FORM FIFTY-TWO
"EFF-EFF"

Let us set you straight on the matter of Cravenette Overcoats. The most successful process for waterproofing a garment is that of Priestley's, and every Cravenette treated to their process bears their name, and when in addition to Priestley's Cravenette stamp an overcoat is identified with the label of Wilkinson the combination is one that insures not only a waterproof overcoat, but also an overcoat of fine fabric, with all the knicks of fashion and style that distinguish the "EFF EFF" Clothing people from the ordinary sort.

AYDEN ITEMS.

AYDEN, N. C., Dec. 8, 1905.

One night this week William Jarrell, who lives just a mile or so from here, while sitting in his room after supper quietly smoking, heard a noise in his kitchen, to which he paid but little attention, thinking it made by a cat which probably had got in at the cathole in the door. Some later the old gentleman becoming hungry concluded to have a little snack before retiring. He went into the kitchen for that purpose and discovered something had been afool of his pots, &c. Upon investigating farther, he found snugly ensconced in a corner of the room a nice fat 'possum, about a 9 pounder. Mr. Jarrell loves 'possum, so does his folks, and next day the way 'possum, persimmon beer and norton yams disappeared from his table should be a caution to 'possum, and animals of all kind.

It is a source of congratulation that the general health of our people is exceedingly good, and perhaps it is equally, we don't know, a source of regret that the marriage fever has somewhat abated. The first is surely something in which we are all interested, the latter, only a few can realize its joys. For us, we've had no experience and only imagination and observation can tend to the conclusion that it is nice. Anyway those who have tried it tell us so.

There will be a basket party at Renston, near here, the 15th. All are invited to come and bring a basket. A good time is anticipated.

F. C. Turnage and family, of Kinston, have moved to Ayden. They will occupy the Nichols house on Third street.

J. W. Taylor, our optician, has recovered from his sickness and is out again ready to serve the public as ever.

Charles Smith, of Washington, has been here this week, Cotton 121 and over.

Barnes Sumrell is visiting his father in law at Wharton.

W. E. Hooks and family have gone to Fremont to remain until after the holidays.

Successful Farming.

Mr. W. H. White, one of the largest farmers in county, tells us he had thirty-five tenants on his farms this year, and all but one of them came out well ahead, some clearing as much as $300 on their share of the crops. The one who didn't come out ahead was hindered by sickness in his family and the extra expense arising therefrom. This is what we call an example of good farming. It speaks well for Mr. White's excellent management as well as for the good tenants he had on his farms.

Another Letter.

Mr. R. O. Jiffess, president of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, received a letter from General Superintendent, W. A. Anderson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, that was a copy of the one to Mayor Wooten, published Thursday, advising that the additional passenger train would be put on this road. The Tobacco Board of Trade took much interest in securing the better transportation facilities, held several special meetings about it, and also sent a petition to the railroad officials asking for it. There is general satisfaction among all business interests of the community that the additional train will soon be a certainty.

TOWN MATTERS.

As Transacted by the Aldermen Thursday Night.

The board of aldermen met in regular monthly session, Thursday night, all but one of the members being present, and the absentee had a Bilical excuse as he had "married a wife and could not come," being away on his bridal tour.

The street committee reported that the plank roadway leading to the wharf was being repaired. They also reported the streets in fair condition.

The lights and wells committee reported that wells on Cotanch and Washington streets were useless and dangerous and recommended that they be filled up, and this was ordered. The committee was also instructed to confer with the water and light commission and have one light put in each alley back of of the four business blocks on Evans street. An arc light was also ordered placed at the intersection of Pitt and Fifth streets and discontinued the light in front of the hose reel station on Pitt street. Small lights were ordered placed at the door of all hose reel stations.

The ordinance prohibiting the discharge of fire works in town was suspended from 6 o'clock on the evening of Dec. 23rd to midnight on the 25th, Sunday excepted.

The cemetery was reported cleaned and in good condition.

Correction was made in valuation of lot belonging to D. C. Moore in school district.

The several officers made their reports for the past month. The dispensary report showed purchases during the month of $3,949.95, sales $5,471.75. The fines and costs collected by the chief of police $56.20, and by the assistant police $53.81. The tax collectors report showed total collections of $2,835.90.

The report of the superintendent of water and light plant showed 18 new light customers and 10 new water customers in November and income for the month of $942.56.

Accounts were allowed amounting to $1,049.75.

The board adjourned to meet next Wednesday night.

THE 'SANS SOUFI'

The Sans Souci club held a most enjoyable meeting at the charming home of Miss Janie Brown, Monday, Nov. twenty-first.

The president being absent, the vice president, Miss Winnie Skinner, presided over the meeting.

After the business was transacted, two very interesting selections were read by Misses Lizzie Jones and Bertha Patrick, which consisted of the literary programme.

The club adjourned to meet with Miss Lizzie Jones next.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Mattie Moye King and Lee Brown. We had the pleasure of having with us at this meeting besides the regular members, Mesdames Richard King, John Andrews, Sam White and Misses Hennie Rigsdale, Janie Tyson and Alice Blow.

Ought to Be Good Times.

The Pitt county farmer who failed to make some money this year is the exception and not the rule. We do not believe the county was ever in a more prosperous condition than now. With such condition all should pay their accounts promptly—and not forget their newspaper.

Miss Martha Weathersbee, a trained nurse, of Rocky Mount, who has been here attending James Ficklen, a little son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, returned home today, the patient having recovered.

Ginner's Report.

The government ginner's report issued today placed the number of bales of cotton of this year's crop ginned up to Dec. 1st at 8,687,000 bales. The bears took some advantage of this and there was a decline of 20 to 25 points in futures but the report does not indicate that the crop will reach over 10,250,000 bales.

The boys are happy. The aldermen have given them permission to shoot pop cracker Christmas.

A TOBACCO FARMERS' CO OPERATIVE WAREHOUSE COMPANY.

O. L. Joyner Describes the Successful Test of a Plan Which He Believes the Best Immediate Scheme of Relief for the Growers of the Weed.

(CONCLUDED FROM YESTERDAY.)

The foregoing features constitute about the only important provisions of this company not usually found in incorporated companies. These preliminaries being arranged, the company purchased on easy terms from Joyner & Dail their entire warehouse property and good will, and employed these gentlemen to assist in conducting the business.

The company is controlled by eleven directors elected by the stockholders, and the officers of the company are a President, Secretary, Treasurer and Auditor, elected annually by the directors. The company was chartered to do business October 9th, 1903, and on the thirtieth day of that month sold its first load of tobacco. The company began business at the busiest season of the year without a dollar in the treasury. Messrs. Joyner & Dail lent the company their banking account, and thus it was that the Consolidated Tobacco Company had its beginning.

As was expected, just as soon as this movement became known such a broadside attack as had never before been known was made. First one and then another charge was trumped up and used against the company. The motives of the promoters were attacked and the purchase price of the property was heralded far and wide as outrageous; this, too, notwithstanding the fact that the price agreed upon for the property was twenty five hundred dollars less than any similar property could have been bought before the organization of the Consolidated Tobacco Company.

Everything that could be thought of was done to keep farmers from joining it, and it must be admitted that the opposition found many willing listeners; but as this was only to be expected, the fact that more determined opposition was not developed is really the wonder.

The purpose of this movement is not to fight or antagonize anyone but simply to use the organization to promote, protect and advance the general well being and interest of the tobacco growers.

Viewed from the standpoint of self-interest, it is amazing why any tobacco grower, be he ever so poor, should not become a stockholder. As a simple means of making money, there is no business more sure than this single idea that the promoters of this movement rely for ultimate general and widespread success.

Farmers have failed in their efforts to get together so often that they have come to look with suspicion and doubt on anything that has for its object solely the organization of the farmers, therefore while the ultimate aim and object of the Consolidated Tobacco Company is to draw the farmers together for their general universal good, yet in order to cement and solidify the organization they have gone into the warehouse business simply and solely as a means of making money, which is the surest and safest way of securing the undivided interest and support of its members and then to use the organization thus effected as a means of accomplishing the numberless advantages that always result from well organized and disciplined effort.

When the company was only one year old they were offered another valuable warehouse property, on similar terms, which they purchased, and now for two years we have been operating two warehouses. The first year in consequence of the combined efforts to defeat the organization, a great many farmers were kept from taking stock, but at the end of the season a dividend of 34 per cent was declared. The next year the crop was cut about one-half and the stockholders' list was more than doubled, in consequence (as a matter of course) the dividend was not so large as the first year. Still a dividend of 15 1/2 per cent in cash was paid, very much to the surprise of the majority of the stockholders.

During the past summer, and up to this time, the farmers all over the country tributary to this market have purchased stock, and there is hardly a section of the country within a radius of twenty-five miles of Greenville where there are no stockholders in this company. Up to this time the company has done nearly three times as much business as it did during the same period last year, and unless some unforeseen event should happen, it will this year reach almost one thousand members.

The company owns two very valuable warehouses in Greenville, and if the interest continues throughout the season as it has for the past sixty days, it will be able by the spring to pay off all its outstanding indebtedness, and the property today is worth 25 per cent more than when it was purchased.

As a matter of course, the rapid success of the company depends largely on the stockholders, and while warehousemen will naturally resist and vigorously resent this intrusion on what they feel is their preserves, yet if this company gives the farmers as good service as they can get elsewhere, and in addition pays them large annual dividends, in the course of time the movement will over-ride all opposition. And while just at this time warehousemen are not to believe it, yet in the end they will suffer very little in consequence of the change. On the other hand the great and innumerable benefits that will come to the thousands of tobacco farmers if the movement becomes widespread and thorough will, in my opinion, outweigh by far the beneficial result of any previous farmers' organization. — Progressive Farmer, Greenville, N. C.

The president's message to congress was a bulky affair. The reading required two hours and a half, and in print it filled nearly four newspapers pages in small type. The president talked about everything in sight, and gave same recommendations that congress would do well to act upon.

The advisability of issuing daily reports of the amount of cotton ginned, instead of bi monthly as at present, is being considered by the director of the census. We believe such reports would be wise, as they would stop wild fluctuations of the market that follow every report, and by lessening the feature of speculation give cotton a more stable price.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.) (Save the Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

With the recent change of ownership it has been improved. It is far better in every respect, and aims to be the best in the field. Every year or so there's one notable advance in the forward movement among the many magazines. This year it is the Cosmopolitan.	Woman's Home Companion The Woman's Home Companion is for every member of the family. For our bright, earnest, cultured, home loving American woman it is an ideal entertainer and helper in a thousand congenial ways; but the fathers and brothers and sons join in its perusal by the fireside; children eagerly turn to the pages that are written for them.
