

DOINGS AT GRIFTON.

"Vanderbilt" Tells of Things as He Sees them.

Grifton, N. C., April 20th.
We walked around among the business men yesterday and found them all very busy waiting on their customers. We thought they were going to take no notice of us, but about the time we had almost come to that conclusion our friend, M. L. McGowan, the jewelry man, took us over to his establishment to look at the pretty things in his line. While there we were attracted by the safe he keeps his watches and jewelry in for safe-keeping at night. So when Mr. Burglar comes he could not lay violent hands upon any of the valuables without making such a racket as is sufficient to wake up a dead man. But friend McGowan is not a bad man at all as his work on watches and jewelry stands the test in that line.

W. L. Laughinghouse gave us a call yesterday. It seems like old times to have Cousin Wyatt with us.

Misses Mary E. Johnson and M. Gibson were visitors to Grifton yesterday.

We were very much pleased to greet friend Sol. Dixon on Wednesday. Sol. is one of those good natured men who carry sunshine that drives away dull care from those afflicted with the blues, when they have the pleasure of his company. He seems to be a congenial spirit with Vanderbilt who is always ready to recognise a lively disposition in any one.

The Masonic Lodge of this place held special communication for instruction in the mystic work of the order, by our "Lord Chesterfield," friend and Deputy Grand Lecturer Dr. C. L. Pridgen. We were right glad to shake the hand of our young friend. He is also one of our sunshining men who make you feel good to shake his hand.

We are glad to note that Capt. W. J. Page is some better today and hope he will yet entirely recover from his present illness. His daughter, Mrs. John R. Fields, is visiting him, and her sister, Mrs. John R. Hany, who has one of the sweetest, prettiest and most attractive little girls, Edna Hany, that I have ever seen.

J. L. Tucker came to Grifton yesterday.

We have plenty of fish now for them who don't care for the price of them. Vanderbilt says he don't ever expect to eat any more cheap fish until he changes his name from "Vanderbilt" to "Lazarus," because some of these good fisherman think because he is Vanderbilt they can charge what they please when he calls. But they are mighty mistaken in the man. He is one of the rich Vanderbilt's poor kinfolks, and they don't kin it, because he is such a highfalutin good looking man. So good bye, you old king fishers, you can't clip the wings of this American eagle, because he will spread them across this continent and fly to the north pole and grab from the Polar bear a fish much cheaper than you will sell him. "He-haw. He-haw."

FIRE STILL RAGES.

Took Fresh Start and Continues Its Sweep of Destruction.

New York, April 20.—At 9 o'clock this morning, Eastern time, there is nothing encouraging from the scene of the conflagration in San Francisco. On the contrary, since midnight flames have started afresh on the north end of the line and fires are burning fiercely. It nearly reached Fort Mason, last night, and the big Fontana warehouses and nearby canneries, which will no doubt go today. It is believed the flames will make a clean sweep of everything as far as Golden Gate park, with the probability of taking the Eucalyptus trees around the line and Pan Handle park to the ocean.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Fire at Ayden.

Ayden, N. C. April 20.—About 2 o'clock this afternoon the barn and stables in rear of the residence of Mr. E. G. Cox, were destroyed by fire together with a quantity of cement stored in the barn. The loss is about $500. It is not known how the fire originated.

Strawberries.

Greenville had the first strawberries of the season today, but it was by accident. A refrigerator box of them came here by express that were misdirected in shipping, and had to be sold.

Fish Fry.

Quite a party of gentlemen, a dozen or more, went down to Proctor's seine, near Grimesland to attend a fish fry Thursday. They report a fine trip and an abundant feast of fish.

The delegates and visitors to the Presbytery left today for their respective homes.

Pitt county, is spending this week in charge of Grifton graded school, since Prof. T. H. King, who has gone to Winterville engaged in protracted meeting at that place. Vanderbilt.

ALBERMARLE PRESBYTERY.

In Session With the Church at Greenville.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.
The first business of the afternoon was the report on home missions which was adopted.

Rev. J. Wool was elected as commissioner to the General Assembly at Greenville, S. C., and Rev. J. H. Henderlite alternate.

The committee on new manual made report which was adopted. The state clerk was directed to have the manual printed and distributed.

Ruling Elder John Webb was given leave of absence after the afternoon session.

The following were elected Ruling Elders: George Allen, Raleigh; T. A. Henry, New Bern.

Noholah was chosen as the place for holding the fall meeting.

Statistical report was read and adopted.

The report on publications and Sabbath schools was read and adopted.

Dr. Morton was excused from attendance after the afternoon session.

Formal report was made on the installation of several ministers that had taken place since last Presbytery.

Ruling Elder George Allen was elected treasurer.

The report on Church and Christian education was read and adopted.

The report of the committee on narratives was received and ordered sent to the General Assembly.

The report of the committee on assembly house and school was adopted.

It was ordered that special prayer be made at the evening session for the sufferers in the city of San Francisco.

EVENING SESSION.

Presbytery met at 8 o'clock.

After reading the Scripture lesson, special prayers were offered for the distressed in San Francisco. Then Dr. Moment read the report on Sunday Observance and Home Training. This was followed by the sermon for the evening preached by Dr. Faries, of Goldsboro, his subject being "The Home."

In his sermon Dr. Faries said that God had from the beginning appeared to his people. From time to time He had appeared to men like Abraham. But He tabernacled with His people at Mt. Sinai, and there gave them that law which the world pronounces to be the best that has ever been given. As Mt. Sinai they received two systems of law: The institution of civil law and the institution of religious law. These institutions God chose to perpetuate through the family. This makes the home responsible for the righteousness of the nation. The righteousness of any nation cannot be greater than the righteousness of the home. The home is the basis of all government, and from it must come those righteous principles which must characterize a Christian nation.

In the latter half of the sermon Dr. Farris discussed some of the many things that come in to destroy the righteousness of the home. The greatest forces in this direction are lack of harmony in the family, the divorce system, lack of family worship, cheap literature, and indifference on the part of the Christian parents. His chief appeal was that the family have worship in the home so that the youth may be taught the righteousness of God.

The following resolution was offered by Rev. J. H. Henderlite and adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas, The Presbytery of Albermarle is concluding an unusually pleasant and profitable meeting, therefore be it

Resolved, That before adjournment the Presbytery would take this occasion to extend its cordial thanks to the pastor and people of the Greenville church for their hearty welcome and delightful hospitality which they have extended to the Presbytery in opening to it their church and their homes. The Presbytery owes much to this congregation and all those friends who with such kindly hospitality have offered their homes and services for its entertainment during this meeting, and hopes they will find in this some expression of appreciation.

Resolved 2, That Presbytery hereby extends its very sincere thanks to the town paper, The Daily Reflector, for courtesies bestowed through its columns.

It is the earnest prayer of the Presbytery that the best gifts of Him, all of whose gifts are good, may come upon the churches and the people of Greenville.

Rev. J. G. Garth was appointed to preach a sermon on family religion at next meeting of Presbytery. Dr. Grier was made alternate.

A communication was read from Rev. Carr Moore asking excuse for non attendance which was granted.

The time of fall meeting was set for Tuesday after fourth Sunday in September at 8 p. m.

The resolution sent from Red Springs meeting was laid on the table.

A committee from Ladies Union through Dr. Moment requested the ministers of the different churches to hold missionary services once each month; also that the proceedings of the Union be published with the Presbytery. These requests were adopted.

The Presbytery then adjourned to hold a called session at La-Grange on May 8th.

LADIES UNION.

Thursday morning the devotional exercises were led by president, Miss Penich.

After reading of minutes by Mrs. Duncan. A paper on "China and its Future" was read by Mrs. Watkins, of Henderson, which, in this age, of rapid progress might be a little behind the times, as it was written several weeks ago." Mrs. Watkins told us many interesting things about this wonderful country, the denseness of its population, and our duty to compel these numberless multitudes to come in to the Kings supper, the command to each individual soul—"Go Ye."

A few business matters were then attended to and committees appointed, with much pleasant informal talk by the ladies, after which Mrs. Ball, of Kinston, read us a paper on "The work of pative helpers in Foreign Fields." How earnest and sincere are these poor women who are just struggling into the light—often shaping us who forget to be the light to those around us. Mrs. Ball gave us many touching incidents of women who were educated when in middle age, who studied night and day that they might prepare themselves to be helpers, of one who studied a month before conducting one short prayer meeting, which of course, was good, tho she says "the devil makes me so frightened my knees hit together. One, who took money for her work, saying: "I take this now to drive away hunger, but when I do not have to be so busy, I will have money for work for Jesus." Their habit of systematic prayer for souls under their care, regular giving of time, work and money, they consider the only tests of the reality of our love for Christ.

Our missionaries who have had practical experience consider the labor of training these natives well worth while. They are the force intended by our great Captain to bring their own people to the light.

A letter from Mrs. Faltod, of Japan, read by Miss Bates was very interesting.

Questions assigned Wednesday were now brought up for discussion, calling forth much pleasant, helpful talk.

Announcements were made for the afternoon, some consultation held as to electing officers for ensuing year, when meeting was adjourned after prayer.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Hugh Parham, of Kinston, read a paper by Miss Lane, of Bedford, Va. answering the question: "How to interest boys in missions?" Miss Lane has evidently had practical experience, her answer being to the point and full of helpful hints for workers with boys.

Next in order was a memorial of missionaries who have passed away during the year. A short paper by Mrs. Ives, of New Bern, which was read by Mrs. Duncan. Among these was Dr. Graybill, our pioneer missionary to Mexico, the greater part of whose life was spent in this work.

A fine paper on "The new Japan and effects of the late war on missions," contributed by the Tarboro society was read by Mrs. Fowle, of Washington.

Letters from two of our missionaries in Japan, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Mebane, were then read by Miss Wiswall. Mrs. Johnson is now in this country. Miss Mebane graduated at Peace a short while ago. Her letter was full of interest.

Officers for the coming year were elected: Mrs. Jarvis, president; Mrs. Mosely, vice-president; Mrs. Chas. Currey, cor. sec.; Mrs. J. A. Ricks, rec. sec.

The ladies of the union returned many and heartfelt thanks, through Mrs. Watkins, to the good people of Greenville who have made this a season to be long remembered with pleasure. They especially appreciate the kindness of Mrs. Cherry, who presided at the informal talk by the ladies, after

A FAST AGE.

Occasionally when we are brought face to face with statistics about the rapidly changing events of the day we are made to partially realize what a really fast age we live in. In fact it is so rapid that this realization is only experienced seldom but when it is we are appalled and made to start at the sheer facts.

A person today lives just about ten times faster and more strenuously than did his ancestors of a half or even a quarter century ago. New York has been termed the Paris of America and possibly justly so. It would probably be safe to say that life in that city is just about as rapid as anywhere else in this continent, if not more so. We give below a few statistics on the happenings in that city as they occur day by day in succession. From these facts we can faintly realize what a fast age we are indeed living in. They are as follows.

In New York—Every forty seconds an emigrant arrives.

Every three minutes some one is arrested.

Every six minutes a child is born.

Every seven minutes there is a funeral.

Every thirteen minutes a pair get married.

Every forty-two minutes a new business firm starts up.

Every forty-eight minutes a building catches on fire.

Every forty-eight minutes a ship leaves the harbor.

Every fifty-one minutes a new building is erected.

Every fifty-two seconds a passenger train arrives from some point outside the city limits.

Every one and three quarter hours some one is killed by accident.

Every seven hours some one fails in business.

Every eight hours an attempt to kill some one is made.

Every eight and one-half hours some one is divorced.

Every ten hours some one commits suicide.

Every two days some one is murdered—Charlotte News.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., says that "the mere possession of money does not bring happiness." No, its turning the money loose that brings happiness. Why don't you try that, John?—Atlanta Journal.

SENDING MESSAGES IN PARIS

The telephone system of Paris leaves considerable to be desired and meets with constant complaint on the part of the subscribers. One of the latter endeavored to test the speed of the various means of communication of the city, sending messages in different ways from his rooms in the Rue Richelieu, in the center of the city, to a friend on the Avenue de la Grande Armee, near the Bois de Boulogne. He found that a bicycle messenger had made the trip in eleven minutes and fifteen seconds as compared with twenty-three minutes for a cab. A message sent via the Metropolitan railway required thirty-one minutes, by omnibus thirty-four minutes, a telegram thirty-five minutes, a message by the pneumatic tube three hours, while the message sent by telephone did not arrive at all.—Harper's Weekly.

Played Chess and Music Together.

There is perhaps no sounder musician living than Sir Walter Parratt, the master of the king's music, and it would require something of a musical genius to accomplish the feat Sir Walter performed when staying with some musical friends at Tenbury some years ago. To while away the evening chess was suggested, and Sir Walter proposed that he should sit at the piano and play from memory, while he opposed two friends on the chessboard at the same time. The challenge was accepted, and with his back to the board Sir Walter sat at the piano and played Chopin and Mendelssohn, calling out his moves whenever necessary. He won the game in three-quarters of an hour.—London Queen.

Paid Him Back.

Schoolmaster (to his wife)—My dear, I wish you would speak more carefully; you say that Henry Jones came to this town from Sunderland.

Wife—Yes.

Schoolmaster—Well, now, would it not be better to say that he came from Sunderland to this town?

Wife—I don't see any difference in the two expressions.

Schoolmaster—But there is a difference—a rhetorical difference. You don't hear me make use of such awkward expressions. By the way, I have a letter from your father in my pocket.

Wife—But my father is not in your pocket. You mean you have in your pocket a letter from my father.

Schoolmaster—There you go with your little quibbles. You take a delight in harassing me. You are always taking up a thread and representing it as a rope.

Wife—Representing it to be a rope you mean.

Schoolmaster—For goodness' sake be quiet. I never saw such a quarrelsome woman in my life.

BANKERS ARE WILLING.

In an address to the farmers and business men of the South, President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, said:

"In response to the request of President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, Mr. John D. Walker, of Sparta, Ga., one of the most prominent bankers of Georgia, who is widely known by reason of his magnificent work in behalf of the Southern Cotton Association last year, among the banks of the South, has undertaken to ascertain from the bankers of the South, where most of the unsold portion of the 1905 cotton crop is now held, the real situation, and also the sentiment of the farmers and of bankers of these States with regard to what shall be done with the cotton now on hand.

Mr. Walker addressed a letter to every bank in Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Alabama and Mississippi and asked them various questions in regard to conditions in their respective localities. He has received over 1,000 replies and nine-tenths of the bankers say that they are not only willing to furnish the farmers money with which to hold the cotton, but that they are able to carry it for the farmers till July if necessary."

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town.

AYDEN, N. C., Apr. 20, 1906.—Town election draweth nigh and there has yet been no call for a convention to nominate candidates. Miss Ella Stafield, of Littleton Female College, after a visit to the family of her brother, Rev. B. E. Stafield, left for Littleton Tuesday.

John Randolph, of Greenville, has been down on business.

R. C. Cannon and wife were in Greenville one day this week.

Miss Fannie Hardy has been visiting friends here.

C. S. Forbes, C. L. Wilkinson and A. B. Ellington were here Tuesday night assisting in the conferring of ranks in the Knights of Pythias order.

In a runaway and general smash up Tuesday evening, Mr. Biggs Cox, who lives about two miles from here had one arm and one leg broken, his shoulder dislocated and was generally bruised from head to foot. It was a nasty runaway.

Wednesday evening at the home of the bride in Chocod town-ship, Mr. Charles Sumrell, of Ayden, and Miss Sarah Corbett were united in marriage, Rev. S. W. Sumrell, of Kingston, performing the ceremony. The bridal party came to Ayden in the afternoon and in the evening a reception was held at the home of the groom. Ayden bids Mrs. Sumrell a hearty welcome and wishes for her and husband a long and happy life.

Mrs. E. L. Brown spent the day in Greenville yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Morton, a Presbyterian minister, of Rocky Mount, came down from Greenville yesterday and preached in the Disciple church last night.

Misses Brown, Taylor, Whitehead and Prof. Covington, of Ayden, aided school faculty, were entertained to dinner Sunday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith.

Delightful—That visit from those three charming young ladies Wednesday afternoon. Our sanctum sanctorum has seemed lighter and brighter ever since.

On account of being away from home next week there will no items from this point. We hope our readers and patrons will pardon us, but necessity is a hard master.

The Ayden Bank has increased its capital stock to $13,000. At a recent meeting of the stockholders of this bank 10 per cent. was carried to the surplus fund and a dividend of 6 per cent. was declared.

No "Breaking In"

ONE characteristic of the "Queen Quality" Custom Grade Oxfords is their flexible fit. Too many shoes are like the wooden lasts over which they are made—stiff and unyielding. They have to be "broken in." When a shoe is broken to conform to the foot, the original lines must be changed. The shoe thus becomes loose and shapeless. "Queen Quality" Shoes "keep their shape" because they fit perfectly with a flexible fit. The shoe yields to the foot as does a glove to the hand. We have over fifty styles of these superb shoes to show you.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY

OF

F. M. HORNADAY'S

General Insurance Agency.

On April 14th, 1905, we opened our doors to the people of Greenville and adjoining community, earnestly soliciting a share of their patronage. As a result of our labors we have gained the confidence and friendship of the vast majority of the insuring public and on this our happy anniversary, we wish to return to them our thanks for more than

One Hundred and

of Life insurance placed through his agency in addition to many thousands of dollars in Fire, Health, Accident, Burglary, and Plate Glass insurance which we also control. The enormous volume of business during our first year, and the great superiority of our contracts, have placed us in a position, as representatives of the leading insurance companies of the world, to successfully meet competition, and our earnest wish is that those desiring insurance give our contracts a thorough examination.

Having spent a pleasant and successful year in Greenville we wish to state that "We Are Here To Stay" and shall appreciate a share of YOUR patronage.

The Horse Must Go.

It is announced that Mrs. Astor has arranged for the disposal of all her horses and carriages, and the man who has been her coachman for twenty-five years has been retired. An experienced chauffeur will take his place. This seems to be the general tendency in fashionable circles, though of course the horses and the carriages are not destined to vanish right away. They will always be useful for a change.—Boston Herald.

Cleveland's Famous Residence.

It is reported that the summer residence of Robert Louis Stevenson, Vailima, will become a tourist hotel, or it may be that it will be made the official residence of the German representative. A syndicate of Philadelphians is negotiating with the present owner of the villa with the tourist hotel plan in view, while the German government is desirous of acquiring the property and contemplates making an offer.

Put Away the North Pole.

We are getting rather tired of the north pole. It has been overdone. Every man who wants to be a hero and break into print trots off to discover the north pole and comes back afterward and tells us how and why he failed and will we make up a purse to send him again? Sure to find it this time. It is getting to be a nuisance. Let the old pole alone. Nobody wants it anyway.—Tillamook Herald.

The Canadian Woman.

The Canadian nurse is preferred in the United States to her sister worker of American birth. Physicians in all the great cities on the "other side" readily admit their preference for Canadians. When asked his reason for invariably telephoning, "Send a Canadian," a New York doctor replied, "They have steady nerves and are more obedient."—Canadian Magazine.

TEACHERS' MEETING.

Reported for Reflector.

The teachers of Pitt county enjoyed a most interesting and beneficial teachers' meeting in the auditorium of the Greenville graded school building last Saturday morning, April 14, 1906. The weather was superb, and quite a large number of teachers was present.

Prof. G. E. Lineberry read a Psalm, and led in prayer, after which "Bringing In the Sheaves" was sung with much spirit.

Prof. Smith then came before the association with words of wisdom and helpfulness. Already Mr. Smith is recognized as one of the most useful workers of the association.

An excellent paper on "The Moral Training of a Pupil" was read by Miss Louise Moore. This paper and the one read by Miss Charlotte Ireland at the previous meeting, which I failed through oversight to speak of before, deserve especial mention; they will probably appear in print later.

"How Shall We Spend Vacation?" was then discussed by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale in his interesting and pleasing style. Mr. Ragsdale advised the teachers to rest a full month after the completion of their school work, and then he urged upon them the necessity of attending a summer school, if possible, and recommended in terms of strongest endorsement the Raleigh summer school.

Prof. W. B. Dove addressed the association with a few words of advice, encouragement and farewell. No doubt I express the sentiment of all the Pitt county teachers when I say, it has been a pleasure and an inspiration to have Mr. Dove among us. He has spoken a cheering word and lent a helping hand whenever he could.

At one o'clock the meeting adjourned. Although the dinner hour was passing, the teachers seemed loath to leave, for they remained for sometime, engaged in pleasant conversation.

Why is it that all the teachers of Pitt county do not attend every teachers meeting? Those who do attend think that it must be with the other members of the association as with Tantalus of old—They see the clusters of pleasures and strength giving sweetness near, but are prevented from reaching forth and grasping them.

Lord! how this world is given to lying. A sentence from the Indiana Republican platform reads: "We indorse the action of President Roosevelt in rigidly enforcing the anti-trust laws placed upon the statute books of United States by the Republican party." The Boston Herald wants to know "whether it is the rigid enforcement of the anti-trust law against the beef-packers, the Standard Oil magnates, the United States Steel Corporation, the coal-carrying railroads, the Santa Fe rebaters, or the wood-pulp and paper trust that the platform-makers had in view." The public is tolerant of the Republican party when it takes to itself the credit for good crops and good weather. But it oversteps the limit when its claims to have enforced, rigidly or otherwise any anti-trust law. —Charlotte Observer.

gan so faithfully; and of the Methodist friends who gave the use of their church.

After singing "God be with us till we meet again" and prayer the union adjourned, everybody feeling helped and uplifted by these two days of conference about the Master's work.

The people of Greenville greatly enjoyed having the Presbytery and Union to come here. There were a number of able ministers in the body and they left an impression for good that will bear fruit in years to come. The Reflector expresses its appreciation of the assistance given by the clerks, Revs. J. H. Henderlite and J. E. Wool in the access to their minute for getting reports of the Presbytery, and also to Mrs. C. C. Vines for furnishing us the reports of the Ladies' Union.
