RAIN COATS FOR LADIES AND
OVERCOATS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

"EFF-EFF"

Let us set you straight on the matter of Cravenette Overcoats. The most successful process for waterproofing a garment is that of Priestley's, and every Cravenette treated to their process bears their name, and when in addition to Priestley's Cravenette stamp an overcoat is identified with the label of Wilkinson the combination is one that insures not only a waterproof overcoat, but also an overcoat of fine fabric, with all the knocks of fashion and style that distinguish the "EFF EFF" Clothing people from the ordinary sort.

DEATH OF MRS. EDWARD LIBERATE.

[CONTRIBUTED]

The death angel has taken from our midst another loved one, Lena Elizabeth, wife of Edward Liberate, of Richmond, Ind., and daughter of Dr. John S. and Miss Elizabeth Taft. This is the second daughter that Mrs. Taft has lost within the last six or eight weeks.

The suddenness and unusually pathetic circumstances of this death makes it all the greater shock to relatives and friends alike. The life of a dear sweet baby boy went out with hers and mother and babe will be laid away in the same casket, the babe resting peacefully on the mother's breast.

"A little child shall lead them"—tiny little baby hands may lead her straight up to our Saviour's waiting arms. She leaves a little three year old daughter, Rose Elizabeth, to call in vain for "mama." The husband and little daughter and Mrs. Lincoln Leeb, of Muncie, Ind., a sister of the deceased, will accompany the remains to her old home for burial in the Taft graveyard near Greenville, N. C.

She had been living in Richmond only a short time, but all here who knew her loved her, and appreciated the noble, unselfish life of the loving wife, the devoted mother and true friend. She was always gladly ready to do a kindness for others, and spared not herself in her noble unselfish efforts to do kind deeds and give pleasure to others. In the great day of atonement it can be truly said of her, "She hath done what she could."

She bravely and uncomplainingly bore all her sufferings, and passed away at five o'clock Saturday morning, Nov. 18th, 1905, at the hospital in Richmond. To us she left the pain, to her the rest.

AN AVERAGE THAT COUNTS

Business of the Consolidated Growing.

Talk about high averages, the Farmers warehouse, operated by the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co., made one Tuesday that counts. That day this house sold between 28,000 and 30,000 pounds, and the average on the entire sale, even including the scrap, was 11 1/2 cents. If the scrap had not been included the average would have gone much higher. This kind of sale bears out the claim made by the Consolidated (and the claim is based on sworn statements) that its two houses average higher on sales than all other houses on the market.

The Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Co. is a co-operative organization, the farmers who are stockholders sharing in the profits made, and it is no wonder that as the farmers awaken to their interest the business of the company grows larger and larger. It is an organization of tobacco farmers working in their own interest and the business is well managed.

WANTS MISAPPROPRIATION OF INSURANCE FUNDS STOPPED.

Gov. R. B. Glenn has issued the following timely open letter to the people of North Carolina:

"When upon investigation, officers of some of the largest foreign insurance companies admitted that large sums of money belonging to their companies had been used for influencing elections, lobbying Legislatures and other improper purposes, I felt that our people should be protected against such practices, and therefore carefully studied our insurance laws, hoping I could find some provision, by which such companies could be debarred from doing business in our State, until wrongs thus done their policy holders were corrected.

"We have no such law, however, though there should be, and in no uncertain words, I will ask next General Assembly to amend our existing laws, so the insurance commissioner, by and with the consent of the Governor and council of State, can stop any company illegally appropriating funds of their policy holders from transacting any business in the State, until their officers make good amounts improperly paid out. All corporations and insurance companies have a perfect right to employ counsel to attend to any legitimate matters, or properly represent them before legislative committees, in order to express their views on pending measures, but they have no right to use funds that would otherwise increase the dividends of their share holders, or policy holders, by corruptly paying them out to influence Congress or Legislatures or in controlling results of elections.

"The argument they make that certain laws passed, or party placed in power, would impair their business, and thereby lessen their earning capacity, even if true, and it is not, cannot justify or excuse their doing acts recognized by all as illegal. Formerly our people were too poor to establish insurance companies in North Carolina, but now we have honest, reliable companies, are amply able and willing to handle all our insurance.

"The companies now under investigation are all solvent and the policies held by our people are perfectly good (I hold one myself), and therefore should not be surrendered. Neither do I desire to do these companies any wrong, if they will themselves do right; but before doing any new business, or expecting our people to patronize them, they must practice equity and compel their officers to correct misappropriations already made, or steps will be taken to control them.

"This statement is written in answer to many queries and letters, asking me why some action has not been taken. No action can be taken without some law to authorize it, but every effort will be made to correct this omission, and thus in the future protect our people. Feeling deeply the trust reposed in me by the people in electing me Governor, I assure them that in this matter, as well as in all others appertaining to their welfare, I will try to bring before the Legislature all such measures as will best promote their interests and protect them from wrong. I am glad to state that both the insurance commissioner and the council of the State are with me in my effort to thus secure better protection for our policy holders."

The way the winners' report put cotton to humping was enough to knock bears silly.

The letter of Governor Glenn regarding misappropriation of funds by officers of insurance companies is right, and the next legislature should enact a law carrying out his suggestions.

The bank deposits in Greenville show that there is money enough here to back up several good manufacturing enterprises. If we had the manufacturing enterprises they would swell the bank deposits even more.
