AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From a Hustling Town.

Ayden, N. C. Oct. 9, 1906

Last Thursday was the birthday of Mr. J. A. Ewell, who lives near here. On this occasion he had present with him all of his children and grandchildren, numbering 49. There was a magnificent dinner and the occasion was a delightful one. Many friends beside the immediate family had been invited and were there. All express themselves as having had a delightful time and wish for Mr. Ewell many more birthdays equally as pleasant as this. Mr. Ewell was a true Confederate soldier and is as loyal a Democrat as ever trod in shoe leather. We congratulate him and hope his generation may grow up as useful and helpful citizens as he.

W. B. Hooks, J. J. Hines, J. H. Browning and J. M. Blow, from Eureka Lodge K of P. of this place attended the funeral services of the late Robert M. Moye at Greenville yesterday, as did also J. J. Stroud participate in the Odd Fellows ceremonies on the same occasion.

James White, of Greenville, spent the day here Friday.

Misses Nora Smith and Ella Wayne have returned from their visit to Greenville.

Several parties from here attended the large baptism at Ridge Spring Sunday.

Mrs. Cason has come home from a visit to her daughters in Baltimore.

Zeb Bland, a young man of this town who has only one leg, had the misfortune Sunday in getting out of a buggy to get the stub of his injured limb caught in the wheel and the bones were broken off to the joint. Mr. Bland suffered intensely, but we are pleased to learn he is very much better.

Mrs. R. B. Parker, who has been here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. T. Smith, Sr., has returned to her home near Falkland.

Rev. Mr. Stanfield left Monday for Raleigh.

Cam Nobles has gone to Conetoe. G. D. Morrison, of Scranton is here on a visit to his family.

New Member of Board of Education.

The county board of education was in session here Monday and transacted much business pertaining to the public schools of the county. Mr. M. O. Blount, of Bethel, the newly elected member to succeed Mr. B. M. Whitehurst, resigned, was present and qualified and at once entered upon his duties. Mr. Blount is one of the foremost citizens and business men of the county and will prove a valuable addition to the board of education. Pitt county stands in the front rank in educational interests and her schools are making fine progress.

Go Register.

Remember that registration books for the coming election are open in every township. Those not registered should attend to it at once.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Castle Hall, Tar River Lodge No. 93, K of P. Greenville, N. C. Oct. 8th, 1906.

Whereas, it has pleased the All Wise Ruler of the universe to remove from our midst our brother and Past Chancellor, Robert M. Moye, one of the most faithful and beloved of all the brothers in our fraternity, therefore, be it resolved:

1st. That while we bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well, yet we deplore deeply the death of our friend and brother, and regret the loss sustained not only by his family and our fraternity, but by the community at large.

2nd. That we tender our heartfelt sympathies to the widow and relatives of our deceased brother.

3rd. That our Castle Hall be draped in mourning according to the customs of our order.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this lodge.

5th. That the Keeper of Records and Seals transmit copies of these resolutions to the widow and family of our deceased brother, and to the Carolina Pythian and The Reflector for publication.

Revengeful Cow Wrecks Oleo Mill.

Bellowing madly, an infuriated cow dashed through the open door of an oleomargarine factory and drove all the workmen from the lower floor.

Whether the cow was actuated by the laudable motive of destroying the industry which would relegate the cow family to a secondary place, or whether she feared she might be converted into fake butter herself, will never be known.

It is a fact, nevertheless, that this cow put in ten very strenuous minutes smashing some of the machinery employed in making oleo. She tossed tubs of the stuff right and left; she butted over a huge mixer containing several hundred pounds of cottonseed oil and tallow, and she wickedly trampled thousands of Creamery XX labels.

After doing all the damage she could the cow left the place, and when last seen was headed toward a butter renovating factory—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Poached Eggs Laid by Pepper-fed Hens.

Much sympathy is expressed for Aunt Mary Fitzpatrick, whose entire flock of chickens has been tampered with by some unfeeling wretch to the end that they are laying poached eggs.

It is almost certain that for months the chickens have been fed on cayenne pepper and tabasco sauce, which sizzles the internal department of the chickens.

So great is this heat that the feathers on the fowls are quite scorched at the ends, and the skin appears parboiled.

As this flock was almost the sole support of Aunt Mary, kind neighbors have been buying the eggs from her. But even a steady diet of this sort palls in time.—Richmond Times.

Tillman on Race Riots.

Augusta, Ga.—In a speech on the race problem delivered here tonight, Senator B. R. Tillman declared the time had come when the South must act, and suggested the adoption of a European passport system by which each person must have a certificate of good character before moving from a residence or home, or before being received into a new section, and that any persons without such certificate be imprisoned. This, he admitted, would be placing great inconveniences on the whites who would have to be included in the law because of the fifteenth amendment, but he declared if this plan or some peaceable one was not adopted immediately, the country was surely rushing toward the brink of an abyss, which meant a horrible and bloody race war of extermination.

His speech was heard by thousands of people and was enthusiastically received. The Atlanta riots, he declared, had illuminated the situation and shown the people they were living on the crust of a volcano. The riot, he believed, would too soon be repeated in other sections if no other solution of the problem was found.

Hen Plays the Piano.

In a poultry yard near here is a hen that is considered to be a freak. She can play the piano.

It all happened when the hen flew into the parlor of the farmhouse and landed on the ivory keys of the instrument, which, of course, gave forth a few discordant notes. At first the chicken was greatly astonished, but in a little while she grew accustomed to the sounds and liked the effect.

It then became a common thing for the hen to perch on the window while the daughter of the house was taking her lessons and intently listen to the music. By and by the fowl tried a few notes herself and, finally, to the surprise of all, she ran the scale.

That settled it. The hen, called Bache, started out on an artistic career, and to say that she has succeeded puts it mildly. She is really wonderful.

In the heavier compositions she is a failure, but in the lighter works, and especially in sprightly airs, Bache, she surpasses. Her range of course, must be limited by the width of her claws, but even this handicap is partly overcome by the clever use of her wing in jumping from octave to another.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

The Openings.

With three millinery openings in progress the ladies are having a feast day looking at the pretty new goods and latest styles in the milliner's art. C. L. Wilkinson & Co., C. T. Munford and Mrs. L. Griffin & Co., all have most attractive displays. Each store is tastefully decorated, and the displays are beautiful. We do not believe any town can surpass Greenville's milliners. They keep in touch with the fashion centers at all times and their goods reflect credit upon their skill both in selection and workmanship. A large number of ladies have visited the openings.

NINE HUNDRED MEN ON STRIKE.

Spencer, N. C., Oct. 8.—Nine hundred machinists, helpers and apprentice men employed in 12 shops and a number of minor plants on the Southern railway system went out on a strike at 11 o'clock today. The shops affected are as follows: Atlanta 115 men, Birmingham 90, Macon 40, Manchester 28, Columbia 80, Knoxville 110, Spencer 160, Charleston 35, Selma 35, Alexandria 30, Lawrenceville, Va., 12, Sheffield, Ala., 40, and a large number of men at outlying points. The strike was made simultaneously all over the Southern system, and at Spencer included nearly all of the foremen. The helpers and apprentice boys went out in sympathy with the machinists.

The cause of the strike was the failure of the Southern officials to grant the demands of the employees for an increase in wages from 30 to 32½ cents per hour. The demand was made upon the officials of the Southern at Washington August 25.

Bareheaded at Church.

Shall the women hold on to their towering head gear when they go to church, or shall they leave it off and let those behind them see the preacher? This is a question which is being discussed in some quarters, and in most places the preference seems to be in favor of the women going bareheaded to church. Charity and Children, the Baptist Orphanage paper at Thomasville, says that the Presbyterian Standard thinks it quite objectionable for women to go to church bareheaded; but Charity and Children says that the Presbyterian Standard is a little out of line, and that it is perfectly all right for the women to go to church with no head covering but their beautiful hair. A big hat close to you can cut off all view of a speaker sometimes, and having suffered from this inconvenience recently we are now in the mood to gainsay Charity and Children's plea for bare heads at church.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

Confederate Pension List.

The Confederate Pension List for North Carolina has been completed in the office of the State Auditor, and yesterday Auditor Dixon said there were on the list 14,360 names, an increase of more than 300 over the list of Confederate pensions of last year when there were 14,035.

North Carolina this year will pay $275,000 to her Confederate pensioners. The first-class, totally disabled from wounds are to receive $60 each; the second-class, those having lost an arm above the elbow or a leg above the knee, $48; the third-class, those having lost an arm below the elbow or a leg below the knee, $25; the fourth class, those three-fourths disabled or diseased, $18. The warrants will be issued December 15, so that Christmas time will be made brighter for the veterans.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Democratic county candidates began the campaign today, making their first speeches at Fountain.

ARE WE A COURTEOUS PEOPLE.

"Are we Americans as courteous in all our relations of life as well-disposed visitors occasionally think of us? Are we as courteous as mixed blood, equitable laws, and a prevailing sentiment of self respect might be reasonably expected to make us? Do we not sometimes confound politeness with politeness, and believe that, because good-breeding comes from the heart, all good-hearted people are consequently well-bred? Yet there are men and women who stand ever ready to help their fellow-creatures, and who are seldom or ever polite to them. Dr. Johnson was one of the kindest of men but of that courtesy which respects the feelings as well as the rights of others, he had never the faintest perception. "Now what harm does it do a man to contradict him" and he used to say, contradiction was the guiding principle of his talk. It is a guiding principle with people of much less intelligence to-day, and it gives to conversation a rough acerbity, destructive alike of pleasure and persuasiveness. It is supposed to be a masculine prerogative, but, like other masculine prerogatives, has been usurped by an advance guard of women."—Agnes Repplier in the November Delineator.

Wake county is falling in line on the question of good roads. An election will soon be held with a view of issuing 300,000 in bonds for that purpose. Pitt county ought to be doing something like that.

Richmond Pearson Hobson is doing some speaking stunts in the western part of the State. Morganton and Salisbury have both been favored with the presence of the hero of the Merrimac.

The college football teams are out making reputations for their respective institutions of learning. What they are doing with their books comes in for little consideration. If a college can turn out a lot of good punters that is glory enough.

Simp Dogan, a wealthy negro of Hendersonville, said to be worth at least $5,000, has been convicted of stealing a trunk out of the depot in that town and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. That was a fine example to be setting his race.

The town commissioners of Hamlet have raised a stir by adopting an ordinance requiring citizens between the ages of 18 and 25 years to work the streets. The citizens are kicking vigorously against the ordinance and will test it through the courts. The matter will be watched with interest, for if the Hamlet commissioners win out in the contest there are other towns that will likely adopt the same method to get the streets worked.

COL. T. H. BAIN DEAD.

Inspector General of State National Guard

Goldstone, N. C., Oct. 8.—Colonel T. H. Bain, who was stricken with paralysis last Wednesday, died at his home in this city last night. Colonel Bain had been connected with the State Guard since early boyhood, serving as captain of Company B, First North Carolina regiment in the Spanish-American war. Soon after his return he was appointed inspector general of the State guard, and serving in that capacity at the time of his death. He also filled many civic positions here.

The Hon. Joseph Chamberlain is found...
Lord Rosebery was about to give the boy a coin when an idea struck him.

Lord Rosebery was about to give the boy a coin when an idea struck him.

"YOUR NAME?" ASKED THE JUDGE...
The boy was next and stepping to the front he drew himself up to his full height and waited for the usual question, "Your name?"

Not wanting to leave the boy in a fix, Rosebery took to his things up with the officer, but the worthy gentleman would not listen and took them all three to the station.

He Knew Mrs. Barker.
The Barkers possessed three large, intelligent tortoise shell cats, and sometimes as many as three families of kittens.

By the way, Alice, wouldn't you like a kitten to take home with you?
"I'd like it," returned Alice wistfully, "but the very dearest thing I ever said when I came away was, 'Alice, whatever else you do, don't bring home any cats.'"

An Age in History.
"You are an old man," said Tolstoi as quoted by an interviewer, "but as you grow older you will find, as I have found, that day follows day, and there does not seem much change in it. I will deeply you hear people speaking of you as an old man. It is the same with an age in history—day follows day, and there does not seem much change till suddenly it is found that the age is become old. It is the end of an age."
