Immune Criminals.

The most dangerous class of criminals on earth are immune criminals. Anarchists are as harmless as doves compared with this class of outlaws; for anarchists are not above punishment. They cannot bribe judicial officers. They cannot sway courts and cabinets. They cannot plunder the multitude. They can only kill a man, now and then and always they die for their wicked deeds and thereby render their calling contemptible. But with the rich, respectable, sanctimonious immune criminal, it is different. Nothing but a "reign of terror" like the French revolution, can check his career. And it is due to this serious truth, perhaps, that Robert Burns Armstrong, a former assistant secretary of the treasury, recently felt it his duty to warn certain members of the immune class in Iowa of the wrath to come. "One of these mornings," said he to the bankers, "you will miss prosperity at breakfast." He told them only what history has told us all. Nothing but equal and exact justice to all men can save this country from a repetition of the "reign of terror." If the immune criminals will continue to furnish corruption funds, they will surely "miss prosperity at breakfast" and fud only hemp for dinner.

Hon. T. G. Skinner in Sanitarium.

Yesterday the whole town was shocked to learn that the venerable Thomas G. Skinner, well and favorably known to all this section had reached a stage of decline which necessitated his being taken to a private sanitarium. His physical weakness, and to a slight mental aberration, made this step necessary and on Tuesday his son-in-law left with him for Baltimore, where he will receive private treatment.—Elizabeth City Economist.

Firemen Meet.

THE SHORT-SLEEVE FAD.

Opinions differ as to whether the short-sleeve fad for women is already doomed to extinction, but there is a general agreement that its fate hangs trembling in the balance. The new fashion has been found a godsend to women who work in shops, but that is the very reason why it no longer appeals to the fashionable woman or to the aristocratic. For these who work the lower part of the sleeve of the short-sleeve waist does not get soiled, for the obvious reason that it is not there. "It costs me about half what it did before in laundry bills," said one short-sleeved saleswoman the other day. This utilization aspect of the new style will, of course, kill it in time, but the dealers say that it will probably continue prevalent at the summer resorts this season because women prepared for it by buying in supplies of the new garments, which are too expensive to discard at once. This is especially true of a large number of women of limited means who have made their own shirt-waists. "One good effect of the short sleeves has been to make women take better care of their arms," says a beauty doctor. "It is surprising how good an arm has to be to look well in a short sleeve. I have had much new business during the past month from women who want the calloused places removed from their elbows, and the difficulty I have found in doing this in some cases shows how much the removal was needed."—Philadelphia Record.

FARMERS LOSE THOUSANDS

Seven bales of cotton received at the city cotton platform a few days ago were damaged to such an extent that about 60 pounds of the lint had to be picked from each of them. The pickings were worth about half price, making the loss, with cotton at 11 cents a pound, of $3.39 a bale. Cotton Weigher J. S. Withers and Inspector Robert Simpson say that much of the cotton received at the platform during the rest of this season will be in a damaged condition on account of the carelessness of the farmers in leaving it in the rain. A reporter learned that the farmers even in Mecklenburg county lose probably several thousand dollars every year in damaged cotton, when if they would put it under shelter, the cotton would remain in first class condition. "One of the most experienced cotton merchants in the city told an Observer reporter that the farmers throughout North and South Carolina are out of pocket thousands and thousands of dollars every season because of their carelessness in leaving their cotton in the open. The cold rains of the winter do not injure it, but the first warm rain of the spring and summer rot it as it does all other vegetable matter. The building of warehouses in the cotton centers are reducing the amount of damaged cotton every year, however, and the farmers are learning to take the same care of their cotton as of other crops."—Charlotte Observer.

BRYAN WOULD ACCEPT.

Letter to Ex-Senator Jones.

Washington, July 7.—Former United States Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, who was chairman of the Democratic national committee when William J. Bryan made his campaign for the presidency in 1895 and 1900, has received a letter from Mr. Bryan, in which he announces that he will accept the nomination for president for the third time if it is tendered to him. The letter is dated June 18, at Stockholm, and is as follows:

"I have been watching political developments and have noted with gratification the vindication of Democratic principles. You have correctly stated my position. As I wrote to Colonel Wetmore, I shall do nothing to secure another nomination and do not want one unless conditions seem to demand it. I may add that I enjoy the freedom of private life and feel that I can do some good without holding any office.

"There are, however, certain reforms which I would like very much to see accomplished and to assist in the accomplishment of these reforms I am willing to become the party candidate again, if when the time for nomination arrives the advocates of reform are in control of the party and think that my candidacy will give the best assurance of victory. If some one else seems more available I shall be even better pleased.

I need not assure you that I am more interested in seeing our principles triumphant than I am in the personnel of the ticket. The country needs to have Jeffersonian Democracy applied to all of the departments of the government, State and national, and I am content to help make this application.

Yours truly,
W. J. BRYAN.

Legalized Primary.

There is some talk that a legalized primary will be asked for to select the nominees for the various county officers. It strikes us that one thing Pitt county has no need for and does not want is such a primary, and it will create much dissatisfaction if one is held.

Pass Books.

The pass books for share holders in The Home Building and Loan Association have been received and were distributed when the share holders went to pay their dues Saturday afternoon.

NORTH CAROLINA'S GREAT PROGRESS

Increase in Capital 106 Per Cent in Five Years.

Washington, D. C., July 7.—The industrial growth of North Carolina during the past five years—a progress hardly surpassed by any State in the Union—is told in detail in a bulletin issued by the Census Department, reference to which was made some weeks ago from an advance sheet.

There is invested today in North Carolina $141,000,639 in manufacturing enterprises, paying $21,375,294 to wage earners and $3,795,451 to salaried officers and turning out products of the value of $143,529,776. Five years ago there was only $68,283,005 of capital invested in manufacturing in the State, the value of the products manufactured was only $85,274,683 and only $14,051,784 was paid to wage earners. The increase in capital invested has been 106 per cent, in the value of products 67 per cent, and in the amount of wages 52 per cent.

Manufacturing statistics for seven cities in the State are given. Winston turns out products of the greatest value, which amount to $11,353,296, an increase of 132 per cent since 1900; Charlotte has the largest number of manufacturing establishments, a total of 73. Here are some of the figures:

Manufacturing establishments, Asheville 45, Charlotte 73, Greensboro 65, New Bern 21, Raleigh 42, Wilmington 35, Winston 47. Winston's gain was the largest, being 56 per cent in the past five years.

The capital invested in these cities in a manufacturing way is thus shown. Asheville, $1,522,350; Charlotte, $4,849,566; Greensboro, $1,588,982; New Bern, $1,233,524; Raleigh, $804,440; Wilmington, $1,925,712; Winston, $9,211,802. Winston shows an increase of 132 per cent in five years.

The item of wages follows: Asheville, $228,794; Charlotte, $693,482; Greensboro, $338,671; New Bern, $276,070; Raleigh, $225,787; Wilmington, $532,966; Winston, $985,596.—T. J. Pence in Raleigh News and Observer.

Dispensary Report.

The official report of the Greenville Dispensary is published in this issue. The report shows exactly the amount of purchases sales and profits during the year. Out of the profits $8,000 was paid into the treasury of the town and $8,000 in the treasury of the country, the latter applying to the school fund.

Died.

The infant daughter, aged 8 months, of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Corey, died about noon today at their home on Dickinson avenue. The funeral will be held tomorrow at the old home place about 3 miles from town.

The Republican scrap at Greensboro will be pulled off tomorrow.

Col. Lumpkin has withdrawn from the senatorial race in South Carolina and leaves the field clear to Senator Tillman.

Hackett has challenged Blackburn for a joint canvass of the eighth district. Blackburn has no "wool" to spare and will find a way to keep from facing Hackett in debate.

As the Supreme court of the United States has decided that Congress can have no control or supervision over insurance companies, but that this is a matter coming under the jurisdiction of the States for themselves, there will be something along this line that the next Legislature of North Carolina should look after.

The editors of North Carolina and Virginia will hold a joint convention at Chase City, Va., this week, meeting on Friday and Saturday. On Monday they will go in a body to Norfolk and from there take an ocean trip to Boston. The reflector wishes the brethren a good time and regrets that it cannot attend the convention this year. We have missed but few meetings since joining the State Press association twenty eight years ago.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

(By an Occasional Contributor)

Smiles on the faces of the trust magnates are as scarce as hen's teeth.

The candidates this fall that are backed by the bosses, will be liable to be cut by the voters.

The Panama canal commission is now buying supplies in the highest market as directed by the Republican Congress.

Secretary Shaw has met his Waterloo and Gov. Cummins will be able to declare that the tariff fosters trusts. "Too much Roosevelt" and "standpat" was the cause of Shaw's downfall.

Tom Lawson refers to the president in the June number of Everybody's Magazine, as "the boss muck-raker of us all." There must be some good reason for Tom being willing to admit that his rake is no the biggest one.

The administration admits that it does not expect in its Standard Oil prosecutions to catch any one "higher up." This is not so disappointing as some people imagine, for no one with horse sense expected to see Rockefeller or Rogers behind the bars.

When Senator Knox—then attorney general—declared that the president would not "run amuck" against the trusts and corporations did he mean that the president would only make a good showing politically, but not do enough to reduce trust prices, such as recommending tariff reduction.

Joseph Crow, recently Republican postmaster at Omaha and former member of the Nebraska legislature has been found guilty in the Federal court on the charge of impeding justice. He was mixed up in the land fraud cases as so many other Republicans have been.

The failure of Congress to pass the Tillman anti-corruption bill is due mainly to the President. If he had worked for that important measure as he did to get $25,000 out of the treasury for his own private use in violation of the "emolument" clause of the constitution, we should have had an end of corruption in Federal elections.

If you want a prosperous town where people can come who are disposed to make homes, then do away with and bury from sight all jealousy and spite work, move for common prosperity and mutual benefit. Wake up, rub your eyes, roll up your sleeves and go to work. Do not work with fear and trembling, but take for granted that blood will tell. Leave results to themselves, borrow no trouble" but all unite to make it the biggest kind of town. "Go to work".—Louisburg Times.

A word to you sonny—you little twelve or thirteen-year-old boy who is smoking cigarettes on the sly. What do you want to be when you grow up—a stalwart healthy, vigorous broadshouldered man, or a little, puny, measly, no'count weakminded dud? If you want to be a man strong like a man, with hair on your face, veins in your head and muscles in your limbs, you just let those cigarettes alone. If you want to be a thing pitied by your folks, despised by the fellows, keep right on smoking and end your days in the insane asylum.—Louisburg Times.

NOTICE

In accordance with Chapter 2, Section 1, of the Ordinances of Greenville every occupant of any lot, on any street, shall keep the sidewalk clean and clear of weeds, grass and other rank vegetation as far as such lot extends. All persons are hereby notified to comply with this ordinance by July 13, 1906. Failing to comply with this notice will subject you to a fine of five dollars per each day thereafter it so may remain.

The High Price House.

The Liberty Warehouse will be conducted the coming season by S. T. Hooker, manager, H. S. Hardy, assistant manager, and H. A. Timberlake, auctioneer. This is a strong team, and every one of them will look after the interest of every farmer who sells at the Liberty. For the past seven years the Liberty Warehouse has led the market in Greenville every month showing that it made higher average prices than any other house. That will continue to be the aim of the Liberty in future, never let a pile of tobacco go until it has reached its full value. Nothing will be left undone that is in the interest of the farmer.

Notice.

During the months of July and August the mid week services of the Presbyterian church will be discontinued. F. D. Viehe, Pastor.

A Few Reasons why you Should Buy From
A. B. Ellington & Co.

Because their prices are lower for the same goods than others. Because they have but one price. Because if goods are not satisfactory they can be returned and money refunded. Because they buy and sell for cash and save you time profits. Because it is the only store of its kind in Greenville. Because they need your patronage and are trying to deserve it. Because they study your wants and try to supply them. Don't forget the

A Puzzle of the Big Fire.

One of the remarkable incidents of the great fire of San Francisco was the immunity from damage of an old wooden shack owned by a paint company at the corner of Main and Harrison streets. The ramshackle, half century old building stands unharmed, a little island in a sea of desolation. It reeks with oil and is filled with highly inflammable materials. Near to it a great pile of coal caught fire and burned for nearly a week. The officials of the company felt so certain that the place had fallen a victim to the devouring flames that they did not even attempt to visit it until two weeks or so after the conflagration, and then it was mere curiosity to see what the ruins looked like that led them there.

Stained Porcelain.

Stains on porcelain tubs, wash-stands and sinks are caused by allowing the surface to be injured.
When new porcelain is as smooth as a piece of window glass, but if rubbed with sand soap its surface becomes like a piece of ground glass, from which no cleansing agent can take the stain. Common household ammonia is recommended for cleaning.

Waxing Stockings.

It is suggested that waxing the toe and heel of a stocking will diminish the number of holes to be darned—the principle being the same as waxing thread, to make it stronger. Stretch the stocking over the darning, melt a paraffin candle and rub thoroughly into the stocking, rubbing it in smoothly with the hand.

A Few Cleaning Hints.

To cleanse wicker furniture use a stiff brush dipped in salt water.
Mattings may also be wiped with warm salt and water. Should grease be spilled on the matting, wet the spot with alcohol first, then rub it over with castile soap. Allow this to dry before using the salt and water.

To Test an Egg.

If you wish to know if an egg is fresh, place it in a basin of cold water. If it remains at the bottom it is all right; if it floats at all it is of rather doubtful freshness; and if it floats gaily on the surface you may be certain it is quite bad.

Flaxseed Lemonade.

Mix the juice of one lemon with as much sugar as it will take up.
Add two cups of boiling water and pour this lemonade boiling hot over two tablespoonfuls flaxseed. Let it stand several hours.

Discolored Ivory.

Ivory carvings that have become discolored may be restored by a very simple process. Paint them over with spirits of turpentine and expose them to the sunshine for two or three days.

Among the queerest languages used by humankind throughout the world are those of the Gomeros, inhabitants of one of the Canary group of islands, and the Kameruns of west Africa. The Gomeros whistles what he has to say to his neighbors, using both fingers and lips so expertly as to express all the signals that are required to make the conversation intelligible. A Kamerun man uses a drum. The instrument is rather peculiar, its surface being divided into uneven halves, so that when it is struck it yields two different notes. With a code in character not unlike the taps of the telegraphic system, the people make this drum express every syllable of their language. A Kamerun chieftain can summon any one of his subjects and at the same time intimate the purpose for which he is required by the mere use of the drum.

Fanning.

Outside of Spain and the orient fanning is not a graceful art, but a manual labor. It is not soothing, but heating. The only persons to whom fanning is a real relief are those who follow the oriental fashion and wave their generous palm leaves with the same sang froid with which Cleopatra's slaves on her immortal barge swung theirs to and fro. Fans are as old as history, and the ancient Egyptians well knew their use, but it is not possible to imagine those stately queens of ancient days permitting in their presence anything so vigorously undignified as the modern method of fanning.

Turning the Tables.

Clergyman (to his wife, returning very late from a gossiping party)— Whatever made you stay out so dreadfully late, wifey?

Wife—Oh, I did not wish to disturb you in the preparation of your sermon.

Clergyman's Wife (ready for the fray on Monday night, to her husband, returning very late from his club)—Whatever made you stay out so dreadfully late, hubby?

Clergyman—Well, you see, dearest, I didn't want to disturb you in the preparation of your certain lecture.—Fliegende Blätter

Was on the Bag.

An American traveling in Europe engaged the services of a courier.
Arriving in Austria, the American asked the servant to register his name according to the police regulations of that country. The man replied that he had already anticipated the order and registered him as an American gentleman of means.
"But how did you write my name?"
asked the master. "I can't exactly pronounce it, but I copied it carefully from your portmanteau, sir."
"But it is not there," was the reply.
"Bring me the book." The register was brought and revealed, instead of a very plain English name of two syllables, the following portentous entry: "Monsieur Warranted Solid Leather."

An Extraordinary Light.

What is believed to have been an aurora of such extraordinary brilliancy as to obscure the sunlight is thus described in an old number of the Gentlemen's Magazine: On the 2d of January, 1756, an unusual light, far above the brightest day, struck all beholders with amazement. The time was 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and it soon faded away.
At 7, however, from east to west, streams appeared like rivers of bright fire. A general feeling of alarm was caused by these, but they gradually faded away to the north, their disappearance being accompanied by shocks which were felt by all, but which did no particular damage.

Two Able Liars.

Two amateur hunters in the northern woods once saw a deer, and both fired at once. "That is my deer," said A. "I shot it." "No, you did not," hotly replied B. "It is my deer, because I killed it." A third party was approaching from the opposite direction with fury in his eye and a club in his hand. "Which of you two rascals shot my calf?"
roared the farmer. "That fellow B.
just now told me he did it," said A.
And B., now thoroughly alarmed for his personal safety, answered: "He lies. He shot it himself. I saw him do it, and I'll swear to it."—Liverpool Mercury.

MYSTERIES OF SLEEP.

The Time When Greatest Depth of Sleep Occurs.

It is related of a Chinese merchant who was convicted of wife murder and sentenced to die by being deprived of sleep that he was placed in prison with guards charged hourly for the purpose of preventing him from sleeping. After the commencement of the eighth day his suffering was so intense that he explored the authorities to strangle, guillotine, burn him, drown him, garrote, shoot, quarter, blow him up with gunpowder or put him to death in any conceivable way.

Natural sleep has been defined as mental rest produced by an appetite resulting from fatigue, but the idea that mental rest means mental inaction is hardly tenable, inasmuch as it quite frequently happens that the solution of unsolved problems is the first thing to appear in the consciousness on awakening, and thus the mind must have been operative while asleep.

It is commonly supposed that the greatest depth of sleep occurs about the end of the first hour. This, however, is not invariably the rule, according to my own observations in the Cook County (Chicago) Insane asylum, made some years ago, when I spent two successive nights in hourly testing the depth of sleep by light, sound and touch. A majority of the ten cases I had under observation showed the greatest depth to be at about 3 a. m. More recently Drs. Sante de Sanctis and N. Neyros, at the University of Rome, tested the depth of sleep in four normal persons by pressure upon the temple. One of these showed the greatest depth of sleep in the second and fifth hours, while the others showed the greatest depth between the first and second hours.

Talking in sleep is more common than is generally supposed. Armstrong and Child found in 200 students, between the ages of twenty and thirty years, that 41 per cent of the men and 37 per cent of the women talked in their sleep, and most of them could answer ques-

The sworn statement of the manufacturer protects you from opiates in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the cough syrup that drives the cold out of your system. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

The sincerest tribute that can be paid to superiority is imitation. The many imitations of Dewitt's Witch Hazel, Slave that are now before the public prove it the best. Ask for Dewitt's. Good for burns, scalds, chafed skin, eczema, tetter, cuts, bruises, boils and piles. Highly recommended and reliable. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

The most rational remedy for coughs and colds is Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It acts on the bowels as a mild cathartic—expels all cold from the system. Cuts all phlegm out of the throat, relieves coughs, whooping cough, etc. An ideal medicine for children—equally good for adults. Sold by John L. Wooten.

Thousands annually bear witness to the efficiency of Early Risers. These pleasant, reliable little pills have long borne a reputation second to none as a laxative and cathartic. They are as staple as bread in millions of homes. Pleasant but effective, will promptly relieve constipation without griping. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Wooten's Drug Store.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well. The stomach once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it a rest. Puts it back in condition again. You can't feel good with a disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by J. L. Wooten.

Notice—Life insurance companies, will reduce the rate 33 per cent. to all who agree to use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. A wise measure. Tea or Tablets 35 cents.

Wooten's Drug Store.

Bright eyes are an infallible index to youth, windows from which Cupid shoots his arrows. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes bright eyes, Rosy cheeks. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.

Wooten's Drug Store.

"Behold the Western sky, Where people live but never die."
The reason for this is plain to see,
They all take Rocky Mountain Tea.

If your stomach troubles you do not conclude that there is no cure, for a great many have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Get a free sample at J. L. Wooten's drug store and give them a trial. They also cure constipation and biliousness.

If you ever bought a box of Witch Hazel Salve that failed to give satisfaction the chances are it did not have the name "E. C. DeWitt & Co." printed on the wrapper and pressed in the box. The original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve fails to give satisfaction for cuts, sores, boils, tetter, cracked hands, etc. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles it affords almost immediate relief. It stops the pain. Sold by John L. Wooten.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and wellknown resident of Bluffton, Ind., says, "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by J. L. Wooten.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c. per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Every sales person within the great walls held right at their post, each carrying out the instruction given.

Don't LOSE A SINGLE Sale!

To any ordinary man or woman in our city the above sentence is not hard to conceive and the fact that crowds that gather there daily and depart with their arms laden with the good things advertised is sufficient proof to convince every one that MUNFORD'S BIG STORE IS THE PRIDE OF GREENVILLE.

Well may it be said, and so it may be deserved, what other store would ever even dare to reach down in their pockets and hand out, actually give away pure money, free as the water you drink, and what else can you call it. Scant over the prices and just compare, the idea.

Best Granulated Sugar 4c. pound, Ladies Summer Vests 4c., Men's $7.50 Suits, Full Spring styles for $3.93 and Ladies $2.50 Shoes for 91 cents.

Is it any strange mystery that our building is crowded all the time. We don't want to hurry you but try and be here before Saturday night of this week, some specials might be getting low.

One of the most curious books in the world belongs to the De Ligne family of France. This book is neither printed nor written. All the letters are cut out of the vellum and interleaved with a peculiar shade of blue paper. The work is so carefully done that the book is read with the greatest of ease. Rudolphus II. of Germany offered 11,000 ducats for it, but it was not sold. The most peculiar thing about this volume is that it bears the royal arms of England, but as far as can be traced it has never been in that country.
