RAIN COATS FOR LADIES AND
OVERCOATS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

"EFF-EFF"
FORM FIFTY-TWO

Let us set you straight on the matter of Cravenette Overcoats. The most successful process for waterproofing a garment is that of Priestley's, and every Cravenette treated to their process bears their name, and when in addition to Priestley's Cravenette stamp an overcoat is identified with the label of Wilkinson the combination is one that insures not only a waterproof overcoat, but also an overcoat of fine fabric, with all the knocks of fashion and style that distinguish the "EFF EFF" Clothing people from the ordinary sort.

THE FUTURE OF GREENVILLE

Its Rapid Growth and Prosperity.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

The wonderfully rapid growth and extension of the town of Greenville is a marvel. To those who take interest in the success of the town so beautifully situated as it is—like Rome on its seven hills—surrounded by the most splendid agricultural area in the state, the greatest bright tobacco growing county in the world, one of the finest cotton and cereal counties in the state, and the best people on earth to make a country great; the question arises, where is Greenville, the county seat, going to find a spreading place to build? And it is indeed a problem.

Looking the matter square in the face, the writer has carefully observed and closely watched where the trend of residential outlook seemed to drift, and where the most opportune location could be speculated upon. South Greenville is by far in the lead. West Greenville is handicapped by "Lincoln Town" filled up by the colored settlement, and South Greenville is the only hope of the future of that class of citizenship that makes a town famous and offers the best location for homes.

A more beautiful addition in residential future cannot be found than on the James property, now owned by S. T. White. High, level and the most splendid surroundings in every respect. Why Mr. White has not laid out and made the 22 acres a most beautiful building locality is a mystery.

The town of Greenville must go somewhere, and it should go where the very best, most healthful and splendid homes could be made. To the business man there is no nearer place for a home now unobtainable. It is just across the border line of the town, and ere long will be on this side of the border and the most lovely part of modern Greenville. Mr. White, as a young, enterprising business man and prosperous citizen of the town, should place this property on the market, let handsome homes be erected there and enhance the property and beauty of Greenville.

The writer does not mean to dictate to Mr. White, but in a spirit of progressive kindness he does suggest that this beautiful tract of land should not be grown in a shallow crop when the town needs its area for homes. We believe upon a real honest, serious consideration of the future good he would convert the little "patch" into a well laid out town, regardless of the loss of a few cabbages, melons and potatoes.

The town must go somewhere. Mr. White, open your heart and let it go towards South Greenville. Will you do it? Many want places now. Will you do the magnanimous thing and let the town be opened and spread out? There are men of means who will buy if you will sell on reasonable terms, and the whole community would be bettered by such a citizenship as would be purchasers of these beautiful lots. X. X.

Mrs. Wiggins Demands $10,000.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 22.—Mrs. Kate Wiggins of the Salvation Army, has instituted suit for $10,000 damage against A. A. Featherston, a liquor dealer of this city, who kicked her from his saloon several weeks ago.

MISS COTTEN ENTERTAINS

Delightful Gathering at Cottondale.

At Cottondale Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cotten's hospitable home, near Greenville, Miss Sallie, their accomplished daughter, entertained on the eighteenth a party of friends in honor of Miss Pat Skinner and Mrs. Haywood Dail. Jr. This preceding Miss Skinner's marriage to Mr. C. S. Carr and being the second anniversary of Mrs. Dail's marriage.

Miss Cotten received her guests at seven o'clock, and after adopting them as members of her home, an elegant dinner was served under and amidst beautiful decorations. After dinner and before leaving the dining hall Miss Skinner was surprised by being the victim of a "handkerchief shower." Miss Cotten's guests and many friends of Miss Skinner had provided a great number of rare and beautiful handkerchiefs for the occasion.

The guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dail, C. S. Carr, Miss Pat Skinner; Dr. Zeno Brown, Miss Gottlieb, Baltimore; Preston S. Cotten, Miss Alice White, of Missouri; Dr. Louis Skinner, Mrs. E. B. Ficklen; Charlie James, Miss Lena Matthews; W. E. Hooker, Miss Nina James; Frank M. Wooten, Miss Winnie Skinner; Thomas J. Moore, J. D. Gardner and J. Benj. Higgs, remained with Miss Cotten until the afternoon of the following day, and just before the party bade the hostess goodbye, lunch was served on the bank of Tar River, near the home, bringing to a close a day prominent for its beauty, an entertainment that can never be forgotten by those whose good fortune it was to be the guests of Mr. Cotten's charming daughter and genial and hospitable home, Cottondale, on this occasion.

Brought Home for Burial.

The remains of Mrs. Edward Liberatei and infant, accompanied by Mr. Liberatei and little daughter and Mrs. Lincoln Lesh, arrived here Wednesday evening from Richmond, Ind. The remains were taken to the Methodist church for the night, and were carried to the Taft grave yard, 7 miles from town, today for interment. Rev. J. A. Hornaday conducted the funeral service.

Having a Good Time.

A farmer living on one of the rural routes, who has taken advantage of THE REFLECTOR magazine offer, tells us he is having the best time imaginable reading them these winter nights. All who want the benefit of a year's magazine reading at less than half price should not wait too long. The offer is only for a limited time.

Electricity Spanks Illinois Children.

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 22.—An electric spanking machine, invented by Professor Denis, is now in use in the public school in East Pennsylvania, a suburb of this city.

The method of operation is to place the pupil over a chair near the machine, press a button and thus bring a series of paddles into play.

The parents of pupils threaten to withdraw their children from school if the machine is not taken out.

Non Suit in Gattis-Kilgo.

The verdict has been reached at last in the famous damage suit of Rev. J. T. Gattis vs. President John C. Kilgo and B. N. Dude, of the board of trustees of Trinity College, in that the Supreme Court this afternoon delivered a decision sustaining the order of Judge Fred Moore in Wake County Superior Court, allowing a non suit on the ground that the plaintiff had not shown malice on the part of either Kilgo or Duke in the publications of the proceedings of the college directors complained of.

President Roosevelt will be more opposed to foot ball than ever, since young Teddy got his nose broke in a game.

We want to see the farmers get all they can for their cotton, but there is danger in setting the limit too high.

While Mr. Hearst paid big money, Mr. McClellan says it did not cost him a cent. Well, some people have a way of getting along on a cheap scale, while others have to "pay the fiddler."

The movement to push to completion the additional buildings at the state hospital shows that the recent talk about caring for the insane has not been a waste of words.

We wonder if the Wilmington people would have given the German cruiser Panther such a hearty welcome had they known what was the cause of her presence in American waters.

The Chicago woman who burned $15,000 because she thought her husband married her for money, and then later applied to the court for alimony, ought to have been told to go out and scramble for herself.

Instead of the two new Republican papers, recently started in Greensboro, building up a respectable Republican party in North Carolina, they bid fair to further increase the dissension already existing in the party ranks. The greatest trouble with the Republican party is that there are not enough offices for all to get in.

New York was too much for many of the sailors who came over with the British fleet that accompanied Prince Louis on his trip to America. When the Prince was ready to set sail for home, two hundred of the sailors who had been given shore leave failed to return to the ships. Some of them lost their uniforms and their money too on the Boverly.

People sometime change their opinions about other people, and there are instances that it is well to do so. This should be the case if one finds that his opinion of another is wrong. Col. Henry Watterson is quoted recently as saying that President Roosevelt is "a messiah of brotherhood." At a banquet in New York last year with Col. Watterson as one of the principal speakers, we heard him refer to President Roosevelt as "as fine a gentleman as ever scuttled a ship."

Oh, the fools and the gues! There was a party in Chatham county recently where quite a number of young people gathered. A young man, aged 21 years, had no more sense than to pick up an old gun and begin fooling with it. The result was he shot a young lady through the heart and killed her. There ought to be a stringent law with a severe penalty for fooling with a gun. Life goes too cheap when a person is killed this way and the fool who commits the act is excused because he "didn't know it was loaded."

It is just as important to educate the adult as it is the child. Sometimes it is surprising to meet up with the ignorance displayed by some grown people. It may be a conservative estimate to say that more than half the people are so poorly educated that in life work they are constantly hampered by their ignorance. A person never gets too old to learn. In illiteracy in the Southern States, Louisiana occupies the top of the column with 40 per cent North Carolina stands sixth in this list.—Durham Sun.

State Horticulturalist H. H. Hume issues warning to the farmers of the state against agents who are getting through the state selling what they term German grafted fruit trees that are proof against the attacks of insects and diseases, and "bosh strawberries." The fruit trees, he says are absolutely without merit and the berries are inferior, sour or bitter and bear poorly. He urges farmers to let these agents severely alone.

Can anyone tell us to what party Mr. Jerome belongs? We suppose he considers himself a member of some political party, if it is to one of which he is the only member. His remarkable success in the recent election has made him the most prominent man recently elected to office in the United States. He must hold to some political principles. What are they? Is his the Jerome party and its platform "Jerome for Jerome?"
