

"RED Letters," "Blue Signs"

Markdownwits Reduction Ophobia and Salesfever. These ailments are common with most retailers at the closing of the season, but with some of Greenville's retailers it has become "epidemic." Just think of a store selling at cost the whole year. Markdownwits affect the patients pump, veracity—they can't tell the truth.

Reductionophobia develops a mania for talking "hot air" and the germ is in some stores in Greenville all the year-round.

Salesfever creates a reckless gathering of "flotsom and jetsom," stuff of inferior qualities, no matter what its antecedents, most of it prepared for the store with Red Signs and Markdownwits.

A Veritable Boarding House Hash.

We shall expect our methods to hold.

We are neither reformers nor philanthropists, and for young fellows, rather than old-fashioned. But we are determined to build up this store on principle statements based on facts and values and Merchandise beyond any competition.

Newspaper space is too expensive to use for "JOKES."

Our little comparisons, such as reference to the "Merchandise diseases" are very serious statements, and we take this method of calling the attention of the most critical and intelligent purchasing public to these abuses.

It is high time for better business methods any how. This store has demonstrated that to-day, did yesterday, and shall to-morrow.

We are never "over stocked," because we do not buy merchandise because it is cheap.

It must be good or it will not be admitted in this store. We reduce every week, yes every day, if we think it necessary. The new goods are here. Now for a general shake-up all along the line.

WE ARE HERE TO SELL GOODS.

Interesting Service in Episcopal Church Sunday Morning

A very interesting and impressive service was held in St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday morning during which Rev. W. E. Cox was ordained to the priesthood, he being advanced by the church from the order of deacon under which he has served the church for some time.

The ordination was conducted by R. Rev. Robert Strange, Bishop of this diocese, Rev. Claud F. Smith, of Washington, D. C., a native of this county and uncle of Rev. Mr. Cox, preached the ordination sermon. Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, N. C., was also present to take part in the service.

The sermon of Rev. Mr. Smith was from the text John 20. 21-23, the basis of his discourse being the words "Peace be unto you; as my Father has sent me, even so send I you." It was a strong sermon and was listened to with marked interest by the large congregation. His remarks addressed personally to Rev. Mr. Cox, as the latter stood before him near the close of the sermon, were beautiful.

The music at the service was excellent, especially the offertory solo sung by Miss Nina James to which the chorus choir gave splendid support.

There was not a happier soul in the congregation than Mrs. Mary Smith, of Winterville, the 80 year old mother of Rev. Mr. Smith and grandmother of Rev. Mr. Cox. She remarked afterward that she had looked forward with joy to the day when she could look upon her son and grandson standing together as ordained priests. Verily she is a "mother in Israel," and her children were brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. She could indeed look with pride upon the two before her on this occasion. Both are men of consecrated lives and true Christian character, and are an honor to their county and will faithfully fill the sacred calling in which they have enlisted.

New Officers Elected.

After the regular meeting of the Berea class Sunday at the Baptist church there was a business meeting held. The following officers were elected:

C. E. Bradley, president.
R. F. Betts, vice president.
H. B. Tripp, treasurer.
S. M. Abbott, corresponding secretary.

J. W. Allen, press reporter.
Ava Parham, music director.
J. W. Bryan, teacher.
Z. P. Vandyke, assistant teacher.

There was a large number of the members present and a great deal of interest manifested. It is important that every member should attend regularly, unless provisionally hindered, as we have one of the best teachers in the state.

Keep Order.

It is well enough for the people to keep in bounds and not go crazy because this is carnival week. They are not given license to do just what they please.

Association Drew a Crowd.

Sunday's train was like an excursion. There were two extra coaches and they were crowded to the steps with colored people going to an association over near Staton's mill. The crowd around the depot was immense.

Primitive Baptist Service.

Elder J. H. Hardee, of Reidsville, a visiting minister of the Primitive Baptist church, will preach in the Universalist church here tomorrow (Tuesday) night,

A Huge Success.

The greatest success of the season will be on tomorrow night at the opera house when a cast of one hundred and twenty-five of our best talented people will present the new scenes from operas now running in New York. The whole affair is beautifully worked up and as Mr. Atkinson, the director, remarked when Greenville people attempt to do a thing they do it well and this event will be a beauty. The acting and fancy steps by the different choruses is superb and especially the effect in "hold your horses" when one hundred are on the stage at one time driving the imaginary animals. This act is from the Hippodrome and is now running in New York. The seats are all 50 cents and now on sale at Coward & Wooten's drug store. The house is going to be packed as the already large sale indicates.

Brained Children With Axe.

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 30—Mrs. Clarence Markham, of Cambridge, near here, in a fit of temporary insanity today killed her seven children with an axe, after which she placed their bodies on a bed, saturated it with coal oil and set fire to it. She then hacked her throat with a knife and threw herself on the burning bed. Neighbors rescued her, but she was so badly burned that she died soon after she had made a confession. The eldest child was nine years old, the youngest a baby in arms.

Fire at Rocky Mount.

On Saturday night two tobacco warehouses at Rocky Mount were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at about $15,000. It is not known how the fire started.

Large Ear of Corn.

Today County Commissioner W. R. Horne brought to town with him one of the largest ears of corn we have seen. It was 12 inches long, 7 1/2 inches in circumference and was filled with grains to the tip.

Vote for the Queen.

Ladies' manique set to be given to the Queen of the carnival on Saturday night at 9 o'clock. Votes 1 cent each at Coward & Wooten's drug store, or Evans' Book Store 102 1/2 W. 4d.

Graded School Opens.

The graded school opened this morning for the fall session with about 350 pupils in attendance. Governor Jarvis made a short address to the school at the opening. The outlook is for a session of good work.

LETTER TO REV. J. A. HORNADAY, Greenville, N. C.

Rev. Sir: Three churches in Baldwinsville, N. Y., have had their first lesson in Devoe.

Messrs. Osterhout & Lockwood painted the Presbyterian parsonage estimated 30 gallons; took 22.

Messrs. Slingerland & Shutter painted the Episcopal church; estimated 40 gallons; took 23.

Same painters painted the Catholic church; estimated 50 gallons; took 39.

Of course, they estimated from what they had been using. The saving in paint and work is $4 or $5 a gallon. Total saving on three jobs $125 to $150—the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, you know.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.,

The fairs and big pumpkins will be in order this month.

It might be well to go on and hold that election in Raleigh to beat the whiskeyites and silence them.

The carnival train came in Sunday and went to unloading at once. That was the first lesson in morality our people got from it.

Charlotte druggists are paying out in court fines and costs some of the big money they have been making filling prescriptions for whiskey.

Raleigh wants to leave nothing undone when the president comes. They are even talking to fire a salute to him from an old Confederate cannon.

Greenville has not put in an application for a date with the president when he comes to North Carolina. We have attractions enough for the present.

Capt. Charles Price, of Salisbury, one of the state's most prominent men, died last week. He was the general attorney of the Southern railway in North Carolina and has been succeeded in that position by Col. W. B. Rodman.

The papers of Charlotte have won out in the fight made against them by the striking union printers, and they deserve congratulation. While considerably hampered none of the papers missed a single issue and they are getting back to their normal condition. Papers and employing printers in other cities troubled by the strikers might profit by the example of those in Charlotte.

Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad Sold

The Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railroad has been sold at a handsome profit to those who organized the corporation.

From out of a mass of rumors, none of which could be verified last night, that is the important truth.

Equally important is the fact that it has gone into strong hands, which presumably represent the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

The papers have not yet been drawn, but the agreement has been reached.

During the last few days there have been a number of meetings and conferences in the city between the representatives of either the Standard Oil Company or the Coast Line and the Directors of the new road yesterday. It is gathered on excellent authority, these negotiations reached a conclusion which means that the Pamlico Sound becomes a branch of the Atlantic Coast Line.

It is also gathered that the original plans as set forth by the promoters of the road will be followed and the line from Raleigh to Washington may be said to be assured. By next May, if the weather permits, the road will have been completed to Wilson and the trains running between that city and Raleigh. After the Wilson connection work will be rapidly prosecuted to Greenville, Washington and Snow Hill. It is expected that the Washington terminus will be established by Christmas, 1906 and in all probability at a much earlier date.

The road is already completed to Wendell, Wake county, and it is proposed to hold a celebration at that point next month at which that good community will have the opportunity of celebrating its connection with the Capital of the State and its direct touch with the coast.

It is regretted that the details of the deal cannot now be given. It is enough that it has been consummated. Whatever the result in the scheme of railroad economics, the assurance that the line between Raleigh and Washington is a practically certain fact will be pleasant reading to the thousands of good people along the line proposed.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Roosevelt and the South

There is a rumor in Washington that the president's visit to the South will have political significance. It will be more than a mere social function. It is said he has prepared the two or three set speeches, which he will make, one of them to be in Raleigh in which he will lay down some political principles. These speeches, so the rumor goes, will outline the president's proposed policy regarding two or three important measures which will come before congress at the approaching session, among them tariff revision and federal supervision of railway freight rates. If the president is going to attempt to force his ideas on congress he will need the aid of Southern members of the congress, especially in the upper house. He can, then, be counted on to do what he can during his tour of the South to so ingratiate himself with our people and to lay his plans and ideas before them for the purpose of securing their approval and endorsement.

When Mr. Roosevelt goes back to Washington in November he will be more popular at the South than he is now and more Southern congressmen will be ready to back him in his two pet schemes—Wilmington messenger.

The Rebate Evil

"It seems to me," said District Attorney Morrison in Chicago yesterday, "that the government is in a fair way of breaking off the entire rebate evil in this country." What, without more laws? Has it been all a mistake then, to mix up the rebate question with the project to give the Interstate Commerce Commission, or some other body, the power to decree railroad rates? So it would seem. Under existing law, we see representatives of a powerful corporation indicted, brought into court compelled to plead guilty and to pay fines of $25,000. No Esch-Townsend bill was necessary, no extra session of Congress, but just a plain enforcement of the statutes now on the books. We note, also, that it was not an impersonal corporation that was indicted and fined—not the indefinite Packing Company, but its officials by name, the said Well, Cusey, Skipworth and Todd. This is a clear violation of the legal precedent laid down by Roosevelt, Jr., in the case of Paul Morton.—New York Sun.

The cause of prohibition in North Carolina is supported by another paper which has just appeared in Elizabeth City, under the name of "The Great Issue." The new paper is edited by Rev. H. M. North, of the City Road church, and will deal with certain people who may not be reached in mass meetings held in behalf of the cause. The Economist states that no regular subscribers have been listed, but that numbers of boys have been employed to make a free distribution of the organ.

A NEW ENGLAND GENIUS.

John Foster, the First Wood Engraver on This Continent.

Light upon the life of an early New England genius, John Foster, who seems to have been the first to execute wood engraving on this continent as well as the first to establish a printing office in Boston, has been thrown by Dr. Samuel A. Green, librarian of the Massachusetts Historical Society. He has, through his researches, made a valuable contribution to local historical literature in the form of a biographical sketch embodying much in regard to Foster, who, it appears, was the son of Hopestill Foster, whose Christian name is still borne by a street in Dorchester. John was born in what is now south Boston in 1648 and was graduated at Harvard at the age of nineteen and taught school in Dorchester, several years later establishing his printing office in Boylston street, near Washington, in 1675.

It has been supposed that Foster did his engraving merely incidental to his printing, but Dr. Green has discovered an old letter showing that he was engraving four years at least before he began printing. A map of New England, which he made in 1677, is inscribed, "The first that ever was cut here." He is known to have engraved a seal of Massachusetts, a very crude portrait of the Rev. Richard Mather, the first of the Mathers, and a view of Boston and Charlestown, from Noddles island, not an example of which is known to be in existence today. He was the author of six almanacs.

Foster died at the early age of thirty-three, in 1681, and his grave, in the old Dorchester burial ground, is still marked by two ornate stones, the one at the head bearing the inscription:

THE INGENIOUS Mathematician & Printer Mr. JOHN FOSTER, AGED 33 YEARS DYED SEPT 9th 1681.
—Boston Transcript.

Drawbacks to a Chaperon.

"Why do they always build boxes in theaters that hold just even numbers, I wonder?" queried the young girl who had just begun to go out evenings. "They are always made to accommodate four people or six people, and that seems so silly of the managers, when they know as well as anybody else that you always have to take a chaperon along. Of course the chaperon always makes an odd number, and it seems like a sin to waste that extra seat just because one must take her along. It's bad enough to have her anyway without the host being forced to pay for two seats for her. As to inviting an extra girl or fellow, why, that is the worst possible mistake that one could make. No, the only solution is to build boxes that will seat either five or seven people. Then we would all be happy."—New York Herald.

Wouldn't Waste It.

Andrew Lang in his "Adventures Among Books" tells this of Robert Louis Stevenson: "That he and a friend traveled utterly without baggage, buying a shirt where a shirt was needed, is a fact, and the incident is used in 'The Wrecker.' Legend says that once he and a friend did possess a bag and also, nobody ever knew why, a large bottle of scent. But there was no room for the bottle in the bag, so Mr. Stevenson spilled the whole contents over the other man's head, taking him unawares, that nothing might be wasted."

Wonderful Blades.

The most celebrated weapons in history, uniting miraculous sharpness with wonderful elasticity, are undoubtedly the blades of Damascus. The sabers of Japan, although as hard as a diamond and taking an edge so acute that they will go through a pillow or poker as if they were air, cannot compete with the old Syrian swords because they have no elasticity. This elasticity is not altogether a "lost art," as even today one may see in Toledo, Spain, blades packed in coils like watch springs. Swords were made during the last century in Russia that rivaled in edge and beading qualities the famous Damascus blades. At the imperial factory of Zlatoust, in the Urals, some were turned out which bent till the point touched the hilt and which would also cut through an iron bar. More than this no blade has ever done or can do.

A Slow Journey.

The car crawled slowly on, with an occasional long pause at a threatened breakdown. At last an old man with a long white beard rose feebly from a corner seat and tottered toward the door. He was, however, stopped by the conductor, who said:

"Your fare, please."
"I paid my fare."
"When? I don't remember it."
"Why, I paid you when I got on the car."
"Where did you get on?"
"At Nether Liberton."
"That won't do! When I left Nether Liberton there was only a 'little boy on the car."
"Yes," answered the old man, "I know it. I was that little boy."—Auckland (New Zealand) News.

Let Common Sense Decide

Do you honestly believe, that coffee sold loose (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not over-clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you would not dream of are taken to secure perfect cleanliness, flavor, strength and uniformity.

From the time the coffee leaves the factory no hand touches it till it is opened in your kitchen.

This has made LION COFFEE the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES.

Millions of American Homes welcome LION COFFEE daily. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity. "Quality survives all opposition."

(Sold only in 1 lb. packages. Lion-head on every package.)
(Save your Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

Only The Best GOODS And Fairest Prices at Greenville's GREAT Department STORE.

The time has come for a matter-of-fact talk on a matter-of-fact subject.

You buyers of Fall and Winter goods are about to supply yourselves with suitable selections for the coming season's requirements.

The idea uppermost in your mind is to get something good and seasonable at the very lowest price. With all of you it comes down to a question of the RIGHT PLACE to go, what firm will do best by its customers.

WE WILL—That's the point, is it not? and why not say it when we have the goods and prices that will back this statement every time? We are going to do business right through this busy Fall on this basis, giving good honest goods at FAIREST PRICES.

You will find us prepared to please and certain to carry out our promises, and what a stock we have for you to select from. We are crowded to overflowing with the most complete and elegant line of new Fall and Winter Styles ever shown in this locality, every article in this Stock has been selected with care and bought at bed-rock figures, all grades and varieties are represented in this stock with the choicest and best goods procurable in the line.

There will be comfort and satisfaction in doing your shopping for the season with us because we have gathered together with care and good judgment an immense line of thoroughly popular new styles.

We are confident we have the goods you want and that our prices are just as satisfactory as the goods.

You can come in and satisfy yourself on this point without the slightest risk—no visitor is under obligation to be an unwilling purchaser.

Trusting you will favor us with a call we are yours truly,

Don't forget to have your picture made carnival week, 12 nice photographs for 25 cents that week only. R. T. Evans, Photographer, 9 30 2 rd Dickinson Ave.

If there are any fakers around and you let them swindle you it is your own fault.

Photographer Evans has purchased a multiplying camera and during carnival week will make 12 nice photographs for 25 cents. 9 30 2 t d.

The fruit dealers have planned for a big week. There never were so many bananas in town at one time as now.

Don't you need a ledger or other blank books? They are cheap at Reflector Book Store.

The term "fancy dances" mentioned in the write up for the opera tomorrow night, in a previous issue, had no reference to dancing proper but to the rhythmic movements accompanied by music. The correction is cheerfully made.

Hurrah for the carnival! Get your confetti at Evans' Book Store. The kind they have will fly furthest and is absolutely free of all dirt.

Hope Fire Company meets tonight at 7:30.

"Ha, ha, ha," laughed the little fellow when he saw that five cent scratch tablet at Evans' Book Store. It pleases them all.

SALE AND EXCHANGE STABLES

HORSES & MULES.

We will keep a full stock of horses and mules on hand all the season. We are prepared to furnish you any kind of horse you want, draft horses, fine drivers and farm horses.

We keep the finest mules that can be bought. We will also buy or trade for any kind of mules or horses, will buy anything from a $10 plug to $200 driver. Come to see us. If we have not got what you want we will get it.

R. L. SMITH & CO.

THE WELL DRESSED MAN

Should consider with great forethought the suit he is to buy and the store he is to buy from for the coming season. His general appearance will depend largely upon the fit of his clothes, and the CLOTHES he wears.

Good Cloth: This is the foundation of your suit. Avoid those unreliable firms who deal in shoddy and pin your faith to GRIFFON Clothes.

Good Fit: This is one essential that you should exercise with more care than all others. A poor fitting suit is a poor piece of property. But it matters not how tall you are, how slim you are, how stout you are, how short you are, we have 'em to fit your form. A Griffon suit has the distinction of being distinctly stylish.

All the new things are here. At any price from $10.00 to $22.50 We will make it very interesting to you. Bring your shoulders with you.
