GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, JULY 5, 1906.

NO. 4490

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

Adopted by the State Convention.

The Democracy of North Carolina, in convention assembled, renews its allegiance to the principles of constitutional government, through laws enacted and executed in the interest of the whole people, without favor to individual or class and it pledges itself to continue the just, wise and economical administration of public affairs, which have obtained in State and county since its return to power in 1899. We congratulate the people of the State that under Democratic auspices, there has been established throughout the borders of the State a reign of law and liberty, peace and progress; that our people are no longer employed in guarding their homes and protecting their lives, liberty and property, as they were under Republican rule, but safe in the protection of law and enjoying the freedom which comes from security are directing their energies to peaceful pursuits of honest industry.

We endorse the wise, patriotic and able administration of our State's affairs by Governor Robert B. Glenn and the other State officials, and we point with pride to the record of our Senators and Democratic Representatives in Congress and endorse the same.

We again congratulate the people of North Carolina upon the successful operation of the constitutional amendment regulating the elective franchise. The adoption of this measure has permanently solved the race problem, which had so long agitated the public mind, and was a menace to peace and good government. In its operation, the assurances made by the Democratic party to the people, that no white man would be disfranchised thereby, have been fully verified, and the predictions of the Republican party to the contrary proven false. After a test of five years the wisdom of the amendment is recognized and acquiesced in by all political parties, and is accepted as a solution of a vexed question.

We congratulate the people upon the beneficent effect of the temperance legislation enacted by the Democratic party, and approve and endorse the principles enunciated in the Watts bill and the Ward bill regulating the manufacture and sale of liquor.

We reaffirm our constitutional declarations that religion, morality and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and means of education shall be forever encouraged, and that the people have the right to the privilege of education, and that it is the duty of the State to guard and maintain that right, and we express hearty approval of the great results accomplished through educational work during the past six years of Democratic rule; at the great improvement made during that time in our educational conditions, and we promise a continuance of a four months' school term for all the children of the State. The Democratic party established the system of pensioning Confederate soldiers and opened the soldiers' home to the care of the veterans who responded to the call of the State in the war between the States. Every dollar given them was appropriated or forced by Democratic legislation, or Democratic public sentiment. We pledge the party to a fuller discharge of a debt that can never be fully paid to these aging heroes who offered their lives as a sacrifice upon the altars of their country.

We point with pride to the record of the Democratic party in its care of the unfortunate classes in our State and promise to continue to enlarge our charitable institutions until all the indigent insane are cared for at the expense of the State.

The powers of the corporation commission should be so enlarged as to give it full and adequate power to regulate all public service corporations within the state and subject to its jurisdiction. Passenger and freight rates in North Carolina are too high and should be materially reduced and we demand such action by the Legislature and corporation commission as will accomplish such reduction. We are opposed to granting charters to corporations in perpetuity.

The discrimination of railroad against North Carolina cities and towns and in favor of others having no greater natural advantages is a grave injustice to the people of this State, and should be corrected by such means as are available within the limitations set by the constitution of the United States.

The interference by public service corporations in political matters should be called so sharply to the attention of the people that it will be odious, and the efficiency of such corporations as political agencies should thus be destroyed. The law against issuing free passes should be so amended as to make the party who illegally receives them equally guilty with the corporation issuing them.

The failure of connecting lines of railways to make connection as scheduled is a source of much inconvenience, expense and annoyance to the traveling public, and we demand such additional legislation as may be necessary to enforce that provision of our statute, which requires connecting lines to make as close connection as is practicable for the convenience of the traveling public.

We favor the Appalachian forest reserve and the construction of the inland water way from Norfolk Virginia, to Beaufort inlet, North Carolina. While both of these projects involve great benefits to the State, they are also of national importance. The one preserves our mountain forests and conserves our water supply, promotes the public health, maintains our water power and aids agriculture, the latter will open up a free outlet North and South for the water-borne trade of eastern North Carolina, equalize traffic rates and promote the prosperity of our people. Its construction will also greatly increase the coast-wise trade between the South Atlantic and North Atlantic ports. We urge our senators and representatives to continue their efforts to secure legislation for the establishment of the one and the construction of the other.

We reaffirm our adherence to the time-honored principle of Democracy of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none" and we condemn subsidies, gratuities, bonuses, trusts and monopolies. For nearly ten years the Republican party has been in absolute control of all departments of national government with power to change unjust conditions and to rectify evils. Yet, during that time, colossal combinations of capital have dominated the people, and illegal perversion of corporate law have stifled competition and unfairly limited the opportunity of the individual citizen. Wealth the only illegally obtained has been unsparingly used to control legislation and corrupt elections. No honest effort has been made, or is being made, by Republican legislation to cure or eradicate these evils.

We denounce the hypocrisy of the Republican party which, while pretending to legislate against these conditions, deals only with the symptoms and not with the disease. The unfair, tyrannical features of the so-called "protective tariff" have made these things possible, and no permanent relief can be secured until its obnoxious features are removed. To remedy this evil we demand a thorough revision of present tariff laws.

The growth of the trusts and other inordinate and dangerous combinations of capital, the tremendous and rapidly increasing absorption and centralization of the wealth of country in the hands of a chosen few, all due to premeditated and systematic legislation in behalf of special interests by the Republican party, demand a change in the policies imposed upon the country by that party and make the passage of restrictive laws an imperative necessity.

We denounce the appalling system of corruption heretofore practiced by the great insurance companies, whereby money entrusted to them for the benefit of widows and orphans has been devoted to the enrichment of favored individuals and to the campaign fund of the Republican party.

We denounce the present iniquitous, unjust and trust creating protective tariff imposed upon the people by the Republican party and demand its immediate revision to the end that all unjust burdens shall be removed, and especially those upon the necessities of life and those that enable the trust to extort from the people unreasonable profits and to sell their products to consumers at home at greater prices than are charged for the same goods to the foreign consumer.

Change of Bank Ad.

Attention is called to the change of advertisement of the Bank of Greenville in this issue. A new feature of the business of this bank is that 3 per cent interest will hereafter be paid on time deposits. The assets of the bank are now $200,000.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Organization Effected for Campaign.

The Republicans of Pitt county held their county convention in the court house on the 4th. The convention was fairly attended, considering that they only polled 439 votes in 1904. The proceedings were entirely harmonious. E. E. Dail, of Contentnea presided and R. W. Ward acted as secretary.

Roosevelt and former Chairman Rollins were endorsed, and the delegates to the State convention were instructed to vote for Adams for Chairman without the least jar or friction.

All Republicans of the county in good standing were authorized as delegates to attend the state judicial and congressional conventions.

Co. Skinner was called on and made a short talk, relating to the proper organization of the party in the county, and advised that the very best men be selected as committeemen, and that only honest and competent men be nominated for office. He commented upon the necessity of a strong minority party, and that the same should be encouraged rather than criticised, for such party would perform a public service by giving the Democracy some opposition at the polls, and thereby make them more careful in the management of county affairs, and cause people generally to take more interest in politics. As at present, the matter being entirely one-sided, the people were becoming indifferent and remaining at home on the day of election, and such conditions are very dangerous to the rights and liberties of the people.

He then submitted a few general political observations in a plain, thoughtful, and conservative manner, without any attempt to make a political speech. His remarks were timely, without partizan feeling, were semi-judicial in character and were well received.

After the convention adjourned the precinct executive committee met and selected R. C. Flanagan, W. E. Murphy, S. I. Fleming, E. E. Dail and W. J. Manning as an executive committee for the county. This executive committee met and selected R. C. Flanagan as chairman.

This convention and new organization marks a decided improvement in the manner and conduct of holding the Republican conventions in this county, and in the number and quality of its members. Still the Democratic party has nothing whatever to fear in Pitt county from this source for many, many years to come. We can concede to the Republicans one thousand votes, and this is a large concession, as they will probably not poll more than five hundred, and still the Democratic majority on a full vote would be at least two thousand.

As long as the Republican party put up good men as leaders, and nominate good men for office, The Reflector proposes to give them a fair show, reserving at all times to use its influence and pages to show the inconsistencies of the Republican party, and the defects in any

June Cotton Condition.

The New Orleans Times Democrat on the 2nd inst, issued its second report for this season on the condition of the cotton. This report makes the following showing:—

Distinct improvement has been the rule, through Georgia and certain sections of the Carolinas complain of damage from excessive rains.

Taking the belt as a whole, there has been practically no abandonment of acreage.

The cultivation has been good, though labor has been scarce in most districts.

The boll weevil is reported from parishes in Louisiana, but the pest seems to be less menacing than usual in Texas.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Friday.

candidate that they may name for office, but at the same time will give them credit when they name good men. We believe ourselves that a good size, well managed minority party in this county, instead of injuring will arouse the Democratic party to a full sense of duty in selecting good men for office, and polling their entire vote at the ballot box.

THE GREAT JULY

Clearance Sale

KEEPING ABREAST OF THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

The time for Clearance Sales has moved up a month or more. Formerly September, then August, now July. The factory agents are even out selling fall goods before the selling of Summer Stuff began, even now solicitations are made for next spring's delivery. The wheels of commerce are spinning. To keep pace with this progressive age, Clearance Sales, swift and fast, is now the order. Nothing summerish is to be carried over. So profitless is this sale to us that no goods can be charged or sent out to see at July Clearance Sale prices. We have planned to sell all Summer Goods, have taken into due consideration the great loss of profit at such reduction as we are making means. We take the loss cheerfully, wisely, believing it to be the best kind of business sense to clean up all summer goods at a sacrifice, and do it while the wearing season is at its height.

All the 8c and 10c Lawns have n reduced to 5c and 6c yard.

The 12c and 15c Lawns are to sell for 10c yard.

THURSDAY, JULY 5 1906.

Greenville had better make up her mind to have a real fourth of July celebration next year.

The platform adopted by the Democratic state convention "pointed with pride" but did not "view with alarm."

The principles enunciated in the platform of the state convention at Greensboro bore the true note of Democracy, and commend themselves to the approval of every lover of good government.

J. A. Chandler, an Iredell county Republican, has declared his purpose of voting the Democratic ticket in the next election. In announcing this change of political sentiment he had the manhood to resign an office to which he had been elected by the Republicans.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

(By an Occasional Contributor.)

The caterpillars have now attacked the shade trees. Let us spray.

Any resident of the Indian Territory who is thirsty can now get a drink without going over the line into Oklahoma.

Tim Lawton refers to the President as "the boss muck-raker in the whole lot." He was bound to get into the President's class some way.

It is seven money that the most important witness for the defense in the Taw case will have been lost in that English train wreck.

After the mud geysers that have developed during the Pennsylvania campaign, the Yellowstone National Park can go way back and sit down.

How many laughs clerk McWhorter must had while the graft prosecutions were going on in the post-office department.

All this row about the Chicago inspector explains what has hitherto been a mystery, namely what becomes of the graduate of the blind asylums.

A Secret Service man inaugurated the President's vacation trip by knocking down a photographer who had snapped a picture of Mr. Roosevelt. Pretty fair indication that there is nothing in the third term talk.

It is just possible that Sen. Morgan may induce the President to stop off at Nicaragua and see what a mistake the government made in not the building a canal here.

The Chicago makers explained that meat was no worse five years after it was canned than the day it was put up. You see they knew exactly how it was when it was put up.

GREENVILLE VS WILLIAMSTON.

We Are Two to Two, Too. Tie
Game on Seven Innings.

Quite an interesting game of ball was played here Wednesday afternoon between the teams of Greenville and Williamston. Both teams were composed entirely of home boys of the respective towns and they were pretty evenly matched.

The game was snappy from start to the end of the seventh inning when it was stopped by a heavy down-pour of rain. At this time the score stood 2 to 2, and with such even playing on both sides it is hard to predict the result had the entire nine innings been played. The home team having just organized and this being the first time all of them were together in a game, put up some remarkably good playing.

The lineup was as follows:

Greenville	Williamston
Blow c	Peele
Lanier 1b	Hassell, C. W.
Lipscomb 2b	Godwin
Lassiter 3b	Godard
Black p	Moore
Anderson ss	Rogers
Randolph rf	Gurganus
Laughinghouse lf	Dixon
Wayland cf	Hassell, C.

Score: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 R H E.
Greenville: 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 2 2 3
Williamston: 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 2 2 5
Struck out by Black 3, by Moore 12.
Base on balls off Black 1, off Moore 2.
Left on Base Greenville 3, Williamston 2.
Umpire Ola Forbes, scorer John Shelburn.

M. M. Smith was manager and coacher of the home team and handled the boys well.

The Williamston team was composed of clever boys and Greenville enjoyed their visit here.

MEDICAL JOURNALISM.

The medical editor of one of the New York dailies used often to say that newspaper journalism was played out, for a column published only once a week or once a month could never compete with the daily papers; at best it could only republish in more elaborate or less sensational style what the press had printed days before. In illustration of this view may be mentioned a tremendous "beat" scored recently by a New York daily. The editorial of the journal published an account of an operation for renal calculus performed at one of the hospitals by a well known surgeon of the city. All the details of the operation were graphically and, as it appeared the next day, quite accurately described. The point of special interest in the article was that the operation which it described was not performed until about twelve hours after the article had been published.—Medical Record.

The Amateur Baseball Player.
The man is a baseball crank. Today he is going out to play sports for an office team. He is full of ginger and is confident that he can play any grounder that comes his way and bat over 300. He hasn't played baseball in five years, but he has seen others play, and he knows he can do as well and better. He has often said so. The man is going to wear a baseball suit and a red undershirt, and he will look the part. But will he play the part? Tomorrow the man will smell of ammonia and other soothing lotions. He will have no ginger. The man will be nursing three swollen fingers and 400 sore muscles. He will walk with care and deliberation. He will also hurry over the sporting page for fear he will see something more than a headline about the way he played. He will be full of remorse.—Detroit Free Press.

Another Species.
Butcher—All the pigs in this city are killed right here, ma'am.
Lady (disgustedly)—No, they're not. There were five in the end seats of the car I came down in this

Making an Island.
There used to be an old store-keeper at Chatham, on Cape Cod, who was formerly a sea captain. With very serious mien and many shakings of the head he told of how he once got even with a rival captain by selling him an innocent appearing anti-fouling paint.
"Yaas, sir," said this old barnacle "B'gum, sir, when Cap'n Darius got inter mid-ocean, you m'believe me or not, that paint I had sold him began to collect everything floatin' on the ocean, seaweed, driftwood, until at last, b'gum, the ship could not move at all, no, sir; she turned inter an island, that's what she did, and she's out there yit in latitude—ket m' see—waal, I clean forgot the paint's bit howsunever there she be to this day, shipmate—betcha a dollar."

Many Such.
Old Mrs. B., a lady notorious for her saving habits, one morning entered the doctor's surgery, leading a healthy boy of nine years. "Well, Mrs. B.," said the doctor, "who's our patient?" "My neevy from town," Mrs. B. replied. "Not much wrong with him, I should say," laughed the doctor, pinching his red cheeks. "I ain't 'bout 'is appetite, doctor," said the boy's aunt in a low voice. "What's the matter, doctor, staring?" "Supply he doesn't need an appetizer?" "Good gracious, no, doctor," replied Mrs. B. in horrified accents. "I want you to give me summat to make 'is appetite go. 'E'll eat me out of 'ouse an' 'ene afore 'is month's holiday is up if 'is appetite ain't eat down!"—Sacred Heart Review.

Tartar on the Teeth.
The remedy for tartar on the teeth will be of benefit in clearing the color. Get five cents' worth of powdered pumice stone, an orange stick and lemon. Sharpen the stick to a fat point, cut the lemon in half and dip the stick into the lemon juice and then into the powdered pumice. Rub over the green spots until they are removed and be careful to rub between the teeth also. Rinse thoroughly with warm water. You should use this only when necessary, not oftener than once in two weeks, as the pumice if used often destroys the enamel.

He Got the Billet.
When organizing the Red River expedition Lord Wolseley received from home the following cable: "Remember Butler, Sixty-ninth Regiment." He thought no more about it. One day, some weeks later, Lieutenant Butler walked into Wolseley's headquarters and mentioned the telegram. He asked for the list. "I'm afraid there are no billets left," said Wolseley. "All Canada and the army wanted to get on an expedition." "There is one billet," said Butler. "What is that?" "A place for the Indians on your bank during the advance." "By Jove, you're right!" said Wolseley, and the billet was his. Moreover, the general was so impressed by his foresight that he conceived the idea of keeping a record of the names of soldiers who think things and do things. Butler's was the first name on that list, which was afterward known as the famous Wolseley ring.—Dundee Advertiser.

B. U. Grapevine.
The tentacles of the devilfish are less wonderful than those of a vigorous grapevine in the spring. Grasping ambition is as nothing in comparison therewith. See the tender yet audacious tendrils reaching out in blindness for something to catch hold of. The new vine may grow five, seven, ten feet, without support, and the tendrils may grope for weeks in search of something to tie to, but their groping invariably succeeds. They hitch on at last and their grip is tenacity itself. No sooner do they wind their way several times around the newly discovered support than they lose all their tenderness and being to harden into a wirelike coil. Their groping is finished. Their sense of feeling is lost. They become mere hoops of steel.

Just the Thing.
Guest (to proprietor of summer hotel)—That's great music you have with the meals.
Proprietor—Like it, do you?
"Splendid! Makes me forget that I'm not getting enough to eat."—New York Life.

A Boy and a Bird.
A Capitol Hill small boy received a pair of pet pigeons from his aunt. The youngster was very much interested in them and paid them much attention. He fed them a dozen times a day at least. He was very desirous that some eggs should be laid, but the hen pigeon did not seem inclined to please him in this respect. One day the little boy came running to his mother. He was excited.
"Ma'ma," he said, "I know why Mrs. Pigeon don't lay a egg."
"Why?" asked his mother.
"Because her egg is stuck in her neck," he replied. He led her to the pigeon's nest.—Dundee Advertiser.

Maine's Longest Bridge.
The new bridge over the Sheepscott river, between Wiscasset and Edgecomb, is said to be the longest in Maine. There were used in its construction between 1,200 and 1,300 cables, varying from twenty-five to thirty-five feet in length. All those cables, deep water were of oak. The bridge is seven feet wide with a depth of 3 feet. All of the timber and railings are of hard pine, of which 200,000 feet were used. It took about 115,000 feet of pine and hemlock planks to cover it, and about 2 1/2 tons of nails were used in fastening this planking in place. More than 6,000 bolts, varying from nine to thirty-six inches in length, were used.—Boston Globe.

The Jury Soon Agreed.
Judge Amasa J. Parker of Albany was as vaguish as he was learned. Having had a five days' trial of a breach of promise case, the jury disagreed and averred that a verdict was impossible. Said Judge Parker: "This is unfortunate, and I am sorry for the uncomfortable night you have passed, but I have a circuit term to hold in New York which cannot take longer than a fortnight, when I shall return to receive your verdict. In by that time you have reached one. Meanwhile I shall direct the clerk to make you as comfortable as circumstances will permit." The foreman glared at his fellows, and they glared at him, but the foreman, recovering his presence of mind, hurried up and down the row of doleful sikes and in a few minutes announced a verdict for the defendant. But the fair plaintiff obtained from the appellate court a new trial on the novel ground that the judge had coerced the jury.

If you ever bought a box of Witch Hazel Salve that failed to give satisfaction the chances are it did not have the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co." printed on the wrapper and pressed in the box. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve never fails to give satisfaction for cuts, sores, boils, tetter, cracked nails, etc. For skin bleeding, itching and protruding piles it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Burroughs, an old and well-known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says, "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by J. L. Wooten.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by E. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Those congressmen had a jolly time in the house toward the close of the last day. One account of the proceedings of the house on Saturday evening contains this description of the closing events:

While the "song service" was in progress Representative Watson, of Indiana, who led the singing, started "Dixie," but a message from the senate interrupted the song. When the message had been heard Speaker Cannon directed that Mr. Watson "continue his remarks." Dixie was taken up amid many rebel yells from the Democratic side. My Maryland and Home Sweet Home were among other songs rendered.

Dixie is a tune that raises the hair of the head even if it is a bald one, and arouses the enthusiasm, whether it be of a southerner or a man from the other side of Mason and Dixie's line. It is a remarkable fact that when any one wishes to arouse the enthusiasm of a crowd, no matter in what part of the country, the first idea is to start Dixie. That does the work. Federal veterans go as will over the inspiring strains as do the old Confederate veterans.—Wilmington Messenger.

Senator Tillman says "the Big Six" cuttled to the rear on all four and left the Pitchfork on the first line. "Really it is to be hoped that the Senator's facts are not as badly mixed as his metaphors."
