SOON TO WILSON.

Raleigh and Pamlico Sound Railway People Have Big Forces Hard at Work Pushing to Completion.

From good authority it is learned that the Raleigh and Pamlico Sound railway people expect to be running a passenger train from Raleigh to Wilson in two months.

The distance from Raleigh to Wilson on the new line is about fifty miles and the rail is now laid about half way, the grading being completed beyond Zebulon. Out from Wilson working this way are 500 hands at work, the contract being with J. G. White & Co., of New York. Above Zebulon a force of nearly 600 is at work in it being 285 convicts and over three hundred other workers. Besides this several gangs are to work at points between Zebulon and Wilson. Beyond Wilson work is also being pushed, and out from New Bern towards Washington there is a force of over three hundred men.

Other gangs are to be put to work and this is to be rushed, the prospect being that in two months or a little over trains will be running from Raleigh to Wilson, and that a new route to Eastern North Carolina will be in operation.—Raleigh News and Observer.

THE RED MEN.

Withlacooche Tribe No. 35 I. O. R. M. Install Officers.

At their meeting Friday night the following were raised up to their chieftaincy by Deputy Great Sachem, J. H. Harris, assisted by Great Prophet F. M. Hodges and S. T. Whit:

Sachem, Roy O. Flanagan.
Sr. Sagamore, Dr. D. L. James.
Jr. Sagamore, D. C. Moore.
Prophet, J. F. Smith.

After installation all present were highly entertained by addresses from those eloquent speakers, R. C. Flanagan, Dr. D. L. James and Rev. J. E. Ayscue. There was also some good remarks made by several others. After the speechmaking tables were spread in the wigwam and all enjoyed cream, cake, lemonade, ice water, cigars, etc., to their own satisfaction, all declaring it to be the best meeting and the most enjoyable in every way of any since institution of the tribe.

LOSS IN COTTON FUTURES.

Our Southern people are coming more and more to play the bucket shops when we are getting a good price for spot cotton. And as a result we place more than our profits into futures and every ninety-nine out of the hundred who try the fascinating game lose out. The South has lost millions in the last ten years. Had this money been placed by the parties in real estate they would have been worth a good round sum today where they are not worth a cent so far as that venture was concerned.

All forms of gambling are delusive and losing, and gambling on cotton futures is one of the most demoralizing of all the ways in which we let money slip.—Tuskegee News.

WINTERVILLE NOTES

Interesting Items from Our Hustling Neighbor.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., July 7.—

We were glad to see Elder C. C. Bland and Thos. Ludford, two of Ayden's best citizens on our streets Friday.

J. L. Jackson, the efficient cashier of the Bank of Winterville, took holiday on the 4th.

We are glad to learn that Herbert E. Ellis, who has been critically ill for several days, is recovering rapidly.

Miss Mollie Bryan and her brother, Bruton, returned Thursday from a visit near Bethel.

Otey Strither, of Wilmington, is visiting at the home of Mrs. E. E. Cox.

F. C. Nye and Miss Laura Cox returned home Thursday afternoon from the summer school at Raleigh. Pitt county stood next to Wake in representation. This shows what the teachers of Pitt stand for—progress. We are also proud indeed of the high esteem in which our noble county superintendent is held by the educators of the state.

Hon. J. B. Little, who has been visiting in Raleigh, Snow Hill and other points returned home today. The continued rains have retarded our farmers in laying by their crops somewhat.

Messrs. E. E. Dail, Chas. McLawhorn and C. H. Langston, three of our most progressive farmers were in town on business Friday afternoon.

Geo. Kittrell, L. L. Kittrell, E. F. Tucker and Ola Manning went to Greenville Friday evening.

Miss Bonnor Kittrell returned Friday evening after having attended the summer school at Raleigh. She spent several days visiting in Roanoke Rapids on her way home.

Miss Eva Langston was in town Friday evening shopping.

Miss Pearl Nelson, from Griston is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sallie Nelson.

J. W. Sparks and family left Wednesday for Thompson, Ga., where they will make their home in the future. They will visit some time in points between here and there. We regret to see them leave. They will be missed no little.

MIND YOUR WIFE.

The Profit That Comes Therefrom

The newspapers of the country have been telling how Mayor McClellan, of New York, escaped being a victim of the recent disastrous railroad wreck in England by taking the advice of his wife. Upon landing from the steamer he wanted to take one route into the interior, while his wife advised another. He took the route she selected, while had he followed his own plan he would have been on the ill fated train.

The Reflector has just found an instance nearer home of the profit in minding your wife. Mr. J. F. Godley, of the Chocowinity section of Beaufort county, dropped in to tell us about his crops, and was praising his wife for the good advice she had given him. He said when he was about to plant his crops this spring he was selecting places for the cotton, the corn and the tobacco. His wife told him the place selected for the tobacco was entirely too low and the crop would be drowned if he planted it there. Upon her advice he changed his mind and put the tobacco out on the hills. Now he says his crops on the low lands are drowned out, while his tobacco crop on the hills is as fine as he ever saw. "I tell you it pays to mind your wife," he added.

"GO SOUTH!"

Henry Watterson was honored by Brown University last week with the degree of L. L. D., at the commencement exercises in Providence, R. I. Mr. Watterson addressed the graduating class on "Sectionalism." He said:

"Let me say at once that the good American does not expect to locate in Paris when he dies. Go west, young man!" cried Horace Greely. That was when the Missouri river formed the western boundary. Now the traveler only begins to think that he has struck the western trail when he has passed Kansas City or Omaha. In San Francisco, Honolulu is 'the west' in Honolulu, the Philippines. Pack your New England wallet and take a beeline for Dixie; carry your New England Bible with you—it will keep the old red barn fresh in mind—though you will find some 'oid folks at home' down there, too; carry your blythe New England spirit with you—it will meet kindred spirits there—plenty of them, and don't believe all the tales you hear about the race question."

Quick Conviction.

Henry Baily, the negro who recently murdered Mr. John Lancaster near Vanceboro was tried at Newbern Friday and sentenced to be hanged August 31st.

The R. & P.

Another car load of Italian laborers has reached Wilson to work on the Raleigh & Pamlico Sound railroad. The road will soon be pushing on down this way.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday.

IT IS COMING

Convenience of the Day Current.

The furnishing of a day current by the Henderson Lighting and Power Company has opened the way for starting up a number of new enterprises and innovations and conveniences of a less importance. One of the latest of these is the adoption of the electric iron by Mrs. A. S. Renn. Instead of the old style which necessitates running a stove to heat the irons, she uses an electrically heated iron to do the work at her pressing and cleaning rooms.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

It is with this idea of encouraging small industries and developing the town that has made The Reflector so anxious to see a day electric current in Greenville. The day current will soon be installed here, and there is no telling in how many ways it will help the town and at the same time increase the revenue of the plant. People will find use for the day current in numerous enterprises and conveniences.

FOR THE OLD TICKET.

Grimesland, N. C., July 6th, 1906. EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Several months ago I took the initiative in Democratic circles and placed in nomination for the Senate Hon. J. J. Laughinghouse. This nomination was made without his knowledge or consent.

Since then I have watched and made a careful survey of the political situation in our county, and am now of the opinion that it will be best to return the old Legislative ticket to our next Legislature just as we had it two years ago. I realize that there are several Democratic elements in Pitt county. I desire political harmony in the Democratic party in our county and for this reason I withdraw his nomination for the Senate, and beg leave to nominate him for the House of Representatives along with the other names on the old Legislative ticket.

DR. C. M. JONES.

HAVE RAILROAD MEN LEARNED THEIR LESSON?

Is it not high time for the railroad men themselves to read clearly the handwriting on the wall, and to comprehend what is so apparent to almost every one else in the country? Through their powerful influences at Washington they spent the entire winter and spring in trying to obstruct legislation that was essential to their own permanent welfare, at the very time when they should have applied their energies to setting their houses in order and preparing themselves for a new period of railroad management as free from abuses as vigilance could possibly secure. In the end, their obstructive tactics all failed, and the Senate itself added amendment after amendment to the Hepburn bill, to make it more sweeping and severe than it was when it came up from the House of Representatives. So much has happened, however, within a month or two that one seems to be dealing with history rather than with current events. Railroad managers are no longer disposed to be obstructive. The period of reform and regeneration has fairly set in.—From "The Progress of the World," in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for July.

The weather is a large bit cooler

POST OFFICE RECEIPTS.

Increase Shows Town is Growing.

The receipts of the Greenville postoffice for the year ending July 30th were $6,219.29, an increase of $557.97, over the previous year. For the month of June this year the receipts were $611.15, an increase of $193.58, over the same month of 1905. These increased postoffice receipts are a good index to the growth and increased business of the town.

Then and Now.

Does anybody believe for a moment that Zeb Vance, if he were in the zenith of his glory today, would tell dirty jokes as he did in his day? Aycock, who comes nearest to measuring up to the "Great Commoner," made a campaign so clean that no blush was ever brought to the face of the most modest and gentle woman who heard him. Strange to say, it was once held that the private life of a public man did not come within the purview of the public gaze. It was quite the thing for candidates to drink and curse and carouse all they pleased so they attended to their duties as servants of the people. Thank God the day has come when public sentiment demands that a man be decent everywhere, if he would gain and hold the favor of the people. A few politicians still hold to the old notion that what they do in private is nobody's business just so they attend to the duties for which they were elected, but these men are back numbers and the sand is slipping from beneath their feet. A man's private and public life is one and the same. Cue "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" period has passed.—Charity and Children.

A town up in Pennsylvania has forced the railroads to stop carrying negro excursions there. Every now and then the North shows what great love it has for negroes.

Wadesboro ought to be right well satisfied with the whiskey record it is making. Since saloons were opened in that town last October thirteen murders have been committed, all traceable to whiskey.

The Chicago Tribune announces that the casualties resulting from explosions and Fourth of July celebrations were: 38 persons killed, 2789 injured and fires destroying $66,470 worth of property in the United States.

Now that the dancing masters have decided that waltzing must be conducted at arms' length, the whirl may be expected to lose much of its popularity. Some devotees may continue to go it the old way, but it will be out of style.

President Roosevelt has declined the invitation to preside at the reception the Commercial Travelers Anti-Trust League is to tender W. J. Bryan in New York on his return from abroad. Guess he thought it was most too much for him to be an eye witness to all the applause Mr. Bryan will receive on that occasion.

Sometimes we doubt the wisdom of young men selecting politics as a profession, if we may call it a profession. If they succeed in gaining political preferment, and hold office for a number of years they are, generally speaking unfit for anything else. After they have retired from office they become discouraged and have little ambition to take up other work. We are told that there are a large number of people merely eking out an existence in Washington City merely because they have lost their government jobs or some other office. Go to the county seats and what do you find? We will venture the assertion that you will hardly find a county seat in the State where there are not men who are living practically in idleness because they lost some local or county office. Many of them hang around hoping that the people will again take them up and give them office. These are not the kind of men we like to see hold office. They are unworthy of the support of the people. We have heard people make the assertion that to succeed in politics one had to become a scoundrel and resort to dishonest methods. Of course there are exceptions but we are sorry to say this is too often true. The young man who eschews politics and follows some other business in life has nothing to regret.—Sanford Express.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., July 6—

Now that the smoke has cleared away from Congress somewhat, it is interesting to note that this has been one of the most remarkable sessions on record in the amount of legislation passed for the benefit of the public and the number of prosecutions that have been instituted by the government against trusts and monopolies. Naturally the party in power will take the whole credit of the performance to themselves. But that is not where it belongs. To the head of the Republican party, President Roosevelt, is due high praise for the way he has handled anti-trust proceedings and for the fearless initiative that has carried an unwilling Congress along with him. In fact if it had not been for the Democratic votes on which he knew he could rely, it is a question whether any of the important pieces of legislation in which he was interested would have come out satisfactory.

In fact all through the session whenever there has been an important piece of legislation on which initiative has had to come from the White House the President has wisely followed Democratic lines and Democratic policies and has thus won most of the praise that is coming to him with the help of Democratic votes in Congress wherewith he knew in the end he could force legislation.

Another bad break by the Government Printing Office has been discovered. It will be remembered that Congress was held up four hours on its adjournment waiting for a bill to come back from the Government Printing Office and when it did come there were no less than three typographical errors in it, while in the Sundry Civil Bill one item, appropriating $3,000,000 for government buildings in Washington, was left in after both houses had voted to eliminate it. Now the Government Printing Office has spoiled an edition of 26,000 copies of the Congressional Record by a most amusing mistake, that of mixing up a speech of Mr. Livingston, of Georgia and Mr. Tawney, of Minnesota. When it is considered that Mr. Livingston is quite as deep dyed a Democrat as Mr. Tawney is a Republican, it can be seen that this ought to make the Record read like a vaudeville skit. But it was not so funny to either of the gentlemen named and it cost the government a pretty penny to destroy the whole edition. Several other mistakes of a like sort have been discovered in the Record and it does not look as though the great government print shop under the present management could any longer be held as a model of efficiency.

The tobacco trust is charged with having depressed the prices of leaf tobacco in this State to such an extent that some counties have gone almost entirely out of the cultivation of tobacco, the farmers finding it unprofitable. This being the case, the news that the tobacco trust is to be investigated will be read with pleasure. Since the trust destroyed competition in the leaf tobacco markets the North Carolina growers have had a sorry time but once the probe is inserted, something may eventually result to improve conditions.—Charlotte Observer.

A Florida farmer down in Bradford county who has discovered that there is more money to be made out of other Florida products than cotton is C. M. McKinney, who harvested 2,300 bushels of fine sweet potatoes from a twelve acre tract. He sold them in Atlanta for from 65 to 75 cents per bushel. Even at 65 cents, that's $1,495 from twelve acres and his work finished. That same acreage in cotton would bring very much less than half that money and the hard work of making the crop hardly more than begun. The farmer who diversifies is the one who gets rich, the one crop man, and that crop cotton, stays poor from generation to generation.—Suwannee(Fla.) Democrat.

His Best Assistant.

A physician lost a case, as the saying goes, not long since, and he had the customary excuse for his failure to cure the patient:

"Well, we can only assist nature."

This was all right, for we are all human and are often defeated after our best endeavors; but when the doctor later on was boasting of his success in restoring a man to health a satirical friend checked his vainglorious remarks with the question:

"How much did Mother Nature help you this time?"

Then silence, like a poultice, came to heal the blows of sound.—Boston Budget.

Human Varieties.

A person's eyes are out of line in two cases out of five, and one eye is stronger than the other in seven persons out of ten. The right is also, as a rule, higher than the left. Only one person in fifteen has perfect eyes; the largest percentage of defects prevailing among fair haired people. The smallest vibration of sound can be distinguished better with one ear than with both. The nails of two fingers never grow with the same rapidity, that of the middle finger growing the fastest, while that of the thumb grows slowest. In fifty-four cases out of a hundred the left leg is shorter than the right.

Old Shoes.

"There are hundreds of men in New York city," said a salesman in a downtown shoe store, "who are indirectly adding to the income of the corporations controlling the shoe business. A man wearing an old pair of shoes, sometimes only half worn, purchases a new pair and leaves his old ones here. Gradually others accumulate, and in time there are, say, a hundred pairs. These are placed in pasteboard boxes, wrapped and tied. About once a month a dealer in secondhand footgear comes along, bids on the lot and gets it. In this way the company profits during the course of a year some hundreds of dollars. Of course, the secondhand man 'gets stuck' once in awhile, but most of them also realize a profit by selling the shoes again after they have been repaired and polished."—New York

Cleaning Piano Keys.

One of the best known agents for cleaning and restoring the color of piano keys is alcohol. Dampen a soft cloth with the alcohol and wipe off the keys, rubbing with the grain. If piano keys are exposed to the sunlight occasionally they will keep their color much better.

Sizing For Painted Walls.

The best sizing for use on walls as a base for paint is one pound of common glue to a gallon of water. Apply hot with a large brush. Either flake or powdered glue is suitable.

Alfonso as an Eater.

King Alfonso of Spain is devoted to the pleasures of the table and keeps a cook on duty until 4 in the morning, so that he can have supper up to that hour. Five meals are served daily in the Escorial palace. Here is the king's eating schedule for the day: Eight a. m., breakfast, tea, coffee, chocolate, milk, rolls and cold meat; 11 a. m., luncheon with the ministers of state, soup, two entrees, joint, vegetables, sweets and fruit; 4 p. m., tea or Spanish wine, cakes and sandwiches; 7 p. m., dinner, two soups, two entrees, two joints, vegetables, ices, sweets, fruits, Spanish wines, champagne; 9:30 p. m., tea, wines, cold meat, cakes and dessert.

Past Failures Redeemable.

There is no failure for a man whose spirit is unconquered. No matter how late the hour or how many and repeated his failures, success is still possible. The evolution of Scrooge, the miser, in the closing years of his life, from a hard, narrow, heartless money grubber, whose soul was imprisoned in his shining heap of hoarded gold, to a generous, genial lover of his kind is no mere myth of Dickens' brain. Time and again in the history of our daily lives, chronicled in our newspapers, recorded in biographies or exhibited before our eyes, we see men and women redeeming past failures, rising up out of the stupor of discouragement and boldly turning face forward once more.—O. S. Marden in Success.

Plants That Mimic Stones.

In South Africa a plant of the genus mesembryanthemum, growing on stony ground, so closely resembles a pebble that it has been picked up in mistake for a stone. Another species of the same plant growing on the hills around the Karro produces two leaves about as large as ducks' eggs, having a surface resembling weathered stone of a brownish gray color, tinted with green. These plants look like stones, but for a short time they put forth bright yellow flowers. Still another species of the same plant resembles the quartz pebbles among which it grows.

One Way to Drink Tea.

This is how Maxim Gorky drinks tea: First of all it comes not in a cup, but steaming hot in a glass. Gorky drops in a slice of lemon, takes two lumps of sugar from the bowl and dips them lightly into the tea. Then he lays them aside and talks while they get soft. When he is ready he breaks off a morsel of sugar and holds it between his front teeth while he takes a sip of hot tea. He bites another morsel and takes another sip, and so on until the tea and sugar are both gone together.

Little Window Gardens.

For a little window garden in a child's room take a large turnip or even potato, scoop out a hole and fill it with good soil. Plant morning glories or some bright flower seed, such as nasturtiums. Suspend the vegetable by strings, and soon it will sprout from the bottom, while the flowers are climbing upward on the cords. By using hollowed out potatoes for seeding post-summer flowers may be started in the house early.

A Fish Story From France.

While fishing in the lake at Geradmer (Vosges) recently a man caught a large pike weighing about thirty pounds, which was subsequently sold to the proprietor of a hotel. In preparing the fish for the table the cook found a purse containing £9 inside, and this was afterward identified by one of the guests at the hotel, says the Radical, who a few days before had dropped it into the lake.—London Chronicle

STOVES IN JAPAN.

The fuel in Japan is charcoal, wood, coal, coke and kerosene oil. The Japanese cooking apparatus is of two kinds—one of the "shichirin," a small portable construction of metal or earthenware, costing from 25 cents to $1.25 and heated by means of charcoal; the other the "kamado," a kind of stationary furnace, built of brick and mortar, the price varying from $1.25 to $10, and burning wood as fuel. The houses are usually heated by charcoal braziers, costing from 50 cents to $15. Foreigners there use cooking stoves of which some are imported from America, England and France, but the greater number are of Japanese make, while their residences and offices are heated by grates and stoves, most of which are of Japanese manufacture, though those houses built by foreigners are usually fitted out with American or English grates. Only a few furnaces and steam heating plants are in use.

Too Well Posted.

"Woman," said he in agonized tones, "you have broken my heart." She laid her ear to his manly bosom.

"No," said she after listening intently, "there is not the slightest evidence of organic lesion. There is a slight palpitation, due perhaps to cigarettes; that is all."

And now the young man swears that hereafter when he makes love to a girl he will be sure she is not a medical student.

A Compliment.

Old Woman (awaiting magistrate's signature to her declaration that she has lost a pawn ticket)—An awkward thing, your honor, to lose a pawn ticket.

Police Superintendent—Sh-h-h. Old Woman (not to be suppressed)—Ahem! It's an awkward thing, yer honor, to lose a pawn ticket.

Magistrate—My good woman, I never lost one.

Old Woman—Ah! Sure, yer honor, some people are very careful.—Punch.

A Bit of Vanity.

Dashley (at a reception)—It gives me pain to see these girls gaze at themselves in the mirror just to make sure their appearance is catching. What vanity!

Ashley—Quite right, old boy! Vain creatures! By the way, your tie is a little one sided. Allow me to adjust it.

Dashley—Great heavens, man! Was it in that shape when I was chatting with Miss Sterling? What a fool I was that I didn't look myself over!

Fitted Him.

His majesty's inspector was testing the class in general knowledge. "Now, lads," he said, gravely, "your teacher, I expect, has explained to you the meanings of most of the mottoes which apply to the months of the year. Thus, 'If February give much snow, a fine summer it doth foreshow,' and 'In January if 'an appear, March and April pay full dear.' But I wonder which of you can remember what comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb?"

There was an awestruck silence for a few moments, and then a pale looking boy said:

"Please, sir, it's our landlord when he gets his arrears paid up!"

"Property."

Years ago in New Hampshire there were three commissioners appointed to examine candidates for admission to the bar. At one time the commissioners were Jeremiah Mason, the ablest lawyer in the state; Mr. Sullivan and another member of the bar. Of a certain candidate who presented himself for examination Mr. Willard tells this story in his book, "Half a Century With Judges and Lawyers:"

He was an awkward young man, and the commissioners proceeded to examine him thus:

"What is property?"

The candidate described it.

"How is it acquired?"

"In various ways."

"Illustrate."

"Mr. Mason gets his by high fees, Mr. Sullivan by usury and Mr.—"

"Stop, stop!" exclaimed Mason. "I think we can admit him, Brother Sullivan."

The sincerest tribute that can be paid to superiority is imitation. The many imitations of Dewitt's witch Hazel Salve that are now before the public prove it the best. Ask for Dewitt's. The most rational remedy for coughs and colds is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It acts on the bowels as a mild cathartic—expels all cold from the system. Cuts all phlegm out of the throat, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for children—equally good for adults. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Thousands annually bear witness to the efficiency of Early Risers. These pleasant, reliable little pills have long borne a reputation second to none as a laxative and cathartic. They are as staple as bread in millions of homes. Pleasant but effective. Will promptly relieve constipation without griping. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Wooten's Drug Store.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well. The stomach once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it a rest. Puts it back in condition again. You can't feel good with a disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Notice—Life insurance companies, will reduce the rate 33 per cent to all who agree to use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. A wise measure. Tea or Tablets 35 cents.

Wooten's Drug Store.

"Behold the Western sky,

The reason for this is plain to see,
They all take Rocky Mountain Tea.

If your stomach troubles you do not conclude that there is no cure, for a great many have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at J. L. Wooten's drug store and give them a trial. They also cure constipation and biliousness.

If you ever bought a box of witch Hazel Salve that failed to give satisfaction the chances are it did not have the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co." printed on the wrapper and pressed in the box. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve fails to give satisfaction for such sores, boils, tetter, cracked hands, etc. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and wellknown resident of Bluffton, Ind., says, "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by J. L. Wooten.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. The High Price House.

The Liberty Warehouse will be conducted the coming season by S. T. Hooker, manager, H. S. Hardy, assistant manager, and H. A. Timberlake, auctioneer. This is a strong team, and every one of them will look after the interest of every farmer who sells at the Liberty. For the past seven years the Liberty Warehouse has led the market in Greenville every month showing that it made higher average prices than any other house. That will continue to be the aim of the Liberty in future, never let a pile of tobacco go until it has reached its full value. Nothing will be left undone that is in the interest of the farmer.
