DO THOU THY BEST.

Do thou thy best; to always do our best. Is of our character a crucial test; The world's sublimest triumphs have been won. When God-inspired men their best have done;

Do thou thy best.

Do thou thy best; go bravely on thy way. Nor care for what a captious world may say. The world is often wrong; an honest breast And quiet conscience are a surer test;

Do thou thy best.

Do thou thy best, not with mere selfish aim To win success in power, in wealth or fame. These, in their way, are good in the world's sight. But it is better to be true and right;

Do thou thy best.

Do thou thy best, and having done it, thou Hast won the victor's laurel for thy brow. Thou art a hero, though the world's acclaim Be not for thee, nor her false, fickle fame;

Do thou thy best.

Do thou thy best; not for this present time We will live and labor; motives more sublime Than mere success in worldly aims, control The mightiest powers of the immortal soul;

Do thou thy best.

Do thou thy best so earnest thou lay thy head, In perfect peace upon thy dying bed. Assured that God, who knows what thou hast done,

Do thou thy best.

Will grant the crown which thou hast richly won

Do thou thy best.

GREENVILLE GROWING BETTER.

The Dispensary a Factor in Decreasing Drunkenness.

Those who were present at the meeting of the board of aldermen, Thursday night, were impressed with the light reports made by the police officers for the past month. Chief of Police J. T. Smith says this month, June, has been the quietest in police circles and in the mayor's court of any month in twenty years, and he has been on the force that long, therefore is qualified to speak with authority on the subject. Mayor Wooten also says this has been the quietest month of his administration, only four sessions of court being held during the month.]

These are facts worth noting, and our citizens can feel a pride that the town has made such improvement along this line. In fact any one who goes frequently on the streets can but note the wonderful change for the better. And there is no person with unprejudiced mind but who will admit that the dispensary has been a great factor in bringing about this improved condition in the morals of the town. Every year since the saloons were closed this condition has grown better, even though most of the time a distillery was in operation and its corrupting influence present. Now that this distillery has been closed for violation of the law, and is likely to remain closed, the improved conditions of sobriety and morality will be even more marked.

Of course a dispensary is not the ideal of the temperance advocate, but it is such an advanced step and so great an improvement over the open saloons that it benefits a community to drive out the saloons with a dispensary. Whiskey drinking cannot be stopped all at once where men are addicted to its use, but the dispensary so lessens it and removes such temptations from the rising generation that the progress of education against the drink evil is advanced and the time hastened when absolute prohibition will be possible.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town.

Ayden, N. C. June 29, 1906.

Ed Hooks is in Fremont to write a big policy. Will Boyd in Winterville selling goods. These boys are hustlers and they say advertising do pay. Nearly every day they have calls over the phone from various sections, besides they do a big business right here at home. These are the kind that make a town.

Mrs. W. A. Darden and Miss Lela Forrest, of Greene county, were here shopping yesterday.

Mr. Cullom, of Kinston, has finished the brick work on J. R. Smith & Bro's. store and gone home. Mr. Cullom is a clever gentleman and made many friends during his short stay here.

Mrs. W. F. Hart and little Frank went to Kinston Tuesday on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. Oscar Moore is quite sick with fever at her home near Baptist church.

Rev. B. B. John, of Wilmington, has been here during the week.

It is indeed pleasing to the eye as well as gratifying to the soul to note the decided and rapid improvements being made on our streets. The old Rip Van Winkles has awoke and John Alexander with his force of hands has convinced him Ayden is a new town, a progressive wide-awake town, and life here means a hustle and a bustle. We are strickly up-to-date and still a dating.

The new stores are just splendid and especially the large double store of J. B. Smith & Bro., which will compare favorably with any in Eastern Carolina.

The Pythian lodge here though scarcely three months old has more than doubled its charter membership. And its of good material, too.

Work has commenced on the new Free Will Baptist church near the seminary. The work is in the hands of W. T. Hart and George Case, who are skilled workmen, and they will erect a handsome edifice.

The Ayden Loan & Insurance Company will begin business on July 1st. This company was incorporated with $25,000 capital stock and will begin with $2,500 paid up. It will do a life and fire insurance business, settle up estates, loan money, etc.

Mrs. Bettie Boyd, of Grimesland, has been visiting Mrs. Ollie Cox.

Leslie Ormond, of Ormondville, spent Wednesday and Thursday here with his brother, J. R. Turnage.

Sure something might be done with the halt, the blind and the lame that are now tramping the country. The thing is not only tiresome but has become a nuisance.

Mrs. J. S. Hines and little grandchild left Monday for a visit up the road.

Miss Earl Tucker, after several days visit to Miss Bet Quinerly, has returned to her home in Grifton.

Rev. J. B. Jones and wife, of

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

Small Nominated by Acclamation

Elizabeth City, N. C., June 28.

The convention of the First Congressional district was called to order in the court house here at four o'clock this afternoon by Dr. A. L. Pendleton, chairman of the executive committee. Dr. Pendleton made a short speech and then named Hon. B. B. Winborn, of Hertford, as temporary chairman. The Committee on Credentials reported all credentials in order. The Committee on Permanent Organization named Hon. James Fleming, of Pitt, as permanent chairman.

The roll of counties was called for nominations. Beaufort first on the list, yielded to Perquimans and T. S. McMullan in a strong speech placed in nomination Hon. John H. Small, the present incumbent. He paid a glowing tribute to the Congressman. Hon. H. S. Ward, solicitor for this district, who said that he had waited seven years for the opportunity, seconded the nomination. On motion of Dr. A. L. Pendleton the nomination was made by acclamation, there being no other nominee and absolutely no opposition.

Dr. A. L. Pendleton was re-elected as chairman of the executive committee. The convention was invited to Greenville for the next session, but the matter was tabled.

Mr. Small was escorted into the convention and spoke for several minutes. He expressed his gratification for the honor which had been conferred upon him for the fifth time, and promised to exemplify his gratitude by renewed and stronger efforts to discharge his responsible duties.

Mr. Small was tendered an ovation which manifested his large personal popularity and the confidence in which his people hold him. There was an absolute lack of friction of any kind in the convention.

An Unusual Case.

Charlotte, N. C., June 27.—An unusual case was decided in the recorder's court today to the effect that the purchasing of whiskey from a town outside the State by two parties and the division of the liquor upon arrival here is a sale of the same, this being in substance the interpretation of the law as applied to orders from one town to another within the State, the purchaser living in a prohibition town. John Givens, colored, ordered four dollars worth of liquor from Atlanta, half the sum being contributed by Arthur Alexander. Upon arrival Givens turned over to Alexander half the liquor. The court held that Givens was guilty of selling, and his bond was placed at two hundred dollars, which he was unable to give.—Raleigh News Observer.

Wilson, have been visiting friends in Ayden.

Mrs. J. D. Weeks, of Scotland Neck, came Wednesday and went out in the Rountree section to spend sometime with relatives.

Clifton Johnson came home from Newport News, where he has a position, to see his parents.

There were a scattering few from here to attend the judicial convention and the Masonic celebration at Kinston this week.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Hold Final Monthly Meeting of Fiscal Year.

The board of aldermen held its final monthly meeting Thursday night to close up the business of the year and be ready to turn over the affairs of the town to the incoming board on July 1st. All but two of the members were present.

The finance committee recommended the employing of an accountant to verify the accounts of the tax collector and treasurer. The matter was left with the committee with power to act.

The water and light commission was instructed to have electric current on for lights by 6 o'clock p. m.

The market committee was instructed to have the market house washed out each day.

The white cemetery committee reported six lots sold in past month.

The treasurer was authorized to transfer $401.33 temporarily to the cemetery fund from the general fund to balance the amount overdrawn by the cemetery fund.

The several officers made their reports for the past month.

Accounts were allowed and ordered paid amounting to $2,643.01, of which $1,625 was semi annual interest on improvement bonds.

The sum of $5,000 was ordered to be set aside out of the general fund for a fund for constructing sewerage.

The board adjourned to 11 o'clock Monday morning, July 2nd when it will surrender to the incoming board.

VERY UNBECOMING.

We heard one of our young men making sport of religion in front of our office the other day. His moustache had just begun to sprout and judging from his talk his mental faculties were not as well developed as his mustache. During our brief stay upon earth we have seen many just such young men, cold in death. We have seen the atheist at rest in his casket, but before being consigned to their last resting place they have all been carried through the door of a church and had prayers said over them. This young man could scoff at religion in his strength and beauty of health, but if the dark angel should get after him he would instinctively regret what he said and look into the future with fear and trembling. When one stands before the open door of eternity his desire to scoff at religion vanishes. We admit there are bad men in the church, but even these black sheep in the flock might be blacker if they were outside. No young man, or old one either, should condemn the noble efforts of the army of Christian men and women who are making toward bettering the condition of things, and whether we attend church or not but few of us would desire to live in a community where there was no church. Younman, in the future, if you must scoff at religion, please get a little further from our office if you do not want to see your name in print.—Louisburg Times.

MISS SUE CORBETT ENTERTAINS.

On Wednesday evening Miss Corbett delightfully entertained a host of friends in honor of Misses Lillian Carr and Ethel Skinner. At 8:30 the invited guests assembled in the parlor to greet the hostess and her guests of honor. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and green.

In the hall frappe was served in a most charming manner by Miss Blair Rawlings and Mr. Henry Woodard. Beautiful music was rendered during the evening and was enjoyed by every one present. The evening passed quickly away and at 10:30 the guests were summoned into the spacious dining room where delightful refreshments were served. On leaving the room each one drew a fortune from a magic hoop suspended above the table. At 12 o'clock the guests departed declaring that they had spent a most enjoyable evening.—Raleigh News and Observer.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29 1906.

The Republicans of the eighth district have renominated Spencer Blackburn for Congress. Now it is up to R. N. Hackett, the Democratic nominee, to see how much he can beat Blackburn.

The Raleigh aldermen have refused to call an election on prohibition. The leader of the petition for the election says he will take the matter to the courts in hope of getting a mandamus against the aldermen.

The second congressional district has renominated Hon. Claude Kitchen for Congress. The Kitchens are good ones and make able representatives. Hon. C. R. Thomas has also been renominated in the third district.

C. C. Moore has resigned as president of the North Carolina branch of the Southern Cotton Association. The reason for this is that his host of friends in Mecklenburg county want to nominate him for clerk of Superior Court. His place as president of the S. C. A. will be hard to fill.

While in Kinston Wednesday we several times heard Lieut-Gov. F. D. Winston addressed as governor, and one man introduced him to new acquaintances as governor. Is this prophetic? The State could not do much better than to put him in that position next time. He would make a good governor.

The Retail Merchants' Association of Winston-Salem has adopted a resolution to discontinue program and other kinds of unprofitable advertising, and to use only the columns of the local newspaper. Those merchants are realizing what pays them best.

The congressional convention at Elizabeth City Thursday renominated Hon. John H. Small for Congress by acclamation. This was a high compliment to Mr. Small and a deserved recognition of his faithful and valuable service to the people of the district. That not a dissenting voice was raised against him in the convention was proper. The district is fortunate in having such a man in Congress.

Pitt Got Chairmanship.

Our townsman, Senator J. L. Fleming, was honored with the permanent chairmanship of the congressional convention which met in Elizabeth City Thursday.

PRICE OF LUMBER CUT.

Reduction Ordered on Number Two by Pine Association.

The high prices of lumber which have prevailed in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina will be materially reduced.

The North Carolina Pine Association, which dominates the lumber business in these States, with an annual output of 1,200,000,000 feet, has ordered a reduction of 10 per cent. on No. 2 pine and smaller reductions on other grades of lumber.

With the hope of reviving a dull lumber market this step was taken by the board of directors of the pine association, which met a few days ago to consider the condition of the lumber market in its territory.

In the past year the lumber market, especially for the products of the North Carolina Pine Association, has been dull in marked contrast to what it had been for the two years preceding. The weakness of the market especially applied to the lower grades.

The dullness of the market for the North Carolina Pine Association product was due to two causes. They are: The high price of lumber, hundreds of small sawmills sprang up all over the three States and flooded the market with their output. Western lumber mills also sent their product into the North Carolina Pine Association territory, which added materially to the already glutted market. The lumber prices maintained, although the supply was heavy.

Besides lowering their prices, the North Carolina Pine Association has ordered a curtailment of their output.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

NOTICE OF COUNTY ENTRANCE EXAMINATION FOR THE A & M. COLLEGE

Applicants for admission to the A. & M. College at Raleigh will be examined by the county superintendent of schools at the court house on Thursday, July 12th, at 9 o'clock a. m. Boys wishing training to fit themselves for the active duties of life would do well to come forward and try the examination. Each county is entitled to as many scholarships as it has members of the House of Representatives in the State Legislature.

THE PROPER MAN

Governor Glenn has inaugurated the best plan of securing desirable immigrants for North Carolina. He is going to go throughout New England and perhaps the northwest and tell people about North Carolina, and her possibilities, in his own eloquent way. Thus he has cast his line to those people who are likely to make the best of all citizens, and when he meets them face to face, looks them in the eye and grasps their hand he will arouse an enthusiasm that other means could scarcely produce.

The governor too is well equipped for this mission. He has studied the State, and knows conditions that prevail throughout. In private conversation as well as in public appearance nothing seems to please him better than to tell his friends of the progress and possibilities of North Carolina.

He is the proper man to preach the gospel of Tarheelism.—Kinston Free Press.

A Few Words to MEN

It doesn't make much difference what stores say about their Men's Clothing, if they can't prove to their patrons that what they say is true.

Nothing makes a man so disgusted as to be sent on a fool's errand—to waste his time on a wild goose chase

If we weren't certain that our Clothing was better than other makes, you can make up your mind to one thing—we'd never risk exciting your ill-will by saying so.

We'll say this, though, that we've got Spring Suits to sell at 7.50 10.00 12.50 and 15.00 that you say, when you come to see them, that we didn't blow enough about

We're interesting a great many Men these days and we would be pleased to talk the Clothes question with you

The Mothers' Ward.
In the handsome nine thousand dollar infirmary now in process of erection at Wake Forest College one ward will be called the Mothers' Ward. In it will be a beautiful health tablet bearing the names of one hundred mothers, each name representing a ten dollar gift from husband, son or brother. The sentiment prompting these hundred generous-givers strikes us as eminently beautiful for in no other channel does the mother heart find more fitting expression than in the tender ministry of the sick room.—Raleigh News and Observer.

STOVES IN JAPAN.

The fuel in Japan is charcoal, wood, coal, coke and kerosene oil. The Japanese cooking apparatus is of two kinds—one of the "shichirin," a small portable construction of metal or earthenware, costing from 25 cents to $1.25 and heated by means of charcoal; the other the "kamado," a kind of stationary furnace, built of brick and mortar, the price varying from $1.25 to $10, and burning wood as fuel. The houses are usually heated by charcoal braziers, costing from 50 cents to $15. Foreigners there use cooking stoves, of which some are imported from America, England and France, but the greater number are of Japanese make, while their residences and offices are heated by grates and stoves, most of which are of Japanese manufacture, though those houses built by foreigners are usually fitted out with American or English grates. Only a few furnaces and steam heating plants are in use.

Like a Piano Lamp.

A young merchant recently presented to his better half an elaborate piano lamp. He was much flattered when she told him she intended to give it his name until he asked her reason for so peculiar a proceeding. "Well," said she, "you know, dear, it has a good deal of brass about it. It is handsome to look at, requires a good deal of attention, is remarkably brilliant, is sometimes unsteady on its legs, liable to explode when only half full, flares up occasionally, it is always out at bedtime and is bound to smoke."

Willing to Compromise.

The poor but honest young man had bearded the millionaire in his den. "Sir," he said, "I want to marry your daughter." "Impossible, sir, impossible!" exclaimed the old man. "Why, I would rather give up every dollar I have than part with my only daughter." "Oh, very well," calmly rejoined the diplomatic youth. "If that's the way you feel about it, I won't be too heavy on you. Just write me out a check for half a million and we'll let it go at that."—Chicago News.

THE SHAPE OF THE SUN.

Professor C. L. Poor as the result of careful study of heliometer measurements confirmed by that of solar photographs makes the remarkable suggestion that the sun periodically changes its figure, being sometimes an oblate spheroid, like the earth, with its equatorial diameter exceeding the polar and sometimes a prolate spheroid, having a greater polar than equatorial diameter. His idea is that the solar globe is to be regarded as a vibrating body, having an equatorial diameter on the average slightly in excess of the polar, but changing at certain times so that the ratio of the two diameters is temporarily reversed. The period of variability, he thinks, is the same as the sun spot period. The changes of figure, if they really occur, are so small that only the most delicate observations can make them manifest, but, affecting a body of such supreme importance as the sun, they must possess much scientific interest.

Taking No Chances.

"Here's a good scheme," she said, looking up from the paper she had been reading. He seemed a trifle suspicious, but it was so evident that he was expected to answer that he made the inquiry. "Why, it says that some wives shave their husbands and in that way save what they would ordinarily pay for a barber," she explained. "Marv," he said after a moment's thought, "you may get that gown you spoke about this morning. It won't be necessary for you to get at my throat with a razor."

He Won the Suit.

"The worst case of ignorance I can tell you of occurred in 1869 in a remote section of our country," said a western congressman. "There was a man who suddenly became rich and built an enormous house, with some statuary, and so he wrote to Italy for a copy of Venus de Milo. The copy in due time arrived. It was executed in Carrara marble very beautifully. But no sooner did he receive it than the millionaire sued the railroad for $2,000 for mutilation, and, what's more, he won the suit."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

TO OUR FRIENDS

THE TOBACCO GROWERS

We take this opportunity of extending to our friends and patrons our sincere thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon us the past season.

WHEN THE CENTRE BRICK WAREHOUSE

was first erected, three years ago, it was the intention of its management to build up a permanent business upon a sound business basis. Our business has increased with the years, and we trust to be favored with your patronage the coming season.

Each Customer, as well as each Pile of Tobacco shall have our Personal Attention, and we shall endeavor, as in the past, to make The Centre Brick headquarters for High Prices, Fair and honorable treatment.

It affords us pleasure to announce in this connection that

MR. W. T. LIPSCOMB,

THE VETERAN TOBACCONIST AND WAREHOUSEMAN

Will be associated with us the coming season. Mr. Lipscomb is too well-known to the trade, planters, buyers, or manufacturers to need any commendation at our hands, suffice to say with his judgment and experience at the command of our customers, with our facilities for conducting the warehouse business, assisted as we will be by an experienced and competent force, in every department, it puts us in better position than any other warehouse in Eastern Carolina, at all times, to secure for our friends outside prices for their Tobacco. When you come to GREENVILLE, always and when your tobacco is ready to sell, bring it where experienced judges will sell it to the best advantage for you. Again thanking you for your liberal patronage we beg to remain,

Always make the CENTRE BRICK your headquarters,

Your friends

BRINKLEY and LASSITER,

BRINKLEY, LASSITER and LIPSCOMB, Successors,

Embarrassing.

One fault of a certain extremely popular general is that he, being rather deaf, is apt to come to wrong conclusions.

Returning from a campaign, one of the first men to greet him was an old acquaintance. "Ah, my dear fellow," said the general, "so glad to see you again. Hope you have prospered and had good fortune these year."

"Yes, general, yes; but I have had the great misfortune to lose my wife since I saw you."

Catching the word "wife," the other guessed at the idea of a recent marriage, and, patting his old friend affectionately on the shoulder, he exclaimed:

"Happy man! Happy man!"—London Mail.

Cleaning Carafes.

Rice is invaluable for cleaning carafes and oil and vinegar cruets. For a water or wine carafe use at least two tablespoonfuls of rice and several lumps of soda. For the oil cruet use warm water and a little washing soda to remove the oil. Then put in a tablespoonful of rice with warm soapsuds, shake vigorously and rinse in clear water. Do not use the soda in vinegar cruets.

A Kitchen Hint.

When frying ham or pork or any food that is apt to spatter a few newspapers spread around the stove will prevent the tiny but unsightly grease spots that sink into the wood and are so very difficult to remove. Newspapers tacked to the wall at the back of the range and spread around on the floor before commencing to blacken the stove will catch all the dust and black lead.

Advice on Buying Beef.

Fine, well fed beef is distinguished by the bright red color of the lean, which should be marbled with fat; by the pinkish whiteness of the fat, and the suet being firm and white.

When beef is lean, the flesh dark colored and the fat yellow it is not good. Old meat has a streak of horn running between the fat and lean of the sirloin and ribs.

When Mrs. Stowe Awoke.

A friend of mine, a northern woman, long a resident in Florida, once gave me the following account of a visit from Mrs. Stowe: "I had invited her to spend the day, with several other ladies, at my villa. She came with an old white fur tipped, wrapped about her neck. She sat all day near the open fire, occupied apparently with her own thoughts for she spoke to no one. When the day was well nigh spent one of the guests related the remarkable experience of a woman who had passed through some danger—I forget of what sort. Mrs. Stowe presently startled us all by inquiring, with some show of interest, 'Did the woman live?'—Julia Ward Howe on Harriet Beecher Stowe in Reader Magazine.

Criticism For Tennyson.

Alfred Tennyson early made it a rule to read aloud his newly written poetry to private friends in whose judgment and taste he could confide. It has come to light that he once called at Cheyne row and read a new poem to Mrs. Thomas Carlyle and then asked, "What do you think of it?" With characteristic and almost merciless outspokenness she replied, "I think it is perfect stuff!" Somewhat discouraged, Tennyson a short time afterward read it to her again. "It sounds better this time," was her criticism that day. On his reading the poem a third time Mrs. Carlyle was obliged to confess that she liked it very much, and Tennyson immediately communicated with his publishers.
