CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Interesting Meeting Monday Night.

There was quite a good attendance of business men at the mayor's office, Monday night, upon the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. Several new members were enrolled.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of a board of directors. E. G. Flanagan, A. B. Ellington, H. S. Carr, J. S. Smith, D. J. Whichard and F. M. Wooten were chosen.

A membership committee consisting of Wiley Brown, W. S. Atkinson and F. M. Hornday was appointed to solicit the business men of the town to become members of the chamber.

After some discussion it was decided to have a general meeting of the chamber with speeches and banquet on the night of Monday, Dec 3rd. J. L. Wooten, C. E. Bradley, C. O. H. Laughinhouse, W. S. Atkins and H. A. White were appointed a committee to arrange for this meeting.

Senator J. L. Fleming was called on and made some remarks relative to the needs of the town and the awakening of interest in the Chamber of Commerce.

After adjournment of the chamber the board of directors met and selected an executive committee consisting of F. M. Wooten, A. B. Ellington and D. J. Whichard.

The chamber of commerce is now well on foot and should have the co-operation of every business man in the community. The organization will be one of great good in the development of Greenville if the business men unite and make it such.

Opera House, Nov. 21st.

The "Joshua Simpkins" company, carrying their own special scenery, a band of music and fine orchestra, will produce the great pastoral comedy drama of that name at the Masonic opera house on Wednesday Nov 21st. The piece deals with country life and people, three acts of the play being laid in one of the many quaint villages of Vermont. The second act (in these scenes) portrays Uncle Josh's first visit to Washington City. In the third act a sensational saw mill effect is shown, being nothing more or less than a complete saw-mill in full operation, cutting up genuine timber. The saw is a genuine buzz or circular saw, and cuts through timber at lightning speed.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL TEACHER'S MEETING.

Reported for The Editor.

"Tiek, tock, tick tock,
Soudsthe click of the clock,
And the grand old work goes on."

If the October meeting of the Teachers' Association of Pitt county may be said to have been interesting and helpful, the meeting held last Saturday was delightful and inspiring. October's meeting was the best that the association had ever known until last Saturday, when all previous achievements were surpassed, and the laurel crown was placed above the glorious record of November's success. The weather was superb, and a large number of teachers and ex-teachers, about one hundred and fifty in all, met in the auditorium of the graded school building, and enjoyed one of the best programs the association has ever rendered.

The meeting was called to order at 10:30 o'clock by the president, Prof. J. A. McArthur. A Scripture lesson was read and prayer was offered by Rev. J. E. Ayscue, after which "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung by the audience.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale addressed the association for a few minutes, speaking encouragingly of the present and hopefully of the future. Mr. Ragsdale's happy tendency to look at the bright side of everything enables him to encourage and help the teachers of Pitt county as he alone can encourage and help them.

Prof. H. B. Smith's suggestions on "How to Teach Spelling" were timely and helpful. The teachers of this county are fortunate in having Mr. Smith as a counsellor in the work.

Hon. T. J. Jarvis was then introduced with appropriate remarks by the president. An introduction was necessary only as a form, for we all know and honor Mr. Jarvis, upon whom have been wisely lavished greater honors than upon any other living North Carolinian. During his inspiring and masterful address he held the audience spell bound. His comparison of the architectural and sculptural achievements as revealed in magnificent edifices that must pass away and be forgotten, to the marvelous results of mental and spiritual training as revealed in character that shall live through the cycles of eternity, was especially fitting and beautiful. Would that every teacher and pupil of this county, even of this state, could have heard that address! Those who did hear it will ever remember it, and its influence will be felt long after the lips that uttered it are silent.

Prof. McCall, in his paper on "Enthusiasm in School Work," spoke eloquently and earnestly of the need of intense interest in the great and important work in which we are engaged. He showed plainly that without deep interest in the work, a teacher can accomplish nothing.

Women Who Carry Pistols.

"You would be astonished," said a manufacturer of firearms, "to learn how many New York women carry revolvers, particularly in the suburban districts. I don't know what number the records of the police department show and I don't believe it is any indication of the whole. Mrs. Mackay is the proud possessor of one of the most beautiful revolvers in the world. Its barrel is silver of a hard alloy, the chamber is silver of a purer grade and the grip is of gold, engraved handsomely. Needless to say, it was made to order for her. Mrs. Adolf. Ladenburg, since the fright her little daughter suffered, goes armed when she rides along the bridge paths around her Long Island home and she would not hesitate to use her weapon, I am sure, if any repetition of the hold-up were to occur. Half the women of the Meadowbrook hunt know how to carry a pistol and to use it, too. A well-known society woman has had a brace of revolvers made for her automobile. She carries them in holsters—one at each side of the tonneau—each ready for instant use."—New York Press.

Against Her Judgment.

"Ain't you rather young to be left in charge of a drug store?"
"Perhaps so, ma'am; what can I do for you?"

"Do your employers know it's dangerous to leave a mere boy like you in charge of such a place?"

"I am competent to serve you, madam, if you will state your wants."

"Don't they know you might poison some one?"

"There is no danger of that, madam; what can I do for you?"

"I think I had better go to the store down the street."

"I can serve you just as well as they can, and as cheaply."

"Well, you may give me a two cent stamp, but it don't look right."—Houston Post.

Weather.

Fair tonight. Heavy frost on the coast, Wednesday fair, warmer in western portion.

Odd Fellows meet tonight.

A few white dresses continue to bid defiance to the approach of winter.

Heavier clothes are not burdensome now.

At 12:30 the Teachers' Meeting was at an end, and the Woman's Betterment Association convened. A most interesting, though brief, meeting was held, after which the teachers were at liberty.

The two meetings of the Teacher's Association this year have been very interesting and helpful, and the outlook for the future is bright. If "the best is yet to be," we can indeed accomplish great things this year. Dora A. Hornaday, Reporter.

AYDEN ITEMS.

Newsy Notes From A Hustling Town.

G. W. Cox, of Greenville, was here Friday on a visit to his son, E. G. Cox.

Pete McLawhorn has gone back to Belhaven where it is said he will today take unto himself a wife.

Rev. B. E. Stanfield was in Washington part of last week.

J. J. Edwards and daughter, Miss Ida W. Edwards, have been visiting in Hookerton.

Mrs. J. B. Gardner is selling right many lots out in West Ayden.

F. H. Jordan, who has been spending sometime up north, is home again.

Misses Julia Bready, Nina Cannon, Dora Barns, Lena Hines, Ruth Hines, Mary Whitehead, Hennie Brown and Prof. McArthur attended the teachers' meeting at Greenville Saturday.

John Nobles, of Kinston, was here to see his parents Sunday.

F. G. Buhmann, who has been traveling extensively for the past ten weeks, is home for a few days.

We learn that Alfred Gardner lost his gin house by fire last Sunday morning. We could not get particulars.

VISIT OF BURGLARS.

Saturday night sometime between the hours of 12 o'clock and day, our town was visited by burglars who made a general tour and seemingly thoroughly investigated the whole shooting match. They went to the home of J. A. Davis, cut through the window next to his bed room, entered the house and made a general plunder of any and all things in sight, securing a handsome gold watch, jewelry and other property. Next they visited C. A. Fair, but from appearances were frightened away.

Then R. C. Cannon's house was entered as Mr. Davis'. Here the scoundrels took Mr. Cannon's clothes from a chair beside his bed and carried them across the hall into the parlor, where they secured a watch, some money and other articles, but the keys to the store they threw on the floor. Efforts were made by them to enter the homes of Dr. Dixon, E. S. Edwards and others.

It was a general all around take in. The lateness of the hour, the quietude of the manner of entrance, Saturday night, everyone being tired from a hard day's work, an occurrence with which our people are not at all familiar, and in such a short space of time so much accomplished, the awakening and realization Sunday morning was not only surprising, but in the extreme embarrassing.

All efforts to procure bloodhounds from Greenville, Washington, Kinston and other points proving of no avail, next morning the chivalrous yeomanry and gallant youth of this lovely town imbued with all the ardor necessary for the occasion, with Winchester's, guns double and single, pistols scythe blades, and other paraphernalia known only in deadly combat, took to the chase and o'er hill, plain and

A FALLING OFF.

Personal Items Few Today.

Capt Swift Galloway, of Snow Hill, who has been here attending court, returned home today.

E. A. C-ward returned Monday evening from Greene county.

B. W. Moseley went up the road this morning.

Mrs. J. W. Ferrall went to Robersonville this morning.

Miss Effie Grimes, of Bethel, who has been visiting Sophia Jarvis and Hennie Ragsdale, returned home Monday evening.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Some Interesting Happenings Given in Brief Form.

Two Kinston gentlemen on a recent hunting and fishing trip in Onslow county, captured a 9-foot alligator alive and took the saurian back home with them.

Five negroes were drowned near Salisbury, Saturday night, while crossing Yadkin river on their way home from a corn shucking where they had filled up on whiskey.

A 5-year-old daughter of J. W. Price, near Battleboro, was choked to death by getting a piece of raw potato which she was eating lodged in her windpipe.

The oldest inmate of the Soldiers' Home, a man named Bunn, of Wake county, died a few days ago. He was 97 years old. One other inmate is 95 years old.

Not the Right Parties.

Officer P. Haney, of Charleston, S. C., arrived Monday evening for the purpose of identifying two negroes who had been arrested here on suspicion of being parties wanted in Charleston, and for whose arrest rewards are offered. The negroes here were not the parties wanted and the officer returned without them.

dale, through field and marsh, they scented the game and manfully onward plunged in hot pursuit. But alas! their ardor cooled. Their hunt a failure they returned with their foe escaped and looking for scenes of splendor rich and spoils desired, glorying in the success of a daring deed accomplished and pockets filled with riches of another.

Jupiter's Double Moon.
 The most wonderful of all the remarkable things which nightly come within the range of the powerful modern telescopes is the double moon which continually circles around and around Jupiter, the "giant of the skies." This astronomical oddity was not known until after the great Lick telescope was put in position on Mount Hamilton, the discovery of the tiny satellite only dating back to 1891. The first hint of the presence of this "moon of a moon" was given when one of the Lick observatory men reported that one of Jupiter's satellites appeared to be casting a double shadow on the giant planet's surface. From that time forward for some weeks a sharp lookout was kept, and at last the observers were rewarded in getting a glimpse of the curiosity—a tiny dot of a moon revolving around another moon, both held in position by the great

Sale of Blooded Stock.

At are opportunity by the Farmers of this Section to get improved stock at common Stock Prices.

On Wednesday November 14th, 1906 I will offer for sale at my farm, three miles West of Greenville on the Tarboro road about 150 head of high bred hogs, about 20 young steers some of them ready broketo work, and a few choice young bullocks of the Red Pole and Polled Angus breed. I will also sell some very fine farm mules. Only reason for selling mules is I want to replace them with mares for breeding. I am ordering this sale of improved stock simply as an experiment and if the farmers will buy this stock at anything like fair prices my purpose in future is to have an annual sale of improved stock. Here is a rare opportunity to get especially fine gilts, either of the Berkshire or Poland China blood, for common stock prices and the stock will be offered for sale in such a manner that everyone rich or poor, can have the same chance to purchase. In other words you can buy one or as many more as you like. Let everyone interested in this branch of farming attend this sale.

NEGRO BRAIN SMALL

Chances of Development in the Pure Race Therefore Limited.

The negro race is now considered to be one of the oldest races in the world, evidences of its existence in prehistoric times having been discovered throughout Africa, Australia and Oceania. In historic times negroes are depicted on the monuments of Egypt thousands of years before the Anglo-Saxon had emerged from barbarism. They have been in contact continually with the highest civilizations of antiquity, but have never risen to the eminence of other nations, having retained their primitive condition, even as is now apparent in the southern states, where they are isolated in large masses.

Another significant fact is that the negro brain is smaller than the Caucasian, the difference in size being represented in both gray matter (nerve cells) and white matter (nerve fibers). * * * Brain cells are the basis of brain power or mental ability, and their number is known to remain constant throughout life, so that there seems never to be a degree of mental development beyond the possible expression of the brain cells inherited. Development of mental activity by experience, education, etc., is considered to be correlated with the development of sheaths around the nerve fibers as they become active in the transmission of impulses. The efficiency of the brain depends upon the number and position of such nerve fibers, just as the efficiency of a telephone system depends upon the number of its various connections and ramifications. The negro brain, having fewer nerve cells and nerve fibers, assuming that gray matter and white matter respectively represent these numerically, the possibilities of developing the negro are therefore limited, except by crossing with other races. This has been done to such an extent in times past that it is difficult to determine whether a pure negro really exists in America.—Robert Bennett Bean in Century.

To Wash Challis.
 For washing challis rice water is the best. Boil one pound of rice in five quarts of water. When cool put the challis in with the rice and water and wash well, using the rice much as you would soap. If no rinsing is used the rice will have a good effect on the fabric.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.
 When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail.

READING ROOM STORIES.

What She Studied In Order to Retain Her Husband's Love.

A man in charge of a department in a large reference library in Philadelphia was asked by a woman caller for a book on geology. She sat and read it all day. The next day she called for a work on botany. For four successive days she read history, astronomy, essays and photography. On the last day she returned the book and confided to the man in charge that she did not know what to read during the next week.

"What is the object of your reading?" he inquired.

"Well, it's this way," said the woman. "I wasn't well educated, and I don't play the piano or sing, and I'm a bit of a fool. Seeing sympathy in his eyes, she proceeded: "I have been afraid for some time that I was losing my husband's love. I know my conversation isn't interesting, and I thought if I could read up on some useful things my talk at the table would hold him, and he might stay in nights."

"What is your husband's business?" asked her listener.

"He has a string of horses at the race track," she said.

On another occasion the same librarian was confronted by a brisk young woman of twenty-four or twenty-five, with a very businesslike way.

"What have you on Buddhism?" she asked.

The attendant brought out several volumes on the subject.

"Oh, dear, those are too large. I have not got time to read those big books. Have not you something shorter—a small book?"

The man showed her the article on Buddhism in the encyclopedia.

"Even that is too long. I have not got time to read that. You see, I'm going over to India as a missionary, and I merely want to get the main points so I can confute their theories."—The Reader.

FISH IN ITALY.

Octopus, Sea Robin, Sea Spider and Skate Used For Food.

"The fish had a peculiar but agreeable taste," said a globe trotter. "Its flesh was a little tough and elastic. That, though, I didn't mind. I rather like it, as one likes the elastic toughness of a clam."

He was describing a dinner in Rome. He went on:

"Gorgio, I said to the waiter, 'what kind of fish is this?'"

"Fried octopus, signor," Gorgio answered calmly.

"I ate no more. Fried octopus! The idea! I'd as soon have eaten fried rattlesnake."

"I found that in Italy and in southern France the octopus makes a popular dish. And after that, taking a deep interest in the Roman fish stalls, I found on sale a number of sea things that we consider harmful and disgusting.

"The sea robin, for instance. His body is like a catfish's in shape. In color it is speckled and ugly, frog-like, brown and black. And it has a pair of brown wings. Well, this fish, which we always throw overboard, the Roman dealers get 3 cents apiece for.

"The sea spider. It looks like a great spider, and it is covered with black slime. You catch it when you go crabbing, and with a cry of disgust, you toss it overboard again—a round, black body, from which a dozen jointed, restless tentacles ray. But the sea spider is a cherished dish in Italy.

"Do you know the skate? A flat, round body, with a long, slim tail—one side of the body white, and here a grotesque parody of the human face is seen—two eyes, nose, mouth. The skate is a horror to look at, and an American would as soon eat rat; but in Italy big, pale skates are on sale at every fish stall.

"You will not believe it, but it is a fact that there are even certain types of jelly fish that the Italians eat."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Those Dear Girls.

"I am not anxious to marry," said the girl who was beginning to be not so young. "I am fully able to fight life's battles alone."

"But how do you know that when you have never had an engagement?" asked the young widow.—Detroit Tribune.

WHERE GREENVILLE RUNS BEHIND

There are trade papers that keep up with new enterprises launched throughout the South and give lists of these enterprises from week to week. North Carolina comes in for good mention along this line, her list for last week being as follows:

- Burlington—Bridge Company; furniture factory; $125,000 engineering company.
- Charlotte—$5,000 roofing company.
- Altapass—$100,000 development company.
- Rutherfordton—$250,000 lumber company.
- Fayetteville—$150,000 development company.
- Monroe—$50,000 investment company; $20,000 lumber company.
- Rosemary—$20,000 development company.
- Statesville—$50,000 investment company.
- Manteo—$5,000 canning factory.
- Mooresville—$100,000 cotton mill.

Greenville ought to appear far more frequently than she does in lists of this kind. There is opportunity here for profitable investment in various enterprises, and it is the fault of the people that these opportunities are not taken advantage of. It surely cannot be because the town does not need them, for we know of no town that needs manufacturing enterprises worse than Greenville.

Breese, the Asheville bank buster, thought he was clear of it but it is stated that the government is going to take a whack at him again, another bill of indictment having been found on the court dockets under which he can be tried. May justice have better success if he does come to another trial.

The very startling information comes from Panama that the canal hands must work 10 hours a day. We didn't know they were working at all. Just thought they were having a big picnic and drawing pay.

Next time you hear the Republicans talk about the big things they are going to do, just point them to the vote of 1906.

If Uncle Sam could get rid of the Philippines, and the Republican party could unload Butler, two elephants would be disposed of.

Some candidates seem not to have learned that the campaign is over.

We don't see any use in the Republicans worrying over how it happened. They just did not have the votes, while the other side did, and that is about all here is.

Fit of Army Shoes.

In "Recollections of a Drummer Boy," the author, Mr Keifer tells many incidents connected with the uniforms supplied by Uncle Sam to the soldiers of Camp Curtin. After describing various difficulties resulting from ill-fitting garments, he says:

"There was a very small man who had received a very large pair of shoes and had not been able to effect an exchange.

"One day the sergeant was drilling the company on the facings—right face, left face, right about face—and of course watched his men's feet closely to see that they went through the movements properly. Noticing one pair of feet down the line that never budged at the command, the sergeant rushed up to the possessor of them and in menacing tones, demanded:

"What do you mean by not facing about when I tell you? I will have you put in the guard-house."

"Why, I did, sergeant," said the trembling recruit.

"You did not sir. Didn't I watch your feet. They never moved an inch."

"Why, you see," said the poor fellow. "My shoes are so big that they don't turn when I do. I go through the motions on the inside of them."

Bargain in Printing Press.

The Reflector will sell a 6 column quarto Monona leverless, cylinder printing press, complete with steam fixtures, at a bargain. It is practically new, having been in use only about 18 months. Can be worked either by hand or power and is a good press for weekly paper, having speed of 800 per hour. It will print two 9 column pages or four 6 column pages. Reason for selling is speed is not fast enough for daily paper with circulation as large as Reflector now has. Any one interested can correspond with us.

William Richardson Suffering From Rapture of a Blood Vessel on the Brain.

Selma, N. C., Nov. 12.

Mr. William Richardson, a very prominent citizen of this place, is lying near death's door suffering from some serious malady, which suddenly attacked him only a day or two ago. The attending physicians have but little hope of his recovery. While on a business trip to Red Springs, N. C. last Saturday, and while in a barber's chair being shaved, he was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in his head, so severe as to render him unconscious for a short time, but by a few applications of bay rum by the barber he soon recovered sufficiently to go to the station and board the train for home. When he arrived here he was suffering with what he called a severe headache, but felt no uneasiness about it, so he retired and apparently went to sleep. The next morning when he was called to breakfast he was unconscious and the physicians were called in. Their diagnosis indicated rupture of a blood vessel on the brain, which it was and still is, thought will prove fatal. He is now in a semi-conscious state, but death is expected at almost any time.

The Bible class will meet tonight at the residence of B. E. Parham.

DRESS BETTER

PAY LESS

THAT is what hundreds of sensible men are doing—buying our fine Ready for Service Clothes instead of bothering with a tailor.

You get better Clothes that way; better styles and better satisfaction. Nine times in ten a better fit, too. As for the cost, you can see for yourself what a profit the wholesale tailor makes; his army of detail specialists, his big capital, his enormous buying of fabric and his system of cutting, making and finishing a thousand suits at a time, are all factors in low retail price to you.

BE WELL DRESSED

Don't make the mistake of buying the Cheap ready made clothes that are dear at any price. No one can do the impossible—give something for nothing—good Cloth and high-class fabrics cost far more than they used to.

When $15 to $20 and up will pay for one of our Splendid Suits, the few dollars you might save don't represent economy—or good sense either. Come in and let us show you how good "Ready Clothes" can be.

We have all the latest styles in Fine Clothes for men—$10 to $35— and everything desirable in Fall furnishings.

MEN OF LEISURE

There is a vast difference between them and mere idlers.

The word "leisure" comes from a Latin word which means "it is lawful," or it is permitted, or it is allowed, and, therefore, by leisure we do not mean idleness, but a space of time during which or a condition in which we are at liberty to do as we please. Hence "leisure" has come to signify the time during which we are free from the demands of profession, business or occupation, and which we can at our own pleasure devote to something other than that which is regarded as our work in life. It is taken for granted that every man should have some work in life, some duty or occupation which it falls to his lot especially to perform, whether from necessity or choice. If a man profess to have no such demand upon his energy and time or if he ignore the fact that he ought to have his work in life, it is the fashion to call him "a man of leisure," which, in this sense, is one of the most ignoble epithets which can be applied to any human being.

On the other hand, we often see persons doing their legitimate work in such a self contained and deliberate way that we speak of them as working leisurely. There cannot be greater praise. They have such command over their work that they really take their own time about it, and the consequence is that the work is well done. Contrast them with persons who work excitedly and nervously, who cannot brook the slightest interruption and who regard with impatience everything which does not immediately fall in with the task in hand. The former ought to be called the "men of leisure" and the fashionable name for the do-nothings changed into idlers. We wish to emphasize the fact that leisure has something to do with law and rule. It implies a right to command ourselves and is the very opposite of that tyrant which does more to ruin life than any other—hurry. Every man ought to aim at doing his daily duty in a "leisurely" fashion.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Servant Problem Solved.

"I have solved the servant problem," said the woman with the compressed lips and the determined eyes.

"You have?" asked the other person.

"I have. When things get to such a pass that the hired girls want three days out in the week, want the use of the parlor every other night and Sunday afternoon, want me to play soft love songs while they are entertaining their beaux in the kitchen on other evenings, insist on the privilege of dictating what groceries and meats I shall buy, claim the right to wear my clothes and bonnets, dictate whether or no I shall keep a dog or a child, succeed in having my house decorated and furnished to accord with their tastes, and—well, when things are as they are I am just"—

"Not going to keep servants any longer?"

"Better than that. I am going to hire out as a servant and enjoy life."—Judge.

Hanging Dress Skirts.

To keep dress skirts from wrinkles, if there are no patent hangers convenient, a simple one should be fastened to the center front, then the doubled skirt folded in thirds and a large safety pin thrust through the folds. The safety pin, when fastened, is used as a hanger, and in this way the skirt hangs straight, with no strain on any part of the waistband.

Unhappy Lot of American Composers.

The musician in America is doubly handicapped. He can hear relatively but little music, and he can have his own work produced not at all. We always have a German sitting upon the safety valve, lest American steam should sizzle out and the imprisoned genius, when once let loose, prove as difficult to manage as the fabled one of the brass bottle in the "Arabian Nights." I say this without disrespect to the admirably qualified foreigners who direct our orchestras, most of our theaters and the majority of our music.—Etude

Her Turn First.

A teacher in one of the country schools, says Lippincott's, had a class of young children in mathematics before her. The examples were in addition, and she propounded this question: "Now, children, if I lay four eggs on the desk and Sam," pointing to a freckle faced boy at the head of the class, "should lay three, how many would there be?"

The bad boy, who was at the foot of the class, had been listening intently and shouted out: "Go on, Sam, take her up. She can't do it."

THE SONS OF LIBERTY.

Norfolk's Early Protest Against King George's Tyranny.

But few of the most diligent students of American history know that Norfolk patriots denied the right of Great Britain to tax the colonies without representation over two months before the promulgation of the celebrated Mecklenburg declaration of independence and nearly five months before representatives of the thirteen colonies met at Philadelphia and formally renounced the authority of Great Britain.

Yet as far back as March 13, 1776, a number of Norfolk citizens assembled under the name of "Sons of Liberty" and announced in resolutions of bold and certain terms their determined opposition to any encroachments of British authority on their rights to govern themselves under the British crown.

These Norfolk people did not declare their independence. They expressly affirmed their wish to be subjects of King George III. They merely declared that there should be no taxation without representation. Among the many prominent Norfolk names attached to the document are Henry Tucker, Robert Tucker, Robert Tucker, Jr.; Maximilian Calvert, Thomas Butt, Thomas Willoughby, John Taylor, Jr.; Joseph Hutchings, Jr., and James Parker.

The resolutions adopted read as follows:

Having taken into consideration the evident tendency of that oppressive and unconstitutional act of parliament commonly called the stamp act and being desirous that our sentiments should be known to posterity, and recollecting that we are a part of the colony which first in general manner expressed its detestation of the said act, which is pregnant with ruin and productive of the most pernicious consequences, and unwilling to live the shades of slavery and oppression on ourselves and millions yet unborn, we have unanimously come to the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we acknowledge our Lord and sovereign, King George III, to be our rightful and lawful King, and that we will at all times to the utmost of our power and ability support and defend his most sacred person, crown and dignity and shall always be ready when constitutionally called upon to assist his majesty with our lives and fortunes and to defend his just rights and prerogatives.

Resolved, That we will by all lawful ways and means which Divine Providence has put into our hands defend ourselves in the full enjoyment of, and preserve inviolate to posterity, those inestimable privileges of all free born British subjects of being taxed only by representatives of their own choosing and of being tried by none but a jury of their peers. And that if we quietly submit to the execution of the said stamp act all our claims to civil liberty will be lost and we and our subjects in America are deprived of the invaluable privileges aforementioned.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed who shall in such manner as they think proper go upon necessary business and make public the above resolutions and that they correspond as they shall see occasion with the Associated Sons of and Friends to Liberty in the other British colonies in America.

As a result of the adoption of these resolutions Lord Dunmore, who commanded the British fleet off Norfolk, made a demonstration before the city, and several shots were fired from the frigate Liverpool. Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Honest Office Boy.

A Baltimore lawyer had engaged a new office boy, and to test the boy's honesty he put a twenty dollar note under the inkstand on his desk, letting the end protrude, when he went out to lunch. On his return a couple of hours later the note was gone. A silver quarter occupied its place.

Pale with rage and horror, the lawyer called the new boy to him.

"Look here," he shouted, "when I went out I left $20 under this inkstand. Now there's only a quarter there. How do you explain it?"

The boy smiled brightly. "Why, sir," he said, "just after you left a gentleman called with a wine and cigar bill that he knew you were dying to pay because it had been standing for four years, so I settled it with the twenty dollar note under the inkstand. It was $19.75. Here's the receipt, sir."

There is a railway map of the Lancaster and Yorkshire railway station painted on the tiled entrance of the Victoria station in London. The painter whose work it was had an experience with local pride. While at work he was accosted thus: "Dest come from Rochdale?" "No, why?" "Well, tha's painted Rochdale bigger nor Owdham. Dostna thaw Owdham's bigger nor Rochdale and Royten both put together? Tha'll get punched if some chaps as Ah know the Owdham cops thee doin' it."

THE REASON WHY

It is only by reason of the maker's intimate, thorough knowledge of women's tastes and the requirements of her feet that "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes have achieved their marvelous success. First, they satisfy the eye and lend distinction to the foot. Secondly, they fit women's feet as only "Dorothy Dodd's" can fit. Thirdly, their large sale permits them to be sold at a moderate price. This store secured and controls the sale of these splendid shoes, because it believes them to offer the wearer more real value and satisfaction than any others possible to procure. New styles now ready. Glad to show even though you do not care to buy.
