HOW TOWNS ARE GROWING IN NEVADA.

Less than two years ago, a prospector lost his way on the desert, near the California line, in Nye County. Famishing with thirst, he became delirious. At length he fell in the hot sands and lay, unable to move, until death came to his relief. On the spot where that man's body was found is now the town of Bullfrog. A water-works plant costing fifty thousand dollars supplies an abundance of water. There are hotels with baths in many rooms, and residence equipped with all the modern paraphernalia that make for comfort, and through them flows in abundance the precious liquid for lack of which a poor prospector perished only a few months ago on this very spot. Electric lights illumine streets where only the stars of heaven looked down on the death of the lonely miner, and within the radius of a very few miles there are now about fifteen thousands people. That is the way Nevada is growing.—From "The Awakening of Nevada," by Clarence H. Matson, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for July.

OAKLEY ITEMS.

OAKLEY, N. C., July 3, 1906.—

Tom Gray and family of Whichard spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gray.

Miss Pennie Mizell left Saturday for Raleigh to attend the summer school.

J. E. Whitehurst and family, of Greenville, were here last week visiting her father,

Mrs. W. A. Andrews and children returned to their home in Rocky Mount after spending several days here with her parents.

Miss Daisy Parker has returned from a visit to Ayden.

Miss Minnie Moore left Saturday for Tarboro to visit her sister.

Mrs. Henry Skinner and little daughter, of Ayden, are spending a few days with Mrs. Bettie Belcher near here.

Yes we all learned that last week was hotter than last.

Those that attended church at Flat Swamp report good preaching and good dinners Sunday.

Henry Congleton and sister, Miss Alma, of Oak Grove section were called here Monday.

J. B. Barnhill has closed out his stock of goods. He will now devote his time to farming.

Collector Andrews, the phone man, was with us Monday.

Mrs. Martha Rawls and Mrs. S. A. Congleton visited at Whichard Monday.

Wash Hardy received a phone message from Winterville Monday calling him to the bed side of his only child, who is critically ill. Mrs. Hardy and child were called to Winterville several days ago on account of sickness of Mr. Hardy's mother.

I. H. Little went to Elizabeth City last week to visit his son, G. E. Little.

Mrs. Eli Rogers continues quite sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. E. Latham, from near Washington, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Rawls, in the city.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town.

Ayden, N. C. July 3 1906.

W. J. Mumford and wife have been on a visit to Fort Barnwell.

We are indebted to two of our very charming young lady friends, Misses Edith and Beulah Mumford; as well as our friend, G. E. Jackson, for some delicious peaches brought us Saturday. Whew! but want they nice. Next to a pretty girl, oh, give us a luscious peach.

Lonnie Stock, of near Ayden, was carried to Norfolk yesterday to be treated for appendicitis.

It is an admitted fact there was a "blow" in Ayden Sunday. Will Edwards says, "what a 'blow', too."

Wiley Pittman, of Tarboro, W. R. Parker, of Greenville, J. W. Manning, of Winterville, and Bob Anderson, of Grimesland, were visitors here yesterday.

What's the matter with the railroads? They have advanced the traveling rates on their road from this point and we presume from all others. Where the public have heretofore only paid 25 cents from here to Greenville, the charge is now 30 cents. We suppose their purpose is to make hay between now and the assembling of the next Legislature. Surely we need the Laughinghouse bill without any amendments.

Monstrosities, peculiarities and other specimens of the genius home have perambulated and gyrastituted in and around our town recently, but the latest innovation struck here Sunday evening in the shape of a what might be Dutch-Irish, so-called tramp preacher. His methods, to say the least, are strange and his purpose purely incomprehensible. Seemingly harmless, still under the surface may be hidden volcanos. Our people should be cautious and allow no surprise to overtake them.

R. T. Dickerson returned Thursday from Oxford. He was accompanied by his sister who will spend sometime with his family.

Miss May Brooks, of Grifton, came up on the train Friday and went over in Greene county to visit friends.

Miss Irene Syllivant, of Kinston, is spending several days here with Miss Ella Hart.

Rev. J. B. Jones returned Friday from a trip down the road.

B. P. Cobb and daughter, Miss Mary, of Rochedale, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of C. L. Tyson.

There were services in the Methodist and Disciple churches Sunday conducted by their pastors.

W. E. Hooks, town tax lister for Ayden, requests us to state that he will be in his office during the remainder of this week for the purpose of listing taxes. Those who do not list will be charged with double tax.

At the Disciple church Sunday children's day was observed. A very large congregation was present and the exercises as rendered by the little one's was very much enjoyed. Much credit is due Misses Jimmie and Arah Davis

WRITING BUSINESS LETTERS.

Where Many Writers Fail--Fault of Poor Manners.

"I know," said a business man of wide experience, "how crowded with studies the schools are now and I should be loath to recommend the introduction of any new ones; but I do wish sometimes that the boys and girls who are giving time to so many little fads could be induced to give more to the art of writing letters."

He did not refer to the mere art of writing correct English or the art of writing an interesting personal letter, but to the preparation of really good business letters, in which the matter in hand should be treated not only clearly and concisely but also courteously.

The need he mentioned is one which is felt by thousands of business men and may well claim the attention of young people of both sexes who look forward to business life. The ability to write intelligibly is not rare, but the capacity to write in such a way as to produce a pleasant personal feeling for the house one represents is extremely rare.

Many writers fail in the matter of courtesy—either in the way of constant omission of articles and constant appreciation, or more commonly, in neglecting to give the other man the benefit of the doubt. In other words—the fault with most business letters is a fault of poor manners rather than of mental deficiency. "Never, in any circumstances, allow your first letter, in a case of difference, to be harsh or discourteous," said a business man to one of his clerks. "No matter how much you think the man has injured us, give him the benefit of the doubt. Assume that he has made a mistake rather than he has misrepresented. To take the other course is to enter a blind alley. You may have to turn to get out of it"—Youth's Companion.

Their Father Dead.

This afternoon Mr. J. H. Parham, of this city, received the sad intelligence that at about 1 p. m. his father, Mr. W. A. Parham, dropped dead at his home near Oxford. Mr. W. A. Parham was 65 years of age and was apparently in the best of health.—Kinston Free Press, 2nd.

Deceased was also the father of Mr. B. E. Parham, of Greenville, who is visiting in the old home—and other young ladies for the success of the entertainment.

A severe rain and electric storm visited this section last Sunday afternoon. It was accompanied by some of the most terrific thunder and lightning we have ever heard or seen. Out on the plantation of William Smith lightning struck his barn, which was filled to its utmost capacity with corn and oats, setting it on fire and consuming the whole. In other sections very much damage was done growing crops.

MRS. M. A. ROUSE.

One of the Oldest Ladies Passes Away.

One by one the landmarks of Greenville pass away, and Tim gathers those long identified with the history of the town to the final rest that comes after this life is over.

Mrs. Martha Ann Rouse, widow of the late Mr. Richard Rouse, fell peacefully into the sleep of death a few minutes after 7 o'clock Monday evening, at her home on the corner of Pitt and Second streets. She was nearly 78 years of age, and for some years had been in feeble health. In December last she was hurt by a fall which left her practically an invalid the remainder of her life. Her sufferings were borne with Christian patience, and it was her pleasure to speak words of cheer and comfort to those who lovingly ministered to her.

Mrs. Rouse was a woman of remarkable fortitude and character, one of those Southern queens of ante bellum times who did so much to bring order out of chaos and help to restore peace and prosperity after the wreck of war. She married Mr. Rouse in 1852, and died in 1864, a year before the close of the war, leaving her with four small children. She turned herself in devotion to these, making it the joy of her life to provide and rear these, and she was spared to see her fourth generation. She was an honor to her home and community, and enjoyed the highest esteem of all.

In early life Mrs. Rouse became a Christian and to the end faithfully trusted and followed her Master. She first joined the Baptist church with her husband, who was a deacon in that church, and later, in 1878, that the family might be united in worship, she joined the Methodist church with her children.

Mrs. Rouse is survived by three children—Mr. J. R. Rouse, of New Bern; Mrs. W. J. Cowell, of Greenville and Mr. W. L. Rouse, of New Orleans.

Funeral services were held at her late residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. A. Hornaday, the interment following in Cherry Hill cemetery.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Wiley Brown, A. J. Griffin, R. L. Humber, D. S. Spain, F. O. Harding, Henry Sheppard, C. B. Whichard and D. J. Whichard.

Licenses Were Granted.

The contention before the board of county commissioners over the granting of retail liquor licenses at Pactolus and Grimesland, ended in the licenses being granted. The objection from Pactolus was withdrawn before the matter was taken up for discussion, so the licenses at that point were granted without opposition. The main objection as to Grimesland was that the town is not properly policed. The board granted the licenses on condition that the town shall be properly policed, and if this condition is not complied with the licenses will be revoked.

The fine breeze made last night were comfortable.

Most of the machinery for the ice plant has arrived.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Of Those Coming and Going.

Mrs. J. B. Jones left this morning for Durham.

Zack Vinson, of Rocky Mount, came in Monday evening on the train.

Miss P. Jones returned Monday evening from a visit to Smith.

A. J. Griffin, of Rocky Mount, came in Monday evening on the train.

Mrs. A. J. Sayre and children were in town on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rouse left this morning for New Bern.

Mrs. A. F. Kennerly left for Rocky Mount Monday morning on the train.

F. H. Hooper and Dr. D. R. Brown, of Hillsboro, who had been visiting in the city, left this morning.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. D. Rouse.

W. F. Harding, of Charlotte, came in Monday evening to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, J. L. Fleming and family, Mrs. F. G. James and children and Miss Alice White left this morning for Morehead City.

THE INDIVIDUAL CUP.

The individual communion cup—noting new in Charlotte, but the fact that they have not been more generally introduced throughout the church is pretty conclusive evidence that there is considerable prejudice in the minds of many and particularly the older members of the church against the innovation. To our mind, believing as we do, that scientific men are right in their theories about the conveyance of disease by germs—not to speak of the cleanliness, here is nothing to be said against the new method of serving the communion, except that the associations of a lifetime and the customs of our fathers for centuries back, appeal strongly to sentiment and make a congregation slow to inaugurate a change. But when so conservative and tried-and-true blue Presbyterian paper as The Southern, of New Orleans, sees no serious objection to the innovation and agrees that no question of faith is involved nor any fundamental principle, so that each congregation should be free to make its own choice, we can but think that the old is discredited and superseded by the new everywhere in the no distant future.—Charlotte Chronicle.

A DAILY THOUGHT.

If any little word of ours
Can make one life brighter;
If any little song of ours
Can make one heart lighter—
God help us speak that little word,
And take our bit of singing,
And drop it in some lonely vale
To set the echoes ringing!

THE WEATHER.

Showers tonight and Wednesday. Cooler tonight in extreme eastern portion.

THE GREAT

JULY

Clearance Sale

KEEPING ABREAST OF THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

The time for Clearance Sales has moved up a month or more. Formerly September, then August, now July. The factory agents are even out selling fall goods before the selling of Summer Stuff began, even now solicitations are made for next spring's delivery. The wheels of commerce are spinning. To keep pace with this progressive age, Clearance Sales, swift and fast, is now the order. Nothing summerish is to be carried over. So profitless is this sale to us that no goods can be charged or sent out to see at July Clearance Sale prices. We have planned to sell all Summer Goods, have taken into due consideration the great loss of profit at such reduction as we are making means. We take the loss cheerfully, wisely, believing it to be the best kind of business sense to clean up all summer goods at a sacrifice, and do it while the wearing season is at its height.

All the 8c and 10c Lawns have been reduced to 5c and 6c yard.

The 12c and 15c Lawns are to sell for 10c yard.

The 20c and 25c Lawns are to sell at 15c and 18c yard.

TUESDAY, JULY, 3 1906.

The heat of the tombs is about to blow him out.

Tomorrow is the glorious 4th, but Greenville lingers to celebrate.

Keep off the grass" signs are distasteful to the farmers. Their motto is always get on it.

Let's make the last half of the year count more for Greenville's progress than the first half.

Don't think every handkerchief you see sticking is working a flirtation. It is just mopping the owner's brow.

Saloon men cannot see that their business is destined to be abandoned, prepare to engage in some other vocation, is hard to understand. Nothing was ever more certain than that the days of the open saloon are numbered, and all men should be able to see this. Gradually the territory in which saloons cooperate grows smaller, and every day the question of issuing licenses comes up the opposition grows stronger. It will not be long before there is not a bar room in this county. The temperance sentiment has grown until only twenty-four counties in the State have saloons.

WHAT IS TO BE EXPECTED OF THE STATE ROAD LAW.

The results of this act will consist of what it prevents from doing and what it corrects. Assuming the courts sustain its provisions, and that its enforcement is reasonably effective, it may be expected:

1. In the next few years railroads will have been advancing; from now on the tendency will be the opposite. This will be due to any extensive or sweeping reductions ordered by the commission, but rather to the fact that the railways themselves have knowledge that the least class of their activities may be challenged, will hesitate to make advances which they otherwise would, and will grant the demands of shippers for rebates, which they otherwise would not.

2. The payment of rebates and the granting of similar concessions will be published tariff will, in the main, cease. Rebates will never entirely stop so long as competition continues, but they will become rapidly less. In ten years from now that sort of discrimination will be as rare as it was universal ten years ago.

3. Discriminations between localities will largely continue, and this will be the most fruitful source of complaint in time to come. It is difficult to see, however, how much discriminations can be altogether avoided, unless our waterways are to be shut up and the benefit of geographical position entirely ignored.

This bill is more significant in its passage than in its provisions. While President Roosevelt deserves the entire credit for initiating the movement, he would have been powerless but for the people's support. The enactment of the rate bill is the people's declaration that railways must submit to governmental control, and that certain abuses must stop. If the railways recognize this, if they co-operate, as there is every reason to believe they will, to obtain a compliance with the spirit of this law, conditions will be fairly satisfactory; otherwise, the bill will be renewed agitation, followed by more drastic legislation. From "The Rate Bill: What It Is and What It Will Do," by Charles A. Prouty, in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for July.

Whether it is general, or whether other railroads are doing the same thing, we are not prepared to say, but locally the Atlantic Coast Line has recently made an advance in passenger fares. Our Ayden correspondent calls attention to the fare from that town to Greenville being five cents higher than formerly, and the other day we had occasion to note that a similar advance in fare to another point had been made.

The railroads of course have their own way of conducting their business, but it looks very unwise that right in the midst of a campaign for the election of a legislature they should be raising fares and creating sentiment against themselves among the people. Some of these days the railroads will see the need of having the people on their side.

Learn to be patient—also when not to be patient.

A crank is a person who thinks all other people are cranks.

Your independence might look like impudence to your neighbor.

No one ever saw a girl wear gloves to hide an engagement ring.

A man always has use for at least one more pair of suspenders.

No man is so powerful that some weak woman can't set her foot on his neck.

If we could all reach the top there would be more demand for space at the bottom.

No man knows half as much about women as he tries to make them believe he knows.

Lazy men bump up against a lot of adverse criticism, but they usually live long and contented lives.

Nothing pleases a pretty woman more than to be seen on the street with another woman who isn't pretty.

A Few Reasons why you Should Buy From
A. B. Ellington & Co.

Because their prices are lower for the same goods than others. Because they have but one price. Because if goods are not satisfactory they can be returned and money refunded. Because they buy and sell for cash and save you time profits. Because it is the only store of its kind in Greenville. Because they need your patronage and are trying to deserve it. Because they study your wants and try to supply them. Don't forget the Game Called 4 P. M.

The sworn statement of the manufacturer protects you from opiates in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the cough syrup that drives the cold out of your system. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

The sincerest tribute that can be paid to superiority is imitation. The many imitations of Dewitt's witch Hazel that are now before the public prove it the best. Ask for Dewitt's. Good for burns, scalds, chafed skin, eczema, tetter, cuts, bruises, boils and piles. Highly recommended and reliable. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

The most rational remedy for coughs and colds is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It acts on the bowels as a mild cathartic—expels all cold from the system. Cuts all phlegm out of the throat, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for children—equally good for adults. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Thousands annually bear witness to the efficiency of Early Risers. These pleasant, reliable little pills have long borne a reputation second to none as a laxative and cathartic. They are as staple as bread in millions of homes. Pleasant but effective. Will promptly relieve constipation without griping. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Wooten's Drug Store.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well. The stomach once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach digests what you eat and gives it a rest. Puts it back in condition again. You can't feel good with a disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Notice—Life insurance companies, will reduce the rate 33 per cent to all who agree to use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. A wise measure. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.

Wooten's Drug Store.

Bright eyes are an infallible index to youth, windows from which Cupid shoots his arrows. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes bright eyes, Rosy cheeks. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.

Wooten's Drug Store.

"Behold the Western sky, Where people live but never die." The reason for this is plain to see, They all take Rocky Mountain Tea.

If your stomach troubles you do not conclude that there is no cure, for a great many have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at J. L. Wooten's drug store and give them a trial. They also cure constipation and biliousness.

If you ever bought a box of Witch Hazel Salve that failed to give satisfaction the chances are it did not have the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co." printed on the wrapper and pressed in the box. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve fails to give satisfaction for sore, boils, tetter, cracked hands, etc. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and wellknown resident of Bluffton, Ind., says, "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by J. L. Wooten.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by J. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Don't LOSE A SINGLE Sale!

To any ordinary man or woman in our city the above sentence is not hard to conceive and the fact that crowds that gather there daily and depart with their arms laden with the good things advertised is sufficient proof to convince every one that MUNFORD'S BIG STORE IS THE PRIDE OF GREENVILLE.

Well may it be said, and so it may be deserved, what other store would ever even dare to reach down in their pockets and hand out, actually give away pure money, free as the water you drink, and what else can you call it. Scant over the prices and just compare, the idea.
