SHELMERDINE ITEMS.

SHELMERDINE, N. C. July 19.

Mrs. H. B. Phillips, Miss Margaret Phillips and Mrs. F. G. Whaley have returned from a trip to Morehead City and Vanceboro. Solicitor Larry L. Moore passed through the city Tuesday enroute to Vanceboro.

Miss Elizabeth Boushal is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. O. Bobbitt, on Bobbitt's boulevard.

Miss Lizzina Moore, of Grimesland, Miss Elizabeth Boushal, of Raleigh, and P. H. Harrington and F. M. Phillips, of Shelmerdine, were the guests of Mrs. J. O. Bobbitt Tuesday night at an informal card party. Progressive hearts was the game and the guests expressed themselves as having passed a most delightful evening.

C. D. Baker, after a two weeks trip to Norfolk, Atlantic City and Philadelphia, has resumed his position with the Beaufort County Lumber Company.

The new lighting system for the city has been received and is now in active operation. The lights are a great help these cloudy nights.

H. B. Phillips, Esq., made a flying visit to Morehead City Sunday.

Miss Lizzina Moore, after spending several days with Mrs. J. O. Bobbitt, has returned to her home in Grimesland.

J. B. Randolph, of Greenville was here Wednesday evening.

A. J. Johnson, of Norfolk, registered Tuesday night at Hotel Leg It.

Chief H. H. Stanley of the city police spent Tuesday at South Greenville.

Hon. O. G. Calhoun has just returned from a business trip in the vicinity of Black Jack. He reports that water and mosquitoes are plentiful in that neighborhood.

Mrs. Fannie Laughinghouse and Miss Rosa Bell spent Wednesday in Greenville shopping.

Mrs. O. G. Calhoun who has been indisposed for some time is much improved at this writing.

W. T. Sledge spent Sunday in Grimesland.

Dr. L. E. Ricks, and P. H. Harrington and J. R. Jacobs were in Greenville Tuesday night.

W. L. Smith reports considerable rain for the past few weeks for his vicinity.

It wasn't a Missouri editor but a printer's devil who was going through his first experience on "making up" forms. The paper was late and the boy got the galleys mixed. The first part of the obituary notice of a citizen had been dumped in the forms, and the next handful of type came off of a galley describing a recent fire. It read like this: "The pall bearers lowered the body to the grave and as it was consigned to the flames there were few if any regrets, for the old wreck had been an eyesore to the town for years. Of course there was individual loss, but that was fully covered by insurance." The widow thinks the editor wrote the obituary that way because the lamented partner of her joys and sorrows owed him five years' subscription.—Selected.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION GIVEN BY MISS ETHEL SKINNER.

Complimentary to Misses Corbett of Wilson and Craft of Wilmington.

Reported for Reflector.

One of the most delightful receptions given here in some time was given last evening by Miss Ethel Skinner complimentary to Miss Lillian Carr's guests, Misses Sue Corbett of Wilson, Mabel Craft of Wilmington.

The parlor and hall were very appropriately decorated with fern, potted plants and other flowers. Miss Ethel Skinner and Frank Wilson received in front hall, and gave all a cordial welcome. Miss Lillian Carr and Bascom Wilson received at the Parlor entrance, and introduced the guest to the visitors, Miss Jamie Bryan and Blount Pierce received in the back hall where fortunes and games of all kinds were played.

On entering the parlor the young ladies were presented with very large hearts by Miss May Whitfield the young men smaller hearts by Miss Margret Skinner, the men in turn presented their hearts to the most attractive young lady present and it was found that Miss Lillian Carr received the highest number and was given a beautiful book entitled "Longfellow Poems," and she gave same to her guests, Misses Corbett and Craft they drew for the prize and the latter won.

The most attractive feature of the evening was a recitation by Miss Pearl Lichtenstein, of Richmond, entitled "The Cook," which was enjoyed by all. Miss Lichtenstein is a charming young lady, and very attractive, and has made many friends here.

The Marriage Ceremony was in order next, so all the guests drew for the brides maids, bridegrooms, bride and groom and other attendants. The wedding man was rendered by Miss Lillian Carr, the brides maids came in two's and stood around the table supposed to be the pulpit, the bridegroom did the same, Miss Margaret Skinner came in as maid of honor, Miss May Whitfield carried the wedding ring on a great big sofa pillow.

The bride, Miss Pearl Lichtenstein, came in leaning on the arm of her supposed father, Ames Brown; the groom, Blount Pierce, entered with his best man Dock Horne, the ceremony was performed by Walter Wilson, Jr.

A big reception was held afterwards, dancing and amusement of all kinds. Dainty refreshment were served.

Those invited were: Misses Lillian Carr, Sue Corbett of Wilson, Mabel Craft of Wilmington, Jamie Bryan, Mary James, Frances Bagwell, Ethel Skinner, Margaret Skinner, May Whitfield, Lee Brown, Nellie Pender, Bessie Haskett, Willie Grimsley of Snow Hill, May Schultz, Pearl Lichtenstein, of Richmond, Va., Lizzie Higgin.

Messrs. Bascom Wilson, Will Lipscomb, Dock Horne, Frank Wilson, Frank Skinner, Cary Warren, Walter Wilson, Ames Brown, William Patrick, John Shelburn

NOVEL DAMAGE SUIT

Bedsole Who Shot Alexson on Stedman Excursion Sues Atlantic Coast Line.

A suit for damages against the Atlantic Coast line, perhaps new in civil procedure to this State, has just been intited in Cumberland County Superior Court. The filling of the suit is thus told of in yesterday afternoon's issue of the Fayetteville Observer.

Messrs. Robinson & Shaw, a well-known law firm of this city, and Mr. W. Bolton, a leading young member of the bar, today instituted suit against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, operating the branch Atlantic and Yadkin Railroad, between Sanford and Wilmington, the papers returnable at the August term of the Cumberland Superior Court, their client being Bedsole, who killed Alexton on an excursion between Stedman and Wilmington, on the night of Saturday, 7th inst., or the early morning of Sunday 8th inst. The damages are not, so far, specifically stated, but it is understood that a large amount will be asked for.

"The complaint of the plaintiff Bedsole is set forth as follows: That when the excursion train started from Stedman Alexston declared his intention of killing plaintiff, swearing that he should never get back to Stedman; that he was drunk and disorderly, and showed himself to be heavily armed; that on the excursion train, the plaintiff, so far from provoking trouble with the deceased Alexston, brought a reserve seat in a locked car; that the managers of the excursion train left said train in charge of the conductors when on starting to unlock the car in which Bedsole was seated, was warned by passengers not to do so, as Alexston would harm or kill Bedsole; that bluffing; that he did unlock door of car; that Alexston entered with two revolvers in his hands, whereupon plaintiff, in defense of his own life, took that of Alexston.

"The plaintiff states that, in consequence of the disorder, confusion and bad management on said train; and on account above all of the cloud resting upon him that, in consequence of said bad management, he was forced to commit a homicide, he has been seriously and grievously injured."

—Wilmington Star.

Advertise in Town Papers.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 18.—Governor Folk, addressing the retail merchants of Missouri at their convention here yesterday, spoke against the mail order business and favored advertising in town papers.

Governor Glenn offers a reward of $100 for the arrest of W. H. Harrington, Jr., charged with conspiracy and assault upon W. J. Teel.

Superintendent Dunlap has on hand a supply of electric fans to furnish those who want to be in readiness for the day current.

Cecil Cobb, Blount Pierce and Thurman Moore.
Messdames Chas. Skinner, E. B. Ficklen and C. S. Carr.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town.

Ayden, N. C. July 20, 1906.

Miss Lucy Turnage, who is at the sanitarium in Wilson, is, we are pleased to learn, very much improved.

Miss Stella Joyner, of Grifton, is visiting Miss Mattie Johnson.

Mrs. M. M. Sauls and Miss Burgess Sauls returned Wednesday evening from a three weeks visit to Richmond, and now the doctor says he is himself again.

Elmer Gardner is home from Baltimore for a short visit to his mother.

N. S. Fulford, of Washington, spent last night here.

Heber Stokes and wife, of Stokestown, were here yesterday shopping.

Friend Heber Hart is quite sick at his home with fever.

W. O. Bilbro and wife are visiting the parents of Mr. Bilbro in Wilmington.

Watt Parker, of Beaver Dam, was in Ayden Wednesday.

Miss Daisy Carman, who has been visiting in Kinston, came home Thursday. Miss Ella Raspberry came with her and will spend several days in the Rountree section.

Mrs. Charles Skinner and Mrs. Ficklen, of Greenville, spent Tuesday afternoon here with Dr. Skinner.

Miss Bonnie Dixon, of Wharton, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. B. S. Sumrell.

Sid Higgs and John Randolph have been here during the week.

Harrison, an old-colored friend from Winterville, has been to see us.

Yesterday was a gala day with the Masons here. In the morning they were in session and transacted much business. At noon they took a recess and repaired to Hotel Tripp where they partook of a bounteous dinner prepared by mine host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Tripp. It was an elegant dinner and Mr. Tripp and his most excellent lady can rest assured the occasion will long be remembered and appreciated by the Masons. In the afternoon the lodge was reopened and the conferring of degrees gone into, besides much more business transacted. There were a large number of Masons present and the occasion was a most pleasant one.

Miss Meta Mewborne, of Kinston, is visiting Miss Helen Quinlerly.

A. S. J. Bynum, of Farmville, has been here during the week.

Soldiers in Congress.

Twenty-three veterans of the Civil war are in the U. S. Senate, of whom thirteen were Confederates. In the lower house there are thirty-two who served in the Union army and twelve were Confederates. The total of sixty-seven civil war soldiers in Congress, forty-one years after is a striking fact.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday. Showers in western portion.

THE GREAT JULY

Clearance Sale

KEEPING ABREAST OF THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

The time for Clearance Sales has moved up a month or more. Formerly September, then August, now July. The factory agents are even out selling fall goods before the selling of Summer Stuff began, even now solicitations are made for next spring's delivery. The wheels of commerce are spinning. To keep pace with this progressive age, Clearance Sales, swift and fast, is now the order. Nothing summerish is to be carried over. So profitless is this sale to us that no goods can be charged or sent out to see at July Clearance Sale prices. We have planned to sell all Summer Goods, have taken into due consideration the great loss of profit at such reduction as we are making means. We take the loss cheerfully, wisely, believing it to be the best kind of business sense to clean up all summer goods at a sacrifice, and do it while the wearing season is at its height.

All the 8c and 10c Lawns have been reduced to 5c and 6c yard.

FRIDAY, JULY 20 1906.

When Wellman finds the North pole we hope he will not keep it to himself but let the rest of us know it.

The Wake county primary row will soon be over and people who read the Raleigh papers will feel relieved at the end.

First thing N. Glenn Williams knows he will draw his cane on a man who is loaded, and a funeral procession might result.

Instead of waiting to die officially the Republican postmaster whom the Greensboro waitress whacked on the head with a soup plate has died sure enough.

Some of the papers have published Capt. Dreyfus' picture, but no body knows whether it looks like him or not. Any other photo would have answered the same purpose.

The way the Adams and Blackburn sides are making up is amusing. They are now slobbering over each other almost as eagerly as they were recently denouncing each other.

Ten dollars a "foot" is the size of fines Greensboro is entering up against the Southern railway for blowing locomotive whistles in town. It is not yet stated if the fines are being paid.

Norfolk negroes may think they are working a spite by getting up a "bus" line to convey their race around the city rather than ride on "Jim Crow" street cars. But their absence from the cars will be very satisfactory to white people.

Men may talk a lifetime, as individuals, of what ought to be done to increase the growth and trade of the town, yet never accomplish more than they can do single handed. On the contrary a good chamber of commerce or board of trade to bring these individual ideas together and go after things collectively would accomplish something. Factories and enterprises to increase the army of wage earners are not going to be forced on us. Such things come by effort, and the greater the effort the larger the reward. There are enough things needed here to keep a chamber of commerce hustling a long time. There is already a fund in bank to the credit of a defunct organization that died doing nothing, and if a lively chamber was started this fund could be available to begin work with.

Long faces will not wash out in the rain.

Durham husbands who fail to support their wives are having to go into court and tell how come. One of them was relieved of $1,700 and his wife too. The non support law might be applied with good effect in some other quarters of the State.

Cast your eye over the territory of which Greenville controls the trade and you will be convinced that something ought to be done to increase the population of that territory and thereby make more buyers. Nothing will do this faster than factories.

WHITE HEN TAKES LONG RIDE.

Chicken Rode from Wilmington N. C., to Pinner's Point Without Paying Fare-- Conductor Hart Claims Bird.

Two hundred and fifty miles on the truck of a passenger car, running at the rate of about forty-five miles an hour, is an experience yet unheard of, but if chickens could talk, there's one in this city today that could furnish enough reading matter to fill columns.

That chicken reached Pinner's Point last night on the rear truck of the mail car on passenger train No. 48 over the Atlanta Coast Line from Wilmington, N. C. It is a white hen and it is none the worse for its trip. This venturesome fowl is now the property of Captain Edgar Hart, who brought the train to this port, and he vouches for this story.

Soon after train 48 pulled out of Wilmington in the morning, Captain Hart's attention was called to the feathered hobo, roosting comfortably on the truck of the mail car. It was a sort of novelty and as there was no chance of collecting a fare from the passenger, the generous hearted conductor agreed to see how far the hen would ride. At every stop a peep was taken under the car and there still sat the bird. Passengers got out to look at her and station agents noted the novel sight, but the tramp chicken was not disturbed and when Pinner's Point was reached permitted Captain Hart to lift her from her seemingly comfortable perch. "Not a feather was soiled," declared the Captain, "and I am going to take this hobo back to Wilmington at my own expense."
—Norfolk Landmark.

Says an exchange: "A Nebraska couple met, courted, and wed within an hour. In New York they might also have quarrelled and parted in the same period, and still have had enough time to tell their troubles to the police." That is rapid transit, but then in these days the divorce court is in sight of the honeymoon. In Charlotte on Tuesday a divorce trial occupied only three minutes by the clock.

NOTICE.

On account of disagreement between my partner, L. I. Moore, and myself concerning the accounting for fees, commissions, &c. belonging to the firm I declined to continue the partnership, and Mr. Moore assented to a separation, which actually took place on July the 17th, 1906.
We have been unable to agree upon a settlement of the affairs of the partnership, and therefore the dissolution and settlement will have to be hereafter perfected in some other way.
All civil business pending at the time of the separation in which the firm or either of us have been retained will receive my best efforts to its final determination.
I shall continue the practice of law at my same office and will be glad to have my clients and friends call to see me.
This July 20th, 1906.

The Edison Phonograph.

THE EDISON PHONOGRAPH solves the problem of home entertainment. Its clearness and richness of tone wins the immediate admiration of every audience.

BY means of this wonderful instrument your home can be brought in direct touch with the musical world, and you can hear as many times as you like, for the small cost of a Edison Record, what people in the large cities pay one or two dollars a night to hear. The Edison Phonograph reproduces so perfectly that you miss nothing but the sight of the orchestra and the faces of the singers.

EVERY family circle is incomplete without an Edison Phonograph. Every one of them bears the signature of Thomas A. Edison, the greatest inventive genius of the age.

TO those interested we will take great delight in showing it at our store. Come and hear it for yourself. Ask about our easy payment plan at the cash price. To prospective purchasers we will exhibit the Phonograph at their homes.

A Proclamation by the Governor. $100.00 REWARD

State of North Carolina
Executive Department

Whereas official information has been received at this department that W. H. Harrington Jr. late of the County of Pitt stands charged with conspiracy and assault upon W. J. Tell, and whereas, it appears that the said W. H. Harrington Jr. has fled the State or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him.

Now, therefore, I, R. B. Glenn, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do issue this my proclamation, offering a reward of One hundred Dollars for the apprehension and delivery of the said W. H. Harrington Jr. to the Sheriff of Pitt County at the Court house in Greenville N. C. and I do enjoin all officers of the State and all good citizens to assist in bringing said criminal to justice.

Done at our City of Raleigh the 16th day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and six and in the one hundred and thirty-first year of our American Independence.

He Got the Billet.

When organizing the Red River Expedition Lord Wolseley received from home the following cable:
"Remember Butler, Sixty-ninth regiment." He thought no more about it. One day, some weeks later, Lieutenant Butler walked into Wolseley's headquarters and mentioned the telegram. He asked for a job. "I'm afraid there are no billets left," said Wolseley. "All Canada and the army wanted to get on this expedition." "There is one billet," said Butler. "What is that?"
"You will want to know what is happening among the Indians on your flank during the advance." "By Jove, you're right!" said Wolseley, and the billet was his. Moreover, the general was so impressed by his forethought that he conceived the idea of keeping a record of the names of soldiers who think things and do things. Butler's was the first name on that list, which was afterward known as the famous Wolseley ring.—Dundee Advertiser

Be a Grapevine.

The tentacles of the devilish are less wonderful than those of a vigorous grapevine in the spring. Grasping ambition is as nothing in comparison therewith. See the tender yet audacious tendrils reaching out in blindness for something to catch hold of. The new vine may grow five, seven, ten feet, without support, and the tendrils may grope for weeks in search of something to tie to, but their groping invariably succeeds. They hitch on at last and their grip is tenacity itself. No sooner do they wind their way several times around the newly discovered support than they lose all their tenderness and being to harden into a wirelike coil. Their groping is lost.
Their sense of feeling is lost.
They become mere hoops of steel.

Sizing For Painted Walls.

The best sizing for use on walls as a base for paint is one pound of common glue to a gallon of water.
Apply hot with a large brush. Either flake or powdered glue is suitable.

Past Failures Redeemable.

There is no failure for a man whose spirit is unconquered. No matter how late the hour or how many and repeated his failures, success is still possible. The evolution of Scrooge, the miser, in the closing years of his life, from a hard, narrow, heartless money grubber, whose soul was imprisoned in his shining heap of hoarded gold, to a generous, genial lover of his kind is no mere myth of Dickens' brain. Time and again in the history of our daily lives, chronicled in our newspapers, recorded in biographies or exhibited before our eyes, we see men and women redeeming past failures, rising up out of the stupor of discouragement and boldly turning face forward once more.—O. S. Marden in Success.

Advice From the Conductor.

A Buffalo woman accepted from a street car conductor a Mexican half dollar in change. It looks as if it ought to buy as much as an American fifty cent piece, but its actual purchasing power is little more than 20 cents. The young woman made a point of getting it back into the coffers of the street car company. She tendered it to the conductor of the next car she entered. He looked it over and declined it. "But I got it from one of your conductors this morning," the woman protested. "Madam," said the conductor, without a sign of levity, "you must be more careful what you take from those conductors."

It Stops the Crying.

To keep babies from crying a ingenious device is resorted to in India. The moment a child begins to cry the mother places her hand over its mouth and nips its nose so that it cannot breathe. Then it is allowed to breathe freely again, but should it make use of the opportunity to again set up a howl it is at once suppressed in the same way.
This is repeated till the baby imagines that the painful stoppage of the breath is caused by its own effort to scream and so is careful to keep quiet.

To Remove Scorch Stains.

Lay scorched articles in the sun wet with suds. Where this does not answer chop and extract the juice from two onions and boil this with half a pint of vinegar, an ounce of white soap and two ounces of fuller's earth. Spread this when cool on the scorched part and when dry wash off in clear water. In brief, treat a scorch stain as you would any other.

For a Shabby Carpet.

To brighten a shabby carpet put a teacupful of vinegar into a pail of warm water and wash over the entire carpet with the mixture. The carpet should be first thoroughly brushed, and care must be taken to merely damp it with the vinegar and water. Allow it to dry thoroughly before being walked upon.

Alfonso as an Eater.

King Alfonso of Spain is devoted to the pleasures of the table and keeps a cook on duty until 4 in the morning, so that he can have supper up to that hour. Five meals are served daily in the Escorial palace. Here is the king's eating schedule for the day: Eight a. m., breakfast, tea, coffee, chocolate, milk, rolls and cold meat; 11 a. m., luncheon with the ministers of state,
soup, two entrees, joint, vegetables, sweets and fruit; 4 p. m., tea or Spanish wine, cakes and sandwiches;
7 p. m., dinner, two soups, two entrees, two joints, vegetables, ices, sweets, fruits, Spanish wines, champagne; 9:30 p. m., tea, wines, cold meat, cakes and dessert.

One Way to Drink Tea.

This is how Maxim Gorky drinks tea: First of all it comes not in a cup, but steaming hot in a glass.
Gorky drops in a slice of lemon, takes two lumps of sugar from the bowl and dips them lightly into the tea. Then he lays them aside and talks while they get soft. When he is ready he breaks off a morsel of sugar and holds it between his front teeth while he takes a sip of hot tea.
He bites another morsel and takes another sip, and so on until the tea and sugar are both gone together.

Taking No Chances.

"Here's a good scheme," she said, looking up from the paper she had been reading.

He seemed a trifle suspicious, but it was so evident that he was expected to answer that he made the inquiry.

"Why, it says that some wives shave their husbands and in that way save what they would ordinarily pay for a barber," she explained.

"Mary," he said after a moment's thought, "you may get that gown you spoke about this morning. It won't be necessary for you to get at my throat with a razor."

He Won the Suit.

"The worst case of ignorance I can tell you of occurred in 1869 in a remote section of our country," said a western congressman. "There was a man who suddenly became rich and built an enormous house, with some statuary, and so he wrote to Italy for a copy of Venus de Milo.
The copy in due time arrived. It was executed in Carrara marble very beautifully. But no sooner did he receive it than the millionaire sued the railroad for $2,000 for mutilation, and, what's more, he won the suit."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Unpleasant Keepsakes.

One thing that dentists cannot understand is the frequency with which their customers ask for the teeth that have been extracted.

"What on earth they do with them is a mystery," said one dentist.

"They are not pretty to look at.
They do not revive pleasant memories. If every tooth was set with a diamond or had become historic in some way I could understand the desire to preserve them. But there are few historic teeth in the world.
Most of those that are gone are only reminders of aches and pains. Nevertheless it is a common thing for the patient to ask me to keep the tooth. Maybe he wants to compare it with the tooth of a friend and thereby prove how much more he suffered than the other fellow when it was pulled."

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Importance of Teaching Children Table Manners.

Parents even in a humble cottage home should pay attention to the conduct and manners of their children at mealtime. They cannot tell what position they will fill in after life, and a man or woman who is ignorant of the most simple laws of table etiquette is terribly handicapped. Were the parents to repro-bation the child who conveys its food to its mouth with a knife, who drinks its tea from the saucer or who sticks its elbows out at right angles the lesson so taught would never be forgotten.
There is a certain amount of freedom at the family table, where one scarcely expects to find the ceremonious deportment of a set dinner party, but even in the home there are minor rules and observances which should always be followed, says Woman's Life.

Almond Macaroons.

Half a pound of sweet almonds, a coffee cup full of white sugar and the whites of two eggs; blanch the almonds and pound them to a paste, add to them the sugar and the beaten whites of the eggs, work the whole together with the back of a spoon, then roll the mixture in your hands in balls about the size of a nutmeg; dust sugar over the top and lay them on a sheet of paper at least an inch apart; bake in a cool oven a light brown.

To Darken Floors.

Put into a bottle two tablespoonfuls each of linseed oil and good vinegar and one teaspoonful of spirits of turpentine (naturally the quantities may be increased, though the proportions must be kept), cork this up and shake it well to mix.
Wash the floor thoroughly with hot soap and water, then while the boards are still warm, though fairly dry, apply the polish, shaking the bottle well before each application, rubbing it well in.

Saved His Comrades Life.

"While returning from the Grand Army Encampment at Washington City, a comrade from Elgin, Ill. was taken with cholera morbus and was in a critical condition," says Mr. J. E. Houghland, of Eldon, Iowa. I gave him Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and believe saved his life. I have been engaged ten years in immigration work and conducted many parties to the south and west. I always carry this remedy and have used it successfully on many occasions." Sold by J. L. Wooten.

A Tragic Finish

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Seadyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was unduly averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at J. L. Wooten's drug store. 50 cent and 1.00 Trial bottle free.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by J. L. Wooten

Only 82 Years Old

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin Ga. Surely there is nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by J. L. Wooten druggist. Price 50c

THIS IS FOR YOU

I take this method to thank every one who has sold a load of Tobacco with me for the past nine years. Since on the Greenville market I have always, as auctioneer, at all times, looked after your best interest in the sale of your tobacco and if you will continue to sell with me I will see in the future, as I have in the past, that every pile of your tobacco is well looked after. This season you can find me at the "Liberty Warehouse" to welcome you at all times and with Mr. S. T. Hooker, one of Greenville's best judges of tobacco, and as we all know the strongest bidding warehousemen in the State, I feel safe in saying that I am in a better position this season to look after your interest than ever before. You will also find Mr. H. S. Hardy to see that nothing is left undone that is to your best interest. Yours to serve,

THE LIBERTY WAREHOUSE, Co. Per H. A. Timberlake, Auctioneer.
