SAFE CRACKERS ON TRIAL.

Lieutenant Governor Winston Will Not Interfere—Fisher and O'Day May Go to Roads.

Wadesboro, N. C., Sept. 13.—Fisher and O'Day, the alleged safe crackers, dressed in their Sunday clothes and looking quite spick and span, considering their four months' confinement and the desperate illness of O'Day, appeared in court yesterday morning and plead guilty on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. A hitch came in the proceedings just here, however, for during the night previous Solicitor Henry, of South Carolina, came on the scene and demanded that the men be turned over to the South Carolina authorities to answer to the charge of robbing a safe at Heath Springs. Judge Neal suspended sentence and pressure is again to be brought on the powers that be in North Carolina for extradition papers. The prisoners, through their attorneys, Messrs. Bennett & Bennett, claim their right to dismissal or sentence on the charge to which they plead guilty and are fighting hard against removal.

Lieutenant Governor Winston has telegraphed that he will not interfere. Unless Governor Glenn honors the requisition before Solicitor Henry's departure the case will remain as it is until his return or Judge Neal will send Fisher and O'Day to the roads.

The Dead Put At 256.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The Bureau of Naval Intelligence today received advices by cable from the American naval attaché at Tokio, to the effect that the loss in killed and missing on the battleship Mikasa was 256. The wounded number 343. The cause of the accident cannot be ascertained until the Mikasa is floated.

Dr. Tait Butler Elected.

Guthrie, Oklahoma Territory, Sept. 13.—At the final session of the ninth annual meeting of the International Live-Stock Sanitary Board today, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. H. H. Hanks, Texas; vice-president, Dr. Tait Butler, North Carolina; secretary-treasurer, Dr. S. H. Ward, Minnesota.

Komura too Ill to Sail

New York, Sept. 13.—Baron Komura, the Japanese peace envoy, who was reported today to be suffering from typhoid fever, though the consulting physicians are not a unit on the point, was said to be in a satisfactory condition. Baron Komura is at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel and his return to Japan has been indefinitely postponed although most of the members of his suite will set sail for home tomorrow, the date originally planned for the departure of the mission.

Shot His Wife at Sight.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 13.—A Tribune special from Tarpon Springs, says at six o'clock this afternoon G. E. Paul, a well known contractor, walked into the boarding house of Hiram Pent, of that place, and as his wife came to meet him at the dining room, Paul shot her down with a double barreled shotgun and then ran into the back yard, shooting himself with the contents of the other barrel. Paul was instantly killed, but his wife lived ten minutes. Paul had been drinking, it is said, for several weeks.

The docket for September term of Superior court contains several capital cases.

Accident insurance agents were busy this morning before the excursion train left.

Mrs. Josephine Taylor returned this morning from Ayden. Mrs. J. W. Taylor accompanied her home for a visit here.

What He Found.

During the South African War, when that country was under martial law, letters sent home by British soldiers had to pass through the hands of a censor.

A private in a Yorkshire regiment had sent four or five letters home, telling his parents about the doings of his regiment, and portions had been obliterated by the censor and were therefore illegible on their arrival. At the foot of the next letter he wrote:

"Please lock under the stamp."

At the censor's office the letter was opened and read as usual. The officer in charge spent some time in steaming the stamp from the envelope, so that he could read the message which he was certain he would find there. At last his patience was rewarded, but his feelings can be better imagined than described when he read these words:

"Was it hard to get off?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

Delegates to Association.

At a conference of the Baptist church, Wednesday, W. H. Ragsdale, J. W. Bryan and D. J. Whichard were chosen delegates to the Tar River association which meets in Tarboro the second week in October.

Sawyer Awarded $1,000.

Elizabeth City, N. C., Sept. 13.—Superior court has been in session at Camden court house this week, and the criminal docket was concluded this morning, when the suit against the Norfolk and Western railway, by A. Sawyer was called.

Mr. Sawyer is one of the most prominent men of Camden county. He is suing the railroad people for alleged slander. The case has created intense interest, and the court room was literally packed. The hearing consumed the entire day. The case was turned over to the jury about 5:30 this afternoon and they remained out about twenty minutes. They gave Mr. Sawyer one thousand dollars.

Bought a Stock in Tarboro.

C. L. Wilkinson & Co., of this town, have purchased the Morris stock of dry goods in Tarboro. It is the largest and finest stock there and occupies the best equipped store in Tarboro. Mr. Wilkinson has gone to Tarboro to take charge of the stock and close it out as rapidly as possible. The stock was bought at a sacrifice and will be sold accordingly.

Big Crowd Went.

Hatch Bro's. excursions are always successful. The one that went this morning was crowded, every coach and even the baggage car being full. Quite a number of people went from Greenville and others wanted to go but backed out because it looked like they could not get seats.

Pitt County "Peeping" Case.

The case of State vs. Davis, previously reported, in which an indictment was sent for eavesdropping, was argued by the attorney general and Harry Skinner, Esq. The attorney general stated that since the indictment did not allege that the conversation overheard had been repeated to the community, he did not think that it would lie for the charge of eavesdropping as recognized by the Common Law, but that it might be good to hold the defendant on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Mr. Skinner, for the defendant, took the ground that the indictment did not charge any offense and that the acts complained of did not constitute disorderly conduct.

The state was the appellant in this case, the indictment having been quashed on motion of defendant in the lower court.—Raleigh News and Observer.

LETTER TO R. HYMAN.

Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir: Do you know the cause of short measure and white-wash in paint?

The same as the cause of poverty; folks are kept poor by trying to get their money's worth.

Price per gallon. They look at the price per gallon; not at the size of the can; and not at what's in it. Kept poor by trying to get their money's worth.

Not you, but they. You know it of them.

There is one safe name in paint; Devoe.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.,

THURSDAY, SEPT. 14, 1905.

The coal trust will soon have its inning at fleecing the people.

Governor Glenn took in Boston Tuesday on his New England tour, but the dispatches do not state whether he took in any beans along with it.

Atlanta made more noise over one case of yellow fever than New Orleans made over a thousand. Nothing like getting notoriety out of a thing.

The man arrested at Kinston on the charge of being a participant in the late New Bern lynching, may learn the lesson not to talk so much next time he tanks up.

A Winston man being knocked into unconsciousness by the stopper flying out of a keg of beer and striking him shows that the stuff is dangerous from any aspect.

Witte has shaken off the dust of America and is now on the high sea enroute to Russia. Among other things he will remember in this country is the mosquitoes of Portsmouth.

Durham is on the back tax track, it having developed that several corporations doing business in that city have had a scheme by which they avoided paying as much city taxes as they ought to.

That recently discovered enactment of the last legislature that lumps folks and dogs in the same class when they become dangerous, and prohibits such running at large, may not have missed the mark so far.

Greensboro has not adopted a "goo-goo" ordinance similar to the one recently heralded from Houston, Texas, but all the same the mayor of that city says girls passing along the streets must be protected against annoyance by loafers.

A Chicago surgeon has given it out that he can cure crime by operating on the skull. It is not said whether his fist or a cudgel is used in the operation, but it is a novel method for collecting bills and will doubtless be interesting to the profession.

We read of building and loan associations meeting with much success in various towns, which reminds us that Greenville is not reaping success from the same source. Some day this town may awaken to the necessity of a building and loan association.

The refrigerator car companies may contend that they are not common carriers, but shippers do not take the same view of it. The way the strawberry crop was handled last season shows that they are common, and very common, too, though they charged anything else but common prices.

The Atlanta Constitution lays down the proposition that "good roads make good schools, good trade and good citizens." We are of the opinion that good training in good schools will have much to do with waking up the rising generation to the necessity of good roads. -Times Dispatch.

Not a Receding Wave.

Four elections on the temperance question have been held in North Carolina during the past month and the temperance men won every time except one. In that instance, the vote was a tie, and the final outcome was a victory over the saloon.

Those people who imagined that the temporary temperance wave would shortly recede are learning that it is not a receding wave, but is growing steadily stronger in volume and in power. The youngest child now living will be a gray bearded old man before intoxicants are permitted to be manufactured or sold in any rural district in North Carolina. That principal is as settled as the suffrage amendment to the constitution. As to the towns, the day of saloon domination is ended in all except a few, and their days are numbered. Of course there will be alternate victories in the larger towns, the saloon sometime giving way to a dispensary or prohibition, and sometimes a community will return to the saloon, but even the return will be followed by more stringent regulations and better conditions.

The wave does not recede. -Raleigh News and Observer.

A Warning for Folks Who Sign Petitions.

Folks who sign petitions just to see their names on the paper may learn something. In the court here just closed a judgment for damages was entered against 51 men about over the county who had promiscuously signed a petition to open a public road into the eastern part of town. The commissioners opened the road on the strength of the petition and the man whose property it went through, S. F. Coakly, colored, sued the petitioners and they will have to pay the judgment, which amounts to about $2 each for the good and true men who were too careless with their names. -Monroe Journal.

The cotton crop of 1904-05, according to the annual report of Secretary Hester, of the New Orleans cotton exchange, was 13,565,885 bales.

There is to be an apple growers' convention in Asheville this fall. Such a gathering ought to bear good fruit. The daughters of Eve will be interested in the statement that there will be a display of apples.

Cicero Dudley has discovered a new kind of cotton boll on his land, in Neuse township, and one entirely undesirable. The boll is well developed but without a particle of lint in it. -Kinston Free Press.

President R. T. Vann, of the Baptist University for Women, says that the enrollment is 265, just 14 more than were enrolled on this date last year. There are only about four places vacant in the university now. -Raleigh Post.

The question of labor in the South is one that continues to demand attention. As negro labor becomes scarcer, more unreliable, and more worthless, the question becomes more acute. Farm labor is needed as well as skilled labor in other lines of production. What else but intelligent immigration is there that the South can resort to? -Gastonia Gazette.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand - swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach. After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. HE WANTED TO SUE.

The Advice He Got Might Profitably
Apply to a Larger Case.

Squire Nickerson was sitting in his office leisurely reading the newspaper when a man rushed in with a child in each hand and asked in a loud voice for Squire Nickerson.

"I guess I'm the man you are looking for," answered the squire, laying aside his paper.

"You Squire Nickerson?" asked the man sharply. "Well, you are the man I'm looking for, and I want to file suit."

"Whom do you wish to file suit against?" queried the squire. Here the man released the children and began some mild gesticulations, which indicated more bent to follow.

"I want to sue a woman down at my boarding house."
"What has she done?"
"She's got a dishpan of mine, squire, and I want to sue her for it."

"Yes, you might get the dishpan by suing her for it," agreed the squire, "but how does she happen to have your dishpan?"

"Well, said the stranger slowly,
"I broke a lamp chimney belonging to her, and she took the dishpan.
She said that she would keep it until I paid her for the lamp chimney.
But I want to sue her and get the dishpan."

"Now, look here, my good man," said the squire, "you don't want to do anything of the kind. You want to take 10 cents, go down to the grocery and buy a lamp chimney and then take it down to this woman and get your dishpan."

"But can't I get it by suing her?"
asked the man stubbornly.

"You might get the dishpan, and it might cost you several dollars.
Instead of spending car fare to come up here and see me you could have had a new lamp chimney bought by this time, and your dishpan would be under your arm."

"The lamp chimney will cost only 5 cents."

"And you wanted to bring suit rather than settle the trouble for a nickel?" asked the squire incredulously.

"Never thought of settling it the way you suggest, squire," remarked
the man after a thoughtful pause,
"but I reckon you are right." Whereupon he took his two children by the hands and left the office.

"Much obliged, squire," he shouted as the trio clattered down the stairs.—Indianapolis News.

Why He Took a Bath.

He had taken a bath.
Weary Raggles, the frowsy, unkempt wanderer on the face of the earth, had at last taken a bath.

Never had he done such a thing before—as far back as he could remember.

But the fact remained. He had taken a bath.

As he took it visions of his happy childhood rose up before his blue, bleared, blurred eyes, a childhood untainted by so bold a deed. But with an effort he choked the visions down and sternly resolved to follow out the plan he had outlined.

Besides, it was the only portable object in sight.

Then to sneak it from the yard,
dispose of it for a dime and to procure himself something to drink with the money was a small matter,
even to that weary one.—Exchange.

Taking Him Down.

His height was a little over five feet. He was slender in proportion.
But he was proud—oh, so proud!
He stood erect and with folded arms near the rail of the steamer and gazed out upon the sea in stern, majestic silence. Presently the captain approached him and touched his arm.

"What is it, my good fellow?" he said, turning his head slowly and eying him from head to foot.

"Would you mind stepping over this way a little?" asked the captain, touching his hat.

"What for, my good fellow?"
"To trim the ship. You are giving it a decided list to port."—London Answers.

Easy to Remember.

Binks—I don't see how you can remember the birthdays of all the children.

Mrs. Binks—It's very easy. The first was born on Aug. 17. I remember it because on that day you gave me a pearl necklace with my name and the date on the clasp.
The second was born July 20. On that day you gave me a 5 shilling book with my name and the date on the flyleaf. The third was born May 6. On that day you got angry at a millinery bill which had just been sent in, and it isn't paid yet.

A Grasping Minister.

"Have you a good minister?" asked a summer visitor of a rural resident in New England.
"Waal, he would be ef he warn't quite so graspin'."
"How does he show that he is graspin'?"
"Waal, last winter when we gave him a donation party an' carried him a lot of vegetables an' other truck an' $40 in money, he warn't willin' that the money should go on his salary."
"But I suppose he doesn't get a very large salary."
"Waal, purty fair—a hundred an' fifty dollars a year."—New York Tribune.

EVER TRIED COFFEE THIS WAY?

It is a well-known fact that even the best of housekeepers cannot make really good coffee without having the proper materials.
They will never make it with coffee of doubtful origin, adulterated, queerly blended, and possibly dirty coffee that has, perhaps, been mixed up with all kinds of other things on the counter.

But let them take a package of LION COFFEE—the purest and cleanest—and the brand universally used throughout the United States for over twenty five years. Millions drink it and get the best results if it is made in the following way:

Try it once and you will never want to try any other brand of coffee.

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use Lion Coffee be sure to get the best results you must use the best coffee.
Grind your Lion Coffee rather fine. Use a "tablespoonful to each cup and one extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add a white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler) then follow one of the following rules:

1st. With boiling water. Add boiling water and let it boil three minutes only, add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.
2d. With cold water. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil, then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.

Three Don'ts—Don't boil too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. Don't use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

1st. With eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground Lion Coffee before boiling.

2d. With cold water—instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.
