WHITE CAP CASE.

Motion for Severance Allowed and J. K. Barnhill First Put on Trial.

W. G. STOKES.

I live at Stokes; remember the Sunday night Mr. Teel's house was broken in. On Sunday I saw Walter Woolard, he got off train at Oakley, he lives at Sheppard's mill. I went to Bethel on train; did not see Woolard return on train I saw Barnhill at Stokes Monday morning. Dr. Basnight had gone to Washington. Did not see defendant after that during the day.

Cross examination—Wynn and Barnhill came to my gin house that morning to buy some hay.

C. W. WYNN.

I know defendant Barnhill. I was in Oakley that Sunday night about 9.30 clock, and went to Mr. Jenkins. We went to Barnhill's bar and heard some boys talking inside. Barnhill, Briley, Woolard, Whitehurst and Wynn (all defendants) were inside. I pushed door open and walked in. Heard some one say something about "giving him h—l," they hushed as soon as I went in. I asked for a bottle of beer and got it. They asked me where I was going.

Cross examination—I have not been called on to pay for the beer. Ben Jenkins went there with me, had opportunity of hearing what I did, was close behind me, the door was slightly cracked open. Barnhill had a bird dog in there. I stayed only a few minutes. Do not remember seeing anybody on back steps. Briley's horse was tied outside.

CHARLIE WHITEHURST.

I went to Teel's the night of trouble about 3 o'clock. Frank Teel called for my father and we went over. I found door broken, we took lanterns and followed tracks. Frank Teel and I took one direction and followed tracks around by Sol Jones, turned to left at forks of road to Grindool, and on to near Hickory grove, we then went back. The buggy track we followed came into road with other tracks near Grindool.

Cross examined—We never followed tracks further and never saw Teel and my father while they were following other tracks.

FRANK TEEL.

I am son of W. J. Teel. Some men came to our house that night. First thing I heard was crash of door being broken open. When I heard first shots I knew what was going on. I went down stairs with gun, parties had left room then. The matches were just going out. Some men out in yard and father shot them with gun from porch. My brother went to ring bell, they shot back and I heard balls strike house. We then went back out and followed tracks around to the Oakley road where all the tracks come together. Did not see my father until he came back home, he said he took up the tracks in road and followed on to Offie Barnhill's.

We could easily follow tracks. Where tracks turned in road dirt was turned showing buggy was going at fast speed. My father told me he recognized Barnhill and Briley.

Cross examined—Do not remember exact time my father told me it was Barnhill and Briley. Father went off twice, it was afternoon when he returned second time and I think it was then he told me.

Re-direct—I saw sack that morning early hanging on wire, also found some large switches on path between house and road which were pulled from persimmon tree near where sack was hanging.

GEORGE TEEL.

I am son of W. J. Teel, was sleeping that night with my brother up stairs. About 2 o'clock heard noise of door breaking open, followed by pistol shots. I got gun and gave it to Frank. It was over when I got down stairs mother had gone to ring the bell and I took rope from her hand and rang it. They shot back toward house. Mother told me that she struck matches and said two men were there in room. Father told me he knew them.

CHARLES BULLOCK.

I live on Mr. Teel's land, was aroused that night about 2 o'clock by noise like something tearing down. Looked through window but could not see anything. In few minutes gun fired I put on clothes and hurried around there, gate was wide open. George rung bell, Mr. Teel said white caps had been there. We found hats and caps in room. While George was ringing bell the crowd shot at house. Mr. Teel asked me to hold gun while he put on clothes. Buggy drove by and went as far as my house near where it turned around and came back and drove off at fast gait.

Cross examination—Teel shot them from behind milk house in yard, milk house is right by tree. Do not know color of horse that drove by, have never told any one it was a gray horse, could not see the horse but heard the buggy.

J. R. BUNTING.

I know W. J. Teel, his general character and reputation good, character of Charles Bullock good. Had conversation over telephone next day with Teel and he said he had recognized parties but did not tell me over phone who they were.

Cross examination—I mean by reputation both what people say and what I know, have never heard anything against Teel or Bullock. Saw Teel in Bethel Monday evening, had hats and cap with him. I asked him if his wife recognized parties and he said no; did not ask Teel if he himself recognized them. Barnhill's character is good, never heard anything against him before this.

M. O. BLOUNT.

I know character and reputation of Teel, it is good. Character of Mrs. Teel is good, Charles Bullock character is good.

W. H. WARD.

Have known Teel 20 years, know his character and reputation to be good.

D. J. WHICHARD.

I saw Teel in Greenville on Wednesday after the trouble and interviewed him about it. He told me he recognized the parties but did care to say then who they were. He told me confidentially at a later time the parties he recognized were Barnhill and Briley.

Cross examined—Do not remember the exact date he told me names of parties. I stated in published interview that he said he recognized some of the parties.

H. D. GURGANUS.

I live in Martin county. Heard Wynn talking of the matter in presence of Barnhill, Briley and Whitehurst. I was then working in Oakley. Heard Wynn say "If I get out of this I'll be d—d if you ever get me in another." Whitehurst said "is nothing no how." Barnhill asked Wynn "are you going to leave us" and he answered no.

Cross examined—I went to see about some lumber, had been in Oakley a few days. The parties were all in gin house. Do not know that they were discussing dissolving any business relation.

The State rested.

The defense then began its testimony, the first witness being S. G. Williams, who said he saw Teel in Oakley the day after trouble in Nelson's store, he said his wife recognized none of the parties, struck two matches which went out, then struck another which also went out. Some one asked Teel if he recognized any one and he replied he could not say that he did, that if he had two or three more witnesses to substantiate what he believed he could identify them. I have known Barnhill since he has been living in Oakley, his character is good.

Cross examined—Barnhill run a bar in Oakley and worked at a still, have heard that he was indicted in Federal court. Never saw him in his bar on Sunday as I was not around there on Sundays. I heard of people there on Sundays. Never heard until recently that he was connected with other white capping cases.

JOHN E. BARNHILL.

I am brother of defendant Barnhill. I met Teel here in April court, he said to me "John I see you have been resurrected, I thought you were dead." I said yes, you thought you had killed me, he replied "no, I did not know you were in it, I did not recognize anybody there that night." (Witness here gave names of several he said were present and heard the conversation)

Cross examined—I lived at my fathers' then. My buggy was broken on night of trouble and I drove my father's buggy that night to Frank Tyson's across creek, left buggy in road on return home. I know W. H. Harrington, Jr., have seen him several times since that night. I did not come to Greenville in a week after the trouble occurred. I came when I was sent for, others of the family were over here. I know Briley and Woolard and Adrian Whichard, father's house about 3 1/2 miles from Whichard, he married my sister. Do not know if he was shot. I saw him over here and he was lame. I was not injured and did not use crutches. He had not heard that Teel had recognized my brother, but had heard in neighborhood that my brother was in the trouble.

Claud Thigpen, G. A. Clark, J. A. Webb, C. E. Fleming, K. S. Woolard and Ed Mayo. (parties mentioned by John E. Barnhill in his testimony) all testified that they heard the conversation between him and Teel and that the latter said he did not know who was there.

B. T. BAILEY.

I had conversation with Teel about his recognizing anybody in house that night, it was on street in Greenville a few days later. He said he did not recognize either of them but his wife thought she knew two of them.

Cross examined—He did not say that his wife did not recognize any of them but that he did. He had been talking with other gentlemen when I walked up.

W. T. LIPSCOMB.

I had conversation with Teel soon after trouble occurred. He was in Greenville. I asked him if he had any idea who the parties were. He went into detail of the assault, but said it was in the dark and he did not recognize any one. This is first court to which I was summoned as witness. Teel came to me on street this morning and said he understood I was going to testify that I heard him say he did not recognize any of them and asked me if it was so. I declined to answer him.

Cross examined—He did not tell me about his wife striking matches. He said it was in dark when he was shooting with pistol and he could not tell who he was shooting at.

J. A. STATEN.

I saw Teel in my store in Bethel the day after the trouble, had one hat and one cap with him, said he had left another hat home. He indicated to me where he put pistol against one of assailants body when he shot. He spoke that they were marked like Indians on face.

W. C. HINES.

I had a few words with Teel since the trouble. He never told me about recognizing anybody, but I heard him tell W. J. Manning that he did not recognize any one. Do not remember what day it was.

Cross examined—W. J. Manning was the man Teel was talking to and I heard it while passing by them.

J. R. WHITEHURST.

I saw Teel in Bethel the next week after the trouble, and asked him "How are the white caps?" He said he could not recognize anybody that was there.

Cross examined—We met while walking in opposite directions and spoke to each other. I just asked him to see what he would say. Am not related to any of defendants.

Here Mr. Gilliam for defense asked to introduce an affidavit made by Teel at April court asking for continuance of case by which he could contradict testimony of Teel. The State objected to introduction of affidavit unless all of it could be admitted. The State objection was overruled and the affidavit was read. At 12:30 court took a recess to 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Upon reassembling of court at afternoon session the State, by consent of defense, introduced N. B. Dawson, a character witness. He said he knew character and reputation of W. J. Teel and it was

The defense then resumed testimony.

T. W. WHITEHURST.

I am brother of Zeb Whitehurst. I lived in Greenville at the time of trouble at Teel's. Had conversation with Teel on Tuesday or Wednesday following. I asked if he knew any of parties, he said no, but that he had an idea. Had another conversation with him after parties were arrested. He told me my brother had better turn State's evidence to save himself. At another time Teel came to me in store and said "I haven't got the ring leaders but am going to get them. Somebody had better turn State's evidence and I prefer it be your brother or Charlie Wynn." He said if my brother would furnish evidence desired he could get any reward wanted.

Cross examined—He always told me he wanted the truth about the matter and thought my brother could give it. He told me he did not think my brother and Wynn were as responsible as others in it, and wanted to get all the ring leaders.

J. T. NELSON.

I married J. R. Barnhill's daughter, sister of Offie Barnhill. I spent the Saturday night and Sunday previous to trouble at Offie's. Sunday morning about 11 o'clock we all went to church at Hickory grove. J. K. Barnhill was at Hickory grove and talked with Offie. Went back to his home after church, and stayed there until about an hour by sun. As I was leaving Mrs. Jennie Brown and children drove up to spend night there. None of defendants came to Offie's while I was there.

Cross examined—Jim Barnhill got to church late and did not go in. Did not see him talking to any one behind church, he did not get out of my sight while there. Offie got out of buggy and went up in crowd. Do not remember what we talked about going back. Teel was not mentioned and never heard Offie say he ought to be whipped.

MRS. JENNIE BROWN.

I remember the night Teel's house was attacked. I spent the night at Offie Barnhill's, got there about an hour by sun. Nelson and wife were about to leave when I arrived. Mrs. Barnhill and I occupied room together and Mr. Barnhill and boys occupied another room. He went out to get water but did not stay out long. I saw him come out of room next morning. Jimmie Warren, who works there came in about 11 o'clock, got supper and went up stairs to bed. Barnhill had to pass through room I was in to get out of house. I closed hall door, but door between rooms stood open all night. I went home next morning after breakfast. I was there when Teel came up Monday morning and heard Teel say he would take Barnhill's word about his horse being driven that night. Barnhill went off walking Sunday evening after I got there but was back by supper. Tom Barnhill and father came there and called for him.

Cross examined—Tom Barnhill did not go in when he drove up. (Continued on 4th page.)

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Some Queer Words to Be Found in the English Language.

"Bob," said Tom, "which is the most dangerous word to pronounce in the English language?"

"Don't know," said Tom, "unless it's a swearing word."

"Pooh!" said Tom. "It's stumbled, because you are sure to get a tumble between the first and the last letter."

"Ha, ha!" said Bob. "Now I've got one for you. I found it one day in the paper. Which is the longest word in the English language?"

"Incomprehensibility," said Tom promptly.

"No, sir. It's smiles, because there's a whole mile between the first and last letter."

"Ho, ho!" cried Tom. "That's nothing. I know a word that has over three miles between its beginning and ending."

"What's that?" asked Bob faintly.

"Beleaguered," said Tom. — Indianapolis Star.

A LITTLE NONSENSE

How a Dime's Worth of High Life Started a Balking Team.

The old man was driving a heavy load when his team, suddenly coming to a bog hole, balked. He tried every way to start it. Coaxing, praying and flogging helped none and swearing very little. He had almost given up when he saw a young man coming leisurely down the road. The young man stopped and said: "Stuck, eh? I'll get you out for 10 cents."

The old man jumped at the chance. The young man produced a small bottle of liquid and dashed a drop on each horse. No sooner had he done this than the horses plunged forward and were gone. The old man asked excitedly, "What kind of stuff is that?"

"High life."

"Well," the old man said nervously, handing him 35 cents, "put a quarter's worth on me. I've got to catch that team." — Judge's Magazine of Fun.

A Personal Sermon.

A minister of the kirk of Scotland once discovered his wife asleep in the midst of his homily on the Sabbath. So, pausing in the steady and possibly somewhat monotonous flow of his oratory, he broke forth with this personal address, sharp and clear, but very deliberate:

"Susan!" Susan woke up with a start and rubbed her eyes, as did all the other dreamers in the edifice, whether asleep or awake.

"Susan," continued her clerical spouse, "I didna marry ye for yer wealth, sin' ye had none. And I didna marry ye for yer beauty. That the hail congregation can see. And if ye hae not grace I hae made but a sair bargain wi' ye!"

Brides In Spain.

In Spain a bride has no girl attendants to stand at the altar with her, but instead a "madrina," or godmother. Neither does she have a wedding cake or any festive departure after the ceremony. The wedded pair go quietly to their new home, where they remain until the following day, when they start on their honeymoon. Before leaving they pay a formal visit to their respective relatives.

Five o'Clock Tea In Japan.

At a Japanese tea party the guests sit on cushions placed upon the floor, and the tea service consists of a teapot, a cooling pot, teacups and a hibachi to heat the water, says Hom. Notes. The Japanese do not agree with us in thinking that boiling water should be poured over the tea, so when the water is boiled a little of it is placed in the cooler and then poured over the tea, which is allowed to steep for a few minutes. Boiling water is then added and the cups filled. Green tea is used, but no sugar or cream is added.

A Hard World.

"Mamma," said a small girl, "if I get married when I grow up will I have a husband like papa?"

"Yes, dear," was the answer. "And if I don't get married shall I be an old maid like Aunt Sarah?"

"Why, yes, dear, you probably will," replied her mother. The little girl sighed. "Well, no matter what we do," she said, "it's a pretty hard world for us women, isn't it?" — Harper's Weekly.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by J. L. Wooten's, druggist.

Against a Cat-astrophe.

Frank R. Stockton's "Reformed Pirate" has a harmless and absorbing occupation. To keep himself out of mischief he had taken to knitting ties. London M. A. P. says that among the classes held at the east end of London for the instruction of the poor was one devoted to ambulance work.

One day a woman came to say that her husband had been drinking immoderately and to beg that something might be done for him. A clergyman sought him out, persuaded him to become a member of the club and put him into the ambulance class.

In a short time the man became earnest in the work and was a regular attendant.

"How is your man doing now?" asked the clergyman the next time he met the wife.

"He never goes to the 'pub,' sir," said she proudly. "He spends his evenings at home bandaging the cat."

He Proposed.

Together they were looking over the evening paper. He had been hanging around for six months without coming to the point.

"Oh, my, how funny!" she said.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Why, here's an advertisement that says, 'No reasonable offer refused!'"

"What's so odd about that?"

"Nothing, nothing," she replied, trying to blush; "only those are my sentiments exactly."

In the Hebrew language there are four names for man—adam, geber, enosh and ish. It is usually understood that the second title concerns a higher dignity than the first, that the third is nobler than the second and that ish is the most precious of all. The latter three have plurals—gebarim, anashim and ishim—but for adam there is no plural. When humanity feels as one, when the loss and suffering of one district bring forth active aid and sympathy from every city town and hamlet in the country, then their unity of purpose receives the approval of the Almighty, "Attem keravim adam" ("Ye are called

WHITE CAP CASE.

I do not know if Offie's horse was driven that night. Offie said he was going to Jimmie Taylor's when he left that evening, he is my cousin.

JIM WARREN

I work for Offie Barnhill, was there in April. He was home Sunday. I went to church and came back 11 o'clock at night, left buggy at Ed Andrews' about half mile away. I got supper and went to bed, saw Barnhill in his bed as I went through room. Did not hear Barnhill go out anywhere that night. I got up about light next morning, he was not up then. I was in lot when Teel came up and called Barnhill and told him he had tracked a horse and buggy there and see if his horse had been driven. Barnhill told him come and see, but Teel said he would take Barnhill's word for it.

Cross examined—Some harness prints were on horse, very little sign of sweat. Am not related to Barnhill. Do not remember if Barnhill went to house and get pistol before going out to talk to Teel.

MRS. OFFIE BARNHILL.

I am wife of Offie Barnhill. On Sunday about 11 went to church at Hickory grove. Saw Jim Barnhill there. My husband stayed home all Sunday afternoon. None of defendants came to our house that day. J. T. Nelson and wife who were visiting us left that evening about the time Mrs. Jennie Brown and children came to spend the night. My husband then went to Mr. Taylor's and while he was gone T. H. Barnhill and father drove up looking for him. We were eating supper when my husband got back, we all retired about 10 o'clock. Warren came in about 11, got his supper and went to bed. My husband did not go out during night except for water for children. I was present next morning when Mr. Teel came up. My husband did go to house and get a pistol when Teel called him.

FRANK JAMES

I saw Offie Barnhill Sunday in his dining room, saw him again that evening pass my house going towards Taylor's.

W A TAYLOR

I remember Sunday night of assault on Teel. Offie Barnhill came to our house about an hour by sun Sunday evening and left about dark going in direction of home.

ED ANDREWS.

I saw Offie Barnhill that Sunday morning in his yard, saw him again after dark pass my house.

MRS. ELECTA NELSON.

I remember the Sunday night of assault on Teel. Spent that day at my brother's Offie Barnhill, we all attended church at Hickory grove and went back to my brother's. Saw J. K. Barnhill at church, he came up and spoke to me. As we were leaving for home that evening Mrs. Brown and children came up. I heard nothing said about whipping Mr. Teel while I was there.

FRED MCLAWHORN

Was at Hickory grove that Sunday, saw J. K. Barnhill there and spoke to him. I know Offie Barnhill, his general character is good. J. K. Barnhill's character is good.

OFFIE BARNHILL.

I am one of the defendants named in indictments in this matter. I did not go to Teel's house the Sunday of the assault, was never at his house but once and that was two years ago. Went to church at Hickory grove that Sunday, saw Jim Barnhill there. Did not take my horse and buggy out that Sunday night. Teel came to my house Monday morning. I did not get a pistol before going to him. He asked me if I went off Sunday night or let anybody have my horse and buggy I told him no. He said he had followed a buggy track there, it looked like the last track that had been made. He told me to go look at my horse, I turned the horse out and told him to come and see for himself; he said he would take my word for it. There was slight harness signs on him. I spent Sunday night at home, slept in shed room with boys (then described arrangement of house.) Have never heard anybody say anything about whipping Teel, there are no wounds on me.

Cross examined—I know Robert Carson, went to his house Sunday evening, asked him about his attending Federal court. I looked at track Teel pointed out and it went in gate. Do not know who drove my horse that night, horse was not locked up I was first summoned as witness before being indicted. I refused to make statement about tracks. Any one coming from my house to Teel's would go by Grindool. Teel told me the track had been followed from out house near his home to my gate. I cannot say my horse was not driven that night and I made some inquiry to find out who did it. I have heard some people got shot that night, brother and Adrian Whichard among them, also heard Harrington was shot. I am indicted and under bond to Federal court for concealing whiskey.

T. H. BARNHILL.

I drove to Offie Barnhill's gate about dark Sunday evening to see him about fence, he was not there and I went on home. Saw him next morning about 9 o'clock. He told me about Teel going there and saying he had tracked buggy. I told him I had driven up there the evening before.

Cross examined—That was first I heard of white capping when Offie told me about Teel. Henry Martin is my brother-in-law, did not tell him I never heard of it until Wednesday. John Manning married my sister, he was white capped before Teel was. I made no effort to find out who it was white capped him. I was at M. A. James the night Manning was whipped. It was the 4th Sunday night in March. I have been accused of being a party to the whipping. I have been charged with blockading and am indicted for it. I heard that L. C. James and Teel went to Raleigh and had me indicted. I was not in crowd that went to Teel's never heard anybody say he ought to be whipped. I heard that Teel said I had been to Newbern and swore to a falsehood, I asked Teel about it and he said it was not so. On the Sunday Teel was whitecapped I preached at Black

Jack, did not preach there that night but returned home, reaching there about dark. Was on my way home from Black Jack when I went to Offie Barnhill's, he died that night about 10 o'clock. Do not recollect going to Stokes the following Tuesday, made no inquiry about Jim being in the white capping. I thought he was not wounded much if any and did not bother about it. He is my nephew.

Re-direct.—never heard any report about my connection with whiskey except what Lem James started. I am not guilty of such charge.

W W House testified to good character of both Offie Barnhill and Teel. J S Brown and Wesley Martin also testified to good character of Barnhill.

CLAUD MOORE

I live at Sheppard place with Briley, remember the time Teel was assaulted. Walter Woolard, Tom Roberson and myself lived at Briley's then. Woolard and Briley got home that night at 11:30. I was in bed and come down to give them the keys. They both went to bed very soon after coming. No one went out of the house again that night that I know of. All got up at the usual time next morning.

Cross examined.—They woke up Tom Robinson and myself both when they came. Heber Robinson was there. I have not heard Heber say it was 4 o'clock when they got in. Did not hear Woolard say he was sorry he went.

WALTER WOOLARD.

Saturday night I went down the river to attend a fish fry, but they got no fish. I got back next morning about 9:30. Two colored men came from river with me. I left Sheppard place and walked out to Washington road, met Jim Barnhill there who said he had started to fish fry, I told him there was not any and he went away. I went out to railroad that afternoon and took train at Stokes for Oakley. Barnhill and myself went to see some girls at Mrs. Taylor's. It was in afternoon. I intended going back on train but Barnhill told me Briley was there after some things and I could go back with him. We got up with Zeb Whitehurst and rode as far as his gin house where he put up his horse. We went on to Barnhill's place. Lum Wynne and others came there. Briley also came. After staying there awhile Briley and I left.

I heard Lum Wynn's testimony, there was no secret conversation in there. I was the one who made the remark about "give him h-l," it was in reference to a negro we had whipped at the farm. Nothing was said there about Teel. I did not know him and had never seen him. We got back to Sheppard place about 11:30 and Claude Moore brought keys down to us.

Court here took a recess to 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

There was a considerably smaller crowd in attendance when court reopened Wednesday morning. It appearing that the case was going to be a very long one, the defendant being tried on three different counts—breaking into dwelling house, conspiracy, assault and battery—in order to shorten the trial the State consented to accept a verdict of not guilty on the count of conspiracy and the court was asked to eliminate all the evidence introduced bearing on this count.

AN INCIDENT OF WATERLOO.

Its Effect Upon the Shovel Making Industry in England.

A millionaire shovel maker, as he sat in the smoking room of an Atlantic City hotel, said:

"I went over to England trying to sell shovels to the British army. I failed. I didn't sell a shovel. And a head man named Jones was the cause of my failure. Jones was alive, very much alive, during the battle of Waterloo. He was on horseback near Wellington's tent. Wellington, seeing him there in civilian's dress, said angrily:

"Who are you?"
"I am a shovel salesman," said Jones, "and I came here from Brussels to see the battle."

"Now you are here," said Wellington, "are you willing to carry a message for me to one of my generals? It will be a dangerous errand, but just now I have no one else to send."

"I'll carry your message," said Jones, "and as for the errand, one part of this battle field is no more dangerous than another part today."

"So Wellington gave him the message, and Jones delivered it, but failed to return. The duke thought him slain, but one day eight or nine years later a man accosted the duke in London.

"Do you remember me?" he said.

"I do," said Wellington, shaking the man's hand warmly. "You saved two regiments of mine by the delivery of that message. Why didn't you return to me?"

"Jones said his horse had been killed by a cannon ball as he was returning, and he himself had been shot in the side, but not badly. A few days abed had brought him round.

"Well, said the duke, what can I do for you?"

"I am a partner in that shovel house of ours now," said Jones. "The firm name is Smith, Jenkins & Jones, and I'd like to get a government contract."

"He got it," the millionaire ended sadly. "From that day to this all the shovels used in the British army and navy have been supplied by the house of Smith, Jenkins & Jones. I wasted my time trying to compete with that firm."—St. Louis Globe.

The Air Stealer.

Reginald DeKoven was talking about a composer whose work is reminiscent—whose compositions, that is to say, are largely plagiarisms, says the Philadelphia Bulletin.

"He must be a man of genius," said Mr. DeKoven, smiling. "He resembles so remarkably his predecessors, the famous composers of the past."

"How does he resemble any famous composers?" a pianist asked.

"Well," said Mr. DeKoven, still smiling, "he resembles them in the matter of inspiration. Rossini got his inspiration from the society of beautiful women. Wagner got his best inspiration in the midst of magnificent art works. Our friend in like manner is best inspired when he is surrounded by the compositions of other musicians."

Fancy Table Ways.

We are getting dead swell in this good town. We eat ice cream with a fork. Some time ago we learned to make salad at the dinner table. Then we served coffee in the library after dinner. We have had finger bowls some dozen years. We are beginning to use them even when there is no company. One family has finger bowls at breakfast, after fruit and before bacon, even when there is no guest at the house. That's dead swell. We have drunk soup out of a teacup and put grass on the fried chicken, and now we eat ice cream with a fork. Why not? These little evidences of social progress are commendable.—Columbia Herald.

Relic of the Constitution.

A valuable relic of the historic old frigate Constitution has been dug from the river bed of the Delaware by the crew of a clam dredger off New Castle, Del. It is a china water urn presented to the famous old fighting ship of the American navy by the city of Philadelphia in 1797 and long ago lost and forgotten. How the urn came to be at the bottom of the river is a mystery. On one side of the receptacle is the coat of arms of the state of Pennsylvania, while on the other side is the inscription, "Presented by the City of Philadelphia to the Constitution—1797."—Philadelphia Press.

Remenyi's Route.

On one of his early concert tours of the west, before the famous violinist, Eduard Remenyi, was thoroughly familiar with the railway routes of the United States, he inquired in Chicago concerning the best way to reach a town in Illinois.

"C. B. and Q.," replied the hotel clerk without looking up.

Remenyi was quite dazed. But, says the contributor of the story to the memoir of the violinist, his sense of fun carried him through.

"Ah!" he said gravely. "Then I will go D. A. T."

It was the clerk's turn to be puzzled.

"What does that mean?" he said, looking up this time.

"Well, what did you mean?" demanded Remenyi.

"Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, of course."

"Ah! I meant day after tomorrow."

Sermon Stealers.

"Sermon stealers," said a minister, "ought to be careful. They ought to read over several times the sermons that they steal before delivering them."

"I know a young man of twenty-one or twenty-two who preached a stolen sermon he had not read over, and in a most impressive part he found himself declaiming, 'My friends, when I first came among you more than forty years ago these thin, white locks were thick and brown and this bent back,' etc."

"Another sermon stealer, preaching in a village of about 100 souls, said, before he could check himself, 'In the teeming streets of this great metropolis.'"—London Mail.

Private Drury.

M. Drury, an eminent French historian, served when sixty years old during the siege of Paris as a private in the national guard. One day M. Jules Simon, a member of the administration, caught sight of a familiar face belonging to one doing sentry in the uniform of a private soldier. "Is that you, Drury?" he cried.

"To be sure," gruffly.

"And a private?"

"Why not?" said the other laconically. "We can't all be prime ministers."

Try These Cures For Stings.

All sorts of stings, whether from bees, wasps, hornets or bumblebees, should be sucked to remove as much poison as possible; then have a slice of acid fruity apple, tomato or peach, or a crushed berry or grape, either ripe or green, bound lightly to the wound. If the pain is severe, after a minute take off the fruit, wash the sting in warm water and bathe it well in alcohol. Then wet a folded linen rag in either alcohol or vinegar, and bind on the sting. If neither alcohol, vinegar or fruit of any sort is at hand, try a bruised plantain leaf. Change the application, whatever it is, every ten minutes until the pain subsides.

She'd Get It.

Miss Elder—Well, I maintain that women can do anything that men can.

Mr. Gazzam—Oh, no, the auctioneer's business is one women cannot go into!

Miss Elder—Nonsense! She'd make every bit as good an auctioneer as a man.

Mr. Gazzam—Well, just imagine an unmarried woman getting up before a crowd and exclaiming, "Now, gentlemen, all I want is an offer!"

The beauty bee is a money-maker. It "honeys" up one's thoughts; it sweetens one's life; its nectar on one's words, and drops, sip by sip, into one's heart when Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is used. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach, bowels and has never been known fail. For sale by J. L. Wooten.
