AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Oct. 20, 1905.

Tuesday night some one having a special, and we presume a craving, thirst for the spiritous fermentum broke into the dispensary, by breaking out one of the front windows, and stole 43 quarts of good old licker the value of which was $32.25. There is no clue to the thief, but what a good old time some folks must have been having since Tuesday night.

Since Tuesday a great many more from here left to attend the Raleigh fair.

Mrs. J. D. Weeks, of Scotland Neck, who has been visiting her mother, near here, returned to her home Wednesday.

Immense quantities of goods are now being received by our merchants all of whom are doing a thriving business and anticipate an unusually large trade during the coming season.

Miss Emma Benton, who is in charge of the sick ones out at Mr. Mack Dixon's was a very pleasant visitor in our town yesterday.

George Kittrell, of Winterville, gave us a call yesterday.

Married Wednesday evening at 4 o'clock, at Bonerton, N. C. Mr. W. E. Patrick, of Ayden, and Miss Annie Verdelle Ross, of the former place. The attendants were Mr. Lawrence Midgette and Miss Neva Boyd. Mr. Patrick and wife with bridal party arrived here Wednesday evening and held a reception at the home of the groom in East Ayden. They will make this their home. We tender congratulations.

Edwin Tripp and John Willis went to Greenville Wednesday.

Mrs. M. M. Sauls and little Miss Burrus Sauls have gone to Richmond to visit the parents of Mrs. Sauls.

Matt Slaughter, of Kinston, has been here during the week.

One of the necessities for the town of Ayden just now is an efficient night watch. Already we know the lack of it. Take heed lest we know more and that to our sorrow.

Last Tuesday morning Mr. Joe C. Tripp while at work in his factory had the misfortune to get his left hand very badly torn. All of the skin and flesh on top of the hand was torn off and the entire hand badly mutilated. Mr. Tripp has suffered with it intensely but is now getting on nicely.

J. J. Edwards and daughter, Miss Ida, spent Tuesday in Greenville.

J. J. Smith, W. J. Mumford, Josephus Gaskins and Mack Taylor are taking in the Raleigh fair and President Roosevelt.

Mrs. W. J. Hemby and children, of Winterville, are visiting Mrs. Luke Hemby.

Miss Mittie Garris spent the day in Greenville Wednesday.

Frank Lilly left yesterday to attend the Masonic funeral of Mr. Kinchen Worthington, below Cuxville. Mr. Worthington died Wednesday.

As can be seen from our advertising column a reward of $100.00 has been offered for apprehension and conviction of the thief who broke into the Ayden dispensary Tuesday night, 17th inst.

Misses Lucy Turnage, Margaret Ormond and Elizabeth Carver, of Ormondville, came over Tuesday and left on the train for Raleigh.

Prof. Bunch has been a visitor here this week.

Rev. W. R. Ford who has been delivering a series of lectures during the past week in the Methodist church on the customs and habits of New Zealand and Australian where he claims to have been a resident for several years, closed Wednesday night and left Thursday. Those who heard him speak very complimentary of him.

WHAT DID HE MEAN?

Some Significance in President's Remark About Ex-Gov. Aycock.

The Raleigh News & Observer in its report of President Roosevelt's visit to Raleigh Thursday has this paragraph:

"President Roosevelt grasped ex-Governor Aycock by both hands, and after speaking to him a moment told those around him that Governor Aycock was one of the best men he knew, and then said something about the governor's going to Washington."

And many people are wondering just what the president meant. It is well known that he is a great admirer of North Carolina's ex-governor, and whether this means that the president wants him in the cabinet, or whether it is an intimation that he is to be North Carolina's next senator, or whether he merely meant that he wanted ex-Governor Aycock to go to Washington to see him is not clear. In the absence of knowing just what the president did mean the reader must draw his own conclusions from the paragraph.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

The North Carolina Christian Body Meets at LaGrange Tuesday.

LaGrange, N. C., Oct. 19.—The North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention will meet here next Tuesday. The president is E. A. Moyer, of Greenville, N. C. The Christian Women's Board of Missions will occupy the time the first day. On Wednesday the convention will be addressed by F. D. Power, of Washington City, on the subject of Christian Benevolence.

Several Christian workers of national reputation will be present and will participate in the proceedings of the convention. Among these are Stephen J. Corey, on the subject of Foreign Missions; A. B. Cunningham, on The Model Church; Howard T. Cree, on Church Extension; J. A. Hopkins, on How to Secure Endowment; J. B. Brimey, on Christian Education, and W. J. Wright, on Home Missions.

This has been a very prosperous year with the church. It has made the greatest gain in additions to the church of any year in our history. It has entered new fields and established new churches. The missionary offerings have been good as will be shown by the report of the convention.

Rates have been secured on all railroads in the State on the certificate plan. Pay full fare going and secure a certificate from your local agent showing you have paid full fare to LaGrange and you can return for one third regular fare plus twenty five cents.

Surry Men Swap Wives.

Winston-Salem, Oct. 19.—A few weeks ago the "State of Wilkes" startled the world by claiming to have in her borders the only two men in existence who had actually swapped-wives. However, according to the Mt. Airy Leader, Surry never allows her banner to trail in the dust, for she can now boast of such a case, and besides the Surry county people "tarned the trick" in a strictly legal way.

At the last term of the Superior court for Surry county two couples from near Round Peak applied for and secured absolute divorces upon statutory grounds, in which the husbands of two women were named as correspondents. David Turney and Ab Montgomery were neighbors and for some time had been making "goo-goo" eyes at each other's wives.

The law severed the irksome bonds of matrimony, and a few weeks ago David married Ab's wife. The marriage of Ab to David's wife has also been celebrated.

W. B. Greene returned from Richmond Thursday evening.

Z. V. Hooker came in from Richmond Thursday evening.

Robert Cordell, an employe of the Southern railway, was run over and killed by a train near Asheville Wednesday night.

George Fields, a young man, was found dead in the woods near Dudley. His head was badly mangled. There are conflicting rumors as to the cause of his death, some thinking that he was murdered and others that he was struck by a falling tree.

GENERAL NEWS.

The cost of the President's Southern tour in transportation is estimated at between $5,000 and $6,000, if he pays the regular railroad rates.

The sheriff of Hartford county, in Connecticut, has been fined $50 by the United States District court for taking a federal prisoner from the county jail to paint his summer house and work around his grounds at New London.

Edward Cunliffe, the clerk who recently stole $100,000 from the Adams Express Co. at Pittsburg, Pa., was arrested in Bridgeport, Conn., Thursday. He said he had all the money and would restore it.

Hold your cotton, farmers,
Hold it tight,
Hold 'till there's eleven cents in sight

Once in a while cotton takes a spurt as if it wanted to go to eleven cents, but it falls by the way.

They were so full of the president, or something else, that Raleigh papers all flew the track Thursday.

As was expected of North Carolina she did herself proud in her greetings to the president on his visit to and through the state.

They are now saying that the presents given to Miss Alice Roosevelt on her trip abroad are counterfeit, the jewels being only imitations, and that the handsome pearls given by the Sultan of Sulu could be duplicated in this country for $50. That will cut down the big customs duty.

An Asheville doctor makes visits to his patients in a stylish automobile. A less pretentious country brother pill roller rides behind a mule. The automobile and mule met in the road, and not liking each other there was trouble. The mule bucked and backed the buggy into a ditch, much to the injury of the country doctor who occupied the vehicle, and in consequence a suit for $10,000 has been instituted against the owner of the automobile.

The biggest day in the history of Raleigh was Thursday. Knowing that the president would be there had attracted immense crowds even before the day of his arrival and the fair was in full blast. Early Thursday the throng of people became the wonder of the day. Owing to the death of Gen. Glenn the program had to be very much modified from what had been planned. Breakfast at the mansion had to be dispensed with. The presidential party took breakfast on their train and arrived in Raleigh at the union depot promptly at 9 o'clock, a. m. They were met here by Lieutenant Governor Winston, officiating for Governor Glenn, the state officers, marshals, committees and a vast crowd of people. The procession made its way to the capitol where the president presented the cup offered by the Historical Society. He was introduced by ex Governor Aycock in a manner which is peculiar to Aycock alone. The procession then headed for the fair grounds along Hillsboro street. Never such a procession passed along a street in Raleigh before. Arriving at the fair grounds the president reviewed for a short while the military organizations present. The handsomest thing in the procession was the appearance of the boys from the A. & M. College formed into five companies. The president spoke from a platform in front of the grand stand and was heard by thousands of people. His speech like the one of the day before at Richmond was pleasing. In fact the president seems to have some tact for making speeches down South. He probably never spoke to a more orderly and attentive crowd considering its size than the one he addressed Thursday. North Carolina was pleased with him and with his visit and it was an epoch in the history of the fair. He spoke also at Durham, High Point, Salisbury and Charlotte.

Damage Suits Take a New Tack.

The railroad damage suit industry in Texas has taken a new turn. Tired of being made to pay out millions of dollars to employes on claims many of which are believed to be fictitious some of the railroads have adopted the policy of suing their employes when accidents occur through negligence.

The International and Great Northern Railroad Company, a Gould property, has filed suit in the District court of San Antonio against Frank Brice, formerly one of its locomotive engineers, for $40,000 damages. The petition charges that Brice was responsible for the wreck which occurred at Kyle, Texas, last March, in which much railroad property was wrecked and several passengers were injured. Brice obtained a judgment for $15,000 damages against the railroad company for injuries.

State Aid.

New Hampshire has taken a most remarkable step in the direction of a better system of public highways. A measure has been enacted into law appropriating no less a sum than three quarters of a million dollars for the permanent improvement of the main highways of the state. The money is to be raised at the rate of $125,000 a year for six years.

This amount will build a great many miles of macadam road, and will, no doubt, lead to still further construction in years to come.

It is what we will all have to come to, sooner or later. The state must do the general road-making. The cities and villages and even counties are too small units for so large a work. But state and towns in combination can accomplish a great deal and the burden will be lighter. New Hampshire, in reality, has only taken a place in the march of progress.

A Good Plan.

The Iredell county people have gone into the cotton-holding business on a practical basis. The plan is briefly outlined by Dr. J. J. Mott, in a letter to The Observer. A combination of farmers and business men has been formed for the purpose of protecting the price of the cotton crop in Iredell county. Arrangements have been made with the banks of the county to aid in furnishing a sufficient amount of money to carry the cotton of such farmers as are compelled to sell in the early market, letting these farmers have 6 cents a pound on each bale, by placing the cotton in a warehouse owned by a citizen of Statesville, who charges 25 cents a month for keeping it. Dr. Mott will suggest that if this plan were adopted in every county in the South, a uniform, legitimate price would be obtained for the crop. We believe that by next season, all the cotton farmers of the South will be organized on some such basis as this.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Mrs. John Cade, of Leavenworth county, Kansas, owns a fine peach orchard. Last spring her neighbors sprayed their peach trees as usual, but while they sprayed, Mrs. Cade prayed. Mrs. Cade made a fine crop of peaches, while those of her neighbors were almost complete failures.

His Punishment.

Father (who has gone into the pantry unexpectedly and finds William, aged ten, stealing biscuits)—Now, William, what do you mean by this? Do you know that the law punishes people for small offenses? "Well, you stole once and did not get punished."

"I?"
"Yes, father. You stole mother's heart."

"Right, my son, but, remember, I got severe punishment for that. I got a life sentence and am at it still."

Quite Another Matter.

Uncle George—Instead of wearing diamonds, don't you think it would be more becoming to pay your tailor's bills?

Harry—But if I paid my tailor's bills how could I afford to wear diamonds? And if people didn't buy diamonds what would keep the diamond merchants from starving to death?

Uncle George—But you don't pay for your diamonds either.

Harry—Ah, now you are wandering from the point.

MAJESTIC BAKING

DEMONSTRATION

ONE WEEK OCT. 23rd to 28th 1905.

We heartily invite our friends to call any day during the above mentioned week and we will demonstrate the superior qualities of the

New Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Ranges.

The MAJESTIC MALLEABLE and Steel Ranges as formerly turned out by the Majestic people has been considered throughout the entire country par excellence, and far ahead of any other range made. But with the NEW CHARCOAL IRON BODY in place of Steel, making it double its value, and the fact that it is the only range in existence made of Malleable and Charcoal Iron, you can readily see that if quality is considered, the Majestic leads by a big margin. We want you to call at our store during this week, and let us explain this new feature:—CHARCOAL IRON BODIES; let us explain why it is the best material for range bodies, and incidentally, why it is not used on other ranges. We want you to call if you intend to buy or not, as the information gained will serve you in the future.

HANDSOME SOUVENIR FREE

As long as they last, we propose to give to each prospective customer a neat souvenir, something that has not been offered before. If you intend to buy call early and get one of these souvenirs.

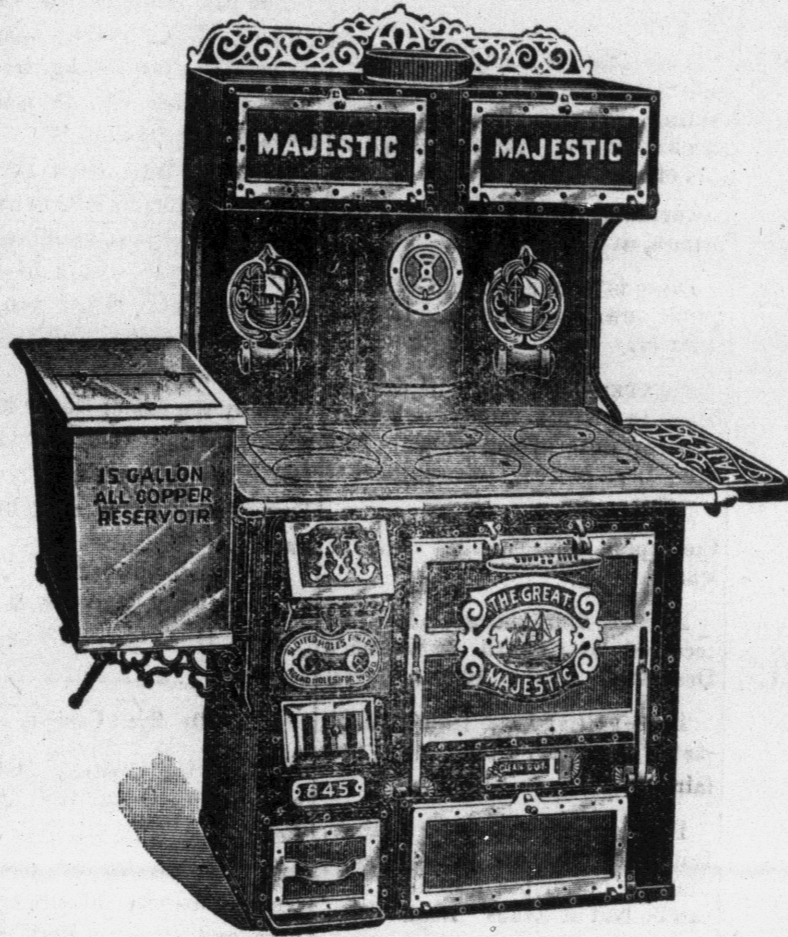

HOT COFFEE AND BISCUIT FREE

Come any day during this week and have buttered hot biscuits and hot coffee. Biscuits baked on a Majestic in three minutes while you wait.

HANDSOME SET OF WARE FREE

With every range sold during this Demonstration we will give absolutely FREE one set of Majestic ware worth every cent of $7.50. This ware will be on exhibition at our store. Everything useful, ornamental and durable. Come in and see it, and you will agree with us that it cannot be bought for a cent less than $7.50, and it is cheap at that.

LETTER TO H. A. WHITE.

Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir: Shuffert Hardware Co. Hickory, N. C. bought a car load of paint; after selling it a few months, found out it measured seven pints a "gallon."

Returned it to the maker and credited customers with what they had lost from short measure.

What do you think of a short measure paint? Don't you think it half whitewash? Half the paints are part whitewash.

Go by the name; Devoe lead and zinc. No whitening or clay in that; full measure besides. A gallon Devoe is worth two of whitewash paint.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.
P. S. H. L. Carr sells our paint.

Griffon Brand

THE WELL DRESSED MAN

Should Consider with great forethought the suit he is to buy and the store he is to buy from for the coming season. His general appearance will depend largely upon the fit of his clothes, and the CLOTHES he wears.

Good Cloth: This is the foundation of your suit. Avoid those unreliable firms who deal in shoddy and pin your faith to GRIFFON Clothes

Good Fit: This is one essential that you should exercise with more care than all others. A poor fitting suit is a poor piece of property. But it matters not how tall you are, how slim you are, how stout you are, how short you are, we have 'em to fit your form. A Griffon suit has the distinction of being distinctly stylish.

All the new things are here. At any price from $10.00 to $22.50. We will make it very interesting to you. Bring your shoulders with you.
