Of Household Interest.

Housecleaning is not the pleasantest of the housekeeper's tasks, but none the less necessary on that account. In the September Delinquent Isabel Gordon Curtis offers in her series, "The Making of a Housewife," some suggestions that will tend to lighten the labor and lessen the disagreeableness of this household duty. Other items of domestic interest in the same number are illustrated cookery and a variety of recipes under the topics "Delicious Cream Jellies," "Decorative Color Salads" and "The Potato." In addition, Alice M. Kellogg explains "How to Select Flushing Hardware" and Ward MacLeod writes on "Growing Bulbs Indoors"

Married.

On Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride, five miles from Greenville, Mr. Willis D. Johnston and Miss Dora Brown were married by Rev. J. A. Hornaday. Immediately after the ceremony the couple and friends drove to the home of the groom, just below Greenville, where a wedding supper was served.

Big Break Today.

The sales on the tobacco market today were the largest of any day since the market opened. There was fully 150,000 pounds on the warehouse floors and it was getting late in the afternoon before the sales were completed. Seeing so much tobacco made some think it would affect prices and cause a decline, but this was not the case. Prices are good and expressions of satisfaction continue to be heard on the sales.

Successful Meeting at Pantego.

A letter from Rev. H. H. Moore, pastor of the Christian church, who recently went to Pantego to conduct a meeting, says the meeting was a grand success, there being 21 accessions up to the 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will spend the remainder of their vacation in Virginia.

Another Car Load.

The Greenville Supply Co. has just received another car load of those famous brands of tobacco, Kite, McGifty, Blood Hound, from Brown & Williamson, Winston. This is the second solid car of these tobaccos bought by this firm this year, and it gives an idea of the large business they have.

Watch the Future.

With Greenville, Winterville and Ayden all having electric plants, why not predict that these towns will ere long be connected by a trolley road. It would be a fine thing for all three of these good towns.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Aug. 11, 1905.

Oh, what a happy time we children are having. The merry go-round is here and the old folks as gay as larks, and the circus man taketh in the shekels. Its a good old time all around.

Three of the demi monde class bailing from Greenville, came here Tuesday in a shining carriage driving two in hand by a liveryman in full regalia and paraded our main streets nearly the entire day. Ayden has room for no such and the less of their presence seen here will prove best for their whereabouts in the future. Our people are not accustomed to such and do not propose to become so.

J. G. Watson, of Sumter, S. C., who has been here quite a while canvassing the sale of books was taken very sick at the Carolina House last week and on Wednesday morning of this week friends from Kinston came over and carried him to his home in Sumter. We sincerely hope by this time the young man has recovered.

Mrs. Hazelette, Miss Hazelette and Lula Hazelette, who have been visiting Mrs. Will Buhmann, left Wednesday for Virginia where they have recently made their home.

C. L. Tyson went to Kinston Tuesday and returned next day. He reports tobacco as bringing good prices the farmers very much pleased.

Two of our young men are fond of the same girl and now that the merry go-round is here, it is first one and then the other and the way the nickels do fly. That young lady is surely having a fine time. There is no discount on her realizing a good thing when she sees it.

R. C. Cannon and son, Allen, are at Seven Springs.

Mrs. J. W. Sparks, of Winterville, came yesterday to visit friends.

Miss Fannie Hardee, of Greene, left here on the train Thursday for House.

Mrs. W. E. Hooks and children are off on a visit up the road.

Miss Arab Jordan, of Raleigh, came yesterday to visit Miss Annie Edwards.

Misses Lula and Nera Smith, returned from a visit to Parmee yesterday.

Miss Isabella Dawson left Wednesday evening for Grifton.

Mrs. Lon Redditt, of Edward, is spending the week with Mrs. E. L. Brown.

Yesterday a negro named Williams, claiming to be a corn doctor, went into the store of J. F. Barwick up on Main street just as the freight was ready to pull out and asked the clerk to weigh him flour and meat. As soon as the clerk had complied with the order the negro caught up the bundles and hurriedly left saying: "I will be back and settle in a minute." This is the last seen here of the gentleman of rations, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will spend the remainder of their vacation in Virginia.

At a meeting of the directors of the Ayden graded school the following were selected from many applications as teachers for the next session: Prof. Albert Bell, Murphy, N. C.; Miss Ethel Wicker, Fayetteville, N. C.; Miss Dora Hornaday, Greenville, N. C.; Miss Alyce Taylor, Chase City, Va.; Miss Hattie Brown, Oakley, N. C.; music teacher, Mrs. Staveil Hodges, Ayden, N. C.

Regular services in the Baptist church Sunday

We respectfully tip our cap to our Ormondville correspondent friend and assure him we are no base ballist, and if we were mistaken in our statement we earnestly beg pardon. We simply wrote as facts what was given us by a member of the Ayden team, a gentleman whom we consider of undoubted veracity and who should know from experience much concerning ball. We are slow to believe he would have misrepresented the facts from any selfish or impure motive. We esteem him as a gentleman and have ever found him to be such, and so shall we still continue to believe, intimations however to the contrary.

Miss Alice Hodges, of Kinston, after a visit to Miss Blanche Cannon, has returned home. Miss Blanche accompanied her and will visit there a day or so.

As captain of the Ayden base ball team I wish to say in replying to Capt. E. L. Turnage account of game, that there was no argument as to calling the game at close of seventh inning. The Ayden nine getting into position for eighth inning as the visiting team left the field. Owing to the forfeiting of game by visiting team, gives Ayden the score of 9 to 0. The Ayden correspondent in writing understands his position, and stated the facts as they were. W. M. McKinney, Capt.

THE REFLECTOR job printing department is kept quite busy turning out good work.

F. C. Topleman, of Henderson, general manager of the Home Telephone Company, was here today to see how the improvements on the local plant are getting on.

The Limit.

A Scotch minister instructed his clerk, who sat among the congregation during services, to give a low whistle if anything in his sermon appeared to be exaggerated, says Harper's Weekly. On hearing the minister say, "In those days there were snakes fifty feet long," the clerk gave a subdued whistle. "I should have said thirty feet," said the minister.

Another whistle from the clerk. "On consulting Thompson's Concordance," said the minister in confusion, "I see the length is twenty feet."

Still another whistle, whereupon the preacher leaned over and said in a stag whisper: "Ye can whistle as much as ye like, McPherson, but I'll not take another foot off anybody."

to obtain high-class merchant tailoring, equal to the swellest New York tailor's work, right here in town at reasonable cost!

We shall hold an exhibition of Fall and Winter Styles and Fabrics, at our store, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, August 14, 15 and 16.

These are in almost endless variety and come from the famous Wholesale Tailoring House of Schloss Bros. & Co., of Baltimore & New York.

This grand array of stylish patterns will be in charge of an expert Cutter and Fitter (from the above-named house) who is an authority upon all matters pertaining to Correct Dress for Men and the most appropriate style.

You would do well to consult him, even if you do not intend to buy, as there is no better way of keeping in touch with the coming fashions.

If desired, he will take your measure and order your selection made up by Schloss Bros. & Co. Besides the certainty of fit, quality and style, every one of their garments has that clean-cut look of finish and distinction that only the best of metropolitan tailors can produce.

I have arranged for the Cutter to bring the garments back basted up and have them fitted to the customer before finishing.

The prices asked are not high,—$20 to $35 will pay for an excellent Suit or Overcoat.

Don't forget the date,—Mon. Tues. & Wed. 14, 15, 16

FRIDAY, AUG. 11, 1905.

The Armour Car Company, which has a monopoly of furnishing refrigerator cars to move berries and other small fruits, last season caused the farmers of the berry growing section of North Carolina a loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars through failure to furnish cars promptly. Fortunately the laws are such that the farmers were enabled to recover part of this loss from the car company. Put the company has shown its greed and a spirit of retaliation by declaring that it will advance rates for moving the berries next season or refuse to come into the territory for shipments. The berry growing farmers are at the mercy of the car company and as yet no remedy has been offered.

It is claimed by the experts that yellow fever can be communicated only by the bite of a certain mosquito to which has previously bitten a person who has the disease, thereby transmitting the disease from one to another. This don't sound right, and we would like for some solomon to explain where the first case originated from, and what kind of an animal or skeeter that done the first biting.

The press dispatches say that John D. Rockefeller is about to give $50,000,000 of his wealth toward making the University of Chicago the greatest seat of learning in the world. Are we to have an advance in the price of oil sufficient to make up this donation?

Men should take warning how they turn in home late at night. The wife of a Royston, Ga., man mistook him for a burglar and shot him twice, and in a few hours after the shooting she was a widow.

As might have been expected, the gold mining scheme engineered by Rev. W. P. Fife and in which many North Carolinians were induced to invest, has been declared insolvent.

We are free from a political campaign in North Carolina this year, but on both sides of us, in Virginia and South Carolina, they are keeping things interesting.

A man in Cincinnati choked himself to death with a pair of trousers just to show his wife he could wear them around his neck if nowhere else—we suppose.

These cities like Philadelphia which vote so many dead men may use the same method in making up their census returns.

Portsmouth is fortunate in the advertising she will get out of the peace conference.

The United States export annually to Germany about $20,000,000 of provisions, mostly lard and oleomargarine. Germany's new tariff increases the tax on these products sixteen per cent, and on illuminating oil, of which we send Germany $7,000,000 a year, the tax has been increased from 65 cents to $1.08 per hundred weight. There is a kick over here but Germany is feeding us out of our own tariff spoon.—Wilmington Star.

People who favor the open saloon have no right to say a word about the moral question involved in the running of a dispensary.—Durham Herald.

Hustle and Grin.

Smile, and the world smiles with you
"Knock," and you go alone;
For the cheerful grin
Will let you in
Where the kicker is never known,
Growl, and the way looks dreary,
Laugh, and the path is bright,
For a welcome smile
Brings sunshine, while
A frown shuts out the light.

Sigh, and you attain nothing,
Work and the prize is won;
For the nerry man
With backbone can
By nothing be undone.
Hustle, and fortune awaits you,
Shirk, and defeat is sure,
For there's no chance
Of deliverance
For the chap who can't endure.

Sing, and the world's harmonious,
Grumble, and things go wrong;
And all the time
You're out of rhyme
With the busy, hustling throng.
Kick, and there's trouble brewing,
Whistle, and life is gay,
And the world's in tune
Like a day in June,
And the clouds all melt away.

Somebody.

"Somebody did a golden deed;
Somebody proved a friend in need;
Somebody sang a beautiful song;
Somebody smiled the whole day long;
Somebody said, 'Tis sweet to live.'
Somebody said, 'I'm glad to give.'
Somebody fought a valiant fight;
Somebody lived to shield the right.
Was that somebody you?"

The story is going the rounds that at a recent district conference, held in Buncombe county, a brother arose and stated that the morals of his community had greatly improved within the year. Being asked for the reason for this marked improvement the minister said, "Well, the reason for our people becoming more moral is due to the fact that Judge Shaw held court there last year." A better reason would be that "our people" are scared rather than moral. Judge Shaw is a fine judge and he can and does bridle the leopard, but cannot change his spots.—Charity and Children.

There is no way to head the people off when they want to do a thing bad enough and have the courage. The constitution says United States senators shall be elected by the legislature, yet a number of states have practically nullified the law by the adoption of the primary. Virginia will settle her senatorship in this way, while Senator Simmons in this state was chosen in the same way. Of course there is nothing to prevent a legislature from overriding the expressed wishes of the people, but it will never be done.—Greensboro Record.

Our old friend, Wu Ting Fang, is said to have been commissioned by the Pekin court for the task of forcing this country to a fair course of treatment of Chinese subjects. The childlike Mr. Wu knows us well, and how to pinch where it will hurt us the worse.—Buffalo Courier.

That was quick work in Asheville in which a negro was tried and sentenced to the penitentiary for twelve years for murder in the second degree within twenty-four hours of the homicide.—Wilmington Messenger.

Nothing on the Market Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customer, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell a dozen of this preparation." For sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

A little forethought may save you an end of trouble. Anyone who makes it a rule to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea remedy at hand knows this to be a fact. For sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the digestion. They also regulate the bowels. For sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

Sick headache results from a disordered condition of the stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old-fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as many of our natives and has a tendency to gripe. If it does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be prepared at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by Jno. L. Wooten, druggist.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.
Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

Lion Coffee,

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

LION COFFEE is sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages, and reaches you as pure and clean as when it left our factory.

Look-head on every package. Buy these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.

THE WIFE HE WANTED.

Queer Matrimonial Advertisement That Appeared in 1737.

Here is a curious matrimonial advertisement, published in an American newspaper in 1737. Whether the gentleman of "easy temper," whose only mode of restraint was "stinting"—which every woman knows is of all schemes the most diabolical—found a lady possessed of all the enumerated-perfections who was willing to hide them cannot at this late date be ascertained:

"A middle aged gentleman barely turned sixty and as yet unmarried is desirous of altering his condition. He has a good estate, sound constitution and easy temper, and having worn out the follies of youth will be determined by reason in the choice of the lady he intends to make happy. She must be upward of fifteen and under twenty-five. Her size must be moderate, her shape natural, her person clean and her countenance pleasing. She must be lively in her humor, but not smart in her conversation; sensible, but utterly unaffected with wit; her temper without extremes, neither too hasty and never sullen. Then she must invariably observe all forms of breeding in public places and mixed company, but may lay them all aside among her acquaintances. She must have no affectation but that of hiding her perfection, which her own sex will forgive and the other more quickly discover. She shall be restrained in nothing, the gentleman having observed that restraint only makes good women bad and bad women worse. In some things perhaps she may be stinted, which is the only method he will take to signify his dislike to any part of her conduct. Any lady whose friends are of opinion (her own opinion will not do) that she is qualified as above and has a mind to dispose of herself may hear of a purchaser by leaving with the printer hereof a letter directed to C. D."

Napoleon's Attempt at Suicide.
The most startling of all Constant's revelations is that describing Napoleon's attempt at suicide when Marmont, Berthier and the rest left him naked to his enemies. Constant in one of his earlier volumes described a talisman wrapped in silk and leather which ever since the Egyptian campaign Napoleon wore around his neck. It contained, according to Constant, the poison which the emperor took immediately after his signature of the deed of abdication. He then sent for Constant and thus addressed him: "Constant, I am dying! I could not bear the torture any more and the humiliation of seeing myself surrounded by foreign agents. They have trailed my eagles through the mire. Marmont has given me my final blow. That Berthier should have forsaken me cuts me to the core! My old friends! My old comrades in arms!" However, either the weakness of the poison or the skill of Yvan, the doctor, saved his life.—T. P.'s Weekly, London.

Casting by Moonlight For Bass.
I suppose the average bait caster knows very little of casting by moonlight, but to my mind this is a most pleasurable way of fishing. The very weirdness and uncertainty constitute its chief charm, for the more uncertain a thing the greater the satisfaction when it is accomplished. Confirmed fly casters often ridicule the bait caster with the stubby rod, but I have used both, and it takes fully as much skill and practice to manage the short rod as the long, whippy one, and bait casting offers a much larger field and larger variety of fishing than fly casting. A surface bait should always be used, as a bass strikes at the commotion made by the bait, not because he is hungry, but merely because he wants to fight.—Recreation.

Cornishmen and Tails.
Natives of Devonshire, England, in past centuries used to say that Cornishmen all had tails, asserting that it was a sign of the divine disapproval of their infamy in cutting off the tail of Thomas a Becket's horse. A sixteenth century writer says: "So hath England in all other lands a perpetual infamy of taylor by theye wryten legendes of lyes, yet can they not well tell where-to bestowe them truly. An Englishman now cannot travayle in another land by way of marchandise or any other honest occupynge, but it is most contumeliously thrown in his teth that all Englishmen have taylor's."

A Surprised Conductor.
A conductor on one of the Kansas City cars received a surprise recently, according to the Times of that city. He helped a woman on at a downtown corner and was about to signal to go ahead when she called: "Wait a minute, please, conductor!"
The man in the uniform hesitated. The woman was in front of one of the mirrors in the sides of the car "fixing" her hair. Just as he was about to reach for the bell cord again she came toward the back platform.
"Let me off, please," she said. "I just wanted to put my hair up a little better."
Then she stepped from the car, smiling sweetly.

Mutual. Legal Reserve.

A Home Company conducted on a safe, economical basis in the interest of its policy holders. Why we can save you money.

The oldest companies have been on a 4 per cent. reserve basis for many years. Several of them have recently changed from a 4 per cent. basis to a 3 per cent. or 3 1/2 per cent. basis, on account of a decrease in interest rates. Probably 90 per cent. of all the outstanding business is now on a 4 per cent. reserve, only the new business being on a 3 per cent. or 3 1/2 per cent. reserve. Following are the rates of a few companies on the old and new basis:
