RAIN COATS FOR LADIES
AND
OVERCOATS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

FORM FIFTY-TWO
"EFF-EFF"

Let us set you straight on the matter of Cravenette Overcoats. The most successful process for waterproofing a garment is that of Priestley's, and every Cravenette treated to their process bears their name, and when in addition to Priestley's Cravenette stamp an overcoat is identified with the label of Wilkinson the combination is one that insures not only a waterproof overcoat, but also an overcoat of fine fabric, with all the knocks of fashion and style that distinguish the "EFF EFF" Clothing people from the ordinary sort.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Nov. 23, 1905.

Saturday night there was a runaway just around the corner on Main street by a horse hitched to a buggy. There was no damage of consequence, only a badly smashed up buggy, harness torn to shreds and a crowd that scattered to the winds and every other available place of safety.

Miss Annie Joyner came up Friday from a visit down the road. Mrs. Forrest and her mother are in Winterville.

Amos Tyson went to and returned from Kinston last week.

T. C. Wooten, of Kinston, passed through town Saturday on his way to Weldon on legal business.

Miss Lillie Herring who has been attending the seminary has gone to her home in LaGrange. There are several we are told who longingly watch the place which once knew her so well but now a vacant stare is all they have to give.

Thanksgiving services in the seminary Thursday morning. Collection for foreign missions.

Dr. Jos. Dixon, W. E. Hooks, D. S. Moore and Elmer Gardner will leave tomorrow for Norfolk to take in the game of foot ball between the two universities.

It is reported that the special train which passed here Friday had on board no less a personage than John D. Rockefeller who was on his way to New Bern to look after a large deal in a milling plant and timber land.

Mrs. Ann Coward and family, of Green county, have moved to Ayden and will occupy the King residence on Main street. Such accessions to a town add very much to its desirability of wishing for more just such.

W. R. Hooks has moved into the residence formerly occupied by E. D. Brown and Mr. Jones, of Vanceboro, will live in the house vacated by Mr. Hooks.

The gentleman of color, who for some time past has been driving a span of goats on our streets is now resting under the shade of Pitt county prison home.

Cotton and Labor.

Enfield, N. C., Nov. 27.—A special from Halifax says that Senator F. M. Simmons addressed the Farmers Association of Halifax county at the court house today, at one o'clock. The house was packed by an enthusiastic and representative gathering of farmers who seemed to appreciate the stand the State association has taken, and resolved to stand by it. Senator Simmons made one of his ablest speeches, delighting the audience with his oratory and logic for more than one hour. He not only debated the cotton question, but tried to picture to them a remedy for the labor situation in the South, which has become one of the unsolvable problems the farmers have had to contend with for many years.

SENSIBLE MULES

They Know The Place To Go.

J. F. Godley, a big farmer over in the Chocowinity section of Beaufort county, was here today selling tobacco and told us a good one. He said, as he started his wagon off ahead, the driver turned back and asked "Boss, which warehouse does yer want me ter go to?" "I told him, that when he reached Greenville he could throw down his reins and the mules would take him to the right place. I tell you," continued Mr. Godley, "those mules have sense, and I knew they would never stop 'till they found Joyner at the Farmers warehouse. I have tried the whole market and have never found a warehouseman who can sell tobacco like Othos Joyner, and even the mules learn how to go to him."

Mexico Learning from the United States.

The study of English is compulsory in the Mexican public schools. Every year Mexico sends to the United States a number of school teachers to study American pedagogic methods. A great many Mexican children are being educated in the schools and colleges of this country, where formerly they were sent to Europe. The number of Mexican visitors to the United States and the number of American visitors to Mexico is increasing every year. It is said that Yucatecos know New York better than the city of Mexico, and that west-coast Mexicans are more at home in San Francisco than in their own capital city. Thus, each year the American way of living is taking a deeper hold on the Mexican people.

The vice president of Mexico and announced successor of President Diaz is very much Americanized in his ideas. In fact, he might easily be mistaken for a plain, shrewd American business man from his appearance, manner and methods. He has always been exceedingly friendly toward Americans. As governor of the state of Sonora, he encouraged them to invest in enterprises in his state and to settle therein. He spared no effort in seeing that their lives, property, and civil rights were protected. He is well informed about the United States, and is a student of English. He has three daughters in school at San Francisco, and is educating all of his children in the United States.—From "The Americanization of Mexico," by Edward M. Conley, in the American Monthly Reviews of December.

Good advice to women. If you want a beautiful complexion, clear skin, bright eyes, red lips, good health, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. There is nothing like it. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

North Carolina Day.

North Carolina Day this year, and in all years to succeed, falls upon the last Friday before Christmas, this time December 22. The annual book, containing the programme of exercises to be observed by all the public schools in the State has just been issued by R. D. W. Connor from the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and does great credit to its compiler. Most of the space is given this year to the Highlanders of the upper Cape Fear region. "The Highlanders at Home," "The Coming of the Highlanders," "The Highlander's Farewell," "The Highlanders in Their New Home," "Flora McDonald," "The Battle of Moore's Creek Bridge," "On the Cape Fear," "LaFayette's Visit to Fayetteville," "James Cochrane Dobin," "Some Distinguished Men of the Upper Cape Fear," are the readings and declamations appertaining to the Culloden Scotch and their part in the State's history.

This is supplemented by a reading, "Resources of the Upper Cape Fear," and the concluding song is "Ho! for Carolina."

Among other things on the programme is the Wiley Memorial Fund, which should be dear to the heart of every school child. Five cents a head is wanted from them to complete this fund.

How Is Your Heart?

Is your pulse weak, too slow, too fast, or does it skip a beat? Do you have shortness of breath, weak or hungry spells, fainting, smothering or choking spells, palpitation, fluttering, pains around the heart, in side and shoulder; or hurt when lying on left side?

If you have any of these symptoms your heart is weak or diseased, and cannot get better without assistance.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure strengthens weak hearts, and rarely ever fails to cure heart disease. Try it, and see how quickly you will find relief.

"About January 1st, 1902, I took down with weakness and droopy, and gradually grew worse. I was told by my family physician that my case was hopeless. My neighbors and family had given me up to die. My limbs and body were swollen to one-third larger than normal size, and water had collected around my heart. For at least three months I had to sit propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I sent for five bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and by the time I had taken them all I was entirely cured. I feel better than I have for twenty years, and I am able to do any kind of work on my farm. My attending physician told me that if it hadn't been for Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I would now be in my grave."
T. C. BRYAN, Wilmore, Ky.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
