators who have sold out and want to accumulate a line of long contracts. Some reports place the total yield for the year as low as 9,000,000 bales, but hesitate to make the announcement publicly, lest it be considered too sensational.

They are after Mr. Simmons again. The Charlotte Observer tells of a man who thinks the senior senator is a dead weight to the Democratic party and that his leadership should be ended as speedily as possible. However, it is notable that the gentleman didn't permit his name to be mentioned and this is not at all to his credit, whoever he may be. Nor is Mr. Simmons likely to be damaged much by the criticism of men who decline to make known their identity.—Greensboro Telegram.

We could never understand why counties that do not feel able to build a mile of good road can give railroads thousands upon thousands of dollars.—Durham Herald.

A GORGEOUSLY CHARMING HOUSE PARTY OF FAIREST WOMEN AND GALLANT MEN.

Reported for REFLECTOR.

At the home of those two resplendent and fascinatingly charming Southern girls, Misses Pattie and Sidney Davenport, in Pactolus, on Wednesday, the 2nd of August, the most gorgeous, charming and enjoyable house party ever known in that section was given and delightfully enjoyed until the wind up Tuesday night with a dance and German given by the young men at Parker's X Roads. Words cannot convey a glimpse of the "many and muchness" of the happy occasion. It was a fete of great dazzling magnificence and how well Misses Pattie and Sidney Davenport can entertain is only appreciated by those who were the participants.

The home of Mr. J. R. Davenport, one of the most successful and hospitable citizens in the state, father of the Misses Davenport, was lavishly and beautifully decorated and illuminated, and the dainty handiwork of these two fairest of the fair young women could be seen and enjoyed, for it was their house party which means all that the taste of the most fastidious could comprehend and appreciate, and they are fair daughters of the grand old county of Pitt. The participants were Miss Lazina Moore, of Grimesland, Misses Blanche Mayo and Mattie Grimes, of Bethel, Miss Mary Taylor, of Tarboro, Miss Annie Fleming, of House, Miss Ruth Barden, of Edenton, Miss Sophia Jarvis, of Greenville, Misses Lucius and Geb Davenport, of Speed.

Many young gallants were constantly on hand to pay court to the fascinating and beautiful array of loving Southern womanhood. The pleasures enjoyed beside the refreshing beauty of everything surrounding this lovely home, consisted of morning Germans, watermelon parties, hay rides, euchre parties, light lunches, too numerous to mention. After the dance and German at Parker's X Roads this gay party returned to Pactolus where a midnight lunch was served which was attended by a number of young gallants from Greenville and the community around Pactolus.

All hands joined in praise of the splendor and magnificence of the Misses Davenport for the many thoughtful and dainty pleasures they had so beautifully and bounteously prepared for their guests. Lovely, charming hosts—happy, happy guests. Bless the dear women. What would the world do without them?

An idea of what has to be endured sometimes in dealing with labor unions is shown by an incident which occurred in Greensboro the other day. It seems that the plumbers' union has a regulation which prohibits any member of the union riding a bicycle to or from the shop to a job of plumbing on which he may be engaged. Mr. Ed. Albright, who runs a plumbing shop, wanted one of his men to hurry to a job in an emergency case and in order to make speed wanted him to ride a bicycle. The union by-law was called up. Mr. Albright insisted that he had a right to make the request and enforce it, and seven men quit work and walked out. The reason for the regulation prohibiting the plumbers' riding a bicycle is not given, but it is supposed that anything that will hurry work along is objected to.—Statesville Landmark.

The preliminary report of Commissioner Yerkes, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, shows that the receipts from all internal revenue sources during the year ended June 30, 1905, amounted to $234,187,675, an increase as compared with the fiscal year 1904 of $1,284,195,439. The following shows an increase over 1904 as follows:

Spirits, $135,958,513, increase $148,497;	tobacco, $45,659,910 increase $1,004,101;
fermented liquors, $50,360,553, increase $1,277,094;	oleomargarine, $805,478, increase $121,381;
adulterated butter, $3,938, increase $2,023.

DRESSING BY LAW.

Price and Style of Clothing Once Prescribed by Statute.

Between the fourteenth and eighteenth centuries all kinds of sumptuary laws prevailed in Europe. In France a royal ordinance of 1294 prescribed that no common citizen might wear fur, precious stones or gold. A nobleman who had $1,200 a year might have four robes a year and no more. Ladies of that rank might have one gown a year. If any one gave a dinner there must be only two courses besides the soup.

Common citizens who possessed $500 a year might use cloth which cost 12 1/2 cents a yard, and their wives might spend 16 cents a yard. Persons whose income was less than $500 a year must wear cheaper cloth.

In Italy severe ordinances were passed in the early part of the fourteenth century against excessive dress by women. They were forbidden to wear any sort of headress, even of painted paper. Gowns of wofen figures might be worn, but not embroidered. All stripes and bias patterns were condemned, except simple ones of not more than two colors. Not more than two finger rings were to be worn at once.

Switzerland had a law that no wedding party should have more than twenty guests—ten men friends of the bridegroom and ten women friends of the bride. No wedding procession was permitted to have more than two singers, two fiddlers and two trumpeters. Married women were forbidden to wear silk or decorated hoods, though maidens might. No woman, whether married or unmarried, was allowed to wear any dress in which the opening for the neck was so large that it did not lie at least two inches wide upon the shoulders, and the gown must not be buttoned or laced up in front or at the side.

To restrain the fashion of the long pointed shoes it was enacted that no person of either sex should wear a shoe with a point extending beyond the foot enough to allow anything to be inserted in it, nor was any woman or girl permitted to wear laced shoes. No man or boy should wear a coat that did not reach to the knee.

Garments were forbidden to be slashed so as to show different colors or kinds of material, and trousers were required to be made without stripes and both legs of the same color. In 1470 one Swiss canton in council assembled enacted that "hereafter no one shall make points on shoes or boots longer than one joint of the finger, and if any shoemaker shall make them longer he shall be fined $5, as also the person wearing them."—Indianapolis News.

The Pace That Kills.

The microbe of hurry—hurry—useless hurry—is in the air, so much so in fact that it is almost impossible for a city dweller, no matter how well balanced he may be, not to become inoculated with it. Wine, women and song are not the only influences that go to make up the "pace that kills." The average life of the business man or the society woman hurries people to catastrophe as fast as does that of the "rounder" or "dissipate."

Did you ever do anything on this order—rush to your meals, rush your play, make a fool of yourself running half a block for a car already crowded to the guards? You plead guilty, do you? Then you are going a pace that kills just as surely as the more widely heralded pace.—Kansas City Star.

Mechanically Correct.

"Miss Keeter," said the teacher of the class in English literature, "what is a sonnet?" "A sonnet," answered the girl with the umbrageous pompadour, "is a piece of poetry that goes, 'Heart, love, dove, part, art, glove, above, smart, gold, fill, eyes, hold, still, prize,' at the ends of the lines and almost any kind of words to fill in the rest of it." "You will remain after school, Miss Keeter," the teacher said, with a frown, "and complete that sonnet by filling it in with the necessary words."—Chicago Tribune.

It Didn't Help Him.

In a London bookshop a woman wanted a copy of Browning's works. "I haven't got it, madam," replied the bookseller. "I make it a rule never to keep any books I can't understand, and I can't make head or tail of Mr. Browning." Determined to buy a book anyway, the customer asked, "Have you Præd, then?" "Yes, madam," quoth the book seller. "I've prayed, and that does not help me."

The Imitative Japanese.

When in 1858 Lord Elgin visited Japan and insisted on making the shogun a present of a yacht and also insisted on arranging a treaty with him in behalf of England he noted the extraordinary thirst for knowledge and quickness in learning which distinguish the Japanese. Within a week a raw Japanese crew had learned how to manage the shogun's new yacht. The Japanese commissioners even took pains to imitate the cheers which their guests gave after dinner when the queen's health was drunk as soon as they understood that "when you in the west wish to honor a person especially you roar and shout after your meals."
