AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town.

AYDEN, N. C., Dec. 29, 1905.

Christmas is past and everything seems to be settling down to the regular routine. Preparations are being made for the new year and a general purpose seems to be evident of a determination to accomplish something and make success a reality. One way and the best way to do this is to advertise, and advertise freely. To the sluggard wealth is a stranger. To the wise and persevering plenty abundantly adds its reward, advertise!

Josh Mills is selling more horse and mule flesh this season than has ever been known before. Surely our farmers for next year are anticipating big things.

There are no new developments in the recent murder here, but the opinion is general that there is a great deal which has not yet been brought out. The colored man killed bore a most excellent character.

Next Sunday will be the 53rd Sunday in the year 1905. An incident which does not occur but once in one hundred years.

There will be services in the Episcopal church next Sunday. The public are invited to attend.

Carlos Harris, J. N. Hart, W. H. Smith and Bently Harris, of Greenville, have all been to see us this week.

Mr. Carney and family came up Wednesday from a Christmas visit down the road.

Jack McLawhorn is back home from South Carolina on a visit to his parents. He and the boys seem to be having a good time. Jack is a dandy.

Miss Annie Edwards is home from G. F. college for a visit.

Our highly esteemed young friends Claude and Tom Dawson, of Grifton, are in Ayden shaking hands with their numerous friends.

Miss Edith Munford has returned home from a visit to her grandparents in the country.

G. Z. Ricks and wife, of Pactolus, have been spending several days with the family of Barnes Sumrell.

S. M. Smith and family, we regret to learn have left Ayden and will make their home near Fort Barnwell, Mr. Smith having bought a farm near there.

Miss Agnes Dixon, of Wharton, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Barnes Sumrell, has returned home.

Miss Minnie Oxley, of near Centerville, is at Mrs. W. E. Hooks.

W. E. Hooks left yesterday for Greensboro. Look for another of his big ads on his return. He believes in ads and is always adding. The figures he makes generally count and his patrons tell us that is no lie.

The firm of Einstein Bros., of Kinston, have retired from the retail mercantile business and entered exclusively into the wholesale business of dry goods and notions. They have employed our townsman, W. J. Boyd, as traveling salesman and we sincerely hope Mr. Boyd may receive a liberal patronage. He is a deserving young gentleman and represents a first class firm.

Miss Meta Mewborne, of Kinston, is here on a visit to Miss Helen Quinerly.

Alley Ormond and family, after a pleasant visit to his brother, H. C. Ormond, left yesterday.

Jesse Bell and wife, of Morehead City, have been visiting the family of J. T. Smith, Jr.

Calvin Holton has been to and from Grifton during the week.

Mrs. W. T. Mason, of Whichard, is visiting her father, J. T. Smith.

Mr. Duke and family, A. D. Williams and family, J. T. Smith, Jr., and family, R. T. Coward and wife are all home after spending the holidays with their friends.

CHRISTMAS PARTY.

Methodist Sunday School Spends Merry Evening.

Notwithstanding the rain, there were hold ups between showers long enough for quite a crowd to gather in Perkin's opera house, Thursday night to enjoy the Christmas party of the Methodist church. The little folks were there in high glee and had a merry time in their plays and games about the hall.

There were two well arranged and striking tableaux given on the stage. One was a Santa Claus scene with which the children were more than delighted. There was a room with two little tots (real ones) snugly tucked in a bed. In the corner was a large chimney and fire place around which hung the stocking. Santa Clause was heard to drive up with his reindeer team and a moment later dropped right down the chimney and proceeded to fill the stockings, then when through went back up the chimney. Santa Clause was impersonated by O. E. Warren and he made a good one.

The other scene was a beautiful Christmas tree. Fruits and confections were distributed plentifully among all present.

No Cleaner Paper.

The Greenville REFLECTOR is eleven years old and the State has no cleaner paper. Editor Whichard is not only a good editor, but a high toned Christian gentleman.—Charity and Children.

THE WEATHER

Fair, colder tonight, Saturday fair in east portion.

CHRISTMAS PARTY POSTPONED

Too Much Weather and Bad Streets.

Thursday night the children of the Christian Sunday school, with their invited friends, were to have held a Christmas party at the Center Brick Warehouse, but the weather was so bad that it was thought best to postpone the affair until conditions were more favorable.

The number present last night was so small that the committee concluded to have the party tonight if the weather makes it possible for the little ones to get out without wading through seas of mud and water. It was noticed by some of those who braved the elements last night that the sidewalks of Greenville are noted for their quality of holding water in large quantities. It makes little difference whether the walk is high or low, the one great aim of the city fathers seems to be to prevent the water from getting into the road. Of course none doubt the wisdom of keeping the roads as dry as possible in wet weather, but pedestrians could enter into the scheme with more zest, and possibly humor, if pairs of stilts were placed at convenient points for the use of those who, strange to say, persist in walking.

ORMONDSVILLE ITEMS.

ORMONDSVILLE, Dec. 28th, 1905.

Miss Lena Denton came home from Littleton Female College where she has been attending school.

Miss Lizzie Carver went to her home near Raleigh to spend the holidays. She has for two or more years taught in Ormondsville High School and made many friends in this section.

An effort is being made to hold an election here in the near future for the purpose of establishing a graded school in the place of the present High School. Prof. Bunch seems very much interested in this work.

We are glad to correct a statement in our last items concerning the new company organized here. I spoke of it as The Farmers Consolidated Mercantile Co., and should have said The Ormondsville Mercantile Co.

The five months infant child of James Moore who lives near here, while being left in the house alone fell out of a little chair with its head on the hearth near the fire and was burned severely. This occurred one week ago. The child is slowly improving and hopes are entertained of its final recovery.

Eld. R. I. Corbett and family went to Elizabeth City to spend the holidays with Mrs. Corbett's parents. They will also visit friends and relatives in and around Oriental before returning home.

Three Nights Next Week.

The Winter Sock Co., will appear here, in the Masonic opera house, next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, January 1st, 2nd and 3rd, in repertoire, at popular prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents. There will be plenty of specialties between the acts, with good singing and dancing.

BEAVER DAM ITEMS.

Beaver Dam, N. C., Dec. 27.

Laborers are moving around and getting ready for another year.

Heber Summerell and bride spent Christmas with the brides father, Amos Hemby.

Miss Charity Atkinson, of Wayne county, is spending some time with Mrs. Charley McArthur. We welcome Miss Atkinson among us. She is a kind, talented and refined lady.

Henry Anderson and wife, of Philadelphia, are spending the holidays among their many friends and relatives.

Our old friend, John Tyse, late of Baltimore, has returned with his family to the old Anderson place. He was a true Confederate soldier, a member of the 27th Regiment Marlboro Company, was in many a hard fought battle and surrendered with Lee at Appomattox. He is now old and feeble. We will always love and honor him.

We are pleased to learn that Dr. C. A. Blount is improved so as to go out driving. We hope this good man will be with us many years.

We all mourn the death of our old friend Alfred Forbes. He had many lifelong friends out in Beaver Dam. Truly a good man is gone.

W. C. Joyner and family have moved to Farmville. Howell Joyner and sister, of Craven county, are spending the holidays among their many relatives and friends.

The many friends of Miss Mary Anderson are pleased to learn that she is fast improving and will soon be able to leave the hospital. She was a student at the Christian college at Wilson.

OAKLEY ITEMS.

OAKLEY, N. C. Dec. 27.

T. F. Nelson and family spent Sunday in Bethel.

J. O. Williams and Miss Ludy Corey left Saturday for Mt. Olive to spend a few days with Miss Annie Grady.

S. A. Congleton and wife went to Wharton Monday.

The tournament here on the 22nd was a success. Several hundred people gathered at the track long before the hour for the running. At 11:30 a. m., the riding began. Judges, W. A. James Jr., S. A. Congleton and C. Belcher; Marshalls, Chief, W. J. Little, assistants S. G. Williams and E. Rodges. Miss Mamie Rodges, of Williamston, was crowned queen by Z. V. Whitehurst, Miss Ludy Corey, of this place, was crowned 1st maid by J. O. Williams, Miss Lucy Manning, of Bethel, was crowned 2nd maid by Robt. Jenkins, Miss Minnie Whitehurst, of this place, was crowned 3rd maid by Sam Mizell. The riding was good and everybody enjoyed it. The ball was not so pleasant as the amusement at the track.

Oakley is ahead of San Francisco, we can get up three or four fights for nothing, while San Francisco paid over $16,000 for one.

FRIDAY DEC. 29, 1905.

Wilmington ought to have plenty of booze, the aldermen having granted licenses for fifty-nine saloons in that city.

Memphis has followed Chicago's lead and comes up with three bank failures in one day, though with less total liabilities.

It is all right to make good resolutions and better still to keep them. Let those you have in contemplation for the new year be of the iron clad order.

South Carolina is doing some lynching, and recently worked off a double one. But perhaps those most deserving that fate were not the victims.

There is a million dollar estate out in Minnesota looking for a lost heir. The joint heirs are more than anxious for him to show up so they can get their share.

The Norwegian who was stranded on an island and lived three weeks on clams, no doubt appreciated getting picked up and having a chance at a good Christmas dinner.

President Roosevelt has set his foot down on the movement originating in Oregon to raise $800,000 by popular 10 cents donations for a bridal present for Miss Alice. He says he wants the movement to stop where it is.

If it had been somebody who needed the money, and not the president's daughter who is going to marry an already rich congressman, nothing would have been heard of raising a big purse by popular subscriptions for a bridal present.

The statement is made that the report showing the standing of the students of the A. & M. College in all regular courses for the fall term indicate that a number of the students failed to come up to the minimum grade on examinations. Wonder if this failure is not attributable to too much time being given to football that ought to have been devoted to study.

Reflects Best Sentiment.

The Greenville REFLECTOR celebrates the eleventh year of its existence and usefulness to the people of Pitt county and surrounding country by increasing its size to eight pages. While THE REFLECTOR reflects the sentiments of the best people of the community it is not simply a reflector, but a leader in and a moulder of public opinion on questions involving the welfare and interests of its people. The Messenger's congratulations and compliments of the season, to it.—Wilmington Messenger.

HE TALKED ABOUT GRANT.

But There Was One Incident of Which He Never Told.

When Captain U. S. Grant was selling goods in southwestern Wisconsin the year before the war he disposed of a bill to a shoemaker at Spring Green, Grant county. It developed that the shoemaker was a much better buyer than payer. Grant made numerous attempts to collect the bill, but without avail, in spite of the fact that he was known as a remarkably good collector.

After the seller of leather had become famous as the head of the army and was winning great battles the Spring Green shoemaker had a good deal to say about his personal acquaintance with General Grant.

The shoemaker had a son who was lacking in wit. One evening when half a dozen patrons were in the shop the old man told interesting stories about Grant's visits and chats in his place, much to the delight of his hearers. The boy was also an attentive listener.

Mrs. Shoemaker called her husband to the house. During his absence the son took his father's place as a talker about the great general.

"You bet pop'll never forget Captain Grant," remarked the lad, who said no more until one of the visitors asked why.

"Pop wouldn't pay Captain Grant for some luther pop bought. I'll bet he ast pop more'n a hundred times to pay for that luther, and pop just told him he didn't hef ter. One day after the captain had ast pop real hard for the money pop said he would never pay it. Then Captain Grant went right out of the shop and hitched his team. Jest before he got into his wagon he called pop out, and he said, 'So you won't pay that bill?' 'No, I won't.' And pop started back to the shop. Quicker'n you could say Jack Robinson Captain Grant came up behind pop and gave him four of the hardest kicks I ever seen a man git, and then he got into his wagon and druv away. I notis pop don't tell you about that when he gits ter talkin' about Grant."—Chicago Journal.

Not Just the Same.

It seems that this boy's mother was born in Canada, but the little fellow is a native of the United States. To tease him his uncle calls him a "little Canuck," which never fails to provoke vigorous protest. Coming home from Sunday school, the boy tackled his aunt with the question:

"Aunt Bess, why is people baptized?"

She attempted to explain, but unfortunately touched a tender spot when she said, "Willie, you know you were born in original sin."

Willie regarded this as a variation of the hateful accusation so often made by his uncle and indignantly blurted out:

"Deed I wasn't. I was born in Pittsburg. I'm an American!"—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Obeeyed Orders.

In one of his introductory lectures Professor Hyrtl addressed his hearers as follows: "Gentlemen, you must get possession of skulls. It is impossible to study anatomy unless you have skulls. Each of you must find means—any means—to get a skull." On the following morning he entered his auditorium with a sorrowful face. "Gentlemen," he began, "I fear some of you have misunderstood me. You certainly have left no means untried to secure skulls. I noticed that my handsome collection was almost depleted this morning." The students had taken him at his word and induced the servants to divide out the skulls of Hyrtl, which formed one of the chief attractions to medical men in the famous teacher's house.

Big Things in Glass.

That the ancients did big things in glass we have been assured from many a venerable source. Not only was the great pillar of emerald in the temple of Hercules at Tyre, spoken of by Herodotus, simply a cylinder of green glass, but the great shaft at Gades, wherein the lamp burned perpetually, was undoubtedly of the same material. The imitation of precious stones was also one of the early arts in which the ancient glassmakers excelled, and it is seriously related that they had brought this art to such perfection that it was the habit of monarchs to present each other with emeralds of enormous size, some being alleged to have measured 4 by 6 feet.

Never in the way, no trouble to carry, easy to take, pleasant and never failing in results are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills are a certain guarantee against headache, biliousness, torpid liver and all of the ills resulting from constipation. They tonic and strengthen the liver. Sold by John L. Wooten, druggist.

A coward is a man who knows he's wrong and refuses to admit it.

For sunburn, tetter and all skin and scalp diseases, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal. It is a certain cure for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. It will draw the fire out of a burn and heal without leaving a scar. Boils, old sores, carbuncles, etc., are quickly cured by the use of the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Accept no substitute as they are often dangerous and undertain. Sold by John L. Wooten, druggist.

Opportunity makes the man after the man has made the opportunity.

A bachelor's idea of a clever woman is one who can induce him to propose.

There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment. There is no way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up. No appetite, loss of strength; nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour rising, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles that are curable are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Sold by John L. Wooten, druggist.

Wiskey may be a deadly drink, but water is responsible for more cases of typhoid fever.

Girls, if you want red lips, laughing eyes, sweet breath and good looks use Holister's Rocky Mountain Tea. The greatest beautifier known. 35 cents, Tea Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

A farmers institute will be held in the court house, at Greenville, Saturday, January 6th, 1906. The morning session will open at 10:00 o'clock sharp, and afternoon session at 1:30.

The subjects for discussion are: "Soil improvement," by W. J. McLendon, Anson county; "The Improvement of Tobacco by Seed Selection," by W. W. Corby, U. S. Department of Agriculture; "Hog-raising," by Dr. Tait Butler; "Cotton Culture," by W. J. McLendon.

The above program is given to indicate the nature of the Institute but it may be changed or added to, as those present desire. A large number of intelligent questions means an interesting Institute, and special attention will be given to this feature.
