SHELMERDINE ITEMS.

SHELMERDINE, N. C. Apr. 12.

Mrs. J. A. Baker, accompanied by Miss Lottie Dickens, left last week for Drum Hill, where they will stay for several weeks.

Mrs. Minton, of Aulander, arrived Saturday night, having been called to the bedside of her son, Robert, who has been ill with pneumonia. We are glad to state he is much improved.

J. H. Corey, a former employe of the B. C. L. Co., who has been absent for some time on account of sickness, resumed his regular work here Monday.

Robert Syks is quite sick with measles at J. B. Bell's on Pine street.

G. G. Gabriel, salesman for E. Peterson Co., of Washington, was in town Tuesday night.

Jack Sykes returned Tuesday night after a short visit to Enfield.

Geo Minton, a contractor from Bertie county, has been employed by B. C. L. Co.

Wm. Hux spent a few days last week in Halifax.

F. G. Whaley was suddenly called to Suffolk Wednesday by the death of his mother who will be buried in the family cemetery in Suffolk Thursday. His many friends extend sympathy.

Miss Lizzie Jones, of Greenville, spent several days with Mrs. F. G. Whaley last week and returned to her home Monday afternoon.

Shelmerdine public school closed Friday April 6th. Quite an interesting program of dialogues, recitations and patriotic songs had been carefully prepared by the teacher. All the pupils did themselves justice and the audience left reluctantly, feeling they had spent a very profitable afternoon. A small United States flag was presented by the teacher to each pupil as a souvenir of the occasion. This district hopes to have a larger school building next session and a still better entertainment will be given.

Champion Skater Tonight.

Greenville people will have the opportunity of seeing some fancy skating at Center Brick rink tonight from 9:30 to 10 o'clock. Prof. R. T. Aginton, the champion roller skater of the world will give an exhibition under the management of the rink. His feats on skates are wonderful. The managers of the rink have gone to considerable expense to secure this exhibition by Prof. Aginton and they are entitled to the encouragement of the people.

The Bank of Greenville.

In this paper appears the statement of the Bank of Greenville, made under the call of the Corporation Commission, of the condition of its business on April 6th. This bank makes a showing that should attract those interested in good banking. Its surplus and undivided profits speak loudly in praise of excellent management, while the individual deposits manifest the confidence the public has in it. The Bank of Greenville is an institution that can be pointed to with pride.

CONGRESSMEN CLASH.

Mr. Macon Says Mr. Small is Not a Gentleman, But Mr. Macon is Mistaken.

Washington, D. C., April 11.—There was a sensational clash in the House today between Representatives Small, of North Carolina, and Macon, of Arkansas, who exchanged words of some warmth yesterday, as the result of the letter of Col. A. B. Andrews, First vice-president of the Southern railway, in which that official declared that the present mail service to New Orleans would not be maintained if the fast mail appropriation to the Southern should be discontinued.

The after-clash came today when Mr. Macon arose to complain of his treatment by the newspapers. He was livid with anger, and with difficulty maintained his equipoise. "Mr. Chairman," he said, "I want to say that while I recognize the right of newspapers to publish anything they please, still I think in fairness they ought to publish both sides of every case they propose to give the public. On yesterday Mr. Small, from North Carolina, charged me with having uttered a libel against a certain railroad official. I then and there said in his presence that his statement to that effect was an infamous libel against me. But, sir, the papers, for some cause published what he said about me but failed to give my reply. I want it distinctly understood that no man can reflect upon me in that way without my resenting it at the time and to his face."

"The gentleman does not deny that he libeled the House, does he?" asked Mr. Small.

Mr. Macon: "I do deny it, and here and now denounce your statement as basely false, and I object to your interruption. I yielded to you the other day when I thought you were a gentleman, but now I know you are not a gentleman in any sense of the word, and I decline to you because you are not one."

There was great tension in the House following this remark. Mr. Small restrained himself with the following answer: "I will try and survive it."

"Then survive it," retorted Mr. Macon, who took his seat with all the dignity possible.

The Eruption Lessens.

Naples, April 11.—Conditions tonight in the section affected by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius are greatly ameliorated. The fall of volcanic ashes has diminished and scientists express the opinion that the volcano has spent itself. All the papers tonight advise the public to be calm, pointing out the improved condition of affairs.

The way in which North Carolina illicit distillers are being sentenced to the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta would seem to throw a damper over the business, but there is apparently something fascinating about moonshining to some men, judging from the chances they take. —Charlotte Observer.

Signing your name to a friend's note is a bad sign.

Fifty Thousand Homeless.

Naples, April 11.—The loss of property by the volcanic outbreak is estimated at $20,000,000 and it is announced that 50,000 persons have been rendered homeless.

So widespread is the catastrophe that it is estimated it will require an organized body of 100,000 men and the expenditure of many millions of dollars to raze houses made unsafe for habitation by the accumulation of ashes and cinders on the roofs; erect temporary huts of refuge for the thousands have been obliged to flee from their homes; clear the roofs of buildings that may yet be saved; and extricate from the ruins of fallen structures and bury the dead.

Fancy Skating Tonight.

See Prof. Aginton, the champion roller skater of the world, at the Centre Brick rink tonight. Admission for adult spectators 25 cents, children 15 cents, skaters the usual rates. No skaters will be allowed on the floor during the half hour, beginning at 9:30 that Prof Aginton is exhibiting.

B. & L. Directors.

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Home Building & Loan Association tonight at the office of the president, H. A. White. As a vice president and secretary and treasurer are to be elected, it is important that every director be present.

Catch as Catch Can.

Free to every lady Monday night, April 16th. Tuesday night, 17th, skaters will try to catch one skater, can try three times, the one catching him 2 out of 3 will receive prize. Boys and girls race same night at Prichard's stemmery. Admission 10 cents. 2td

Fancy Sale and Ice Cream.

The ladies of the Christian church will hold an Easter Fancy Sale and serve ice cream at the Perkins opera house on Saturday from 10 a. m. to 7 p. m. A large and seasonable line of waists and baby clothes will be offered for sale. 2td

Their Store Crowded.

Only a look into the Millinery store of Mrs. L. Griffin & Co., will convince you that the large crowd of customers are drawn there by the latest and prettiest styles shown every day. New goods received twice a week to fill special orders.

New Bottle Works.

Burton's soda water and ice cream works has started business. Mr. Burton informs us that he will bottle Seven Springs water in siphons. The water will be carbonated which will keep it in good condition all the time.

Married.

Mr. John L. Hearne, a former citizen of this town who is now residing in Tarboro, passed through Wednesday afternoon with his bride. He was married in Kinston to Miss Effie Morris.

A wise man doesn't attempt to pull himself out of trouble with a cork screw.

OVER THE STATE.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

Lewis Roddenino of Italy is preparing to locate a colony of Italians on 600 acres of land near Spencer.

Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young yesterday stated that the collections of the department for the past month, March, were $9,855.83, making for the fiscal year ending April 1st, $205,121.07 paid into the State Treasury. This is an increase of $7,721.79 over the collections of last year, and an increase of $120,244.79 over the amount collected the year before the department was created. —Raleigh News and Observer

Fell in His Yard.

W. F. Hart went to Greenville Friday of last week to have some teeth extracted. After returning home he fainted and fell in his yard striking his head against a wall. He lay in an unconscious condition for some time before he reached the house. Saturday and Sunday he was not able to be out. Glad to see him on the street on Monday. He yet seems to be suffering from a nervous affection. Bro. Hart is an energetic worthy man and we greatly regret that his constitution seems to be giving way, trust however, that he may yet be spared many days of usefulness to his people, his country and his God.—Ayden Baptist.

A Chinaman's Opinion of Our Civilization.

The following was written by a Chinese to his friend after having spent several months in America observing manners and customs of the people: "You cannot civilize these foreign devils. They are beyond redemption. They will live for weeks and months without touching a mouthful of rice, but they eat the flesh of bullocks and sheep in enormous quantities. That is why they smell so badly; they smell like sheep themselves. Every day they take a bath to rid themselves of their disagreeable odors, but they do not succeed. Nor do they eat their meat cooked in small pieces.

It is carried into the room in large chunks, often half raw; and they cut and slash and tear it apart. They eat with knives and prongs. It makes a civilized being perfectly nervous. One fancies himself in the presence of sword swallows. They even sit down at the same table with women, and the latter are served first, reversing the order of nature * * Yet the women are to be pitied too. On festive occasions they are dragged around the room to the accompaniment of the most hellish music."—Pacific Methodist Advocate.

He Catches 'Em.

The Reflector's man Smith is becoming a champion fisher. He meanders to the banks of the Tar in the evening after work hours and catches such bunches as to make some of the other disciples of Isaac Walton envious. He is famous for "cats" or anything else that comes in reach of his hook.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Of Those Going and Coming

E. B. Ficklen went to Danville this morning.

D. C. Moore went to Robersonville this morning.

A. A. Andrews returned from Edenton Wednesday evening.

A. J. Moore returned from the road Wednesday evening.

Miss Helen Liddell, of Charlotte, is visiting Miss Lottie Skinner.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale returned from Clay Root this morning.

Tap Starkey, of Wilmington, came in Wednesday evening to his parents.

Mrs. Kieber Denmark and children, of Kinston, came in Wednesday evening to visit her mother, Mrs. R. M. Starkey.

New Publication.

Plantation Life is the name of an agricultural journal soon to be started here. It will be published monthly and work on the first issue is now in progress. Mr. O. L. Joyner will be editor of the new publication and his ability as a writer will win success for the journal. Plantation Life should go to the home of every farmer in Eastern Carolina.

OF NO ACCOUNT IN THE WORLD.

The only editors with whom everybody agree are those who are of no account in the world. Any man with opinions of his own is bound to find opposers, and granting that he is no reason why one should refuse to accept the good he may do by bringing light and knowledge through his columns. We have heard of the nose being cut off to spite the face; and some people stop their paper for reasons just as silly.—Charity and Children

There were 5,000 miles of new railroad built in the United States during the year 1905, according to a table which has been compiled. Of this, North Carolina is credited with 101.10 miles or 10 different lines. The greatest number of miles constructed in any one State were in North Dakota, where 532.36 miles were built on fourteen lines. The smallest construction reported was by Massachusetts where one mile was added to one line. The Southern States as a whole make a good showing, Alabama having built 77.99 miles, Arkansas 117.13, Florida, 41, Georgia 234.50, Louisiana 245.93, Maryland 42.70, Mississippi 154.85, South Carolina 42, Tennessee 89.60, Texas 322.67 and Virginia 26.93.—Charlotte Observer.

There are plenty of good men, who represent nothing but the public welfare, to send to the Legislature. Draft them and leave at home the men who have an axe to grind. We need no "retained Senators" or senators "branded by the railroads every January"—Raleigh News and Observer.

J. B. JOHNSTON,

Next door to C. T. Munford.

Couldn't See Him.

An Ohio man tells of the sad case of a young fellow, the son of a wealthy Toledo manufacturer, who against his father's wishes insisted upon going to Chicago to make his way, whereas the parent desired that the son train himself in the Toledo business house. At first the lad did very well in the larger city, but it was not very long before he was making urgent appeals to his father for financial assistance. To these the old gentleman, who had himself been trained in a hard school, turned a deaf ear. Finally the desperate boy wired his father in these words, "You won't see me starve, will you?" The old man's reply came in the form of the following telegram: "No, not at this distance." Then the boy decided to return to Toledo and go to work for the old man.—Harper's Weekly.

The Voice of Prudence.

Robert, old and black and of no superfluous courage, had allowed his master's fiery thoroughbred to get away from him at the stable door and go careering off across country. "What was the trouble, Robert?" asked his master. "Were you afraid of Dixey?"

Robert shuffled his feet mutinously and muttered something under his breath.

"'Fraid? Ole Robert 'fraid? No, suh, I ain't 'fraid er ary hoss eber foaled," he replied, with great dignity. "But wen er hoss 'gin ter ramp roun' en pull at de rope, sump'n hit keeps a-wisperin': 'Tu'n 'im loose! Tu'n 'im loose!' twel I let 'im go!"—Youth's Companion.

Judicial Acumen.

The late Justice Daly of New York frequently enlivened the tedium of legal proceedings had before him by his kindly wit, says Harper's Weekly.

One day a suit was brought before him in which damages were claimed by reason of an assault. The plaintiff had been knocked down by the defendant and severely pommelled while prostrate. One of the witnesses seemed very reluctant to answer the questions put to him on cross examination, in which he was upheld by the court.

"With all due respect to your honor," complained the attorney for the plaintiff, "the court does not appear to take cognizance of the underlying principle in this case."

"In my opinion," replied his honor good naturedly, "the underlying principle in this case is your client, Mr. Attorney."

Some English Bulls.

Sir Harry Samuel, a Unionist candidate for parliament, is the author of this bull. "The legislative garden of the Liberals," he said, "is an arid swamp." If such a parliamentary authority as Mr. Gladstone said, "It is no use for the honorable member to shake his head in the teeth of his own words," lesser lights who blunder in the political arena have no reason to be ashamed. Mr. Balfour once spoke of "an empty theater of unsympathetic auditors," and Lord Curzon congratulated his party on the circumstance that, "though not out of the wood, we have a good ship." -- London Chronicle.

Ballooning as a Sport.

A French lawyer whose sport is ballooning thinks it a mild, safe and comparatively inexpensive diversion. He has made sixty ascents without injury to himself. A well made balloon will last ten years—longer than an automobile—and will cost only from $400 to $1,000. Its upkeep is confined to the cost of the gas and the return journeys by train after a trip. "In keeping with the amount of pleasure to be had out of the sport," says this enthusiastic aeronaut, "I know of no other which may be compared with it at the price."

A Question Of Evidence

Senator Proctor of Vermont related the following with reference to an Irishman who was being examined as to his knowledge of a certain shooting affair, says the Chicago Inter-Ocean.

"Did you," asked the presiding magistrate of the witness "did you see the shot fired?"

"Oi did not, sir," responded the Celt. "but Oi heard it foired."

"That evidence is not satisfactory" replied the magistrate sternly; "you may step down."

The witness left the box. No sooner had he turned his back on the judge than he gave vent to a somewhat derisive laugh. Enraged at this contempt of court, the magistrate called the Irishman back to the witness box.

"How dare you laugh in that manner in court?" demanded the judge angrily.

"Did you see me laugh, your honor?" asked the Irishman

"No, but I distinctly heard you laugh," came from the irate judge.

"Such evidence is not satisfactory," rejoined the Celt, quietly a twinkle coming into his eye.

"Whereupon," says Senator Proctor, "everyone in court laughed, including the judge."

What good does it do you to eat if your stomach fails to digest the food? None. It does you harm—causes belching, sour stomach, flatulence, etc. When the stomach fails a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after each meal will digest what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by John L. Wooten.

If you would lose that dull old headache,
And feel as lively as a flea,
Make haste to your druggist
And buy some Rocky Mountain Tea. Wooten's Drug Store

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. A few doses of Kodol after meals will soon restore the stomach and digestive organs to a full performance of their functions naturally. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Its equal as a curative agent does not exist. So perfect is the medicinal action as to challenge the admiration of the medical profession. Such is Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

The most rational remedy for coughs and colds is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It acts on the bowels as a mild cathartic—expels all cold from the system. Cuts all phlegm out of the throat, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for children—equally good for adults. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is a wonderful spring tonic. It drives out all impurities. A good thing for the whole family. Keeps you well all summer. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

If you ever bought a box of witch Hazel Salve that failed to give satisfaction the chances are it did not have the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co." printed on the wrapper and pressed in the box. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve never fails to give satisfaction for burns, sores, boils, tetter, cracked hands, etc. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all other cough syrups. It is better. It opens the bowels—expels all cold from the system, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Living indoors so much during the winter creates a sort of stuffy, want-of-ozone condition in the blood and system generally. Clean up and get ready for spring. Take a few Early Risers. These famous little pills cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels and give the blood a chance to purify itself. They relieve headache, sallow complexion, etc. Sold by John L. Wooten.

THURSDAY APRIL 12th, 1906.

Charlotte is inviting a bunch of big men to attend the celebration there May 20th.

We expected it—some of the papers are printing pictures of what they call Vesuvius in eruption.

When the campaign comes on some folks will be spouting equal to Vesuvius, but with not so much effect.

Some of these days Greenville will want a park, and it might not be a bad idea to select a site before the town grows so large that none will be available.

As planting time is almost here the farmers should bear in mind that the best insurance for a good price is a small cotton crop. Put in plenty of "hog and hominy" and little cotton.

Even the small wage earner should have some shares in the building and loan association. It will encourage the saving of a small sum each week, and such savings are often the foundations of large business achievements in later life.

The daily Free Press of Kinston has begun its ninth year. The Free Press has been a zealous worker for its town and section, and Kinston owes much of her development to the earnest efforts of that paper. It is one of the State's best papers, always clean and interesting.

The Kinston Free Press is discussing the question of its town taking over the telephone exchange there and operating it for the town. There is hardly a doubt that municipal ownership of public utilities is the best thing for the people. We do not see why a town could not as well operate a telephone exchange as electric light and water plants.

Remarking upon the fact that Greenville has organized a building and loan association, a business man said that one danger confronting the town is that those who have lots to sell will take advantage of the increased demand for sites for homes and charge higher prices for building lots which, he added, are already too high. If his prediction comes true, it would be a great mistake on the part of property owners. Nothing will hold back the growth of a town more than for the price of building lots to be exorbitantly high. The Reflector has several times recently urged those contemplating the purchase of lots to secure them before there was any advance in price. It is not likely that lots will be any cheaper than at present.

So far as heard from Zion is getting out no extradition papers to compel the return of Father Dowie.

That Boston jury which indicted Secretary Proctor was merely intimating to Senator Lodge what they would do to him if they could ever get hold of him.

"Billy" Mason says he thanks God he is no longer a Senator. And the fervent "Amen" from the Senate made it sound like a Methodist prayer meeting.

TO THE TRUSTEES OF Greenville Baptist Church

Gentlemen:—
Don't allow your church to pay 8 cents per pound for wood.
If they buy 100 pounds of White Lead in kegs they get 88 pounds of White Lead and 12 pounds of wood, but when they buy L. & M. Paint they get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron.
4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint a moderate sized house.
Actual costs L. & M. about $1.20 per gallon.

12 m.—Vacation—How Shall We Spend It?—W. H. Ragsdale.

GENERAL DISCUSSION.

12:30—Adjourn.

Above will be seen the program for the next teachers' meeting. We want every teacher in the county present at this meeting. Your presence will show your interest in the work and that you have not been attending just simply to draw your salary. A large number of your schools will have closed before the meeting. This should not keep you away. Your opportunity to come will be better, your obligation greater. I shall be disappointed if the meeting is not largely attended. There are some things I wish to say to all of you and I hope to do so this day. I will make this proposition to you. Every teacher who will attend the next meeting will be excused from any further attendance until next fall. Those who do not attend, unless satisfactory excuse is rendered, will be notified to attend a special meeting held for them and for them alone in May. Teachers, show your interest in the work and progress of the county by being here promptly on Saturday, April 14th.

Looked the Same to Him.

A well known author, who was recently exploring a remote part of the east end of London, found himself beset by the pangs of hunger. Entering a small restaurant of somewhat doubtful aspect, he ordered a mutton chop. The waiter after a long delay returned bearing a plate on which reposed a dab of mashed potatoes and a much overdone chop of microscopic proportions and with a remarkably long and slender rib attached. Clapping this down briskly before the famished author, the waiter started off to attend to another customer without further ceremony.

"I say," shouted the author, "I ordered a chop."

"Yes, sir," answered the man; "there it is."

"Oh, beg pardon—that's true," returned the author, peering at it closely. "I thought it was a crack in the plate."—Pearson's Weekly.

After the Funeral.

P. F. Rothermel, counsel for the Lake Superior corporation, as the reorganized Consolidated Lake Superior is called, was complimented the other day on the excellent year that the concern has had.

Mr. Rothermel smiled and answered:

"Yes, the company has got quickly on its feet. It has recovered quickly. It was not badly hurt after all. And thus it resembles a widow of whom I heard recently.

"This lady's husband died, and a day or two after the funeral a neighbor called to extend her condolences.

"She expected to find the widow frantic with grief. She found her at the piano singing a gay song. And, astonished at so quick a recovery, the visitor said:

"Well, well! I expected to see you in the deepest distress."

"Ah," said the widow pathetically, "you should have seen me yesterday!"
