THE DEAR OLD VILLAGE CHOIR.

I have be'n in city churches
Where the way-up singers sing
Till their thousand dollar voices
Make the very rafters ring.
Seemed as if the sound kep' clim'in'
Till it got lost in the spire,
But I all the time was wishin'
'T was our dear ol' village choir.

Som'how hifalutin' singin'
Never seems to tech the spot
Like the ol' religious singin'
Of the times I hain't to got.
Jest the ol' hymns over'n over—
Nothin' city folks desire,
But some heart was in the singin'
Of the dear ol' village choir.

Nothin' airy 'bout the singers,
Land! they never thought o' style,
But they made you think o' Heaven
An' of good things, all the while.
Made you feel as if the angels
Couldn't help a comin' nigher,
Jest to li'en to the music
Of the dear ol' village choir.

When they sung o' Coronation
W'y—it somehow seemed to grip
An' to take your heart up with it
In a sort o' scursion-trip
To the place where God is! Ofen
Heart an' soul seemed all afire
With the glory that they sung of
In the dear ol' village choir.

Then they'd hev us all a-cryin'
When they sung at funril time,
Soft, an' low, an' sweet, an' solemn
Hymns that tol' about the crime
Where there's never death or partin'
An' the mourners'd never tire
Lis'nin' to the words o' comfort
From the dear ol' village choir.

You c'n have yer city singin'
If you think it fills the bill,
Give me the ol' fash'ned music
Of the ol' church on the hill.
Music with no style about it—
Nothin' fine folks would admire,
But it makes me homesick, thinkin'
O' the dear ol' village choir.

MRS. PARHAM ENTERTAINS.

In Honor of Mrs. J. Hugh Parham and Mrs. J. W. Ferrall.

On Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, at her home on the corner of Greene and Fourth streets, Mrs. B. Ernest Parham charmingly entertained a number of friends in honor of her guest, Mrs. J. Hugh Parham, of Kinston, and Mrs. J. W. Ferrall.

As the guests arrived they were welcomed by the hostess, and frappe was served in the hall by Mrs. S. M. Schultz and Miss Maggie Dougherty.

The chief feature of the afternoon was a progressive literary contest that was exceedingly interesting. The first prize, a beautiful fan, was won by Mrs. C. S. Forbes who presented it to Mrs. J. Hugh Parham, of Kinston. The second prize, a book of poems, was won by Mrs. H. C. Hooker and presented to Mrs. J. W. Ferrall.

After awarding the prizes the favors, which were hand painted gauze fans, were presented to the guests.

At the conclusion of the contest delightful refreshments were served.

The guests were Mrs. J. Hugh Parham, of Kinstoo, Mesdames J. W. Ferrall, W. F. Burch, J. L. Wooten, G. J. Woodward, D. J. Whichard, C. O'H. Laughinghouse, Nana Brown, H. C. Hooker, S. M. Schultz, J. L. Fleming, J. B. Moye, C. S. Forbes, C. S. Carr, M. M. Nelson, W. H. Ricks, Misses Martha O'Hagan and Maggie Dougherty.

Mr. Will F. Sutton is the champion rat killer of this community. He and his farm hands made war on the rats in his barn Tuesday and killed so many that a two-horse wagon was required to haul them away.—Lagrange Sentinel.

STEAMER SHILOH SUNK.

No Damage to the Cargo.

On her last trip up from Washington, the steamer Shiloh run on a snag near the mouth of Indian creek, 10 miles below Greenville. Such a hole was knocked in the hull that she began taking water rapidly. To save the steamer and cargo the pilot ran the boat on a shoal and she settled in shallow water. By this the cargo of merchandise escaped damage.

The Shiloh belongs to the Shiloh Oil Mills, of Tarboro. The steamer was floated and passed here Friday night going to Tarboro.

ALL AROUND GRIFTON.

Vanderbilt Finds Interesting Things to Tell.

Grifton, N. C. April 28.

It was our pleasure to greet Mrs. Nan Tucker, of Greenville, last Friday who was a visitor at Mrs. W. J. Kittrell's.

It rained just enough Thursday to cool the air sufficient for us to go to sleep, and oh, my, didn't we hate to wake up and find it had only rained skin deep. We expect more soon, between now and then or during June.

The Disciples at this place will commence their protracted meeting on the second Sunday nigh. in May instead of the first Sunday night. This change was made because some of the brethren could not make their arrangements to come before then.

We had the pleasure of meeting with H. B. Hardy, of the News and Observer and passed off the time swapping a few of our jaw breakers and rib ticklers.

Our town police is very considerate of the welfare of his prisoners this hot weather. He places them under prison bounds so they can come out and cool.

There is a great intellectual treat in store for all those who attend the exercises at the Quinerly High school next Thursday. Prof. Carlyle will deliver the address. He is an orator of high order. He knows what to say and how to say it.

We should regret very much to lose any of the lady teachers in schools in and near Grifton. They are so very clever and good looking too. Bless their hearts, don't you know.

Funeral of Dr. Blount.

The funeral of Dr. C. A. Blount, who died Thursday morning, took place Friday afternoon from his late residence in Contentnea township, about 12 miles from Greenville. The funeral was under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of which he was a member, Rev. H. H. Moore being the officiating clergyman. There was a very large attendance.

Dr. Blount was a highly esteemed physician and excellent citizen. He leaves a wife and two children.

THE WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday.

SUPERIOR COURT.

April Criminal and Civil Term in Session.

The following cases have been disposed of:

John Daniel and Major John Haywood, larceny, both guilty, sentenced two years each to be assigned to roads.

Will K. Trull, murder, not guilty.

There being no business to occupy the court today recess was taken at 11 o'clock this morning until 10 o'clock Monday.

MRS. MANNING DERANGED.

Sad Sequel to the Whitecap Outrages.

Information has been received here from Bethel that Mrs. Fannie O. Manning had entirely lost her mind. She is the wife of J. A. Manning, the man who was white-capped and whipped three weeks before the midnight assault was made on the home of W. J. Teel.

The report says that Mrs. Manning has left her home and is wandering in the woods. Her daughter left with her trying to keep her back and it is supposed they are both together. Mr. Manning and several of his neighbors are searching for them.

This is an evidence of the strain and anxiety the people of that community are placed under by the perpetration of these outrages. It is a deplorable condition and every law abiding citizen should feel interested in having it stopped.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Clever Sayings From the Mouths of Youngsters.

The Governess—What happened when the man killed the goose that laid the golden egg, Maggie?

Little Maggie—Why, I guess his goose was cooked.

Johnny—My mamma can cure people by the laying on of hands.

Tommy—I don't believe it.

Johnny—Well, it's a fact, just the same. She cured me of the cigarette habit that way.

Little Harry—Mamma, does God know all our thoughts?

Mamma—Yes, dear.

Little Harry—Then why can't I think my prayers instead of saying 'em?

Small Bobby—Say, papa, what makes giraffes have such long necks?

Papa—God gave them long necks so they could reach the leaves of the palm, which only grow at the top of the tree.

Small Bobby—Well, why didn't God make the leaves grow lower down?—Chicago News.

Facts in the Case.

First Stranger—Do you consider marriage a failure?

Second Stranger—I have found it so.

First Stranger—How long have you been married?

Second Stranger—I have never been up against the matrimonial game at all. I proposed to five different girls, but they all handed me the frigid mitt.—Detroit Tribune.

Intemperate at That.

"Yes," said the voluble crank, "I used to be as bad as you, but I made up my mind to quit smoking and I did."

"You don't say!" replied the unregenerate man. "I guess a man who can quit smoking could quit almost anything."

"Oh, yes. I"—

"Except talking about it."—Minneapolis Journal.

At the Jungle Restaurant.

The Lion—All the waiters seem particularly attentive to that strange ostrich over yonder.

The Tigress—Yes. I believe they read in the Jungle News this morning that ostrich tips are unusually high this season.—Philadelphia Press

What good does it do you to eat if your stomach fails to digest the food? None. It does you harm—causes belching, sour stomach, flatulence, etc. When the stomach fails a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure after each meal will digest what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Don't forget that a hungry man can't eat advice.

Beautiful women can have the best things in the world, for there is none so foolish as to refuse anything to a pretty woman. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes beautiful women. 35 cents. Wooten's Drug Store.

An apology is a poor excuse at best.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. A few doses of Kodol after meals will soon restore the stomach and digestive organs to a full performance of their functions naturally. Sold by John L. Wooten.

One can't estimate the amount of moral courage a man has by his physical dimensions.

It has caused more laughs and dried more tears, wiped away diseases and driven away more fears than any other medicine in the world. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wooten's Drug Store.

There are numerous sure-thing confidence games, but matrimony is the surest.

The most rational remedy for coughs and colds is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It acts on the bowels as a mild cathartic—expels all cold from the system. Cuts all phlegm out of the throat, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for children—equally good for adults. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Any man who is completely wrapped up in himself is a bundle of conceit!

If health is wealth and money talks,

For so the proverb runs,
A fortune you may plainly see,
In taking Rocky Mountain Tea.
Wooten's Drug Store.

There are mighty few heroes when there are no crowds around to applaud.

If you ever bought a box of Witch Hazel Salve that failed to give satisfaction the chances are it did not have the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co." printed on the wrapper and pressed in the box. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve never fails to give satisfaction for burns, sores, boils, tetter, cracked hands, etc. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by John L. Wooten.

There's always a woman in the case when a woman layer is employed.

Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all other cough syrups. It is better. It opens the bowels—expels all cold from the system, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Experience may be a great teacher, but a man's experience with a woman doesn't teach him sense.

Living indoors so much during the winter creates a sort of stuffy, want-of-ozone condition in the blood and system generally. Clean up and get ready for spring. Take a few Early Risers. These famous little pills cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels and give the blood a chance to purify itself. They relieve headache, sallow complexion, etc. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The trouble in Raleigh is a war of words. May it end at that.

The farmers are certainly attending to their own business, and doing it well.

The announcement is made that there will be a general increase in fire insurance rates in the business centers of all cities in the United States to enable the insurance companies to recoup the losses sustained in San Francisco. Thus it is the people, as usual, pay the bill, the losses falling on them instead of on the insurance companies. There is no justice in this. When the fire insurance companies go into business they do so with their eyes open, taking the risk upon themselves to protect the property insured, and when a loss occurs it is their place to stand it. Of course the San Francisco disaster is a lamentable one, yet such come but seldom.

Greenville is missing much pleasure and comfort every summer by not taking advantage of the opportunities the river affords. For more than a century the town has nestled on the bank of Tar river, yet all these years have gone by with no steps taken for recreation on the river, except by the small boy in taking a swim or the angler in quest of the finny tribe. The Reflector has suggested that a pavilion and bath houses be erected at some suitable place on the river front. This would be a gathering place on warm afternoons and evenings, and besides affording much pleasure to the citizens would be a source of considerable revenue to the promoters from the renting of bathing suits and bath house privileges. In addition to this there could be a boating house with row boats and launches to hire for pleasure trips. Here is an opportunity for some enterprising persons to do the town a great favor and at the same time make a profitable investment.

If the long debate in the Senate over the railroad rate bill was not occupying the Republican Senators, they might be doing something worse. It's only a week or two ago they passed the steal known as the ship-subsidy bill.

That Senator Elkins of West Virginia should declare in a speech in the Senate that he is the best friend the railroad rate bill has, either indicates that the railroads do not fear that measure will hurt them, or that the Senator begins to fear the people, who will soon have his case under consideration. His vote on amendments and on the final passage of the bill will be closely watched by his constituents.

Both the Republican Congressmen from Oregon are appealing for new trials on the indictments for connection with the land frauds, and the grand jury at Portland has just indicted another batch charged with the same offense.

It's too bad that Maxim Gorky does not approve of America and Americans, but we are still a little old-fashioned over here and have hardly advanced socialistic ideas enough to permit the open flouting of "woman in the case." Those of us who are Democrats believe in liberty but not license and the sacredness of the home is our most cherished ideal.

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR

President Roosevelt's intense dislike of "the man with the muck rake" can hardly be wondered at, for "the man" has uncovered so many scandals that the Roosevelt administration will go down into history as the most disreputable era of Republican supremacy. If there had been no muck, the rake would have remained idle. Was not a rake necessary to uncover the insurance grafting, the postal frauds, the land frauds, the Panama grafting and mismanagement, and would President Roosevelt have prevented the exposure of these scandals, because it unmasked the corruption or connivance of some of the highest officials of the Republican party? It is no easy or pleasant task to wield the rake, but the man who does stir up the muck in an overhanded manner, telling the truth without fear, or favor, is a public benefactor. The fact is, the Republican politicians had become so entrenched in power that the grafters thought that anything they did, however vicious, would be unobserved by the people, but the man with the rake with his publicity, exposed them and the Republican party which was responsible for them.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., April 27.—It would be remarkable if the San Francisco earthquake should open the door for tariff talk in Congress despite the assertion of the speaker that the tariff should not be discussed in the House and the notorious disinclination of the Senate to have anything done. Yet it looks as though this were just what might happen. The bill to remove the duty on structural steel and other building material for the benefit of the earthquake sufferers has already been introduced in the House and will assuredly be passed, as have been and will be all other measures. Leaving the mere question of humanity aside, there is good precedent for such action in the case of the Chicago fire when structural steel was much less a necessary constituent of buildings than it is now.

But the country is now in the midst of a steel famine and all the mills are booked with orders almost a year ahead. Therefore unless the rebuilders of unfortunate San Francisco are to be penalized in the interests of a protective tariff, they will have to be allowed to enter the markets of the world and get their steel where it can be had the cheapest. When the bill is up however, it will be hard to keep it from being the subject of discussion and the question naturally will be asked why the rest of the country should be compelled to continue paying tribute to the Steel Trust. Everyone knows that the United States is today making steel and all sorts of steel products better and cheaper than they can be made in other country in the world.

R. O. Jefferson.

Congressman Longworth has been trying to help father-in-law out by telling the Hamilton club of Chicago that the present cry of dishonesty has the elements of hysteria. There is a general objection by Republican politicians to exposing the grafters.

We learn from an editorial in The Times Dispatch that citizens residing on the two leading residence streets of Richmond, by paying $1 per month for each house, may have the streets sprinkled. "The alternative to the residents is to have their eyes, nostrils and houses filled with the flying sweepings of the gutters." If it is not the business of a municipality to keep the streets sprinkled, one is likely to wonder for what purpose it really does exist. As The Times-Dispatch remarks, "it is a reproach to the municipality that tax payers in it must league together and privately contribute to secure any of the reasonable services which the city owes them."—Charlotte Observer.

When asked about the earthquake at San Francisco, Prof. Totten, formerly of Yale, replied: "The whole universe is wound up for disaster. Every cycle works out toward zero. Look at the conditions prevailing at Naples, San Francisco, Chicago and New York. Naples and San Francisco have had their share. Next the two others. After them Russia will meet her fate. Then look for the universal war, which the Bible calls an earthquake, with its overwhelming of the tall cedars and the great princes and the stars of Heaven." The one good thing about the professors' rather gloomy prediction is that he does not say when the disaster is to come—it may be quite a distance in the future.—Charlotte Observer.

But it would be nothing amiss in the people of the world living in a state of preparation for the end of time. Matthew 24:42-51 is a good portion of Scripture to keep in mind.

No "Breaking In"

ONE characteristic of the "Queen Quality" Custom Grade Oxfords is their flexible fit. Too many shoes are like the wooden lasts over which they are made—stiff and unyielding. They have to be "broken in." When a shoe is broken to conform to the foot, the original lines must be changed. The shoe thus becomes loose and shapeless. "Queen Quality" Shoes "keep their shape" because they fit perfectly with a flexible fit. The shoe yields to the foot as does a glove to the hand. We have over fifty styles of these superb shoes to show you.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

Wilmington, F. C April 27—Shipments of strawberries yesterday amounted to thirty eight solid car loads by Armour Line and several thousand crates by express. The effect of the recent cold snap was to retard the ripening of the fruit, a condition which will work to the advantage of the producers.

Salisbury, April 27.—In the head on collision between two freight trains on the Asheville division of the Southern at Greenlee, near Old Fort, last night, Conductor Sandlin, of the latter place, was severely injured. It is learned that the operator at Greenlee received orders from Asheville giving train No. 3 the right of way over No. 2, but that he failed to deliver the orders. The Asheville office learning that a serious mistake had occurred, wired the office at Greenlee, asking if the order had been delivered, whereupon the operator took his hat and skipped the country, and has not yet been heard from. Engineer Campbell and Engineer Sullivan, of the two ill fated trains, jumped, but were severely injured.

In the Grocery Business Again.

I have purchased the stock of groceries formerly owned by J. H. Starkey and will carry on the business at the same stand in the Bialto building, next door to Greenville Banking & Trust Co. I will carry a complete stock of the best to be had in the grocery line and invite all my old friends to call on me. The accumulated stock on hand, though it is comparatively new, will be sold at reduced prices in order to make room for new goods. It is to your interest to take advantage of these low prices.

GREENVILLE COTTON MARKET, REPORTED BY J. R. & J. G. MOYF,

Greenville Presbyterian Church.

Gentlemen: Always have your church buy linseed oil at barrel prices. Don't let them pay $1.50 a gallon for canned oil, which ought to cost but 60 cents a gallon. Ready-mixed paint is about half oil and half paint. Buy oil fresh from the barrel, and add it to the L & M. paint, which is semi-mixed, and you then get a full gallon of paint at the lowest price.

Bad Taste and Bad Grammar.

Boys and girls should remember that a woman or a girl should never be spoken of as a "female." The use of the word in that way is not only vulgar, but incorrect, for "female" is an adjective, not a noun. They should also use the good old word "woman," as a rule, instead of the affectation, "lady." So far has this affectation gone that it has actually become the custom among people who have poor taste to speak of saleswomen as "salesladies." That is wholly inexcusable. We might as well say "salesgentlemen" instead of salesmen, and who would be guilty of so ridiculous a blunder as that?—Chicago News.

Napkin Ring Trick.

Take a napkin ring and pass a forefinger through from either side. Now follow closely, for the next few movements constitute the whole trick. Turn the fingers around a few times within the ring and then when the right finger is uppermost, as in Fig. 1, turn the left hand toward and the right hand away from you and bring the tip of each forefinger to that of its respective thumb.

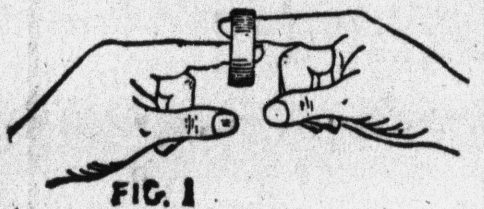

FIG. 1

FIG. 2

THE TRICK EXPLAINED.

Now the forefingers and thumbs are together in the center of the ring, and if you have followed the directions correctly the right forefinger will be against the left thumb on the one side and the left forefinger against the right thumb upon the other. To complete the trick keep the forefingers in contact with the thumbs of the opposite hand and gradually open out, as in Fig. 2, when the napkin ring will fall away without any apparent disconnection of your fingers from start to finish.

A Riddle Answered.

There is a thing that nothing is,
And yet it has a name.
'Tis sometimes tall and sometime short;
It joins our walk, it joins our sport
And plays at every game.
(Answer—A shadow.)

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Appropriate Garnishes For Various Fish and Meat Dishes.

Slices of lemon for fish and raw oysters; also for roast veal and calf's head.

Red beets cut in ornamental shapes for cold meat and boiled beef.

Currant jelly for game and also for custards and bread puddings.

Fennel for mackerel and salmon, whether fresh or pickled.

Carrots cut into ornamental forms for boiled beef, either hot or cold.

Use the tiny sprigs of celery tops for salads and cold meats.

Sliced eggs, showing both the white and yellow parts, are nice for chicken salad.

Spots of black pepper alternating with red on the fat side of the boiled ham, which should be uppermost.

Parsley is the garnish most universally used for all kinds of cold meats, fish, cheese, etc.

Horseradish for roast beef and for fish in general. When used for fish slices of lemon alternate with the little heaps of horseradish.

Washing Woolens.

To wash blankets so they will retain their first freshness use soft water and plenty of it. Make a strong suds of soap, and in it immerse the blankets, previously shaken free of dust and lint. Never rub the soap directly on the articles. Wash with the hands. Never rub on a board. Rinse through several waters, having each hotter than the one which precedes it. This is the one great secret of the process. The heat expands the wool and keeps it soft. Shake out well, pulling the edges straight, and dry quickly. Wash all woolens the same way.

Souffle Potatoes.

For souffle potatoes boil six good sized potatoes in their skins, and when cooked peel and wash them quickly, and add one tablespoonful of butter and half a pint of cream, a teaspoonful of salt and a pinch of pepper. Beat until light and smooth. Beat the whites of four eggs to a stiff froth and stir gently into the potatoes. Heap the mixture on greased paper, a spoonful at a time. Dust with grated cheese and bake a golden brown.

Toast Better Than Bread.

Toast is better as an article of diet than ordinary bread, says Health, for the simple reason that it is better cooked and therefore more easily digested. The toasting destroys the life of the yeast and eliminates some of the harmful products of yeast fermentation, and the action of the heat converts the starch into a more digestible substance.

Good Templar Root Beer.

Take a pint of bran, a handful of hops, some tender twigs of spruce, hemlock or cedar, a little bark of sassafras, with roots (a handful of each) of burdock, plantain and dock and two of dandelion. Boil up in a gallon of water, strain, add a spoonful of ginger, a quarter cup of molasses and a cup of yeast. Let it work, then bottle.

To Relieve Insomnia.

A very simple method of inducing sleep in cases of persistent insomnia and one that has succeeded where many drugs have failed is to simply administer a moderate amount of liquid food before the patient goes to bed. This diverts the blood from the brain to the abdominal organs and takes away the cerebral excitement that precludes sleep.

Keep the Iron Hot.

The best way to keep an iron hot is instead of using the ordinary ironstand, which lets the air through to the bottom of the iron, take a clean brick and set it on the stove for half an hour before using as a stand for the iron. This keeps the heat for a long time and saves having to heat often.

A Household Glue.

A glue which will resist the action of water is made by boiling half a pound of common glue in one quart of skim milk. Another method is to soak the glue till soft in cold water and then to dissolve it on the stove in linseed oil.

Luminous Ink.

A luminous ink may be made by carefully grinding together luminous calcium sulphide and a very thin solution of gum arabic and water. The writing will have to be exposed to strong daylight each day.

W. J. TURNAGE, PROP

HE SAW SIR WALTER SCOTT.

Richard D. Thomson of Edinburgh the other day told an audience that when a schoolboy he frequently saw Sir Walter Scott. Once when on a fishing expedition Sir Walter's carriage came along and stopped, and Mr. Scott of Raeburn told Sir Walter who Mr. Thomson was. Sir Walter spoke to him, patted him on the shoulder and hoped that he would be a good boy and a credit to his ancestors. He was known to the Scotts, as his grandfather sold the first bit of Abbotsford to Sir Walter. Mr. Thomson was quite elated at the carriage stopping on his account. On going home he mentioned the incident, and he remembered his aunt saying: "Remember that. It will be something to tell when you are an old man."

Good Common Law.

One of the absurdities of the law was strikingly illustrated at Shrewsbury quarter sessions recently when a man was charged with stealing a quantity of lead from the veranda of an empty house. The lead, said the recorder, was attached to the veranda and thereby became part of the freehold. As part of the freehold the lead was land in the eye of the law. Land could not be stolen, and therefore the prisoner could not be convicted of larceny. According to the recorder, the only remedy of the owner against a person taking lead from the roof of a building is to bring a civil action for damages. Truly the law is "a hass" if it was correctly laid down in this case.—London Truth.

Why Trepoff Resigned.

Why did General Trepoff resign his high command at St. Petersburg? Here is one explanation: General Trepoff went to the theater one night when a cinematograph supplied part of the entertainment. Revolutionists had tampered with the film, however, and the instrument ground out moving pictures which led up dramatically from a meeting of conspirators to the murder of General Trepoff himself after the manner of the taking off of the late M. von Plehve. The whole thing was so realistically done that Trepoff was terrified and at once resigned.

A Mere Trifle.

There was a hearing on the metric system before the house committee on weights and measures, according to the Buffalo Commercial. "Tell me," said Representative Cushman of Washington to a witness from the bureau of standards, "could one of you men take the little end of nothing and whittle it down to such a fine point that he could then take the hair of a mouse, push out the pith and use the cavity for a tube?" "Sure!" said the witness enthusiastically. "That would be coarse work for us."

A Good Example.

The late Ogden Goelet when a director in a gas company was called upon to pass upon the making of a contract with another company. He said to his fellow directors: "Gentlemen, I happen to be a director in that company, and I never will consent to be a director in one company and pass upon business with another company in which I am a director. I will resign first." And resign he did. We commend this to the board of trustees of the big fire insurance companies.—American Grocer.

A Hopeful Outcome.

William Allen White says that the most amusing "personal" note that ever he came across in a country newspaper was that which last year caught his eye while reading a Wisconsin paper. The item was something like this:

"Niels Andersen met with a painful accident last week, a fishhook becoming entangled in his eye. Niels is being attended by Dr. Phil Morton, who says his eye will come out all right."—Harper's Weekly.

A Wanderer 47 Years.

The Windsor Ledger gives the following interesting account of a man who has almost circled the globe;

"In October 1859 William Thomas Hoggard, son of David Hoggard, of this county left home. On Saturday last he came back to visit his people. In all that time he had not communicated with them and they supposed that he was dead. He finds many of his kindred dead, but some of his brothers and sisters are living. He and Mr. John Hoggard and Mr. Elisha Hoggard were in town Saturday. Not a white man is living in Windsor that he knew—in fact not a person, man or woman. He has wandered the world over, both the United States and foreign countries. He comes here from Florida where he has been engaged in orange culture."

Please Take Notice.

As this is campaign year and the time drawing near for candidates for the various offices to be coming from under cover, The Reflector wishes to give notice that hereafter a small charge will be made for all announcements of candidates, either by themselves or by their friends through communications. It is a heavy tax on newspapers to do all such work free, and the candidates have no right to expect it, but should be willing to pay for what they get just like other advertisers. Hereafter all such announcements or communications advocating any man for office will be charged for at the rate of one-half cent for each word. If you want such communications printed write them brief, count the words, and send the money along with them

THE REFLECTOR office is at all times prepared to fill orders for wedding invitations, either printed or engraved.
