

DEATH OF MRS. E. A. MOYE.

An Excellent Woman Passes Away.

Mrs. Delphia Moye, wife of Hon. E. A. Moye, former Superior court clerk, died at 8:30 o'clock Friday evening at their home on Dickinson avenue. She had been sick some weeks with an affliction from which there was little hope of recovery, but the end came sooner than expected and her death was a shock to the family and also the host of friends who held her in high esteem. She was one of our best women, a kind friend, charitable, and her life was filled with good deeds.

Mrs. Moye was a little past 48 years old, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. King. She was twice married, her first husband being the late Mr. Samuel Quiney, of Centerville. She married Mr. E. A. Moye in November, 1895. Beside her husband and parents, she is also survived by four sisters—Mrs. Pattie Winsted, of Rocky Mount; Mrs. G. B. King, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. S. C. Wells, of Wilson, and Mrs. L. I. Moore, of Greenville.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. D. B. Clayton in the Universalist church at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, and from the church the remains will be taken to the burial ground at the King homestead, near Falkland, the interment being about 1 o'clock, p. m.

AT THE CHURCHES.

Baptist Church.

Sunday school meets at 9:30 a. m. Baraca and Philathia classes at same hour.

Sermon at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Ayscue. B. Y. P. U. meets at 7:15 p. m. There will be an interesting black board exercise with talk on our shortcomings.

Presbyterian Church.

Regular preaching service morning and night at 11 and 7:45 respectively. Public invited. Immediately after the close of morning service an important congregational meeting will be held. All the members are urged to be present.

Christian Church.

At the Christian church tomorrow services will be as follows: 10, a. m., Bible school; 11, a. m., preaching by the pastor, subject: "The Greatest Need of the Hour." Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:15, p. m. Mrs. H. H. Moore, leader. Subject: "The Great Surrender."

Preaching by the pastor at 8, p. m., subject: "The 'Beast' Identified." (A study of Revelation the 13th chapter.)

The Junior C. E. will meet at 4:30 in the church. Mrs. H. T. King, Supt. A full attendance of the children of the Sunday school is desired as the organization of the society will be perfected at this meeting.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend any and all of these services. Strangers made welcome. H. H. Moore, Pastor.

Purchase of Pamlico Railroad Formally Announced.

Norfolk, Va. Sept. 14—An announcement was made today of the purchase of the Pamlico, Oriental & Western railroad, running from Bayboro to Newbern, N. C., by the interests in control of the Virginia & Carolina Railway, which is to run a line from Norfolk to Beaufort, N. C., through the lumber section of North Carolina. This line will be used as a branch of the main line to New Bern for additional terminals at that port.

BAND CONCERT.

A Mule did not Like the Uniforms.

The Frank E. Griswold band gave a concert on the street today. Though composed of only ten pieces they made excellent music. The megaphone quartette was a novel feature. Just after the concert as the band was about to move off a very amusing finale occurred. A mule hitched to a top buggy in which were a colored boy and woman, came along. The mule did not like the uniforms of the bandmen and began a dance act when the woman brought in an accompaniment of screams that could be heard for two squares.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Names Found at Depot and Elsewhere Around Town.

C. E. Bradley went to Tarboro today.

R. S. Evans went up the road this morning.

Rev. R. C. Craven, of Tarboro, spent today here.

Governor Has Narrow Escape.

Winchendon, Mass., Sept. 15.—Governor Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, had the narrowest escape of his life this afternoon from serious injury or possibly death when an automobile containing several of the Governor's friends ran off a bridge near Royalston as the party were returning from the old home week celebration at Waterville.

Four persons were pinioned under the wrecked machine one of them being John Charles McNeill, of Charlotte, who is a member of the Glenn party on the New England tour.

Ten Nights Tonight.

The Frank E. Griswold Ten Nights in a Bar Room company arrived this morning in their special car attached to the morning train. The big tent has been pitched in front of the court house square, and as it is water proof you need not be afraid to attend the performance if the weather looks like rain tonight.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday with occasional showers in eastern and central portions.

WINTERVILLE ITEMS.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 16.

John Smith, of Roanoke Rapids, expects to reach Winterville tomorrow to enter the High School Monday. Quite a large number of new students will be in that day.

Several of our young people enjoyed a hay ride Thursday night. They report an unusually pleasant time.

Rev. R. D. Carroll, of Williams-ton, came down Wednesday to visit his mother who is in feeble health. He preached an excellent sermon in the Baptist church Wednesday night and returned home Friday.

Greensboro Life Insurance Company,
Greensboro, N. C.

Gentlemen: Enclosed you will find a remittance for the full annual premium on my policy in your company, and with it I wish to send my congratulations upon the extraordinary record of the company during the first month of its life.

I have taken out this policy for three reasons:

1. Because I believe in the substantial business men who are backing the company.
2. Because I like the form of the Income Indemnity Policy.
3. Because I desire very much to encourage, so far as I am able to do so, the building up of strong insurance companies in North Carolina, in order that we may send less of our capital through insurance companies to build up other sections of the country instead of our own.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES D. McIVER,

Mr. Bryan says he is not a candidate. Certainly not now, but that does not mean that he will not be in 1908.

Governor Glenn is making a fine impression on those New Englanders. This is no more than we expected.

The Filipinos in wanting to be released from heavy taxes are that much in common with Americans, all of us being built that way.

Rojstvensky is about to recover from the wounds received when his fleet was captured and become himself again since peace has been declared.

The Charlotte Chronicle says Mecklenburg county gives $747,187 to the public schools. We just believe the Chronicle has too many figures in that bunch.

Wonder if the automatic girlless telephone exchange they are going to install up in Pennsylvania will have a contrivance that can say "busy now" when you ask for a number.

Under the ruling of the commissioner of internal revenue most druggists will have to take out license to deal in liquor or cut out some of the patent medicines they are selling.

Strange things happen in this world of ours. An old man in Connecticut who had been blind for several years suddenly recovered his sight and became so overjoyed that it run him crazy.

From the way local tax districts are being established in the interest of longer and better schools, people are ascending readily to increased taxes to educate their children. When the same interest is aroused in public roads they will also see the wisdom of levying a tax to improve the thoroughfares. We take it that better education will soon be followed by better roads.

All manufacturers of patent medicines should be required by law to have the ingredients of such medicines printed on the packages. Thousands of mothers have ruined, and sometimes killed their infants by giving soothing syrups and other patent medicines, which nine times out of ten contain a large per cent. of morphine and other opiates. People have as much right to know what kind of medicine they are swallowing as they do to know what kind of food they are taking into their stomachs.

Liberty and Food.

Lincoln said of slavery that a black woman might not in some ways be his equal, but that in the right to eat the food her own hands had earned she was the equal of himself, Judge Douglas, or any man. Economic independence is the basis of every kind of liberty that has worth. It was over an unjust tax that the colonies went to war. United States politicians are now engaged in talking about when the Filipinos are to have self-government. The Filipinos themselves are more interested in knowing when the United States will stop taking away their power to make a living. The Filipinos in 1907 are to have the right to express their opinions in an assembly, those opinions to be accepted or rejected by the American officials as those Americans may choose; which is nice and generous and pretty, but not quite so important as the repeal of laws which steal food from our poverty-stricken victims to put it into the distended bellies of domestic trusts. One liberty with which the Filipinos can dispense is liberty to starve.—Collier's Weekly.

What is Your Interest in Your Community?

The New Bern Journal asks this pertinent question and then proceeds to define it:

"A citizen's interest in the community can be safely judged by his or her support of local institutions. There are hard working and enterprising, in the sense of money makers, citizens, whose interest in their community does not go beyond what they individually get out of it. They contribute to no charity, belong to no church, take part in no public meeting, and are not to be found if some public enterprise is to be started. Their local interest is purely and unqualifiedly selfish. They add nothing to the advancement or growth of a community.

Let every citizen ask this question: What is your interest in your community, not in the mere benefits you receive, but what are you personally giving and doing to advance its best interests? As your answer is, so you may find your true position as a citizen among your neighbors."

One of the best ways to raise the general standard of intelligence in a state is through the education of the young people. In order that the young people may be well educated good teachers should be secured. In rural districts very often the salaries paid teachers are so small that really capable teachers will not take the places. The sooner people in many of these rural districts get over their prejudice against an increase in taxes and provide sufficient money to pay good salaries and to provide better school accommodations the better it will be for them and the intellectual standards of the state.—Winston Sentinel.

The longer we live—and we hope to be here as long as possible—the more we feel like pulling off our hat and giving three cheers every day for the noble band of women, who without ceasing, not only prayed but did what the Lord requires—worked—for the restoration of Greensboro Female College. Men can do many things a woman cannot do; likewise women can leave man in the distance in things he fears to grope with. When all the conditions are considered this work has been little short of phenomenal. In the local columns of The Record is shown the successful opening of the school yesterday. So encouraging is it the work of adding more dormitories will soon be commenced, for it is absolutely imperative that more room be had, an enlargement of at least 25 per cent.—Greensboro Record.

COWING A JANITOR.

A Case of Disciplining and the Way it Worked Out.

One day Wilkinson got mad and determined to discipline the janitor.
"Why is it," he said, "that every time anybody in this building loses anything you ask us if we know what has become of it?"
"Because," the janitor replied,
"you are the only folks that never lose anything."

The next morning arrived.
"We're short a bottle of milk," Wilkinson shouted down the dumb waiter shaft. "Where is it?"
"I don't know, sir," the janitor answered humbly. "I'll see if I can find it."

"Why," said Mrs. Wilkinson, "we got our milk."
"Don't worry," said her husband.
"Of course, he can't find it, but I will do him good to bustle and stew
a little."

About fifteen minutes later Wilkinson was summoned to the dumb waiter. "Here's your milk," said the janitor. "I'm sorry I made a mistake before."

Wilkinson was bewildered. "Now, where on earth did the fellow get it?" he said.

"He has taken it from one of the neighbors," wailed Mrs. Wilkinson.
"We will be jailed before we get through with this business."

The next day Wilkinson complained of the loss of a package of sugar, which, though purely imaginary, so far as the Wilkinsons were concerned, very soon materialized in the hands of the resourceful janitor.
Even Wilkinson got uneasy then;
but, being bent on vengeance, he subsequently reported as lost three loaves of bread, a head of lettuce and a bag of potatoes, all of which were immediately produced by the janitor. Before further depredations on the part of that worthy were possible Wilkinson paid his grocery bill for the month. When he came home Mrs. Wilkinson, who is a systematic housekeeper, carefully scanned the itemized account.

"Why, they have made a mistake," she said. "They have charged us for milk and sugar and things we never got. You must go right back and see about it."

Wilkinson went.
"It's all right," he said upon his return. "We got the stuff. The janitor ordered it."—New York

Peebles Ham.

The Scotchman told the story.
There were two old Scotchwomen,
Mrs. MacWhirter and Mrs. McBean, who met on the road one day, and Mrs. MacWhirter says:
"Losh me, woman, yer far frae hame the day."

"Aye," says Mrs. McBean. "I was just yont at Peebles. Sanders MacNabb o' Peebles keeps rale guid
ham. Oor John, ye yea, likes a bit guid ham and is aye yammerin' about the ham bein' owerfat and oversaut."

"Oor Tom," says Mrs. MacWhir-ter, "is the same way. There's nae pleasin' o' him wi' his ham. Faith, I'll hae to gie MacNabb a trial."

So Mrs. MacWhirter journeys into Peebles, and she says to Sanders MacNabb, the grocer:
"Gie a pund o' yer ham."

"What kind," says Sanders, "wad ye like?"
"Oh, just the kind that Mrs. Mc-Bean gets," says the lady.
MacNabb smiled faintly.
"A' right," says he. "Whaur's yer bottle?"

Sarcasm.

He was a very diminutive cockney, and he happened to be deer stalking in the highlands, where he engaged the services of a tall and powerful game keeper.

The keeper, in the course of a very warm day, feeling irritated at the ways of his little master, gave vent to his feelings by growling at regular intervals at the "midges" which were swarming around him in myriads.

"How is it," said the cockney,
"that the midges bother you so much? I haven't got so much as a single bite yet."

"Hoots, mon," replied Donald contemptuously, "they maybe havena noticed ye yet."—Glasgow Times.

The European Nose.

An Austrian scientist has been attacking the European nose. He says that it is a miserable, degraded organ and a disgrace to civilization.
He admires the large, full nostrils of the negro and says that it is the sort of nose to have. That is the nose that can smell. The nose of Europe cannot smell. Its olfactory sense is gone. The London nose could never sniff the London atmosphere, nor, he might have added, the much more complicated odors of cologne. He attributes this degeneration to cigarette smoking and to life in crowds.

Expecting Trouble.

"Now, children," said the Sunday school teacher, "I want some one to tell me what happened to the loaves and fishes which—"
"Teacher!" piped the new boy in the back seat, snapping his fingers.
"Well, do you know?"
"No, I don't," replied the boy, pessimistically, "but it's a cinch that it'll be blamed on me."—Philadelphia Press.

A Painless Cure of Curable Pain Never resign yourself to suffer pain. Women's pains are curable. They are the sign of dangerous conditions of the female organs, which should be promptly attended to or dangerous results will follow.

TAKE
Wine of Cardui

IT COMES TO WOMAN'S RELIEF
whenever she suffers from any of woman's biting and weakening pains.
It not only compels the pains to stop, but it follows up and drives out the cause of the pains, which prevents them from coming back.
It makes you well. Try it.
Sold everywhere in $1.00 bottles.

"WITHOUT A PAIN,"
writes Mary E. Shelton, of Poplar Bluff, Mo., "I can do my housework, although, before taking CARDUI, two doctors had done me no good. I can truthfully say I was cured by Cardui.
I want every suffering lady to know of this wonderful medicine."

WINGATE FAILED TO SHOW UP.

Judgment Was Entered Against His Bondsmen

Tarboro, N. C., Sept. 14.--Robert V. Wingate the young white man of Rocky Mount, who is charged with an attempted criminal assault and also a simple assault upon the person of Mrs. Joseph Knight of this place some weeks ago and who was removed to Raleigh from his place of incarceration in the county jail here through the fear of being lynched and was subsequently released through habeas corpus proceedings, failed to make his appearance at court when his cases were called and judgments in his favor were entered against his bondsmen in each case; Wingate was in Tarboro Tuesday and Wednesday and is said to have gone to Rocky Mount preparatory to returning for trial Thursday. It is surmised his nerve failed him after missing the early morning train and much surprise was occasioned by his failure to appear.
