THE BOSS AXEMAN IN GASTON COUNTY.

During the big sleet Mr. Dave Garrison, of Worth, was having chills, and he hasn't shaken them off yet. But it is remarkable how much work he does even on his chills. On Monday after the sleet he went to the woods and cut cord wood until the noon hour, when he was stopped by a chill. During the morning he cut 3 1/2 cords of wood. At noon he lay down before the fire and when he had shaken off his chill he went back to the woods. The afternoon was spent in cording up the wood he had previously cut, and when night came he had laid up 6 1/2 cords as an afternoon's work. So the record for the day stands: three and a half cords of wood cut from the stump, one chill shaken off, and six and a half cords of wood laid up. Mr. Garrison says that to cut and put up five cords of wood is a light day's work. He loves to feel his keen ax-blade reaching deep into the timber at every stroke. Mr. Garrison is a tall man, of large frame and powerful build and muscles. He says he is feeling a little older than he used to, but is still full of snap and go, all quickness and energy with his work.—Gastonia Gazette

College Girls as Wives.

In his annual report, President Seelye, of Smith College, after noting the high standard of health and the fact that the largest number of invalids is in the entering class, says:

"To determine how marriages and births are affected by a collegiate education there should be an extensive comparison between collegiate and non-collegiate women in corresponding social and physical conditions.

"Due credit should also be given to the abundant testimony that the majority of women improve physically as well as mentally during their college course.

"The college graduates are better qualified for wifehood and for motherhood. They are as ready to wed as other women the right man woos them, but many causes now lead men in active life to postpone marriage, and the longer it is postponed, the less inclined they are to assume its responsibilities.

"Women cannot take the initiative and seek husbands, and daughters, in this county at least, are no longer contracted in marriage by their parents.

"Marriages of convenience are not made as often by college graduates, for they do not feel obliged to marry in order to escape poverty or dependence.

"There are fewer divorces among them."—Baltimore Sun.

Knitting Mill to Resume.

We understand the knitting mill here that has been idle for some time will resume operations at an early day. This is good news, and the mill will help the town in many ways. Such enterprises pay well in other towns and we see no reason why good results may not be obtained here.

SUBSCRIPTION DANCE.

In Perkins' Hall.

The young men gave a very enjoyable German in Perkins' hall Thursday evening, from nine until twelve, music by the Italian string band.

The German was led by Walter Wilson, Jr., with Miss Irma Cobb. The following participated: Miss Janie Brown with M. H. Williams, Miss Ada Wooten with L. E. Seegins, Miss Nell Skinner with Chas. James, Miss Mary Higgs with Frank Skinner, Miss Florence Gardner, of Wilson, with Will Parker; Miss Bessie Patrick with Cary Mayo, Miss Nina James with A. M. Moseley, Miss Mary James with Cary Warren, Miss Lot Skinner with Will Lipscomb, Miss Irma Cobb with Walter Wilson, Jr.

Stags, Ben Sheppard, of Rocky Mount, John Shelburn, John Garden, and Ballard Smith.

Chaperone, Mr. and Mrs. McClellan.

Every body had a good time.

Same Couple Married Twice.

Squire J. W. Cobb officiated at a rather unusual wedding yesterday morning. About two months ago he married Benben Oureton and Lilla Scott, colored. Yesterday morning the couple appeared in his office and asked that the ceremony be performed again. When Benben had married Lilla the first time he thought his wife No. 1 was dead, but that matron turned up shortly afterwards and Benben made haste, at the last term of the court, to get a divorce, and yesterday he again united to his last love with the conjugates which Squire Cobb tied with a flourish.—Charlotte Observer.

Improving Third Street.

The town is having some good work done on Third street on that part of the hill between Reade street and the branch at the town line. The sides of the hill are being cut down and the dirt used in raising the street. After this is done a coat of sand will be spread on the clay.

Died.

Mrs. Sarah Griffin, aged 58 years, wife of Mr. J. J. Griffin, died at 6 o'clock this morning at their home just South of Greenville. She leaves a husband and six children—two sons and four daughters. The funeral will take place Saturday at the Bell place, four miles from town.

A special from Durham says that about 7,000,000 pounds of tobacco has been sold in that town of this year's crop at an average 11 3/4 cents. At South Boston the average price has been 9.82, the total sales aggregating 2,000,000 pounds. At Greenville and Kinston the average price has been a fraction under eight cents. Is the tobacco sold at Durham of better grade?—Raleigh News and Observer.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town.

AYDEN, N. C., Feb. 16, 1906.

W. B. Green, of Greenville, spent several days here on business this week.

Luther Fletcher and wife, of Robersonville, have been visiting Mrs. J. R. Smith.

Jerry Nichols, of Winterville, was here a short while Tuesday.

E. G. Cox and R. H. Garris spent Wednesday in the county capital city.

J. R. Harvey, of Grifton, was here Wednesday.

J. S. Ross has been to Farmville this week on business.

There will be services in the Methodist church Sunday morning. After the sermon the Lord's Supper will be administered.

J. M. Mills brought in a large drove of horses and mules yesterday.

Owing to the extremely rainy weather Monday those of our young ladies who are teaching school in the country had to wait over until Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Smith spent yesterday morning in Greenville.

Another 12 of Pitt's best men's judgment set at defiance. Another learned judge classed a pickaninny. Another three springs of the law marked as of gigantic brain and perched on the higher round of the famous ladder. Another red-handed assassin no doubt to be set at large to murder officials in discharge of duty. Sylvester Barrett the hero. Law and order be damned.

We tender thanks for a invitation to attend the marriage of our young friend, Miss Mary Louise Haskett to Rev. Julian Leecraft Rumley at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday afternoon, February 28 in 1906 in Greenville.

P. B. Hine, while cutting wood yesterday had the misfortune to cut his leg right badly between the knee and ankle.

Sad Fate of a Clergyman

Macon, Ga., Feb. 15.—Rev. H. Lee Harrell, a Presbyterian minister of Monticello, Ga., was shot to death accidentally by R. R. Powell, a cotton buyer, his friend, while they were hunting birds. Mr. Powell, after a covey had been flushed, stepped back to reload, and in breaking the gun, a cartridge was discharged, the load striking the side and neck of the clergyman. Death was immediate.

No Hanging.

As today was the date set by the court for the execution of Sylvester Barrett, quite a number of people came to town expecting to see the hanging, overlooking the fact that an appeal had been taken to Supreme court. Some held the idea that the report of the appeal was for the purpose of keeping a crowd from coming, and thought the hanging would take place anyway.

A Kansas man claims to have a farm with 4,800 snakes on it. And all this time they have been telling us that Kansas was a prohibition State.—Atlanta Journal.

OVER THE STATE.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

Dr. J. J. Hasper has been reelected President of Atlantic Christian College at Wilson.

Isaac Lewis, 14-year-old son of ex-Chief of Police Lewis, Newbern, died there Wednesday of lockjaw, resulting from a broken arm some time ago.

"I Told You So"

The following is taken from the Durham Sun and comes pretty near hitting the nail exactly on the head:

"About the most contemptible thing on earth is the prophet of calamity and panics. He is always on the safe side, because if his prediction comes true, he says, 'I told you so;' if he fails, nobody rubs it in on him as no one remembers what he said. Those fellows are about as reliable as the old-fashioned almanacs, which used to print clear through a whole month, 'expect much rain about this time.' As this was confined to the usual season for rains, the almanac makers ran little risks, while keeping up their reputation for old-fashioned wisdom."

The editor is exactly right when he says that "the most contemptible thing on earth is the prophet of calamity and panics." And the trouble about it is this old world is brim full of them. About three-fourths of the predicted calamities and panics never get here and so there is an infinite amount of worry in this world brought on by their mere prediction, while those that do come are only made the worse by their anticipation.

It may be true also that the saddest words of "tongue or pen" are these, "It might have been," but sure it is that they are not half so aggravating and hateful as these "I told you so."—Charlotte News.

How Drink Makes One Work.

"I drink to make me work," said a young man; to which an old man replied: "That's right; harken to me a moment and I will tell you something that may do you good. I was once a prosperous farmer. I had a loving wife and two as fine lads as ever the sun shone upon. We had a comfortable home and lived happily together, but we used to drink ale to make us work. Those two lads of mine now lie in drunkard's graves. My wife died broken-hearted, and she now lies by her two sons. I am seventy years of age. Had it not been for the drink I might now have been an independent gentleman, but I used to drink to make me work, and mark you, it makes me work now. At seventy years of age I am obliged to work for my daily bread. Go on drinking and it will make you work."

Library Open Three Days in Week.

The public library under the auspices of the End of the Century Book Club will hereafter be open three days each week—on Monday, Wednesday and Friday—4 to 6 p. m.

PERSONAL MENTION

Of Those Going and Coming

P. S. Cotten went to Raleigh this morning.

Miss Hennie Ragsdale went to Bethel Thursday evening.

Rev. H. H. Moore has gone to Virginia to spend a few days.

Mr. Cooper, of the firm of Cooper Bros, Raleigh, spent Thursday here.

Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes came in from Raleigh Thursday evening.

Ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis, H. W. Whedbee, S. T. Hooker and Lawrence Hooker went to Washington Thursday evening to attend court there.

A Crazy Negro.

Macon, Ga., Feb. 15.—In an address before the five hundred delegates, attending the convention of negroes in this city, to discuss racial problems, Bishop H. M. Turner declared the American flag to be a dirty and contemptible rag. He further said that he was an improvement on the United States when the negro was involved. In closing he said:

"If a little ignorant and stupid white man who was never heard of and never would be heard of until ten thousand years after the resurrection trumpet, wishes a little notoriety he begins to belie and slander the negro and bounds into popularity. And I challenge any one or all of them to meet me in public discussion and I will show that the negro is a far better man than they are."

Road Improvement.

The county road gang under the direction of Superintendent Joe McLawhorn, has put the Patrick hill on the Plank road, three miles from town, in good condition. This used to be one of the worst places in the county to pass in bad weather and the improvement shows what good work on the roads will do.

Good For Salisbury.

Washington D. C., Feb. 15.—Senator Overman scored in the Senate today, securing the passage of the bill appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Salisbury and also the measure carrying a fifteen thousand dollar appropriation for construction of a roadway to the Federal Cemetery in Salisbury.

Birthday Party.

Miss Julia Jennings, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ricks, gave a birthday this afternoon at the home of her parents on Fifth street.

Choir Meeting.

The members of the Baptist choir are requested to meet for practice at 7 o'clock tonight at the home of Mrs. J. L. Fleming, on Third street. Every member urged to be present.

Poverty and failure are self-invited. Fear of failure is one of the more potent causes.

A Dead Beat.

The trolley car was crowded, a number of passengers finding precarious foothold upon the running board. It had proceeded quite a distance before the conductor could complete his fair collecting round. Suddenly a woman caught hold of his arm and cried excitedly:

"Conductor, a man has fallen off the car!"

"I know it, ma'am," was the cool reply. "I hadn't got his fare. Some folks will go any length to beat the company!"—Harper's Weekly.

Management.

"Mrs. Highmus, how did you dispose of old Hunks at your party the other evening?"

"By a lucky chance old Mr. Grumidge was there. I happened to know they were both experts on mushrooms. I introduced them to each other and mentioned the subject. They sat in a corner and wrangled the whole evening, and I hadn't a bit of trouble with them."—Chicago Tribune.

REAL ESTATE IN GREENVILLE IS A

Safe investment.

Secure a Good Location while there is an opportunity to do so at Reasonable Prices and on Easy Terms.

I have devided that splendid property, just east of the town limits in South Greenville, into convenient lots for home-seekers and will sell them on easy terms. There is no better location for homes anywhere around Greenville. High elevation, level, and convenient, being only a few minutes walk from the business part of town. This property is just outside the corporate limits, yet those who reside there will have the benefit of the graded school, and be as near to the churches, and depot and postoffice as are the people in many parts of the town, being only three hundred yards from Five Points, nice neighborhood adjacent to the property. Talk it over with me and let me show you these desirable lots. No better time than NOW to buy. Greenville will grow rapidly in the next few years and property will be higher. Catch the opportunity before it is too late.

"Young man," snapped the vinegary faced person on the opposite side of the street car, "I'll thank you not to stare at me, if you please!"

"Pardon me, madam," he said. "No offense was intended. I am so nearsighted I cannot distinguish objects two feet away from me."

"Your apology comes too late, sir."

"Pardon me again, madam," he rejoined, screwing a monocle into his eye and inspecting her features. "It is not so much an apology as—er—an explanation."

Later when she had studied this explanation in all its bearings it was too late to show proper resentment. He had left the car.—Chicago Tribune.

It takes three days of experimenting in cold weather to get the furnace to burn like blazes when the warm wave strikes us.

They never gripe or sicken but cleanse and strengthen the stomach, liver and bowels. This is the universal verdict of the many thousands who use DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills relieve headache, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, torpid liver, sallow complexion, etc. Try Little Early Risers. Sold by John L. Wooten.

When a woman suspects some one she knows of leading a double life, she has more fun than if she was sure of it.

All old time Cough Syrups bind the bowels. This is wrong. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs and loosen the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the system. It clears the throat, strengthens the mucous membranes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Thrift and stinginess are similar, but, oh, so different.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not an atom of any harmful drug, and it has been curing coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. No need to fear of your child choking from croup with One Minute Cough Cure handy. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A lazy man's idea of success is to be unable to find work.

Don't deceive yourself. If you have indigestion take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will relieve you. Rev. W. E. Hocutt, South Mills, N. C. says: "I was troubled with chronic indigestion for several years; whatever I ate seemed to cause heartburn, sour stomach, fluttering of my heart, and general depression of mind and body. My druggist recommended Kodol, and it has relieved me. I can now eat anything and sleep soundly at night. Kodol Digests what you eat. Sold by John L. Wooten.

A man who once had rough horny-hands made them soft and smooth with Witch Hazel Salve, but he used the genuine—that bearing the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co, Chicago." For sores, boils, cuts, burns, bruises, etc., it has no equal, and affords almost immediate relief from blind bleeding, itching and protruding Piles. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Never hit a man when he is down—unless all his friends are down

Just a little Kodol after meals will relieve that fullness, belching gas on stomach, and all other symptoms of indigestion. Kodol digests what you eat, and enables the stomach and digestive organs to perform their functions naturally. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Mr. Longworth will not be the first man to lose his identity at the altar

Wonder why the wife beating bill made so many of the congressmen laugh.

It will be in order now for Saturday to be the day of the week for fashionable marriages.

After the wedding he will be better known as Miss Alice's husband than as Mr Longworth.

Raleigh ought to feel satisfied. It gets the teachers' assembly and the summer school, too.

They say Congressman Longworth is a good fiddler, but he will play second fiddle after tomorrow.

John D. is about as successful keeping out of the way as he is putting up the price of oil.

If some couple that needs a start in life could get such a list of presents wouldn't it give them a send off.

If Miss Alice has been presented with 300 pianos she will have a time getting around to play on all of them.

The boll weevil is coming up for notoriety again. Pity but what he could get in the same hole with the ground hog.

The last issue of the Lexington Dispatch was an illustrated industrial edition of thirty pages. It is a handsome paper and worth a great deal to its town and county.

There is a hint that the miners will postpone their strike until 1908. But they have served the purpose of the coal Kings and given them a chance to put up the price in anticipation.

High Point has the manufacturing enterprises to brag about, and has a way of advertising them in her annual banquets that can well make other towns look on with envy. It is a hard town to get ahead of.

Somebody wants to know why the cotton syndicate that offers to take all the cotton now on hand set the figure on the unlucky 13. Guess it was because that is just half way between 11 and 15, and the middle ground is always the best place to compromise.

An Iowa tramp was sentenced by the recorder's court of his town to have a bath and a hair cut. Iowa is rapidly getting next to some good plans for solving the tramp problem.

Railroad Wrecks.

A gentleman from the country said some days ago that he does not go to town any oftener than he is compelled to. A man from the town said that he did not leave town except when he is compelled to do so, for he said the dirt roads are so bad he can not well drive into the country and the railroads are so bad he is afraid to go on a train. This last observation was made with reference to the frequent wrecks on the railroads. It is getting to be an alarming situation. There is much unfavorable comment about the frequency of wrecks. It is common on almost all roads. The public safety demands that there should be some steps taken to reduce the frequency of wrecks and accidents and danger to human life. Are the railroads trying to do more than their forces of employes can measure up to, or is there more business than the present number of railroad lines can do? There must become inadequacy somewhere. Either there are not railroad tracks enough to accommodate business demands or there are not employes enough to do the work. It is a fearful contemplation that a man feels in danger of sudden destruction every time he takes a seat on a railroad car. To be sure, there is some element of danger in almost any mode of travel, even in an ox cart or mule wagon; but the increase in the number of railroad wrecks makes one feel like he would rather travel by the old time stage coach and arrive at his destination quite late than to start on a railroad train and not arrive at all. Surely there will be something done to protect the people who travel from so much danger. It is time the various railroad authorities were considering the matter seriously.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Charity and Children takes note of the Gaston county man, mentioned in last Tuesday's Landmark, who owns two plantations but has no copy of the Bible in his house and refuses to buy one, even on credit, on the ground that he has heart-disease and doesn't want to take the risk of dying and leaving a debt on his family. Charity and Children says he is about like the man who refuses to subscribe for a newspaper on the ground that "he has no time to read it." That Gaston man is a rare bird and he has been on The Landmark's conscience, since we heard of him. It seems to us that if any one man needs to examine the Scriptures and meditate on them frequently it is a man with heart disease. In spite of his meanness somebody ought to send that Gaston man a Bible.—Statesville Landmark.

NOTICE OF EXECUTION SALE

NORTH CAROLINA, } In the Superior Court.
PITT COUNTY. }
R. L. Smith & Company vs. Basil Dixon.
By virtue of an execution directed to the undersigned from the Superior Court of Pitt county in the above entitled action, I will, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1906, at 12 o'clock M., at the Court House door of said county, sell to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said execution, all the right, title and interest which the said Basil Dixon, defendant, has in the following described real estate, to-wit: estate one undivided one eighth interest of Basil Dixon, subject to the life annuity of his father, E. S. Dixon, in and to the lands which descended to him from his mother, Henrietta Dixon, (formerly Henrietta Boyd), and described as follows: "Adjoining the lands of L. A. McGowan, E. P. Fleming and wife, Ed Laughinghouse, John F. Boyd and others, and containing three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, and being the entire interest of the said Basil Dixon in and to the lands of which his mother, the late Henrietta Dixon, (formerly Henrietta Boyd), died seized and possessed, situated on the north side of Tar river, Greenville township, Pitt county, subject to the life estate of E. S. Dixon, the father of the said Basil Dixon."
This 15th day of February, 1906.
L. W. TUCKER, Sheriff.

Journalism is getting into a more healthy state in North Carolina. There are not so many newspapers by thirty but their combined circulation is over a hundred thousand greater than it was four years ago. The thirty papers that gave up the ghost within this period have not been missed very much. The people want newspapers with circulation, quality, character and influence. Multiplicity of periodicals does not tend in that direction.—Winston Sentinel.

It is proposed for the United States to annex the North Pole. This may be the only chance of the Democratic party to get something with which to beat the Republicans.—Wilmington Star.

Rain Coats

COPYRIGHT 1905 BY THE HOUSE OF HUPPENER

This is splendid weather for Ducks, Doctors and Rain Coats. Every prudent Man will buy a Rain Coat and get along without the Doctor and his bill. A Cravenette Rain Coat, if it is genuine, is a regular Fall Overcoat of Covert, fine Cheviot, or mixed Worsted, with the fabric chemically treated before the Tailor gets hold of it. The process doesn't hurt the cloth in any way, but helps it in most ways; makes it impervious, though not proof against a fire-hydrant. In short, a Gentleman's Rain Coat is both a luxury and a necessity. Rain Coats tailored and finished in the best style, known to Rain Coat makers, $10 to $25.

North Carolina People Caring for Themselves

"The sentiment in favor of Home insurance Companies is stronger in North Carolina than in any other Southern State," was the remark made a few days ago by the representative of a Life Insurance Company who travels through the South. This fact speaks volumes for the future welfare of North Carolina and shows that our people are learning to care for themselves instead of relying upon others. They are caring for themselves in increasing numbers by buying from THE GREENSBORO LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE SUPERB INCOME INDEMNITY POLICY

Which is recognized as the best Life Insurance contract yet devised. The best evidence of the superiority of this contract is to be found in the fact that more North Carolina people are buying the Income Indemnity Policy than are buying the Policies of any other Company. This Policy costs no more than others, but it affords a great deal more protection. It pays double Insurance in case of accidental death and becomes fully paid up for life in the event of total permanent disability or incapacity. Dividends are guaranteed and may be used to reduce the number of Annual Premiums.

His Wit Was Not Heavy.

It was a crowded car, and the thin man looked angrily at his stout neighbor, who occupied two seats and overlapped a third.

"These cars ought to charge by size and weight!" he grumbled to his wife as he pulled his coat out from under the fat man with a vicious twitch.

The fat man gave one calm, unmoved glance at the diminutive figure beside him.

"If they did they'd never stop to let you on, my little man," he said, with a broad smile.

Reviews of Reviews

Many other publications are desirable, and you may prefer this or prefer that fiction and art publication, but the Review of Reviews is necessary. Substantial American men and women are going to keep up with the times and they are going to take the shortest cut which is the Review of Reviews.

The Cosmopolitan

A leading magazine for 18 years. With the recent change of ownership it has been improved. It is far better in every respect, and aims to be the best in the field. Every year or so there's one notable advance in the forward movement among the many magazines. This year it is the Cosmopolitan.

Woman's Home Companion

The Woman's Home Companion is for every member of the family. For our bright, earnest, cultured, home loving American woman it is an ideal entertainer and helper in a thousand congenial ways; but the fathers and brothers and sons join in its perusal by the fireside; children eagerly turn to the pages that are written for them

The American Farmer is the leading Agricultural paper of the country, and pertinent to farming, live stock and poultry raising. Every farmer should have it

A REALISTIC JOKE.

The Way Irving and Toole Astonished a Scotch Waiter.

Sir Henry Irving used to tell with glee of a joke that he, with Mr. Toole, the comedian, and a third party, played on one occasion at a Glasgow hotel.

After their work they were supping at the hotel, and there was in the room a high screen. The instant the waiter was gone they commenced operations. They stripped the silverware, of which there was a tolerable supply, from the table and placed it behind the screen. They then opened the window and turned out the gas, and finally all got under the table.

The jokers had only to remain in their cramped position a few minutes before they heard the unsteady feet of the waiter along the passage. The darkened room amazed him, and the cold air from the window seemed to strike him with affright.

"Goodness!" exclaimed he. "It's thieves they are. I thoct as much frae the luiks o' them and frae their gay talk and their lauchin'. Eh, but I'm a ruined man! I wish I hadna taken the hale o' that last bottle! Here! Here! Thieves! Thieves! Murder! Thieves! Thieves!" And, shouting at the top of his voice, he ran out of the room and along the passage.

The minute he had gone the others shut the window, lit the gas, restored the silver to the table and sat around as before, enjoying a quiet cigar.

Presently there was a confused murmur along the passage. It grew louder and louder, and in poured a truly motley throng, mostly half dressed, consisting of the manager, two men in bare legs and slippers, and a lady with a blanket, caught up in the alarm of fear, followed by the agonized waiter.

One man was armed with a poker, and another carried a bronze statue, ready to hurl it at the thief. As they entered the merry trio all sat back and looked at them with well feigned amazement, and Toole said to the astonished and bewildered manager:

"Do you always come in this way with your friends when a gentleman asks for his bill?"

Make the Explanation.

Often bitter quarrels and irremediable breaches occur between those who really love one another because of a mistake which might have been easily explained to full satisfaction but that the one who had taken offense was too angry to listen to any defense on the part of the unwitting offender. Not infrequently some unlucky impulse tempts a woman to see how far she can try the patience of the man whom she loves with all her heart. No end of harm is done by people who mean none. So she goes beyond her tether, and before she knows it the tightly strained cord has snapped, says Woman's Life. In conclusion, they who seek peace should remember that it takes two to quarrel and that "a soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up anger."

His Share.

On one occasion when the poet Campbell and his older brother were sleeping together the poet was even more than usually restless. His brother received a series of vigorous kicks and bore them with surprising good nature. But in the morning he demanded an explanation.

"I was not asleep," replied the gifted Thomas wearily. "I was attempting to compose a poem upon grandeur, but I was unable to get the lines to please me at all for a long time. But I think that with one or two alterations it will do now."

"Indeed," responded his long suffering brother dryly. "Well, Tom, I don't know what share you claim in this last effusion, but I am quite sure that I had all the bold strokes of it."
